
“TO JESUS THROUGH MARY”

Lessons and Messages to the World from Jesus and the Blessed Virgin Mary to Ruth Ann Wade of Bloomington, Indiana

Compiled by Mary's Children, P. O. Box 27, Washington, IN 47501 - July 2017

Message of Nov. 8, 1994, from Our Lord Jesus

Ruth Ann: Lord, here we go again. I have been sitting on a message I received many weeks ago. Now it is to begin. All things are being done that have been asked of me. These things are not easy, Lord. You continue to ask more and more.

Jesus: Little one, if you did not do these things, you would not be obedient. Without obedience, there would be no growth. You must continue to trust and be obedient; for all things there is a reason. Many will be able to hear you witness and be brought to the farm. This is the desire of My Mother. This place is a special place of peace and prayer. Know that the graces being dispensed here will be instrumental in the saving of souls. Many conversions will take place here, little one. I know you do not truly understand, but this is not important that you understand. The fact you listened and are obedient, is of great importance. Without your willingness to follow the will of God, these things would not take place. You must continue to be pliable. The Lord will continue to mold you to His liking. You are not to worry. It will all be done for you. You need only continue to say 'yes' to all God asks of you.

Ruth Ann: You know, and I know Lord, each thing I do is

The Statue at
Mother of the Redeemer Farm

difficult for me.

Jesus: Your sacrifices are earning many graces, not only for you, but for others as well. If you think of these things you do as graces for others, that should be of help to you. You wish for My children to receive healings, and what better healing than that of the soul? Other healings too, are made available to My children here. But the best of all, is the spiritual healing that takes place for having come here to pray.

My Mother is here to dispense graces to Her children at all times. The holy angels and saints are here to also minister to My children. You do not understand why you were called to be a part of such blessings. But it is because of your faith, trust, and willingness to be obedient to the will of God, no matter what the cost.

Ruth Ann: Lord, You know I did not wish to have my picture in the paper, nor did my husband. We do not wish to be the focus. Your Mother has said to stay focused on You and prayer. We have tried to do that here, Lord. The message I was given in September, to begin witnessing at the farm weekly, really bothers me. I don't mean in my spirit, but I didn't want to be tied to a specific time and place. Too, I felt people would think that was pretty arrogant, to begin witnessing where I live.

Jesus: Little one, God has a purpose for each task He puts before you. As each task is done, more will be expected. How do you expect to grow, if you are not asked to do these things that are difficult for you? If you continue along, and are not to do anything beyond what you are already doing, there is no growth. I have asked you to minister to My people. How can you minister if you are not made visible, so they can see, hear, and pray with you? God knows your heart, and knows you do not choose to be visible. If your wish was to be visible, and receive recognition for all you do, then you would not be used in this way. God wishes His servants to be humble. He wishes for His children to realize that all gifts given, are given from Him. You, child, know you could do nothing without the graces provided you by your Lord God.

Ruth Ann: Not only that, Lord, I would not have chosen to do these things asked of me.

Jesus: You have not chosen Me, I have chosen you. It is because of your faith, humility, and desire to please Me, that you are an effective tool for Me to use, little one. Your husband is of great support to you, this is also through the grace of God. You were concerned about your children pulling away from you because of this last article in the paper, since it was local. But they too, continue to have the strength and faith to support you. Where do you suppose this strength comes from?

Ruth Ann: Lord, I know where it all comes from. Remember, I have given you my children and grandchildren, if You desire to take them away from me. Everything I have is Yours, Lord. I have nothing more to give.

Jesus: That is where you are wrong. You have everything to give, and it continues to be a blessing to Me, little one. The gift of self, and all you possess, are everything to Me. Not many are able to do this child. Your gift is everything. Body, mind, soul, and all you hold dear on the earth, are the greatest gifts you can give to Me. You have come a long way, and you do not realize this. You are awaiting My arrival, and are being prepared. Be patient, and know that all must be in My time and in My way. Nothing you say or do can go unnoticed by your Creator and Redeemer. You are of great importance to Me, little one. God loves you and is watching over you. Be at peace with all you do.

Ruth Ann: Lord, I am at peace. I'm just not looking forward to the witnessing, but then I didn't want the article or the picture in the paper either. So Thy will be done, Lord. I love You, and wish to be of help to You in any way I can. Even if it is doing those things I find difficult.

Jesus: I know your heart, child. Be at peace with all that is happening in your life. It is all part of God's plan. Remember, His plan is perfect.

Ruth Ann: Yes, Lord.

Message of Sept. 28, 1994, from Our Lord Jesus

Ruth Ann: Lord, there is so much I write that I don't really understand.

Jesus: It is not necessary that you understand. It is only important that you listen and write what is being said to you. God has a plan. As He chooses, all will fall into place. It is up to those chosen to listen, to be vigilant, and obedient. You are needed to be of help to all those who are seeking the hope and strength they have lost. Many are struggling in this time of darkness, and are reaching out for something, or someone, to hold onto. In some cases, all faith and hope is gone. It is up to those of you who have experienced the goodness of God's mercy, to share this hope and light in this time of darkness. You need not understand what is being said to you at this time. You need only share, and be obedient to the will of God.

My children are losing hope. The world they know is crumbling around them. You must help them stay focused on God, and let them know He does care. If He can work in your life, then He can work in the lives of others. As a disciple of Jesus, you have a great responsibility in sharing the word of God. The words My Mother has been sharing with Her children are all words that come from the Word of God. The words I have spoken to My children in the New Testament, are all being repeated in the words and messages sent to the earth at this time.

My Mother realizes few read the Bible, so She is speaking in words that are simple and easily understood, to those chosen to listen and share. The messages are simple and basic. They are Truth, and bring love and peace. Turn back to God, turn away from the world. God loves you. Pray, dear children, return to the faith you had as a child. Trust, and follow the Ten Commandments, God's laws for you. Love God and your neighbor as you love yourself.

If My children would only listen and turn back to God, much pain and suffering could be avoided. But as stubborn children who do not wish to listen, they must learn the hard way. My Mother was sent here in order to help you avoid the disasters that are about to befall you. She has called Her children to prayer and fasting. She has asked that they do penance. Many choose to ignore these messages because they do not believe what is being said, and others do not wish to inconvenience themselves in this way. Better now than later. Later the sacrifices will not be through choice. The sacrifices you will make will become a part of your life, because you have not listened to the words being spoken to you. You will wish you had listened and done as My Mother has asked of you, when you still had choices to make.

Ruth Ann: Lord, this all sounds too serious to me. Where are the encouraging words?

Jesus: The encouraging words are these little one, listen, and stay focused on what is being said to you by My Mother. She is trying to get the attention of God's children, while there is still time to bring about the conversion so necessary for so many. You need only be obedient and share what is being said. God in His infinite wisdom and mercy will tend to the rest. My children have need of strength and faith. They need encouragement in their journey of faith. Minister to My children. They are in need.

Ruth Ann: Lord, you've chosen the lowest of the low. You should have chosen someone stronger.

Jesus: It is through your weakness that you will be made strong. Faith, trust, and a willingness to follow God's will are all that is necessary to be a true servant of God. You have these qualities. Need I say more?

Ruth Ann: No Lord, just give me the strength to do whatever you ask of me.

Jesus: I do not ask any of My children to do more than they are capable. The graces and strength will always be there for you. You need only be obedient.

*Message of July 3, 1993,
from Our Lady*

Ruth Ann: Our Lady, I feel led to speak to You this morning. I know You speak to me daily, or whenever I need, but I don't always write it down. Most of it seems to be of a personal nature.

Our Lady: Yes child, as I have said, "I am here to guide you. Jesus is to be your teacher."

Ruth Ann: So many things that have been said to me, by You and by others, seem to be fitting together. Maybe I am making too much of some things, but that is how it appears.

Our Lady: Let Me address many of those things that have been of concern to you. You will see all things will fall into place as time goes by. You must be patient, pray, listen, and be obedient, for all things to happen that God wishes to come to fruition.

Ruth Ann: And that is?

Our Lady: There are some things of a personal nature that I have directed you not to do at this time. There is a reason, child. When the fence was removed and placed in a new area, I have told you it will be only temporary. I want My children to have access to the entire hillside. You did not understand, but you listened. I also told you when you decided to find homes for all your animals in the spring, you said, "Apparently God wanted you to be rid of everything that you cared about." I said to you at that time, "Postpone your decision until fall."

Ruth Ann: Why have You told me these things?

Our Lady: Child the answers will come. Had you given all your animals away, you would not have had company this fall. Is this not true? At the time, you had not made a decision to take a leave from your teaching job. Now, does that make sense to you?

Ruth Ann: Yes, that particular message does. But what about the others?

Our Lady: I have told you, there will indeed be a retreat house here. It will be manned by retired priests. This is so, little child, know this in your heart. Have not all the other messages that I have given to you proven in time to be prophetic? This too, will be so. I have also told you the horses would be moved to another place. Later, I have told you, you would be moving. This will be so. Your peace will need to be restored, and at that time you will need to move from this home. You have had many saying they have felt that there will be a retreat house here. Even your priest has said to you, "You have been told you will move from this place. Why don't you turn it into a retreat house? I am sure there are plenty of volunteers, so it could be done easily. All it would take is a little carpentry work, and there are many volunteers good at that skill."

These things are confirmations child, but do not get ahead of yourself. You still have growing to do, so be patient and listen. This year is to be a year of growth and peace for you; time for you and your family, and time to pray. The pressure has been lifted from you. You have spoken of being too busy to pray, now God has taken care of that, child.

Ruth Ann: It was true, Mother. I was feeling as though I couldn't get caught up. My weekends were busy with prayer and talks, and Monday through Friday I was trying to teach, run errands, attend Mass, plus trying to do laundry, clean house, etc. I had no time for my children or grandchild. The weekends were already full. I thank You for this respite. I doubt I will ever get to go back to school, to teach that is. Is that true, Mother?

Our Lady: Child, be patient and be obedient. You wish to know more than it is time for you to know. Have I not told you all things would be revealed to you as you have a need?

Ruth Ann: Yes, Mother.

Our Lady: Then all you need to do is be patient, be attentive, and be obedient. All that has been told you will come about. It will be in God's time, child. Only He can make things happen as there is a need. All things will be placed on other's hearts. It will all be done for you. Do these words not sound familiar to you? Has God not sent children to your prayer group to verify your messages? This was at a time when you felt much had been taken away from you. You felt you were being tested and were to go totally on faith with no confirmations. This was true child, you listened, were obedient, and continued on in faith. Now the confirmations will be there for you because you have trusted God when others have not. Other blessings will be forthcoming. Obedience is the key, child. You must be obedient to the will of God, not to your will. That is where many have gone wrong. They have listened to the will of their own pride and stubbornness. They have allowed their will to interfere with the will of God. You cannot serve oneself and God. You must die of self and put God as number one in your life and keep Him there. This you have done and you will be rewarded for listening and being obedient.

Ruth Ann: You make it all sound like it was easy and so cut and dried, Mother. It is all difficult. None of what I am doing is easy.

Our Lady: God did not promise you easy. What My Son did for men was not easy for Him or for Me. We both realize that it was the will of the Father that He suffer and die on the cross for man's sins. It was not easy to watch Him, My beloved Son, be persecuted, hunted down like a criminal, stripped of all of His dignity; through trial, torture, and then nailed to a cross like a common thief. Look at the rewards for what My Son has done. Yes, He suffered beyond belief. But it was worth it, because without it, man could not have entered into the Kingdom.

Remember, no matter what God takes away, He gives back to you a hundredfold. If not here, then in the life hereafter. God expects much from you, and you give much, but the rewards will be just as great. Remember that child, God will continue to bring little miracles into your path.

Child, be attentive to what He has to say to you, but most of all, be obedient. The sharing of His word, the sharing of the many miracles, are the important part of your mission at this time. You do it well. You do not wish to do it, but you do it well. It is the will of the Father that you do so. My children are hungry for these signs and miracles. They want to know that 'yes,' God does love me. That is the important part of what you are doing at the present time. That has brought about all the other, child. The Haven of Peace and Prayer, the book, the flyer, and all those who have come forth to help with this mission. God has done it all. He has made all things possible. All things come to him who waits. You have been patient and you must continue to be so. You have much to do for God, little child, so do not grow weary. This is only the beginning. Your respite will bring you much peace and growth. Thank you for listening, and thank you for being obedient. God loves you as I love you. I bless you. Go forth in My Son's peace.

Ruth Ann: Thank You, Mother.

Message of Nov. 22, 1994,

from Our Lady

Ruth Ann: Mother, do You wish to speak to me?

Our Lady: Child, as I have said to you before, I am always here for you. You are quite busy at this time of year, and I understand, but do not shut Me out. I wish to continue to be of help to you for as long as you have need of Me. I have brought you to My Son. That was My intent. That is always My intent. Anything I say and do on behalf of your God and Mine, is to draw His children closer and closer to Him. The fact that I have been allowed to minister to His children for so long, has been a special grace. I can do only that which God allows Me to do. Through My simple 'Fiat', great things have been accomplished through Me. It was not My doing, but through God's infinite wisdom and design, that all things have been done.

You, child, must listen and be obedient to the will of your Jesus, so that those things He wishes to do through you, too, can be accomplished. You have referred to the fact that all God needs is a 'warm body'. This is true to a certain extent, child, but the most important ingredient that you have not added is missing, unless you add 'willing'. If you had refused to be an empty vessel, or that 'warm body', as you have referred to yourself, God's work could not have been accomplished through you. You continue to sell yourself short, little one, but it is through your humility that God can do great things. Continue to be humble and obedient, and God can accomplish miracles beyond belief through you. That is His intent, child. You have heard these words spoken to you before. You have shared them with others, and they are written in the Holy Bible. You will do even greater things.

You still do not realize the intent of God's use for you, but be patient, and God's divine plan will unfold. Be at peace, and know that the heavens are available to you, as you have a need. May God bless and keep you in His care, as I watch you tend to His children.

Ruth Ann: That makes it sound as though You will be far away, as I do whatever it is God is going to have me do.

Our Lady: Little one, do not read more into what is being said to you. You are not to interpret what is being told to you. You are only to listen and be obedient to the will of God. He will tend to the rest. I have told you, I will be with you so long as you have need of Me. I have meant what I have said. My love is with you. Go in His peace. Continue to love and serve God to the best of your ability.

*Message of Dec. 15, 1994,
from Our Lord Jesus*

Ruth Ann: Lord, I'm having so many thoughts running through my mind. Please quiet me now, so I can listen.

Jesus: It is done, child.

Ruth Ann: Thank You, Lord, and thank You for an especially beautiful prayer meeting last night.

Jesus: Little one, it was time for these words, that were spoken last night in support of the farm, to be spoken. God is providing many fruits through you, and your gift of time, prayer, and the farm. Had you not said 'yes', and humbled yourself before the Throne of God, these things could not have happened. Many hearts have been touched, and will continue to be touched, as a result of your perseverance. You have stood firm, and have been obedient to all that has been asked of you. Had you not, these things could not have happened that were so important to the drawing of My children closer to Me, and My Mother.

Ruth Ann: Lord, I really don't understand how things are to unravel. Your Mother has said She will cease giving me words to share, and eventually the messages will cease.

Jesus: That does not mean that the graces and blessings will cease to be given here, at the farm, little one. Only the messages will cease.

Ruth Ann: But, Lord, many come only because Your Mother is giving me words from Heaven to share.

Jesus: Little one, you do not, and cannot, see the full picture. There is more to come. All you need do is be obedient and listen. Do all that is asked of you. God will tend to the rest. Live each day in My love, and the love of My Mother. You will not cease being ministered to, as you minister to others. Be not afraid. It will all be done for you.

You have not sought the limelight. You would have chosen to be in the background, quietly praying for someone else who had been chosen. That is why you were chosen, little one. You have so much love in your heart to give, and you wish to see all souls saved. You have prayed, and continue to pray, for all those who have doubted your gift, and have done and said things to harm you. Forgive your enemies. This you have done, and will continue to do. Love God above all else. This too, you do, and will continue to do. And last, but not least, you have been asked to die for your fellowman, your brothers and sisters. This you are doing, and will continue to do.

You are ministering to My children, just as I have asked you to do. This is not something you could have done on your own. You could not have foreseen this when you said your 'yes' to the will of God. When I say 'this', I mean all that has happened to you, your family, and the lives of those whom you have touched through the sacrifices you have made.

You have, and are, suffering through the loss of your priest. But remember, child, My Mother has need of him. I will deny Her nothing. He has grown in His love for Her, and this will continue to be so. Others will be brought closer to Her, as a result of this love that he was nurtured through you and the farm. This was all part of the plan. He will do great things for My Church. Things he could not have done, had he remained here. He will continue to grow. You too, will experience a growth that would not have been possible, had this change not been brought about.

I wish for you to be totally dependent on Me, little one. Even My Mother must decrease in the importance of My divine plan for you. That does not mean She will not be there for you when you have need of Her. This will always be so. It only means that I must become your total focus. You do not understand what I am saying to you, and you need not understand. You need only be obedient, and continue to listen and share the words God would have you share. As God's plan unfolds, you will understand the importance of all that is being said and done through you. You are being emptied of everything that could possibly hold you back from growing closer and closer to Me.

My Mother was here, and continues to be here, for you. She has been your guide. I am, and will continue to be, your teacher. Much of what you have been taught, you have shared with others. This was the purpose of the gifts given to you. They were given to you to share with others, so they too, could grow in My love. Many have developed a love for My Mother, that otherwise, would never have been possible. Lives and hearts are being touched, and will continue to be touched, as you continue on in your journey of faith. Many will not accept the authenticity of what has happened to you. Many will wish you harm out of envy, or lack of love, for Me and My Mother. But know in your heart, little one, those who suffer persecution for My sake, shall see the face of God, and live.

Life eternal awaits all those who take up their cross and follow in My footsteps. This is a promise. This is truth. So no matter how difficult life becomes for you and your loved ones, God has His hand upon you, and those you touch. Be at peace, little one, and continue to love and share with all those whom My Mother sends to you. Graces and blessings are to be had here, beyond belief. These graces and blessings are available to all those whose lives you have touched in any way. You have asked for this, and it shall not be denied you. You have grown in leaps and bounds, little one, and the growing will continue.

For those who love God, and are called to His plan, all things work out for His good. Remember that, little one. You are only an instrument to be used for God's greater honor and glory. As you are emptied, you will be filled with God's love. Be at peace, and know that I am your God. I love you beyond measure. Bask in this love.

Message of April 27, 1994, from Our Lady

Ruth Ann: Mother, will You speak with me?

Our Lady: Child, I am your Mother. I am here.

Ruth Ann: I just need to hear Your quiet, calm voice.

Our Lady: Keep your peace. That is most important. Do not let the evil one cause you to lose this peace. When My Son was preaching God's word, He would have times when He would need to come to Me, because of the lack of acceptance and uncharitable remarks made to Him. The apostles sought the help of the Mother of Jesus many times when they would lose their peace. Child, I am here. God has granted Me this grace. He has allowed Me to walk among you and minister to His children. Come to
