
“TO JESUS THROUGH MARY”

Lessons and Messages to the World from Jesus and the Blessed Virgin Mary to Ruth Ann Wade of Bloomington, Indiana

Compiled by Mary's Children, P. O. Box 27, Washington, IN 47501 - October 2017

Message of Nov. 12, 1993, from Our Lady

Ruth Ann: Mother.

Our Lady: Yes, child.

Ruth Ann: It seems I have been so busy, again I haven't taken time to speak with You for a while.

Our Lady: You have spoken with My Son. That is much more important. You have also been praying the rosary and attending Mass and receiving the Body and Blood of My Son, Jesus. These things are of great importance.

Ruth Ann: Yes, I have been doing those things, but I get to feeling bad when I haven't written down our conversations.

Our Lady: You speak to Me throughout the day, and you have been told you do not have to record all that I am saying to you. Personal conversations are for you, child.

Ruth Ann: Thank You Mother, it's just that sometimes I get to feeling like I am not writing enough.

Our Lady: It is those times, then, that you should speak to Me and write what I say, then you will not have those feelings.

Ruth Ann: I understand.

Our Lady: Many of My children speak to Me and ask for certain favors, and I continue to intercede

Mother of the Redeemer Farm

for them to My Son. Sometimes He does not answer their prayers in the way they would have them answered, but He is listening, and He is answering all prayers. Their prayers are being answered and they give Him very little credit, if any. They are very quick to criticize My Son when they think their prayers are not being answered, or if they have not had their prayers answered quickly enough, or in the way they want. Only God knows the big plan, so only He knows how and when a prayer is to be answered. God's time is not your time, child. This is something all of God's children have difficulty with. This is the way of the world. Each one wants instant answers, instant healings, a 'quick fix' to all their hurts, worries, and concerns.

Again, I am telling you, My Son suffered and died for man. He has done much in order to guarantee eternal salvation for all of God's children. Man then, cannot expect everything handed to him without some sacrifice on his own. You have the right to eternal salvation, but it is not being handed to you, it must be earned. It is through prayer and sacrifice that this great reward will be given to you.

When Jesus said, "You must pick up your cross and follow Me," that is exactly what He meant. Sometimes some crosses are heavier than others, and this too, has a purpose, but all men have a cross to bear. You can ask for help, and it will be given to you. You will not have to carry your cross alone or without help, but you are expected to carry it. Patience, love, prayer, and a willingness to do the will of God is needed as you journey through life. It is true that times are more difficult, and the crosses become more difficult to bear, but keep your eyes focused on My Son. He is the way, the light, and the truth.

The world has become a place of darkness, fear, and confusion. It is run by the one who loves for man to experience anxiety and to lose hope. Then, you look around you and hear all the evils of the world. It is difficult to bear. Do not lose hope, My children. Continue to pray for light and peace. Continue to pray for those in high places who continue to make wrong decisions that are not for the good of this nation, or other nations. Darkness covers the world. Your country is beginning to suffer the pains that have been experienced by other countries, and this will continue. It is because My children have turned their back on God. He has had enough. Now, He is letting them know Who is truly in charge.

It is too bad that My warnings have been in vain in many cases. I will continue to warn My children, and draw as many to Me and My Son as I can possibly do. It is up to My children to listen, and follow what I am saying. I am only repeating to My children what God would have Me say. I am only giving graces for those whom He would have Me give graces to at this time. It is up to My children to listen and be willing to accept the crosses and blessings that God sees fit to deliver through Me. I am here to help God's children. This I am willing to do, and have been allowed to do down through the ages.

The time is coming, though, when this will not be the case. I am telling My children, now is the time for conversions and sacrifices. Now is the time to live the messages, pray from the heart, and know that your prayers are being answered in God's way and in God's time. Share what I have said with My children, child. Remind them of the importance of My messages.

Ruth Ann: It is written, so it will be shared.

Our Lady: Tell them, too, that it is important that they thank God when a prayer has been answered. They must not ignore His generosity and kindness. They must not take His love for granted.

Ruth Ann: Yes, Mother.

Our Lady: I love all My children so much. If only they would listen to what I am saying, and be obedient children. Many choose to ignore what is being said by those who are given gifts such as you have. It is easier to say, "That person isn't really receiving messages from Heaven," and in that way, man can ignore and walk away. It is as Pilate has done to My Son, Jesus. Pilate washed his hands to free himself from guilt, but it was only an action. Pilate still had to answer to God for what he had done. So too, will My children have to do, who have heard the word of God, and ignored what He is saying, and has said. They have been told. It is up to those who have been told, to receive the words and take them to heart, or ignore and walk away. The responsibility of one's actions rests on each individual, and each individual will be judged accordingly.

Thank you for listening and sharing, child. You are doing your part. It is up to those who hear to do their part.

Ruth Ann: Thank You for Your love and concern, Mother.

Message of Nov. 10, 1993, from Our Lord Jesus

Ruth Ann: Jesus, I feel so sad and overwhelmed by the pain and suffering of Your children. Many continue to share their burdens with me and ask for prayer. It is heart-breaking. Each one who comes, I want a healing for, and especially, peace for them.

Jesus: Little one, each one will receive a healing who comes to you for prayer. Again, I am telling you it may not be the healing you wish for, or the healing the person has come seeking, but I will hear and answer your prayers. Do not be over-whelmed, child, by this cross placed upon you. God is in need of those who care enough for their fellowman that they will sacrifice the time, energy, and be humble enough to pray with others. God knows these are not easy requests. Most of the work God would have you do is not easy, but neither was the work that was requested of His Son, was it?

When I, Jesus, say, "Take up your cross and follow Me," that is exactly what I mean. In some lives, it means living in poverty, doing work that you feel is beneath you, going hungry, living in war-torn areas of pain and persecution. Sometimes it means just dealing with life on a day-to-day basis, because of burdens you endure for the suffering of loved ones. There are many kinds of crosses, and some are heavier than others. Each cross, if carried with God's help, will earn My children many graces that could not be gained otherwise. In most cases it will mean the difference of eternal peace as their reward, or the loss of their soul in eternal damnation.

So many of My children wish for life to go smoothly, with no crosses to bear. This is not realistic. Why should God have man have life so easy when He required so much of His own Son? I was used as an example of what living and dying is all about. When one takes up his cross to follow in My footsteps, there is no easy path. The road is rocky, narrow, and steep, and in some places so difficult it cannot be traveled alone. It is in these times that I must help carry your burdens, but I cannot unless they are given to Me to do so.

That is where so many of My children go wrong. They take up their crosses and follow for a time, and when the burden gets too heavy, they give up. You must not give up. Continue to persevere, My little ones. Let Me help you with your burdens when they are too difficult for you to carry, saying, "Lord, this is too painful. I am not capable of dealing with this on my own. Would you please carry this for me?" Out of love for you, I will do so.

Ruth Ann: I know this is of great help to me, Lord. I have done this many times. Sometimes it's grief over the loss of someone or something, or anger that I can't cope with, or just hurt over the pain and suffering of someone else. The minute I give it to You, to use for the suffering souls in purgatory who have no one to pray for them, I gain a peace that I did not have before.

Jesus: Child, you are learning that, through offering your pain and suffering for others, you gain God's peace. This is called 'making a sacrifice'.

Ruth Ann: I don't understand, Lord. I'm not giving up something I want or need for someone, so how can it be a sacrifice?

Jesus: Little one, I have died for the pains, sins, and sufferings for all My children. You in turn are giving these back to Me; these hurts, pains, and sorrows that I have suffered and died to wipe away from My children. Anytime you ask Me to accept a part of your cross on behalf of someone else, it gains not only graces for you, but graces for those you have asked graces for, at that time. In your case, you have had the suffering souls of purgatory taken to your heart to gain graces for. Others pray, make sacrifices, and offer up their crosses for the conversions of sinners. Many do these things, not even realizing all they are gaining in the eyes of their Creator.

Ruth Ann: Lord, I just thank You for listening and speaking with me, and giving me such comfort today. I love You so much, and want to do Your will. Please continue to strengthen and guide me so I am able to do all that is expected of me.

Jesus: Little one, you continue to grow, listen, and share what God is saying and doing in your life. You have shared what He has said and done in the past, and you will continue to do so in the future. Much more is to come, little one. You are being prepared for even greater things than you can ever imagine. You do not wish to hear this, because of your humility, but it is because of this true humbleness that you are being asked to do much more on behalf of God's children. You and your family continue to be attacked, but such faith you have, little one.

Ruth Ann: Lord, You always give me too much credit. Please don't. I am weak, and have become discouraged and felt over-burdened many times.

Jesus: But where are you, little one? You are here sitting, speaking with Me, writing My words to share with others. Many would walk away from the many burdens placed upon them such as you have received. They would have said, "Forget it, I'm not going to have the world calling me crazy. I'm not giving up my career, or time, or home, or family for the sake of others. You've got to be kidding, Lord." You continue to walk in faith, not knowing what comes next, but knowing in your heart that God will take care of you. That is faith, little one. Many can learn from you what it means to be a child of God. Your child-like faith is such as God wants from all of His children.

Ruth Ann: But Lord, You have sent many into our lives to help us with many of the physical aspects of these burdens. We have gained so many friends we could never have cultivated on our own, and so many pray for us, Lord. This means so much to us, but please don't give me more credit than I deserve, Lord. I love You and trust Your judgment for me. I'm not good at making decisions anyway. It's easier to say, "Thy will be done." Then it all rests on Your shoulders, Lord. So it is not totally unselfish.

Jesus: Little one, little one, that is what faith is. Giving and trusting in God to make all the right decisions. Only He knows the divine plan, so, by putting all your hopes, dreams, pains, sufferings, and so forth in His hands, you are giving all to Him. It is called, 'dying of self'. Doing the holy will of God, praying from the heart, all of these things that My Mother continues to call all of Her children to do, you are doing this, child. Don't minimize what you are doing. Great theologians could learn something from you if they would stop analyzing all of My words in the Holy Scripture, and realize that all God really wants from them is the love, trust, and faith of a child. They too, could find the peace and healing in their lives needed to live in a world of sin and darkness.

But man continues to try to make life complicated instead of simple. He allows the evil one to cause utter chaos in his life. It is as though man prefers turmoil over peace. Peace can only come from God. So unless man comes to grips with this fact, and gives it all to the One Who is in charge, there can never be peace. Continue to pray for peace, child, for God's peace, and peace throughout the whole world. It is of extreme importance that this be done.

Ruth Ann: Many will read this Lord, so I am sure it will be taken to heart by those made aware. I will continue to do all You are asking of me.

Jesus: Bless you little one, and all those who continue to help you with this mission.

Ruth Ann: Thank You for Your blessing Lord; for me, and my family, and all those 'helping hands' that continue to serve You.

Jesus: Go about your day in My peace.

Ruth Ann: Yes Lord, I love You.

*Message of July 18, 1990,
from Our Lady to Prayer Groups*

My Dear Children,

Thank you for praying, fasting, doing penance and making sacrifices. Thank you for bringing so many souls to Our Lord. Your work has not gone unnoticed. How it pleases My Son. My heart burns with a special love for those helping to save others. My blessing I give to you.

*Message of Nov. 16, 1993,
from Our Lord Jesus*

Ruth Ann: Lord.

Jesus: Yes, little one.

Ruth Ann: I just spoke with You yesterday. I can't imagine You wanting to bother with me today.

Jesus: Child, would you not enjoy speaking with your children daily if you and they had the time to do so?

Ruth Ann: I see what You mean, Lord. I guess because I really didn't feel the need to speak with You, I didn't really feel it was necessary. I never really thought about it from Your standpoint. Sorry, Lord.

Jesus: You may not feel the need for speaking and writing what I say some days, but do you not feel at peace when you do this, that you do not have otherwise?

Ruth Ann: Yes, Lord, You know that is true. You don't ever have to ask.

Jesus: Then isn't that reason enough to speak with Me?

Ruth Ann: You have made Your point Lord, I will try harder.

Jesus: That is all I ask, little one, that My children make an effort to please Me. How it pleases Me and My Mother to see My children making an effort to listen, and do as they are being told. Sometimes it is not easy for them to do so, and many times there is a great sacrifice to be made. But remember, there is much work to be done, and those who are willing to make the sacrifice to help Me in this work, are few.

My Mother calls and calls to Her children. Some are listening, and others ignore. Why do some listen, and take to heart what She is saying, and others turn a deaf ear to what is being said? It is because man is used to getting, and having, what he wants with little sacrifice. My children in this country have been given so much, that what they have is taken for granted. The time will come little one, when nothing will be taken for granted. Many hardships face My children. Some are being experienced and felt at the present time, and others are to come. The people in your country are not used to the hardships that have been experience by other nations, but they will experience, and learn what it is to make sacrifices.

Ruth Ann: Why are You telling me this?

Jesus: Child, it is because it is time for you to understand the grave situation your country is in. You have been told in so many ways that there is darkness all around, that the evil one is at the height of his strength, and those who read your messages continue to think all is well. All is not well. My children need to take to heart all that is being said.

My Mother says, over and over, "Pray from the heart. Make sacrifices and do penance." These are not messages that would be given if all was well with your country, and the whole world. My Mother has warned the children in Medjugorje for many years before the terrible wars came. They were told to pray and make sacrifices. Now She is here in your country, telling the same things. How can some people who are truly listening, believe that these messages are not messages of urgency. That She is appearing and talking to many, should be enough to make one realize the seriousness of the situation. One does not come from Heaven to warn, if there is not impending danger. Look, and listen, children! Be attentive to the words of the Lord. Pray and be obedient. Much can be changed and avoided through prayer.

Ruth Ann: You do realize that this message is going to frighten some people?

Jesus: Little one, how can they not have heard this before in your messages? It has been said in so many ways before. Those who have really listened to the messages have heard this all along. It is now that I am being totally open with what I wish for you to say. Time is running out. Have you not had that repeated to you over and over?

Ruth Ann: Yes, Lord.

Jesus: And what about the daily messages that were given to you by My Mother many, many months ago? Did She not warn this country that it was time they returned to the faith they had as a small child? That they were only a step away from the wars and deprivation of other nations? How can My children be so blind and deaf to believe that all is well. She has told you over and over, "Listen, and live My messages." And as in times before, what she is saying - no, pleading - is being ignored by most of My children. Those of you who are listening, must make up for the lack of attention by others. Some of you are being called to make great sacrifices.

You, My child, are one of those who were chosen to do so. It is so many who would otherwise be cast into the eternal abyss of hell, will be given a chance at the eternal rewards of Heaven. This is much to ask of you, for the salvation of your fellowman, but you have said 'yes' and the laborers are few. God is pleased with you and the efforts on behalf of His children. Much more will be expected as time goes on. There is great need for prayer, and it is up to those of you who are taking the words of My Mother seriously, to carry the heavy burden placed upon you. There will be Simon's along the way, but the burden is yours. The cross is heavy, and it will continue to be heavier, and heavier, but I am here with you to help you carry this cross, that will take you to Calvary. Be at peace little one, with all that is being said. Share this message with your priest, and do whatever he tells you.

Ruth Ann: I will do so, Lord.

Jesus: Now go in My peace to love and serve the God and Creator of all things great and small.

*Message of July 23, 1994,
from Our Lord Jesus*

Ruth Ann: Lord, I am listening.

Jesus: Yes child, and I thank you. There is much I wish to say. You become saddened by those things that you are unable to control, and I wish to tell you of the love I have for you. All My children are called to make sacrifices, pray, fast, and do penance. So many have forgotten what it is to make a sacrifice; to give up something that you truly desire is almost unheard of in this day and age. To do penance is something that My children do very little of these days. Not many choose to do those things they find difficult to do, for the love of God. Even the prayer life of many leaves something to be desired. Fasting is rarely done because of the inconvenience or discomfort it brings to those who sometimes try. Not many of My children are willing to do much, or suffer much, for Me, Who gave everything for them.

Child, continue to pray for hearts to be changed. All of these things I am asking you to do for Me, the sacrifices, are for others to see that it is possible. Man must realize that with all the evil that continues to take over your world, there must be those who are willing to take a stand for the good that only God can bring about. My Mother continues to call Her children to pray, fast, do penance, and make sacrifices. Most of what She calls My children to do, falls on deaf ears. That is why I am pleased that those Who truly are listening, are choosing to come to these places being set aside all over the world, as special places of prayer.

Where two or more are gathered together in My Name, I will be in their midst. My Mother has said the same thing. When those She is calling gather together to pray, She is praying with them. That is a special gift for those who are listening. Blessings and graces abound for those truly listening, and taking My Mother's messages seriously. My Mother gave up everything for the love of God, and as a result of this great love and total sacrifice, I will deny Her nothing. Those who do not understand the importance of My Mother as an intercessor, are missing much in their lives. It is through Her that the evil one will be destroyed.

She has been calling together a mighty army of 'prayer warriors' to fight a mighty battle. It is not a physical battle, but one of a spiritual nature. Good against evil is the war being waged at this time. From everything you read, hear, and see in the media, evil is being shoved down your throats. That is the way of the evil one. He continues to condition those of the world, so after a while those things that used to shock or disgust, become so common that they become accepted. Man accepts more and more that is evil. Your world is nearly in total ruins. The moral decay is shocking to behold to those who truly live by the word of God, which is truth. How far My children have strayed, little one!

My Mother is here to draw all back to Me who will listen. Those who are listening must accept the responsibility, and pray for those who are not listening. In that way, change can come about. Good will triumph over evil, but there is to be much pain, suffering, and sacrifice, in order for this to come about. Man is bringing these things upon himself, due to his lack of love and obedience to the will of God. Hatred, greed, and envy are commonplace in your world. Where is love? Where is the caring and sharing of your gifts with others? You are your brother's keeper; whether you acknowledge this responsibility or not is up to you.

When you stand before the Throne of God on judgment day, God will not ask, "How much did you accumulate while you were on the earth?" No, He will ask, "What did you do with what I gave you?" Many of you will have to answer sadly, "I kept it all to myself." To some, much is given, and from those, much is expected. I find that many who have little are the ones who share, because they are used to having little, and appreciate the little that God has given to them.

Child, I have told you before, it takes someone who is willing to make sacrifices of a visible nature, to draw others to also make sacrifices. Through your giving of self, others will follow your example and be willing to make sacrifices on My behalf. So do not take your responsibility lightly. You are being called to help others become Christlike. Through your love and sacrifice being made for Me, others will wish to follow your example. Through you and your family sacrificing much, much will be given to you in return. Eternal Salvation is a great reward. There is none greater. Continue to persevere, and know God's love awaits you for all eternity.

Ruth Ann: Thank You, Lord. I love You.

Jesus: I love you, little one.

Message of Feb. 20, 1991,
from Our Lady to Prayer Groups

My Dear Children,

I have come to prepare you for My Son's second coming. Many have questioned this, but this is so. You have much work to do. Many need prayer. We do not wish to lose any of Our children. Pray for all I have asked you to pray for. This is a time for graces and God's mercy. Time is running out. Pray...fast...and do penance for all those in need. Your Heavenly Father has sent Me here to guide you back to His light.
