
“TO JESUS THROUGH MARY”

Lessons and Messages to the World from Jesus and the Blessed Virgin Mary to Ruth Ann Wade of Bloomington, Indiana

Compiled by Mary's Children, P. O. Box 27, Washington, IN 47501 - April 2017

Message of Aug. 30, 1994, from Our Lord Jesus

Ruth Ann: Lord, is there anything You wish to share with me today?

Jesus: Child, I am here for you and all My children, at all times. Never feel abandoned. Even in your most difficult of times, I am here.

Ruth Ann: Why do some have greater difficulties than others, Lord? Why is there so much pain in the world?

Jesus: Little one, this was not the intent of My Father. God's intent was that man share in the beauty of the world He had created. Man sinned and caused this division between him and the Lord God, Creator of all things. It is through this division that suffering and trials have come, and continue to come. The farther man chose to get away from God, the greater the trials and suffering. The innocent suffer right along with the guilty in a Godless society.

Ruth Ann: Lord, I hear You, and I understand we brought all this upon ourselves.

Jesus: Right, little one. Man has been warned over and over, and yet he chooses to ignore the signs. The pain and suffering will not stop, child, it will continue.

Ruth Ann: Lord, I'm having a difficult time listening, I'm so easily distracted today.

The Statue at
Mother of the Redeemer Farm

Jesus: Child, this is a common problem that exists in the minds and hearts of all My children. You are concerned about all you need to get done today, and all you truly need to remember is; what I would have you do today, is listen. That should be your number one priority today. The rest will fall into place.

Ruth Ann: I'm sorry, Lord. You are exactly right.

Jesus: Be at peace, little one, with your day, and your call to do the will of God. You continue to struggle against all I would have you do. This makes your life even more difficult than it need be. Yes, you have given much of yourself, and this will continue to be even more as time goes on. But child, there comes a peace with doing the will of God that cannot come otherwise. Do not lose this peace by fighting against that which is best for you and those around you. Be at peace, and know God's Hand is upon you and all you do. When your peace is disturbed, know, child, that the evil one is at work. He can use those who are willing to be used, to cause confusion, doubt, fear, and anger. Do any of these things just mentioned sound as though they would come from God?

Ruth Ann: No, Lord.

Jesus: Then remove all remnants of these from your life. Love God with your whole being, and live this love in all you do and say. Be at peace, little one, and know that these struggles you experience are attacks from the evil one. No matter how difficult the journey you are on, peace should reign in your heart. Be at peace with your life, little one. You are missing your teaching, aren't you?

Ruth Ann: Yes Lord, I am.

Jesus: You are also missing your animals, and the structure that was so much a part of your life.

Ruth Ann: Yes Lord, that is true.

Jesus: You wish to go about your life as though you are in charge, and not God.

Ruth Ann: You make it sound as though I am being cold.

Jesus: That is not My intent, child. I am trying to make a point.

Ruth Ann: Others get up and go about their lives doing other things, Lord.

Jesus: They have not been called to do what you are doing. If they are doing the will of God, no matter what it may be, they should be at peace. You too, should be at peace.

Ruth Ann: Most of the time I am, Lord. It's just that something happened over the weekend that disturbed this peace. I feel much better after having talked with you about that personal situation this morning. I also appreciate the friends You have given to us, as well as all the people you have sent into our lives to help with this ministry.

Lord, if I didn't miss the life I had before, it would not be a sacrifice, would it?

Jesus: This is true, child, but you must also realize, those who sacrifice much, will be given much. All the careers, animals, material things, and freedom in this life, cannot compare with the rewards in the next. So many of My children are so set upon the pleasures of the world, they forget they are to be preparing for their next life while they are on this earth.

All of these things are good, but they are not to consume you. For some, material things become an obsession, so do their careers. Even hobbies can become such an obsession that God is placed in the background. All these things become gods to My children. I am the Lord thy God, and thou shalt not have other gods before Me. Does this sound familiar to you?

Ruth Ann: Yes Lord, this is one of the Ten Commandments.

Jesus: It is the first commandment of the ten, and for a reason, child. It is the most important, and the one most violated today. In a world of materialism, man has chosen to worship many gods. Where does that leave Me? Barely in the lives of some, and completely out of the lives of others. You are living in a godless society, and only God can change that which has been brought about by the prince of lies, deceit, and destruction.

My Mother is calling out to Her children to change their ways before it is too late to do so, and yet man chooses, in most cases, not to listen. What you are doing is of great help to Me and My Mother. We thank you for listening and responding to this call. Be at peace with all you are called to do. The sacrifices are great, but the rewards are even greater.

Ruth Ann: I do realize this, Lord, but I would not be human if I occasionally did not feel the burden of this cross given to me.

Jesus: The weight you will always feel, but there is also peace in doing God's will. That peace must be felt in carrying this cross. Do not look back, little one. The cross before you, the world behind you, know I am with you through it all.

Ruth Ann: Forgive me, Lord, for struggling against those things You would have me do.

Jesus: Child, it is through your weaknesses and the sharing of your struggles, that many of My children are being saved. They find hope and peace through your willingness to bare your heart and soul. All in your life is being used to the greater honor and glory of God, even your weakness, as a strength, when used to help others.

Ruth Ann: Thank You for restoring my peace again, Lord.

Jesus: Had you not listened, this peace would not have come. Know all is in God's tender loving care, child. His plan will not be destroyed. Good will triumph over evil.

Now go about your day, know I am with you tending to all things.

Message of October 24, 1994,
from Our Lord Jesus

Ruth Ann: Lord, much is happening over which I have no control. I am at Your mercy.

Jesus: Little one, that is what 'trust' is all about. You must approach each new day with complete abandonment to My will. That is what faith and trust in your God is all about.

Ruth Ann: I truly realize that, Lord, I know it in my heart. But it is difficult to achieve this level of trust, and still live in the real world. I find my life is like a roller-coaster, lots of ups and downs.

Jesus: One day you will achieve this constant trust. Life is a struggle for most of My children. It is filled with those things that pull and tug at the peace you wish to maintain. When you are able to say to Me, 'I don't understand, but Thy will be done', and truly mean it, those pulls and tugs will not be so great. The hills and valleys will become less and less, and you will find yourself in a world filled with very few valleys and more and more hills. The hills will be more like mountains. The day will come when, no matter what happens, you will be able to say, 'It's God's will, and I trust in His plan'.

Ruth Ann: You have such faith in me, Lord.

Jesus: I know you, child. I know there is much happening in your life to cause you great sorrow and pain. I also know you are having to completely trust in Me because you are not sure of what is to come next. Each day is begun in faith, child. Trust in your God to tend to all that is coming about to change your life. Change is not bad. It brings about growth. That growth will bring you even closer to Me than before.

Know that I am in control, little one. You have been told and prepared in many ways for this change. Even though you did not understand My plan, I have told you of a change in your ministry. I have told you many of the things that are coming to pass. I have also told you to trust in a God who loves you. You are to do much for Me and My children. I will not leave you without support. Know this in your heart, and trust that all will be done for the good of your soul, and that of My good. With that in mind, how can you be concerned?

Ruth Ann: Lord, it is my humanness. I am concerned about an injustice being done to someone whom I love very much.

Jesus: I was accused unjustly of great wrongs, child. You too, are accused of being 'not of Me' by those who do not understand what is truly happening in your life. That is the way of the world, child. Much good will come from all the evil that is being done to the person you are concerned about. You do not see the whole picture. 'Vengeance is Mine', sayeth the Lord. Those who wish to do harm to those who are of Me, will have much to suffer. My children see the splinter in the eye of their brother, but they do not see the plank in their own eye. This is true of most of My children. It is easy to find fault with those around you, but it is difficult to notice one's own faults.

Be at peace, little one. God is watching over all that is being said and done. You need not be concerned. All will be tended to in God's time, and in God's way.

Ruth Ann: Yes Lord, I do know that, but that does not change the sadness in my heart for this person.

Jesus: All will be for the good, God's plan is perfect.

Ruth Ann: Yes Lord. Help me to accept all things, even those I don't understand.

Jesus: The graces are there, and so are the prayers of many

*Message of January 31, 1993,
from Our Lord Jesus*

Ruth Ann: Jesus, there is so much on my mind. Would You please speak and clarify some things?

Jesus: Yes, little one.

Ruth Ann: It seems everything is happening so fast, Lord.

Jesus: Child, you must realize that God has a plan, and when the time is right all things will fall into place. There is so much that is to happen before the big picture is revealed to you that it is time for these things to take place. My little one, this is only the tip of the iceberg.

Ruth Ann: Lord, I begin to have doubts. A statue in our backyard, a life-size statue? At the time it seemed such a blessing.

Jesus: Little one, it is. Remember, this is for all who come here. My Mother has been instrumental in bringing you and all these children who come here for special graces and prayer, and She must be acknowledged. It is as your talk was titled, 'To Jesus through Mary'. That, little one, was not of your doing, and neither is the statue, the prayer group, or all of the people whose life you touch. It is My doing. It is the doing of My Mother. She is being allowed to call Her children together as a mother hen would do to all her baby chicks in danger. She is calling them and putting them under Her wings. In that situation, however, it is Her protective mantle. Those who listen are special. Those who continue to ignore Her will be called until it is too late. Little one, you are being used by God. This is truly a blessing. Yes, in this day and age it is a mixed blessing. Those who have answered the call will understand the statue, the prayer group, and all that goes with it, but those who continue to let the call fall on deaf ears will feel it is not of Me or My Mother. Little one, this is part of the cross. You have said 'yes', little one. Those who say 'yes' have much to suffer here on earth, but you will continue to be reinforced by many graces and miracles for you and your family, so you will always know this is of Me, your Jesus.

Ruth Ann: Thank You, Jesus.

Jesus: Do you not know that My Mother and I know this is difficult for you and your family? Little one, We have suffered much for all of Our children. You are not being asked to do something We have not done so Ourselves. You have begun the suffering, and you will not be left without the love and graces due this trial. Continue to trust, little one, it will all be done for you. All you need do is say 'yes', trust, and believe. My Mother has told you, it is time. You did not understand these words. Now you do, do you not?

Ruth Ann: Yes Lord, I thought She meant it was time to quit work, since I was in the hospital when I was told this.

Jesus: This too, is about to happen, little one. I cannot work through you if you are busy with the things of the world. I must have access to you when there is a need. If you continue to be busy with things of the world, you will not have time for Me. I must use you to call others to My heavenly kingdom, which brings us to the point of what we are discussing. Your reward will be great in Heaven, but there is much to suffer before the reward. Graces will be abundant child, so you will be adequately attended to. I will be here for you, as will My Mother, so be not afraid. You and your family will be provided for on the earth.

Ruth Ann: I know that in my heart, Lord. I guess I just needed to hear You say it all again. I need the reassurance that can only come from You.

Jesus: Little one, don't you think I know that? I am your Jesus. I know your heart. Now it is time for you to go about your day. My blessings to you and your children.

Ruth Ann: Thank You Jesus, for being here for me.

Jesus: I am always here for you and all My children.

Message of October 25, 1994, from Our Lord Jesus

Ruth Ann: Lord, yesterday was a fairly quiet day. Even though it rained, it was a beautiful fall day. The colors have been spectacular this year. Thank You.

Jesus: Little one, thank you for noticing Me.

Ruth Ann: Thank You for so many prayers answered. You know the people I'm referring to, Lord. It makes what I'm doing truly worth it, when I hear about all those things You have done for Your children. Thank You too, for all the little miracles You send my way.

Jesus: Little one, I do many things for all My children, but not all take notice. The good and the bad accept My little miracles and say, 'What luck'. I get lots of credit for the bad that befalls My children, but barely get so much as a 'grunt' from the many graces and blessings that are bestowed upon My children regularly. If all goes well, they feel it is through their talent, or just plain luck. Man does not realize that I tend to even the smallest of his needs. You have experienced this on a regular basis, child, so you know exactly to what I am referring.

Ruth Ann: You are right, Lord, but I'm not so sure I'd have recognized your divine intervention in my life a few years ago. It's just that my whole life revolves around You now. We are totally dependent upon You, and Your love and mercy, so even the bad things I give to You, and expect good to come from them. You always come through, Lord.

Jesus: All those things that happen in your life have a purpose, little one, even those things that appear to be very hurtful. The evil one continues to wreak havoc, but remember who is stronger. I am in control. I can use even the evil and painful part of your life to the good of your soul, and the good of those around you.

Man wishes to be in control of his life at all times. He does not realize that God is truly the One Who has the perfect plan. In giving your life and will over to His, you begin to realize all the wonderful gifts and blessings that have been given to you by your God. When My children realize this, and acknowledge it, that time is truly a blessing for Me. You, little one, have so many concerns, some little, and some not so little. You continue to do the will of God through the tears and pain. How could I not tend to your every need?

Ruth Ann: Lord, I have no real physical pain. It's all through the suffering of others that I feel such pain.

Jesus: Watch, child. All things will be for the greater honor and glory of God. You are not to understand God's ways, little one. You are only to be obedient and do all that is being asked of you. Be patient and trust in your God. He has a perfect plan, and you need only listen and trust in His ways. I am a God of surprises, am I not? You have heard this spoken, and these words have truly touched your heart. You have seen the surprises continue to be revealed to you many times in your life, and the lives of your family and friends.

Ruth Ann: You do truly amaze me, Lord. What love and compassion You have for Your children, to tend to even the tiniest of our needs.

Jesus: I listen to all your prayers and desires, those spoken, and those you hold in your heart. All prayers are answered, not in man's time necessarily, but in God's time. Not always in man's ways, but in My way. Man could do well to say 'not my will, but Thy will be done'. That is difficult for My children to do. Again, man wishes to feel in control, and think that he knows what is best for himself and those for whom he is praying. He really hasn't learned to trust in Me.

Once the trust has been established, peace comes about. This peace is the peace that can only come from God. It is an acceptance of the will of God, no matter how painful and heart-wrenching it may be. With the pain will come an inner peace that will help you accept whatever comes for you, because you know God is in control and all will work for His greater good. This is His promise, you do the will of God, and he will tend to the rest. Trust. This is a show of true love of your God. Once man can learn to turn loose of this desire to always feel in control of all things, and put this control into the hands of His Creator, life will become less difficult.

Through the pain you are experiencing now, you are learning these things. This is all part of your journey of faith, little one. It is a journey that all My children must travel, if they truly wish to do the will of God. Be at peace, little one, and know God is in control of all things, the great and the small.

Ruth Ann: Thank You, Lord. I do know that, but it is good to be reminded.

Jesus: All of My children are in need of reminders from time to time. Thank you for listening and sharing what I have said to you. There are others who are in need of hearing this.

Ruth Ann: Yes, Lord.

*Message of Nov. 10, 1994,
from Our Lord Jesus*

Jesus: You are too close to all that is happening. You cannot see the big picture. It is like standing too close to a painting. All you can see is an area, or one aspect of the picture. As time goes on, you will see many of the revelations brought forth to blossom before your eyes. Know your God has been planning these things before you were even put here on this earth. He knows all things. As I have said before, the evil that brings about many of the changes that are happening in your world, and the world of those you love, are not of Me. But I can use all things for My greater honor and glory.

When you say 'yes' to My will, little one, there is no limit as to what I would do for, and through, you. There are so few willing to give up everything for Me. When I find someone willing to do so, the burdens become extremely heavy. There are so few willing workers in My vineyards. When I find someone willing, they must be stretched beyond belief in love, faith, and obedience. When they have been tested and purified, then they can be molded to suit My purpose for them on this earth. You are in the process of being molded. The process is painful, but God expects much from those who love Him. Trust, little one, you will not be orphaned. You will be attended to. All of your needs will be met, as well as those of the ones you love.

When My children say 'yes' to Me, that 'yes' brings with it the burden of My cross. With this burden comes the guarantee that I am with them unto the very end of their earthly existence, and continue to be with them throughout the rewards of the eternal life, promised by My Death and Resurrection. So be at peace, little one. The pain of your grief will subside, and you will be able to see the purpose for all things revealed to you in the past. Go in My peace.

Your day is full. Do all for My greater honor and glory. Know I am with you through all that is, and is to come.

Ruth Ann: Yes, Lord. Give me the grace and strength to do all You would have me do.

Jesus: It is done.

Message of June 16, 1993,
from Our Lady to Prayer Groups

Dear Children,

Again your Mother invites you to listen and live the messages. Again, I ask you to pray. Be aware, little children, that God is in control of your lives. You are not the one who is in control. Let your hearts break open, accept His holy will for you. Do not fight what God wishes of you. Each one of you has a special purpose in God's plan of salvation. Listen to what He tells you. Be obedient to His will and not your own. You cannot have peace and fight the will of God. He loves you and knows what is best. He knows the whole picture. Each one of you and your lives are a part of this picture. Do not hold back, or the picture will not be able to be completed. See how important you are to God's plan? Not man's will, but God's will be done. That is your purpose for being here dear children, it is as you have learned as a small child. You are put on the earth to know, love and serve God, and then return to Heaven and be happy with Him forever. Man has forgotten this. He still thinks his reason for being here is to be happy and serve himself. Give yourselves over to God. Let Him know you love Him. My protective mantle surrounds you. Seek God's peace.

Message of October 16, 1994,
from Our Lady to Prayer Groups

My Dear Children,

I thank you for gathering together to pray. Know I am here praying with you, and wish for all those things you hold dear to your heart to be realized. I ask that you pray, too, for My intentions. Satan continues to wreak havoc upon the earth, and wishes to destroy all those things of which I am working so hard. Much prayer and sacrifices are needed, little children.

I love you, and God loves you, but you must realize that with love comes responsibility. That responsibility, little children, is what I am feeling for you and your soul. I have come to show you the way to save your soul, and yet many of you insist on following your will, and not the will of God. You cannot have two gods and save your soul. Be at peace with one another, and hear the words I am saying to you. Your souls are My greatest concern. Listen, and live the words being spoken to you. They are words that have been spoken by My Son when He was here on the earth, and now they are being repeated by Me, your Mother.

My Mother's mantle surrounds you. You must pray and be attentive to all that is being made known to you. I am here for you to assist you in your prayers, and your journey back to My Son. I cannot stress enough the seriousness of what I am saying to all of you. The time is now that you should choose God and His mercy, and turn away from all those things that hold you back from doing His will.

Message of Nov. 10, 1993,
from Our Lady to Prayer Groups

My Dear Children,

My Son has lived and died for you. I am asking you to do the same in return for this love He has given to you. I am asking you to live and die for Him. How is this possible? Follow the example that has been put before you by the One Who has created you. God in His loving generosity gave you His Son so there could be no doubt as to how you should live your lives. Be humble, loving, obedient children. Just as My Son was all of these things before God, so you too, should follow His example. Do the will of the Father. Die of self. Die to those things of the world that hold you back on your climb to Calvary. Love one another as He has loved you. Pray for one another. My children, I am blessing you, in the name of the Father, and the Son, and the Holy Spirit. Go in God's peace. Pray, dear children, pray!

Message of Dec. 29, 1993,
from Our Lady to Prayer Groups

My Dear Children,

God in His love and mercy has granted to you the gift of eternal salvation. Now, dear children, it is time for you to realize the importance of this gift. I am here to help you understand My Son, in doing the Father's will, lived and
