

Message of March 28, 1994, from Our Lord Jesus

Jesus: My Mother is calling Her children together to fight against the evil one. The rosary is to be among the greatest of all prayers to pull the evil one down. Remember, My Mother has said, "My Immaculate Heart will triumph." Through those of you who have heard Her words, 'pray, pray, pray', and are taking them seriously, the evil one will be destroyed. The numbers who come to the haven of peace and prayer will continue to grow, little one, because that is the desire of My heart and that of My Mother. She has chosen this special place for Her children of the rosary to gather. She has blessed it, as have I.

Many graces and blessings continue to flow from Her to Her children who come here in faith to pray. Many graces will be given through you as you pray for those who desire prayer. Be not afraid, little one, God knows what He is doing. You need not be concerned. You need only be obedient. Pray with My children. Share My words through the messages and your God will do the hard part. I will do the healings that are needed.

Each of My chosen ones has a special ministry. Each one of you has been called to do something that was asked of you for My children. But each call has been different. Continue to listen and be obedient. As you grow, other things will be expected of you, but not until the time is right. As you are prepared, each task becomes greater. But this is so of all things. As a child begins to walk, he then learns to run and jump and do other things. So too, do My little ones progress in the same way spiritually. I do the molding, but it is all in My time.

Some of My children place their God on a time line. I am God, I can do all things. But those things that I do are in My time and My way. Sometimes I am speaking to My children and guiding them, and they refuse to listen or be guided. In some cases, they wish to do their will and not Mine. In cases such as these, it is their problem. In some cases they must wait and be patient for all things to fall into place before their prayers can be answered. They should be praying, 'Thy will be done', and asking for the wisdom to know My will so they can do it with love and obedience. My children must learn to put all in My hands so I can work in their lives for the greater honor and glory of God.

Patience is something that the children of this world have very little of in this age. Continue to pray for these little children, but do not feel that you have failed them if their prayers are not answered in the way they wish, or in the time span they give for an answer. All My children receive whatever they need. Since I know what is best for My children, they come away healed in the way I have chosen. Each child is different and each need is different. You are only an instrument, child. You are only to be obedient and to offer to pray. You are My hands and feet, little one. Tend to My little ones who are in need of much.

Ruth Ann: I am trying, Lord.

Jesus: Yes, child. This is apparent because the numbers are growing. This is the result of those things done for the greater honor and glory of God. 'You will know them by their fruits'. These are not just words little one, these are truths. Your work will continue to grow and change as you grow in Me.

Ruth Ann: What do You mean by change, Lord?

Jesus: Your cross will become heavier and heavier as time goes on. As you grow in Me, you will be strengthened to carry that cross. You will be given the graces and strength to do all that is ahead, little one. You are not to be concerned about the future. You are in God's hands. He can and will, continue to tend to your needs.

Ruth Ann: I'm not really concerned about that, Lord. I just thought You were going to tell me something more specific, so I wanted to be sure I was listening if You had something You wished to tell me.

Jesus: At the present time, you are being told those things that you need to hear. You are being told only those things that are relevant to what you must do at this time. Be attentive and be obedient. I will tend to the rest.

Now, you have much to do today. It will go smoothly for you have put Me first. I bless you. Go in My peace.

Ruth Ann: Thank You, Lord, for all You do for me and those who come here to pray.

Jesus: My Mother is pouring out graces in abundance in this special place of prayer. My children need only to ask. Make this known.

Ruth Ann: Lord, it is written. It will be shared.

Message of April 14, 1994, from Our Lord Jesus

Ruth Ann: Lord, what do You wish to tell me?

Jesus: Little one, you are in turmoil. You are allowing your peace to be disturbed. Relax, little one, take a deep breath, and put all earthly concerns aside. Close your eyes, focus on My name, Jesus. Repeat it over and over until you feel the peace you need and I desire for you, at this moment.

Ruth Ann: Amazing, Lord. Thank You.

Jesus: This is something anyone can do at any time, little one. That is what I have been telling My children over and over. You need only take a few moments to focus on Me. It is important not to lose one's peace. The evil one loves confusion and turmoil. That gives him a foothold to cause small fears, doubts, and hurts to become huge ones. It allows for temptations that are very subtle to enter your subconscious mind and cause confusion and anger. Come to Me. I am peace.

Ruth Ann: Lord, I know what You are saying, but when I have so many things on my mind, and seem pulled in all directions, it is difficult to remember. I am at peace, and it is as though none of those things that were bothering me are that important any more.

Jesus: They never were, child. Man must learn to prioritize his life, if need be, on a daily basis. I am to come first, and then all other things will fall into place.

Ruth Ann: I have a prayer routine, Lord. When it gets disturbed, I become frustrated.

Jesus: Frustration is not of Me, little one. The two cannot go together. If your prayer routine is interrupted, as you say, so be it. Hopefully, you can get to it later. If not, then as soon as you are able. I know what you are referring to, little one. You spent a great deal of time with My people yesterday. That is prayer, little one. You have asked Me, "What do You want of me, Lord?" I have told you, "Minister to My people." This you have done. I would have preferred you do that, than prayed many prayers, or even listened to Me and recorded. My children are hurting, little one. Minister to them. Give them the strength and courage to go on in a world that is difficult to live in. Evil is everywhere. My children need to hear someone who is willing to say, "God is alive. He is working miracles. He has worked miracles in my life, and He will do the same for you. You need only ask and have the faith to believe. God will take care of all the rest."

Ruth Ann: Lord, You are right. There is much evil, but there is also much suffering. There are times when I just sit and cry for all those people who come seeking healings, especially those seeking physical healings from diseases that are considered incurable, Lord. I want them all healed. It pains me a great deal, Lord.

Jesus: Little one, God hears you. He also sees your tears. Do you not know that My heart aches for My children as does the heart of My Mother? All prayers are heard, little one, and all are answered. Remember, you are only an instrument and can do nothing except those things that God wishes for you to do. You pray for His children. The healings that God wishes them to have will be provided. Sometimes it will be a physical healing, sometimes a spiritual healing, or a mental healing. Know that God touches all those whom you touch in some way. It is not your will be done, but 'God's will be done'.

Ruth Ann: I guess I need continuous reminders, Lord, because I'm put in situations that are heartbreaking. I want all things for everyone

Jesus: That is why you have been chosen, little one. You have taken all of My children to your heart. Even those who persecute you find their way into your prayers.

Ruth Ann: Only because I figured they must be hurting in some way to want to make me and my family feel badly. I've been accused of being of Satan, and I know that can't be. Satan would not want people praying, and he would not be wanting people to return to their churches and confession and the other sacraments. So obviously, those who say those things need prayer. You say to me, "Love your enemies, and those who would do you harm."

Jesus: That is exactly what I say, little one. Thank you for listening and taking all My words to your heart.

Ruth Ann: It's no big deal, Lord. That's what we're all supposed to do, forgive and love each other. Sometimes it's more difficult to do, but it has to be done if we want to follow Your example. I don't always succeed right away, so I'm not all that good, Lord.

Jesus: You continue to try, little one, that is all I ask of you. That in itself is a blessing to Me.

Ruth Ann: You are being too kind, Lord. You know all my faults and those things that irritate me along the way.

Jesus: Yes child, I do, and I love you still.

Ruth Ann: Now You are teasing me.

Jesus: Yes, child, I am, because you do not wish credit for the good things you do for Me. You wish to focus on your faults. I wish to focus on your heart, and the love you have for Me, My Mother, and My children.

Ruth Ann: Let's change the subject, Lord.

Jesus: As you wish, little one.

Ruth Ann: There were many here yesterday to work and to improve the grounds for prayer. Thank You and Your Mother for sending these very special people into our lives. These things could never happen without Your help, and the help of Your Mother. I know that to be true.

Jesus: We will continue to touch the hearts of all those who are to be a part of your ministry and this farm in any way.

Ruth Ann: Thank You, Lord. My husband and I mean this from the bottom of our hearts. The miracles are wonderful, Lord.

Jesus: They will not cease, child. I have much for you to do. You will need many, many helping hands along the way.

Ruth Ann: I love You, Lord.

Jesus: I love you, child. Go in My peace.

Message of May 12, 1993, from Our Lady to Prayer Group

My Dear Children,

I am again coming to you to encourage you to pray. Look to My Son for answers He is the way, the truth and the light. All things come from Him who waits to be asked. Children, ask and you shall receive, know this in your hearts. Many of you are growing impatient with God because He is not answering your prayers in the way you wish, or He is not giving you the answers quick enough that you so desire. Know dear children, every prayer is heard and answered in God's time and in His way. Do not be discouraged, your prayers and all those of others

Message of April 21, 1993, from Our Lady to Prayer Groups

My Dear Children,

Be not afraid! Your Mother is here to guide and help you through the trying times ahead. God loves you. This is important for you to remember. It is also important to know that God hears each of your prayers and each prayer is answered. So many believe because their prayers are not answered right away that God is not listening. God hears every prayer and in His time, in His way, they are answered. There is so much love in My heart for you dear children, that it bursts forth like a beautiful flower that opens on a warm sunny day. I bless you and thank you for praying too, for all those in need. My protective mantle surrounds you and your loved ones. Go in God's peace.

Message of July 14, 1993, from Our Lady to Prayer Group

My Dear Children,

Again I am calling you to prayer. There is so much work to be done by those who are aware and have realized the importance of my messages. I thank you for listening and responding to My call for help.

Dear children, I love each one of you very much. Know that each prayer that you pray is being heard. I, your Mother, am taking each petition and placing them in the hands of My Son. You cannot ask for more than this. If you only knew the care God takes to see that all of your prayers are answered, you would never say, "I don't think God is listening to my prayers." He listens, dear children. He listens and answers your prayers in whatever way is best for you. Go in My Son's peace to love and serve Him.

Message of August 25, 1993, from Our Lady to Prayer Group

My Dear Children,

God in His infinite wisdom and mercy is watching over you. He knows all your wants, needs, and desires. Do not become discouraged if your prayers are not answered immediately. God hears each and every prayer, and each one is answered. It will be done so in His time. It is important that you know this and hold it in your heart. God's plan is perfect. He answers all prayers in His way, and in His time. You cannot comprehend the goodness of God because you think in human terms. You want your prayers answered now and in your way. Know that God has the best interests of His children at heart. He will tend to your every need. Pray, dear children, pray. God will do the rest. Go in the peace of My Son, Jesus. My blessing I give to you and your dear ones.

Message of March 24, 1994, from Our Lord Jesus

Ruth Ann: Lord, I am here to listen.

Jesus: You have just prayed with a young child, and you feel responsible for whether he is healed or not. Remember, child, you do the praying, I do the healing. I choose what is needed for My children at that particular time. Not only for the one being prayed for, but for those around the one accepting prayer. You are not to concern yourself with the why's and wherefore's. You are to be obedient to the will of God. You have given much peace to the family, and to the child, for having done this. Be at peace little one. Know that I am God and am responsible for all My children. You are only an instrument. Some of those you pray for and with will be healed physically. Others will be given other healings. It is all according to the will of God.

Ruth Ann: Lord, I guess I'm just not in the mood to listen. I am so sad. It brings back too many other sad memories of others who have come seeking physical healings and some have not received them.

Jesus: You choose to think that the most important healing is physical. That is where you and I differ.

Ruth Ann: No, Lord, that's not really so.

Jesus: Then why do you become so sad when someone you have sought a physical healing for does not receive it?

Ruth Ann: Well, maybe I do then, I don't know. I do know in my heart that the most important thing is the salvation of our souls. But when the person is young, or a parent with young children, I really have a difficult time with wishing only for a spiritual healing, or just a gift of peace. Why can't You do both? That would make all of us happy.

Jesus: Little one, little one. You do not understand the ways of God. All things happen for a reason. God has a perfect plan. Your plan is not God's. Child, you will be praying with many who are seriously ill, and some will live to witness to others and some will not. But God will give them whatever they need to sustain them through their trials. You must learn to pray and let go. Let God do His work through you in whatever way He chooses. That is doing His will.

Ruth Ann: I know that, Lord. But that doesn't help when I have just been with friends and family of one who desires a physical healing desperately.

Jesus: It is very painful for you, little one, I know. But this is all part of God's plan for you. You pray, and let Him do the difficult part. Remember, 'Thy will be done'.

Ruth Ann: That really isn't helping, Lord.

Jesus: Does this help? You have given that family peace because you have taken the time you did not have to go pray with them. That was a special gift you gave to them. The unselfish gift of self. They were touched by your concern and love for their child and friend. That should be of some consolation to you. Now you continue to pray for the family, and let God tend to the rest. Be at peace with all God has you do, little one. His ways are not yours. I love you and I am touched by your love and concern for My children.

Ruth Ann: You have placed this upon my heart, Lord, this is not of my doing. You made me, remember?

Jesus: You have a free will.

Ruth Ann: Not really, Lord. If you wish to be good, there really is no free will.

Jesus: That is your choice. You choose to do good and avoid evil. That is exercising a free will.

Ruth Ann: I'm sorry, Lord. I really don't wish to argue. I'm just hurting for the family and the child. Please forgive me.

Jesus: Child, you have done your part. I will do the rest. Go in My peace.

Ruth Ann: Yes, Lord.

(At the conclusion of this message, Ruth Ann went back to reading a spiritual book which she had been reading, and she came to the following part and she said to the Lord again:)

Ruth Ann: Lord, it's interesting what I just read after our conversation.

(And this is a quote from that book: 'In all our actions to please God we shall find these marks that we may know whether they have been truly for God alone. First, if when your task has not been successful, you are not disturbed, but remain as tranquil as if you had attained your goal'.)

Ruth Ann: You have made Your point Lord, I will continue to pray for the child and the family.

Message of Sept. 5, 1994, from Our Lord Jesus

Ruth Ann: Lord, thank You for yesterday, and thank You for the beautiful rain this morning. So much has happened, and is happening, all around us. We feel truly unworthy.

Jesus: Little one, this pleases Me. You are thanking Me, even though I know your heart is heavy.

Ruth Ann: Yes Lord, but my heavy heart has nothing to do with the greatness and goodness of the many blessings You have given to me.

Jesus: Someone you have been praying for, for quite sometime, is not receiving the healing you desire. This is the reason for your heavy heart, is it not?

Ruth Ann: Yes Lord, but this isn't the first time. If I received the healings I desired for Your children, they'd get it all, not just spiritual healings. 'Thy Will be done, not mine.' This isn't the first time I have felt hurt and frustration at Your decision for the healing You desire. My heart continues to ache for those who come for a physical healing and do not receive it. You know, Lord, who I am referring to without saying the names.

I continue to be obedient and do all You ask, and yet I feel You have let me down, as well as those seeking the healing. Lord, why did You bring this up? I wanted to stay positive today, even though my heart aches for some very special people.

Jesus: Little one, you needed to discuss this with Me so you could be at peace.

Ruth Ann: Lord, I thought I was at peace. At least as much as I could be with this concern on my mind.

Jesus: Remember, child, you are only an instrument. You cannot see the big picture. Yes, you are obedient. This pleases Me. You continue to be obedient, even though your heart aches for My people. Do not be discouraged, little one. Healings come to My children in many ways. I give them what I wish for them to have. Even though you do not understand, be at peace with My will.

Ruth Ann: Yes Lord, I have no choice. I accept whatever You do because I am not in control, and You do whatever You feel is best.

Jesus: Many times what I choose to do doesn't make any sense to you. Again, little one, you cannot see the big picture.

Ruth Ann: Lord, it's all right, I'll deal with it just as I dealt with others who have not received what they have asked.

Jesus: You have come a long way, little one. I can remember a time when you would have said, "I am not praying for any more people. You aren't going to give them the healings they seek."

Ruth Ann: Lord, these things were said out of grief and anger. As I have said before, I felt You were letting those people down.

Jesus: All My people coming seeking the healing they wish, and they leave with what I choose to give them. For some it is a physical healing, but only if it will be for My greater honor and glory. All are touched in some way, little one. Always remember that. My Mother continues to draw those children here whom She wishes. There are special blessings and graces to be had here on this farm. You are beginning to realize just how important this haven of peace and prayer truly is. This is a refuge for all the lost souls in need of a place to call home. It is a place for all those who wish to seek peace in a world filled with turmoil, and no peace.

You did not realize the importance of drawing people here to this special place, but you are beginning to know, My child. There will be many more confirmations about the importance of this place. Remember, it was chosen by God as a place for His Mother to draw Her children. She is calling them here to bring them closer to Her Son. This will become clearer and clearer to those who are listening, as time goes by.

Blessed are those who do not see and still believe. Only those being called by My Mother are to come at this time. The numbers will grow. The blessings will grow. The gift of My Holy Spirit abides in this place, as does the presence of My Mother. Be at peace with all that is happening around you. Many miracles are in store for My children in this special place.

When the time is right, the numbers will multiply. God's mercy will abound here. Conversions will take place beyond belief. Know that what I am saying to you is truth and light. God's grace and mercy is to be sought in this place, and received by all those who come to repent of their sins.

Ruth Ann: Yes, Lord.

Jesus: Go about your day in peace.

Message of June 26, 1994, from Our Lord Jesus

Ruth Ann: Lord, I have a talk today. Be with me.

Jesus: Child, I am always with you. You are doing the will of the Father, as I would have you do. You find this difficult, but you continue on making these sacrifices for Me. You are obedient and therefore will be granted the graces to do all that is required of you. Do not be afraid, little one. I will not overburden you. Your cross will continue to grow, but so will the graces required to carry your cross.

Ruth Ann: Lord, You know the situation, so You have to be in charge. The group I will be speaking with are not Catholic, and yet I will be saying things that are totally based upon our Catholic faith.

Jesus: Little one, you forget that Mary is the Mother to all of My children, no matter what faith or religion, or lack of religion, dwells in the hearts of men. Mary, My Mother, is co-redeemer. She is being used by God the Father to tend to His little ones on the earth. She is calling out to all children to pray. It does not matter what religion they profess. They are all God's children, and also the children of Mary, the Mother of Jesus, God's Son.

Ruth Ann: Thank You for reminding me of this, Lord. I really do know it, but some people have a difficult time with that belief.

Jesus: It does not matter if they have a difficult time with that truth or not, it is so.

Ruth Ann: Lord, I have had several people approach me and ask me if there have been physical healings connected with my laying on of hands, and the praying that I am required to do with people. What about it, Lord? It's as though they don't believe it.

Jesus: Many have received healings of all kinds, little one - physical, spiritual, and mental. Because they have not seen or heard of these healings, it is difficult for them to believe. Blessed are they who do not see, and still believe. Where is their faith, little one? Would they ask that of a physician? No, they would not. You are working for the greatest of Physicians, and you are being questioned of God's ability to heal? That is the sorry state of the faith of My children. You need not be concerned about this. Many are experiencing healings, and they will share this knowledge with others.

As I have told you, you are only an instrument. I am the One Who decides who, when, and what kind of healings are to be manifested through your effort and obedience. Many still do not realize the best and most important healing, in a world filled with so much turmoil and lack of peace, is a spiritual healing. Man continues to fret about his body, and all that will bring pleasure to that of the flesh, and the most important part of his life is his soul. Without peace and a healing of the soul or spirit, the rest matters not. What does it matter if a man gain the whole world, but loses his soul?

Material things, man's health, and life can be removed in the blink of an eye. If man has not gained the love of God and His peace, he has nothing. So, child, do not feel hurt for Me or for yourself when someone asks you that question. They do not realize as yet, the importance of the ultimate goal of living on this earth. The ultimate goal is to know, love, and serve God and be happy with Him in Heaven. So the ultimate goal for men in this pursuit is a spiritual healing. When man is called home, he will be at peace and ready to meet the One Who has placed him here on this earth.

Ruth Ann: I guess I just want physical healings for all of Your children, Lord.

Jesus: As do I, in My time, and in My way.

Ruth Ann: Yes, Lord.

Jesus: Now little one, you have things to do to prepare for your talk this afternoon. Go in My peace, knowing full well you are doing My will, and I will be with you.

Ruth Ann: Thank You, Lord.

Message of January 15, 1995, from Our Lady to Prayer Groups

My Dear Children,

I am your Mother here to help you as your intercessor before God. I wish to bring Him prayer in great abundance. Through prayer groups such as this, I am able to do so. Do not doubt the importance of your prayer. God loves you, and I love you, but there must be evidence this love is returned. Pray your prayers from the heart, so God knows you mean each and every word. Know that God is listening, and will tend to every prayer and every need, in His time and in His way. Little children, I am praying with you. Be patient. God's way is not always your way, but as a Father, He knows what is best for your soul. You do not always make the right choices, and some of you pray for things that would cause harm to you, or those around you. Be at peace, little children. Be forgiving, and love one another, as you are loved. My protective mantle surrounds you. You must pray!
