

Message of July 13, 1994, from Our Lady (After Prayer Group Message)

Ruth Ann: Mother, thank You for the message this morning. It was, and is, beautiful.

Our Lady: It should be more than that. It is words that should be taken to the heart. Some will read the message and say, "That is a powerful message," and that will be the end until the next message. All that I am saying to you, My children, are words that must be taken to your heart and applied to your everyday life. Live the messages. This I have said over and over, and still those who do not take what I am saying seriously, have not learned the importance of what I am saying.

Not only are My messages words that should be taken to heart and lived, but these are urgent times. This is something that must be done now. I say this, and still there will be those who say, "We've heard that before. If it were very urgent, something would be happening to let us know how urgent these messages are." Children, look around you. Look at all the disasters, the cruelty, the hatred, the love of all that is evil, and the lack of God, and the lack of love in your world. The signs are everywhere that now is the time to turn to God. Now is the time to get your spiritual lives in order.

I love you, little children, I am your Mother. Please listen. Please be attentive to the signs. I know not the day or the hour, but God knows. He would not be allowing you such graces and blessings through the Mother of His Son, if He was not concerned for your souls. I am here for you, and will be here as long as I am allowed to do so. I continue to pray with you and for you. I continue to bless you with graces and special miracles, in order to draw you closer and closer to My Son.

I am not here for Me. I am here for you. I am here to help you get on the right path, and keep you there. If you truly listen, and live the messages being given to you, you have a blueprint for eternal salvation put before you. You need only listen, and be obedient to the will of God. This should not be so difficult, but it has become so, because so many of you have become so worldly that you are finding it difficult to pray, make sacrifices, and do penance. You are a land of plenty, and take everything you have for granted. God has blessed you abundantly because you have shared and helped those who have less than you. You have been your brothers keeper, as God would have you do.

You are concerning yourself less and less with the care and love of your neighbor, and you are becoming more and more accepting of the evils that have become a part of the world. You are becoming a nation caught up in the wants and needs of yourself. You no longer truly care about life, love, or the pursuit of true happiness. Peace, children, peace is being lost in your world. Man, through his selfishness, has opened doors to the evil one that had been shut off in years past. My heart aches for you, for you know not what you are bringing upon your-selves. Please, dear children, care for one another. Be at peace with one another. Stop the bloodshed, the murdering, the cruelty to one another. I love you, and wish to guide you from the destruction that awaits those who choose to ignore God and His laws. I am your Mother. Please listen to Me.

Ruth Ann: Mother, You seem really upset.

Our Lady: Child, I continue to warn, I continue to ask for prayer. There are signs being given everywhere, and yet My children are not taking heed. Those of you who are listening must pray even harder, and make more sacrifices. There is not much time, and still, there are many in need of conversions. It is being left to those of you who are willing to help Me. Much prayer is needed. I need your help.

Ruth Ann: Yes, Mother. Those who will be reading this will be reminded.

Our Lady: Thank you, child, for listening and being obedient.

Ruth Ann: Thank You, Mother, for speaking with me. I love You.

Message of Sept. 14, 1994 from Our Lady
(After Prayer Group Message)

Ruth Ann: Mother, would You please share words with Your children concerning this week's message?

Our Lady: Child, the messages for the most part are no longer listened to. That is why, eventually, they too, will cease. These messages are much like the messages given to you for the world. How many of those who have read them, have taken them to heart? How many of My children have begun saying the rosary daily, as a result? How many have returned to church and the Sacraments? How many receive the Body of My Jesus as frequently as possible? I could go on and on. How many have chosen to fast one day a week? Not many have taken the messages, given to them from Heaven, very seriously.

A blueprint for salvation has been put before each of My children for their salvation, and they choose to ignore. What happens when you, as a parent, reprimand your children for doing wrong, and the child continues to do the same thing over and over?

Ruth Ann: As a parent, I would have to try something different.

Our Lady: This is what God is doing, child. He is going to remove the messages, and try something more drastic, to get the attention of His children. God has a plan. His plan is perfect. There is to be great suffering come to your country as a result of the complacency of God's children to the evil going on around them. The way in which the messages have been ignored, has caused much pain to Me as your Mother. My children need to be awakened from their sleep. To do so will take drastic measures.

Many of you understand the reason for the messages, and the reason for My being among you. Many do not. These messages are a warning of things that are to come, because My children have not taken My words seriously.

Be patient, be at peace, child. You have done everything I have asked of you. You have listened to My Son and to Me. You have done the will of God. Many will come, seeking the peace and graces they have chosen to ignore, on this holy ground. Child, know God has an even greater plan in store for you. You have been faithful in all God has entrusted to you. Now you will do even greater things for Him. Be at peace with all I am saying. I am your Mother.

Ruth Ann: Mother, I am at peace. I just wish You could be more clear in what You are saying.

Our Lady: Child, you will be told all you need to know, when God so chooses. Bless you child, for continuing to be an instrument of love and peace for your God and His children. Continue on in faith and trust. God has His hands upon you. Be at peace.

Message of August 10, 1994, from Our Lord Jesus

Ruth Ann: Lord, Your Mother spoke quite seriously this morning after Her Wednesday message.

Jesus: As any good Mother, She is disappointed that so few are taking heed of the messages being brought to them all over the world. Some continuously seek to hear Her words and new messages, hoping to find a specific time for the end of the old and the return of that which is holy, the reign of their Redeemer. Many realize the world cannot continue as it is. Now there are those who are seeking times and dates for My return. Man knows neither the day nor the hour, but man is beginning to realize that there must be a change soon.

Yes, I am to return. But not until the time appointed by My Father, and then peace will reign for a thousand years. But there are changes to be made in the minds and hearts of man before I can return. My Mother continues to work at trying to bring these changes about. She is working with a selfish, self-centered generation of people. So few are taking heed of the messages being given. So many choose to get caught up in the messengers. This saddens My heart, and the heart of My Mother.

Those being chosen to share the words are of the very least. They are humble of heart, and in most cases would not choose to do this extremely important task. But through prayer and the grace of God, they will continue to persevere and share, no matter how difficult it may be. It is the message that these humble servants bring that man must look to, pray, sacrifice, and change your hearts. Return to God, and turn your back on all that is not of God. In a world where materialism and money mean success, man is finding it more and more difficult to live in a God-like manner. That is what you are called to do. I, your Jesus, am to be the example. You are to follow the path that leads to eternal life, or you can turn your back on God and choose to spend eternity in the fires of damnation. You are to choose. Satan has taken over your world, and he has done so in such a subtle way, many do not realize it has even been done.

Technology has brought filth into your homes destroying the family, morality, and hope itself. It is time for man to realize that God will not stand by and watch for very much longer. His world is being destroyed by man, who has allowed the evil one to take control. There will come a time for the renewal of the face of the earth, but in this renewal, the old must be destroyed. It is time for man to take seriously the messages being brought to the earth by My Mother and by Me.

Listen, children! Listen to My Mother and change your minds and hearts. Seek all that is holy.

Ruth Ann: Lord, You seem to be upset with us today.

Jesus: I can not reiterate enough, that time is of the utmost importance. Man must change his heart and turn back to God. The time is now! Share what I am saying to you with My children.

Ruth Ann: It is done, Lord.

Jesus: Now, child, do you have a little idea of the importance of your task in the world where so few listen?

Ruth Ann: Yes Lord, I think so.

Jesus: Your gift is a true blessing for those around you. It is through you and others like you, who are listening, that lives will be changed. Many will be brought out of a life of darkness and despair, into a light that will bring peace and hope. Do not take your gift lightly, little one, it is needed badly in this world corrupted by the evil one and all his noise, filth, and distractions. Be at peace with your gift, and all it can do to bring hope to so many. Continue to listen and pray for those seeking prayer. Continue to share with those needing to hear of the greatness of God's mercy, and the miracles He has performed and wishes to perform in the lives of His children.

Ruth Ann: Yes, Lord.

Jesus: Go in My peace to love and serve God to the best of your ability, My little one.

Ruth Ann: Please be with me, Lord.

Message of August 31, 1994, from Our Lady

Ruth Ann: Thank You, Mother for this message, and thank You for all You do to try to draw us back to Your Son.

Our Lady: Child, many still continue to turn their backs on God. Many continue to ignore the signs. No one wants to accept the fact that the end times are upon them. The Second Coming of My Son is nearer than any of My children wish to accept. Instead of saying 'I must get my life in order because time is running out', My children seek to find ways to satisfy their hunger for material things. The hunger they continue to try to satisfy, can never be satisfied because it is not of God. Their soul is hungry and the needs they continue to try to satisfy, draw them further away from God. The very thing they seek cannot be found, because it cannot be bought.

Man continues to think money is the answer to all his problems. Money cannot, and never will, buy happiness. Be satisfied with what God has given you, little children. Share His gifts with one another. Do not be consumed by those things of the world. They do not last. Be consumed by the love of God. Place your love and trust in Him. He will tend to your needs.

So much has been said over and over, concerning the importance of saving your immortal souls, and yet My children seem to think this is not important. Do you not realize that all My efforts to bring forth the coming of My Son will have been in vain if you do not listen. You must apply what I am saying in My messages, to your daily lives. Listen, and live the messages being sent to you by a God Who loves you and wishes to save you from the torment of eternal damnation. The disasters and the hardships will continue, as man continues on his merry way, ignoring what God is trying to tell him. So much pain and suffering could have been avoided, had you listened to the messages revealed to you at Fatima.

Because you continue to ignore these messages, and seek satisfaction of your earthly desires, many innocent will suffer. God loves you, and because of this love, you will have much to suffer for your wrongdoing. As a good parent tries to discipline his children in order to bring them up as a responsible adult, so too, does God wish to do the same. He is trying to tell you, you must turn away from all those unholy desires that keep you from achieving your eternal reward. Seek and strive for holiness. Stay focused on God's gift of holiness and peace, which is His only begotten Son.

As the world and all it's contents continue to crumble around you, you must stay focused on My Son. Your faith and trust in God will be tested, little children, but I am here for you to help keep you drawn to the light. Darkness is upon the land. The evil one has brought confusion, unholy desires, and destruction through anger, fear, and hatred. God must find a way to draw you back to Him. He has tried through messages, apparitions, and miracles of all kinds. Many still continue to ignore the signs and wonders given to him, to draw him away from the world and back to God. Now, through natural disasters, He wishes to draw attention to the fact He is serious about the salvation of your soul.

Be aware, little children, God loves you as any good parent loves his child. Therefore, little children, be prepared for those things that must come as a result of your lack of obedience to His laws. I am here for you, and will continue to be here for you so long as God allows this to be so. Be not afraid. Stay focused on My Son. Continue to pray for the conversion of a corrupt world. In the end, My Immaculate Heart will triumph. But you must be aware, through your lack of obedience and sinfulness, much suffering is to come.

Please listen to what I am saying. Pray, dear children, and know your Mother is here with you in prayer. Go in the peace of Christ, and seek to please God in all you do.

Ruth Ann: This message seems rather strong, Mother. Some will be upset by it.

Our Lady: Those who seek peace and stay focused on My Son, know in their hearts, the only thing of real importance in life is the salvation of their soul. Be at peace and stay focused on My Son.

Ruth Ann: Yes, Mother. Thank You.

Message of Nov. 20, 1994, from Our Lady

(After Prayer Group Message)

Ruth Ann: Mother, the message was quite lengthy. You have said the messages are to end. I was expecting a short message to begin preparing us for the removal of the messages.

Our Lady: These things needed to be said, child. Many who will be here today, and those who will read these words later, will realize the seriousness which I intend to convey in this message, and the messages that are forthcoming. The time will come when My children will no longer have these words put before them. They will be at a loss, for many have lived for the messages, and not lived the messages. It is time for them to begin living the words that have been spoken to them from Heaven. If My children would only take to heart the words being spoken, they would not be in torment. They would be at peace with their lives, and at peace with one another.

Man chose to ignore the words of My Son two thousand years ago, and man still continues to ignore these same words today. Man has chosen through his free will, the wrong choice. He chooses the way of the world, and finds himself farther and farther away from God. In choosing to follow the wrong path, he finds himself bogged down in the muck and mire of sin.

Choose for God, little children. He can draw you out of this muck, mire, and darkness, and into the light. Then you will have peace in your hearts. With peace in your hearts, there can be peace in your world. This peace can only come from God, little children. Choose to do the will of the One Who created you. He wants only good things for you. Be at peace with what I am saying to you. Be at peace with one another.

Ruth Ann: Thank You, Mother, for these words.

Message of January 31, 1994, from Our Lord Jesus

Ruth Ann: Is there anything else You wish to speak with me about today, Lord?

Jesus: Yes. Too many of you are getting caught up in the negative aspect of My Second Coming. Yes, it is true that I am to come, and you are to prepare, but so many are becoming afraid. Children, you must focus on the positive. First of all, any one of you could die tomorrow. Should you not live each day as if it is your last? You know neither the day nor the hour of My Second Coming, so does it not make sense that you would prepare your minds, hearts, and souls as if it were to be tomorrow? Then, children, there would be no reason for fear. Fear is not of Me. Neither are distractions or confusion. Anger is not of Me. I am peace. Little one, once you see your peace being disturbed in any way, you can be sure that the evil one is becoming involved. Bind and rebuke him in the name of Jesus. Do not allow him to get a foothold.

You have remarked that the messages given to you by My Mother have become very strong or powerful. She has tried to get the attention of My children with messages not quite so powerful, and then there are those who seem to think things are not as they appear, and then do not take to heart what is being said. Now that the messages seem to have an urgency about them, there are those who wish to panic. That is not the reason for the messages, little one. The reason for the messages is to call all of God's children to prayer and conversion. If you will listen and live the messages that are God's word, there should be no fear or lack of peace.

God is pleased with those gathering for prayer, as is My Mother. He is please you are continuing to share the words being spoken to you, and the blessings given to you. Little one, as you continue to listen and do all God is asking you to do, graces and blessings will be yours in abundance. They will be available also for those whose lives you touch.

Share all you concerns with your priest. That is what he is there for. He is there to help you discern all those things going on in your life that you are not sure of. That is the purpose of a spiritual director.

Now, child, your peace should be restored, is it not?

Ruth Ann: Yes Lord, it is. It was just for a little while that my peace was disturbed.

Jesus: That will not change, little one, you will continue to be attacked. That is part of your cross. The evil one will continue to attack those who try to do the will of God. You must continue to be aware of this and not let it get to you. Pray, little one, and come to Me. Do not allow your peace to be disturbed. Focus on your Jesus, the prince of peace.

That should always be your focus. Do not focus on darkness. Focus on light, love, and peace of your Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ. Now, My love and peace I give to you this day, and I ask that you pass it along to all who will read this message.

Ruth Ann: It is done, Lord.

Message of January 26, 1994, from Our Lady to Prayer Groups

My Dear Children,

Please be attentive to the words being spoken to you in My messages. Many of you have become complacent and seek to hear new words. Understand the importance of what is being said to you. Realize the urgency of My words. You are living in the 'end times', little children, and many don't even recognize the signs. I am your Mother, but as all mothers, I cannot change your heart. This is up to you. You must pray, fast and do penance. Ask the Holy Spirit to enlighten you as to the importance of My messages. These are not just words. The power of hell has been unleashed upon your earth with the fury of a woman scorned. Do not take these words lightly. Pray, dear children, pray!

Message of January 27, 1995, from Our Lord Jesus

Ruth Ann: Lord, I am listening.

Jesus: Little one, you seem to be concerned that you have acted too soon, and shared the message that was given to you from My Mother as the last message. Be not afraid, little one, you have been prepared for this. If you hadn't been told this, with no preparation, then you would have reason for concern. It is now time for My children to ponder the messages that have been given over the past few years.

Remember that the purpose for My Mother being sent to the earth, to minister to so many, through so many, was and is, to point their way back to Me. You are not to be concerned about tomorrow, and what it will bring. Your Mother is still available to you. It has not changed much in your life. It is just that the messages that you were sharing, have ceased. The messages are words that have been said over and over. How many ways can one say to God's children, that it is time for you to have a true conversion, and accept responsibility for your sins, and repent? How many times must one be told you must pray from the heart, and take the messages seriously, that time is running out?

Now the messages are no longer available, just as She told you many times before withdrawing them. My children must take to heart what has been told to them. They will not have new messages forthcoming. These are all words spoken by My Mother, and they are words that must be taken seriously. You are to be at peace, little one. She has said to you a long time ago, that there would come a time that She would step back. She has brought you to Me, and has helped establish this farm as a haven of peace and prayer. All of these things have been done for a reason. Graces are still to be had here, from the One Who is dispensing graces in great abundance.

Why do you suppose She has asked for you to begin witnessing weekly, here at the farm, instead of going out from here, to speak? It was, and is, to draw Her children here, to receive the graces She has to give.

Ruth Ann: What of those who cannot come here, and yet would like to?

Jesus: God knows the hearts of His children, little one. He will provide the graces they need, in other ways.

Ruth Ann: Thank You for addressing that question, Lord. I have had people say that they would like to come, but are unable to do so.

Jesus: Child, this place is holy ground. It has been told to you early, at the outset of this prayer group. It is a special place where all of My children can gather to pray. It does not matter their faith. The prayer, and sincerity of heart, is all that matters.

You become concerned that all is coming to an end, because the words from My Mother will no longer be given to My children. Those who have been touched, and called to prayer, will continue to come, child. That is because it has been placed upon their heart to do so. Much prayer is needed to get through the trying times ahead. The disasters will continue, as an angry and just God tries to get the attention of His children. Much could have been avoided, had God's children listened to My Mother, and done all that She has called them to do.

But now, more drastic measures must be taken, to get the attention of those who refuse to take the signs and wonders, provided by God, to their heart. The evil one continues to try to distract My children through the media. Murder and violence continues to be brought into the homes, and it is being done so subtly, that My children do not even realize they are being conditioned to accept sin in all forms. To some, television has become a God. It is the central focus in their homes, and all things revolve around it, and the evil found there.

Man has turned away from prayer, and God. My Mother has tried, and continues to try, to draw others back to what should be the central focus of their lives. It is time for My children to focus on the reason for their existence, to attain eternal salvation. For many, the reaching of this goal is going to be a very difficult task. For those of you who have listened, your conversions have begun. Be not afraid, your Jesus is here for you. Stay focused on Me, and I will tend to all things. Faith and trust, little children. Faith and trust must be there, in order for you to stay focused on your Jesus. Do not become complacent. Be vigilant.

Now, little one, are you feeling more at peace?

Ruth Ann: Yes, Lord. Thank You for taking the time to speak with me.

Jesus: Thank you, for listening.
