Message of Dec. 25, 1994, from Our Lord Jesus

Ruth Ann: Lord, this is Your birthday. Happy Birthday!

Jesus: Little one, yes, this day will be one of joy for many who know the true meaning of Christmas. That will be the special part of this day for Me, seeing those who truly know why this day is special, celebrate it in the love of their Jesus.

Ruth Ann: Many go to church today for this very reason, Lord.

Jesus: Many do not. Those are the ones that are of concern to Me. Those are the ones that were of concern to Me nearly two thousand years ago, and they are still the ones who have made My suffering and death on the cross so painful.

Those of you who love Me, and will take the time to be with Me, are of great comfort, but you must pray for those who do not love Me, and ignore Me. They not only will ignore Me on My birthday, but all year long. They turn their backs on Me. They seek the peace and love that should come from Me, from things. This will continue until all things are removed from them.

Ruth Ann: Lord, that is a strange statement, 'until all things are removed from them'.

Jesus: Little one, it is not a strange statement. It is a statement concerning the state of your world. All around you, in other countries, you see devastation brought on by man's greed and lust for power. You see the world being destroyed because of hatred for one another. The innocent suffer, as well as the guilty, and still the hatred continues.

Your world is going to experience devastation too, child, and it is through those who choose to ignore all the signs that have been put before them. My Mother has told you, "You were only a footstep away from the war and depravation of other nations," and yet, man continues on the road to destruction. He is destroying your world, little by little, through the lack of care and proper treatment of all of the gifts God has given to you, little one. Little by little, your world is being destroyed. Greed, lust, and arrogance, continue to be more important in your world, than the love and care of all that is holy. The love of God and neighbor are no longer important, little one. Through this lack of love, animals, land, water, and air are being polluted and killed. These are all God's gifts to you, and man continually destroys through his selfish desires. 'More and bigger', have been the order of the day, instead of being satisfied with only those things necessary for the good of your soul.

God has sent you the gift of His Son in human form, in order to tell you, and show you, what is and should be, important. His word was ignored, and He was murdered. He has sent His Mother, and His words through Her, and She is being ignored and blasphemed. How much more is God supposed to take, little one? He is disgusted, little one. He is disgusted with mankind and his evil ways. Man is destroying himself little by little, and all that surrounds him. This is sad, but true, child, and even the words given to His children from Heaven are not changing the hearts of those who are in need of this change.

It is up to those of you who have been listening, to continue to gather for prayer in great numbers, in order to show God that you do care about Him and His children. You care about His love and His gifts to you in the form of the land, the water, and the very air you breathe. You need to let Him know you love all He has created, and wish to thank Him for all these special gifts, through the proper treatment of these gifts. Man must respect God, and the gifts given to him from God. He must respect life, and hold all things that come from Him as sacred and holy.

Ruth Ann: Lord, this message is not what I would have expected on Christmas morning.

Jesus: Little one, these words are necessary. This is a solemn time in your world. Many are caught up in greed and materialism. Today means 'presents', and more and more of the things and distractions that have taken them away from the quiet time they could, and should, be spending with Me in prayer. Man is getting farther and farther away from Me. I am here. I am here, just as I was nearly two thousand years ago, but man is not listening to Me. He is not spending quiet time with Me daily, in order to hear what I have to say. He is too busy with other things to listen.

I speak to My children through signs, nature, the gift of My word in the Bible, and through the mouth of others trained in the gift of My word. But man continues to find ways to ignore these words. Because they do not hear My voice in human terms, they choose to believe I cannot, and am not, speaking to them. They are not listening. If they were to listen, they would hear Me. Then, they would have to change their lives. Many would discover all of the things they hold sacred are of little importance.

It is the soul that is of great importance, and it is being ignored and left to die, in many cases. The soul needs food, and it needs nurtured, just as a hungry body needs food to be sustained. Many of you feed your bodies, and ignore the food for your soul. The food for your soul is the word of God. Man must feed his soul through the gift of this word. And through this food, he will realize the need for change in his earthly life. The spiritual life has been ignored, and that is why, little one, the world is being destroyed through the lack of love and care for God, His gifts, and the love of his neighbor. Man is destroying himself and his world. Pray for the conversions of My children, and ask for God's mercy for those who continue to blatantly turn their backs on Him.

Ruth Ann: Yes, Lord.

Jesus: Now, I know you must be about your day. I thank you for your love, and I thank you for your continued fidelity to God's plan for you. Know God is pleased, little one, with all you are doing. Thank you for wishing Me a Happy Birthday. Many will forget, but those who remember, please Me.

Message of August 3, 1994,
from Our Lady

Ruth Ann: Mother, in the message today, You said not to be saddened by all that is going on around you. But it is so difficult to see and hear things that hurt you and others, and not be saddened by it.

Our Lady: All I am saying to you is, don't focus on this part. Focus on My Son, and the peace and love He has brought for His children by His death on the cross. His death and resurrection should remain the central focus. Things of the earth are but for a fleeting moment. Salvation is for eternity. Continue to pray, and stay focused on what is truly important. I am not saying that you are not to have compassion and love for your neighbor who is struggling. I am saying just the opposite. I am calling you to do something about those situations. Pray for those who hate you and cause you pain. Pray for those who are less fortunate than you. Ask for their peace and conversion. If you can help others monetarily or physically in some way, do so, but do not lose hope.

I know this is difficult for many of you to understand as you watch the death and destruction all over the world. How much of what you have seen in other countries has come to your own? You have been warned of this, dear children. Many of My messages have told of these disasters that will come to your country, but still man continues to turn a deaf ear. Those of you who are truly listening, are seeing the results of a lack of prayer, and a lack of faith. God continues to try to get the attention of His children, but still, they ignore the signs that He is losing patience with His children.

Those of you who are listening must continue to pray for conversions. Man is in need of having a change of heart. He must be called back from a world that focuses on darkness. Money, lust for power, sex, greed for worldly goods, all have contributed to the downfall of your world. Man must turn away from all these things and turn back to God. Material things in themselves are not evil. It is man's lust for more, bigger, and better, that continuously causes him to lose focus on what is truly important. All of your material things can be removed in the blink of an eye, and then what do you have? What profit a man if he gain the whole world and lose his soul? Man must not lose focus of this purpose for the gift of life, or the gift of material things God has given to His children.

I am here to call you back. I am here to guide you on the right path, and away from that which will bring you destruction of your peace, and of your immortal soul. Be at peace, and know that God has great things in store for those who love Him. Pray, dear children, for all evil to be destroyed, and darkness to be lifted from your land. Pray for peace, God's peace, and all other things will become less important to you. Put God first, and His plan for you and all other things will fall into place. God's will be done. I love you. Go in God's peace.

Message of Dec. 9, 1993, from Our Lord Jesus

Ruth Ann: Lord, it's another busy day. This time of year it seems there is so much to do.

Jesus: Man has caused much of this, little one. The celebration of My birth has become an excuse for spending money. Christmas has become a time of commercialism. Whatever happened to the days when My children prepared for the celebration of My birth through prayer? The true meaning of Christmas has gone by the wayside. More and more people are so busy purchasing gifts, they do not have time to think, or quietly pray. Peace will be lost because of all the hustle and bustle of the holiday season. I will be all but forgotten.

Ruth Ann: Lord, many of us still believe in the true meaning of Christmas.

Jesus: Little one, your world is so small, you think in terms of family, prayer groups, and your church. I am looking at the entire world, little one, and know many of My children will not even observe My Birthday, My First Coming, by attending Mass or church services. Many will not even say a prayer of thanksgiving to God for sending Me to the earth as their Redeeming Savior. Many will not even thank My Mother for saying 'yes', to being My Mother. This is nothing new, though, little one. Why should I expect My children to acknowledge Me on special occasions, when I am ignored most days of the year unless they have a need? Then, I am found quickly, and not necessarily asked, but told, what needs to be done and when it needs to be done. Even when I am able to accommodate them, do they thank Me? No. I don't hear from many of them again until they are in need again.

Oh, if only My children would learn to love Me! I love so much, I gave so much, I continue to give so much. Why can't My children slow down and realize all they are, have, and ever will be depends on God, not man? The Lord gives, and He can take away, all of it, in the blink of an eye. Man should give thanks for all things.

Ruth Ann: Lord, You are really sounding 'down' today.

Jesus: Not 'down,' little one, but I am sad. Man has taken a joyous season and turned it into something that is not of Me. Pray, My children, that man will wake up before it is too late, and realize that 'things' do not bring happiness. Love, peace, and truth are the essential ingredients in a world of noise and grief of all kinds. Concentrate on the peace and love of this holy and very special time of the year. Be as the innocent shepherds tending their sheep. Come to Me, leaving the gifts of your love.

Ruth Ann: Yes, Lord. I love You.

Jesus: Thank you, little one, and thanks to all those who have not forgotten the true meaning of Christmas.

Ruth Ann: Lord, will You speak more with me later?

Jesus: Little one, that was really all I wish to say today. You have much to do. Go about your day knowing My love is with you.

Ruth Ann: Lord, mine is with You, also.

Message of Dec. 23, 1993, from Our Lady

Ruth Ann: Mother Mary, will You speak with me?

Our Lady: Child, I am here.

Ruth Ann: I am sorry, I haven't written down many of the things You have spoken to me about, but thank You for talking with me when I need to hear you.

Our Lady: Child, I have said I am always here for you, and if you do not have the time to speak with Me and write what I am saying, I would prefer you speak with My Son and write and share what He tells you.

Ruth Ann: That is what I have done, but then I feel I am slighting You.

Our Lady: Child, My purpose in coming to all My children in locutions, apparitions, visions, the smell of roses, is to draw you all closer to My Son. Those who have great devotion to Me are loved much by My Son. I am being allowed to come among you in order to strengthen and guide you in these difficult times. I am here to provide graces for you for the difficulties that lie ahead.

Man is aware that the earth is in great turmoil. This is not news that is a surprise to you. The world is such that only God can provide the miracles needed to 'clean up the mess' that man has made. That is why I am calling My children to prayer, over and over. That is why I am asking you to make sacrifices, offer up the crosses of your daily lives to God, consecrate yourselves to Me and My Son. God can do all things, but man must ask for the needs he wishes God to provide. Ask, and you shall receive. The desire to do the will of God in all things must be taken to heart.

During this season of love and peace, I am seeing more and more stress and sadness in My children. The turmoil that surrounds you, your families, and your world is overwhelming to many of you. The evil one is strong in the present days as never before. He has taken you away from the peace you need to prepare for His coming, the God of peace. I am calling you back from the distractions provided to you by the evil one. I am here to return you to the peace and love of this special season. Focus on My Son, the God of peace, and all other things will become clearer to you. Listen and be aware of what God is telling you through the messages being provided to those of My children who are listening and being told to share.

There is a reason for My being here and walking freely among My children. Realize that God has felt it necessary to send Me to call you back to His ways. He wishes His children to return to the ways of God, and turn away from the ways of the world. For many of you, ingrained in materialism, this is quite difficult. For you who have become addicted to TV, and noise, and distractions of all kinds, I am telling you, set aside 'quiet time' for My Son. Turn off all the means of noise in your homes, offices, and vehicles for a few minutes each day, and listen to the gifts of the world around you that God has provided for you.

Listen to the quiet. Know that God is with you, wanting to reveal Himself in this peace. Listen with your heart, and know He wishes to speak to you and provide you with the direction in your life that will take you out of darkness. Listen, and be aware of His presence.

Old habits are difficult to give up, but addictions of all kinds can be overcome through prayer and the grace of God. Man, through his addictions, has turned his back on God, whether these addictions be work, sports, food, drink, noise, or those of a sexual nature. It does not matter what the cause. Man, through his own selfish desires, has turned to things of the world in excess, to block out the goodness, light, and love of his Creator. It is time to turn from the ways of darkness and turn to light. Pray for God's love and mercy and the grace to be able to do so. Love My Son, listen to My words. I am here to help you. Pray, dear children, pray.

Ruth Ann: Mother, thank You for speaking with me.

Our Lady: Child, I am always here for you, but if you have a choice to make, My Son must come first. In loving My Son and doing His will, it pleases Me greatly. I love you, child. Go in the peace of My Son, Jesus.

Ruth Ann: Mother, help me share the peace with others today.

Our Lady: Child, the graces are provided by asking.

Message of Dec. 11, 1993, from Our Lord Jesus

Ruth Ann: Lord, I have not written what Your Mother has spoken to me for quite a while, but yet I feel I should be speaking with You this morning.

Jesus: If you have time, speak with both of Us today.

Ruth Ann: Yes, Lord. Is there something in particular You wish to say, or is it my desire that has made me feel there is a need?

Jesus: Little one, you know I would speak to you and any of My children, any time of the day or night. It is up to you to find the quiet time in order for you to listen without interruptions or distractions. Even if it is only for a few minutes, it is important to have that contact with Me, the God of peace.

Man talks of the world being such a 'mess'. This is not difficult to notice. Most of My children who pay any attention to the news of any kind are aware of the death and destruction all around them. The violence that man does to each other has become common-place. While My Mother is calling for peace in your hearts and homes, the violence continues on. How can there be peace in the world, if man does not have that peace in his own heart? It is important, little one, that My children find this peace that is so necessary. A true conversion must come within oneself. There must be a peace and contentment in one's inner self, so that he can help those around him find peace. Once you have found peace, and share this peace with others, it acts as a chain reaction among My people. Those who have lost this peace, or in some cases, have never had it, wish to know peace, or have it returned to them.

During these times of war in so many places, and turmoil of all kinds, it is important for My children to have a place to gather where they can have this peace, even if it is only for a few minutes. It is good for My children to have this common goal. Remember, when two or more are gathered in My name, there I will be. God hears all prayers, but He is especially pleased when My children gather in great numbers to pay homage to all that My Mother is asking Her children to do.

This is a time of grace, and My Mother is pouring out graces to all those who ask. Sometimes, it is in the form of little miracles. Sometimes, it is big miracles. It depends on what God will allow Her to do. God is the One Who is in control, but know My Mother will continue to plead for all of Her children, for special graces, until God tells Her it is no longer possible. That time is drawing near, little one.

My children continue to ignore the signs, but that does not mean, by ignoring, that it will go away. As in the time of Noah, man continued on his merry way, ignoring God. It did not stop God from carrying out the plans He had for the punishment of man, for all the evil he had brought upon himself. Man will have to answer for all the death, cruelty, and abuses he has afflicted upon himself and his neighbor.

Man was given a commandment, 'Love thy neighbor as thyself for the love of God'. How many truly observe this commandment? How many even know it exists? Man has become so corrupt and self-serving, he loves self and money. Even the love he has for 'self' is not a good love. He does not respect himself as a temple of the Lord God. He loves 'self' in such a way as not to wish to deny 'self' any pleasure: whether it is food, drink, material things, sexual pleasure, man does not wish to deny his body anything.

But what of his soul? His soul continues to wither and die from lack of care. His spiritual self is denied in so many ways. The spirit, too, must be fed. In doing so, My children will find peace. It is through prayer and the word of God that the spirit can grow and soar and become one with the divine Creator. Without tending to the spirit, there can be no peace and no true love of self. Man must give up his selfish way of living. He must learn to tend to the needs of his neighbor, both physical and spiritual. And in doing so, his true inner self will break through this shell he has built around him; 'conversion', this word you hear over and over from My Mother. Pray for conversion, a true conversion of self and others. This is what the world needs, and it can only come through prayer and the grace of God.

Ruth Ann: Yes Lord, we all continue to pray for a true conversion, just because Your Mother has asked. I'm not sure if anyone really knew what we were asking for. Thank You for explaining it to me.

Jesus: Soon it will be time for you to go about your busy day, go with My peace, little one.

Ruth Ann: Thank You, Lord. I love You.

Jesus: And I love you, little one.

Message of January 18, 1995, from Our Lady
(After Prayer Group Message)

Ruth Ann: Mother, do You have anything You wish to add?

Our Lady: Child, the messages that I continue to give to all My children, are not being taken to heart. The peace that you seek is not being found in your world. My children continue to look in all the wrong places for this peace. They are trying to find peace in the pleasures of the world, and it can only come from God. The peace and love from Him is the true peace that all must seek and find, in order to exist in such a troubled world.

Pray, dear children, pray from the heart. Many of you still do not understand what these words mean. It means you must find time to speak with God. Speak to Him from your heart. Tell Him how much you love Him, and how much you appreciate all He has done for you. Read His Word in the New Testament. Let Him speak to you through these words. These words I have been giving to you through so many, are nothing new. Realize, little children, these words were spoken to you two thousand years ago, and were recorded for you to have access to.

Many of you do not read God's Word, so therefore, I have come to share these words with you in a simple way. Love God as you love yourself, and you cannot go wrong. Love your neighbor, and forgive the hurts that he imposes upon you. Be forgiving, as your Jesus would forgive. Trust, little children. Pray for your enemies, so they too, can experience the love and peace that you have experienced.

I am praying with you for those who have wandered from the fold. Pray, little children, and trust that God will tend to all things. My blessing I give to you. Go in My Son's peace.

Message of Feb. 17, 1993,
from Our Lady to Prayer Groups

My Dear Children,

May the peace of Christ surround you and become the very essence of your life. I am calling you to prayer and sacrifice, so you can obtain this peace. The times in which you are living are most difficult. Darkness is everywhere, and so many of My children are unaware of this darkness. They feel unrest and dissatisfaction in their lives and do not realize the reason for this. This unrest is not of God. God is a God of peace, love, and joy. Continue to pray and seek this peace. I want all God's children to have this peace and so does He. Listen to and live My messages. My protective mantle surrounds you.

Message of March 2, 1994,
from Our Lady

Ruth Ann: Mother, do You wish to speak with me today?

Our Lady: Child, yes I do. You must realize that I am concerned for My children who are more and more taken in by the evil ways of the world. I ask for My children to pray for peace and many are not doing so. Everywhere there is disunity, strife, and suffering. These things are not caused by God. These are things man is doing to himself through lack of love for God the Father in Heaven. Man will not find peace if he does not heed the messages and warnings being sent to him by God through many of His chosen instruments. It is too bad that man continues to turn his back on God; for God wishes all of His children to be saved from the eternal fires of damnation.

As your Mother, little children, I continue to ask for you to consecrate yourselves to My Immaculate Heart. It will triumph. The time is drawing near for this to come about. But there is to be much suffering before this will come about. Little children, you must pray. Turn your lives over to your Mother who loves you, and wishes to protect you. Join with others in prayer for the triumph of My Immaculate Heart. Only then can peace reign in your hearts and in your land.

Ruth Ann: It all seems so futile, Mother. Many ignore, and not only ignore, do not want to hear any of this.

Our Lady: Child, you cannot force someone to change their heart. That is why it is important that My children pray for the conversion of others. Pray that God will touch their hearts in a mighty way, then their eyes will be opened and their ears will be able to hear. Man has adopted a way of life that has excluded God. Man has become steeped in the importance of himself. He goes about his day making important decisions, making lots of money, and ignoring his family, his friends, and most importantly, his soul. Man has made money, and all it can buy, his god. He has placed God away from himself by being drawn further and further into the muck and mire of the world. In some cases, it is going to take drastic measures to awaken God's children and bring them out of the darkness and into the light. God will do what He must do to get the attention of His children.

You, My children, are already aware of the need for change in your life. You have been called out of darkness. As you pray, remember all those who still are wandering around like lost sheep. God wishes them to be brought back into the fold. You are at an advantage, little ones. You are aware of the times. Many are not. Continue to pray and do all that God would have you do as His children. Spread love and peace by your example in doing His will. Be obedient children. Listen to God's word in My messages. I love you. God loves you. Go in His peace to love and do good for your neighbor.

Message of Dec. 28, 1994

From Our Lady to Prayer Groups

My Dear Children,

Throughout these troubled times, I have been here for you. You know in your heart how much God loves you. Now, I wish you to let Him know how much you love Him. Show Him by taking the words spoken to you, to your heart. Thank Him for all He has done for you. Do not let the evil one destroy the peace that you must keep in your heart at all times. You have just celebrated the birth of God's only Son, Jesus. He is Prince of Peace. Allow this special gift to mankind to be the example that I desire Him to be for you. Give Him all the love, praise, and thanks that is due Him. Open your eyes, ears, and hearts. Live the messages being brought to you. Go in God's peace.
