Message of January 5, 1995, from Our Lord Jesus

Ruth Ann: Lord, do You wish to speak to me?

Jesus: Little one, feel blessed, because your Jesus continues to be available to you, and others through you. As I continue to speak through you, for the benefit of all those who will listen, great graces abound.

My Mother has said, there will come a time when She will no longer speak with you, and give you messages for you to share, and this is to be, little one. It is not that She will no longer speak with you, but you will not share what She is sharing with you. She will be there for you, as you have need of Her.

Ruth Ann: Thank You for that, Lord.

Jesus: Little one, God has a plan, and it is difficult for you to understand all that is happening in your life at this time. As time goes on, those things you do not understand, will be made clear to you. Patience is a virtue, little one. It is also a gift. Not many of My children have this gift. Most of My children wish to have answers now. That is why it is so difficult for you to wait. But remember, all things come to him who waits.

Blessings will abound in the new year, little one. Many will be seeking the face of God, and many will continue to search for the true meaning of their existence. Many hearts will be touched, and many souls will be saved. You have been told this many times, but it is worth repeating. Your ministry is not going to end, but it is going to change. You have been prepared for this change. You will continue to be prepared for each and every task that God puts before you. Remember, many are asked but few are chosen.

You have said many times that you would have preferred God to have chosen someone else, for you feel unworthy. It is because you feel unworthy that you are just what is needed to get the work done, that must be done. None of My children could have related to a proud, arrogant, person who would act 'special', because of this gift. Most of My children are shy about their faith, and hesitant about sharing the gifts and blessings given to them. Others of My children can relate to someone who does not wish to be in the limelight, and would choose to be quiet, rather than share what has been given to them. Many of the same problems you have, are shared by My children who are reading the words I give to you. You do not realize the good you are doing, just in sharing your struggles and concerns.

So many of My children are seeking the same answers that you seek. They are hurting through losses similar to what you are experiencing, and they need to hear that God is watching over them, and will always be there for them through all their difficulties. Many times the feeling of total abandonment by Me, can be alleviated through the encouraging words of another. There is never a reason for one to feel totally alone. I am always here for all of My children. If you ever feel totally abandoned, it is through your lack of faith and trust in Me. God's word has been given to you, so that you could never feel alone. The Bible is at your fingertips, as it should be. If you, My children, would read My words on a daily basis, My children would feel My presence in these words.

My Mother has come to you to share the importance of these words, and has reminded you that these words must be taken seriously. The times have become extremely difficult for many of My children, but know that God's word will always be here for you. The Ten Commandments that were given to Moses many years ago, are just as important today, and just as relevant today, as they were then. They are God's laws, and laws that must be followed to attain eternal salvation. Many continue to feel that these laws are outdated, but this is not so. Man has changed, and the world has changed, but God's word will never be changed. And neither must it be altered to fit the times. Man must alter His life in order to live the laws of God, and attain the peace that awaits him, through the acceptance of these laws.

Peace is not attained through the arrogance and pride of those who choose to ignore the Word of God. Peace is not found through the seeking of pleasures of the flesh in all forms. Peace is found through the acceptance of God's love. Man must repent of his sins, and accept this gift of love God has to offer. You, and others like you, are there to remind My children that God still cares. He loves all of His children. He is here to work miracles, give blessings, and aid you in your hours of need. Trust children, and know that in your burdens and hurts, God is still there for you. He has sent His only Son to the earth to show you just how much He cares. He has allowed Him to be a human sacrifice for the sins of mankind. How much more must He do to show you just how much He cares?

Be at peace, My little children, My Mother continues to bless you through Her appearances, words, and graces, that pour forth in great abundance. I, too, am speaking to, and will continue to minister, to many. Why do you suppose this is true? Because time is precious to the One Who created you. Time, My children, is running out. Man must begin to take these words being spoken, more seriously than he has ever done before. The hand of justice is about to strike, and My children must be prepared with a repentant heart. This is not said to frighten My children, it is said to bring about the change of the heart that will bring peace, no matter what the circumstances.

Those who love Me, and stay focused on Me, will have no need to fear. I love you, and wish you to repent of your sins, and obtain the peace so necessary in this world of pain and suffering. My love remains with you. Seek My peace.

Message of October 12, 1994, from Our Lady

Ruth Ann: Mother, You seem very sad.

Our Lady: Child, the condition of the world, and the condition of the souls of My children, these continue to bring sadness to My Heart. My Son awaits His children with open arms. He is ready and willing to take them back at the first sign of repentance, but they choose to ignore all that is being done and shown at this time. People must open their eyes and hearts. They must listen. The signs are all around you. Soon I will no longer be allowed to minister to you in the ways I have been doing. You will be on your own to survive the difficult times that are upon you.

Many of My children continue to hide their heads in the sand. Do you not see the time is now, to turn back to God, and leave the ways of the world behind? What more can I do and say, as your Mother? I have continued to bring you words of love, hope, and encouragement. I have continued to guide you away from self-destruction, and back to My Son. Still you choose to walk into the depths of hell, grasping for peace. How can this be? I love you, and wish to save you. You continue to ignore and seek self-gratification, and all those things that draw you further and further away from the truth.

You have said I sound sad, child. My heart is saddened. Not only am I saddened, but I am disappointed in My children. Please listen. Pray, pray, pray! God is still listening. His mercy is great, and so is His love. The hour of justice is at hand, My little ones, and still you do not understand. Pray, and ask the Holy Spirit to help you to understand all that is being said to you. God loves you, and I love you. We wish your souls to be saved. You must choose. We cannot choose for you.

Ruth Ann: Mother, You sound like things are winding down.

Our Lady: Child, you have been listening and hearing what has been said to you. You have been sharing and doing those things that are asked of you, but know, child, many are not. Many still seek to believe they have much time ahead to prepare for the hand of justice. It is upon them, and they still choose to hide from the facts.

I have told you before, that the time is coming soon when the apparitions and words will cease. Then, what of those who have not taken to heart these words being said to you? What of all those children still seeking signs and wonders, and have not tended to their souls? You must pray with, and for them. They will need your strength, love, and trust in God in the times ahead. You will still need to minister to My children, but even more so than before. We will continue to be here for you, but the messages to share will cease.

Ruth Ann: Mother, how can this be? Why would You withdraw the messages to share? This gives hope and strength to Your children.

Our Lady: All that is being said has not been taken to heart, child. Many listen and read the messages, and then do not pray. They wait for the next message, or go seeking signs all over the world. The signs have been there, the wonders have been there, and the words have been there for My Children. These have been allowed to draw My children to a true conversion. These were to bring about a willingness to turn back to God, and away from sin. There has been a purpose for each gift and grace granted to each one of My children. For many, it was granted so they could share these special experiences with others, to bring about more conversions.

It is the changing of the heart, and the changing of your life, that I have been seeking for you. I have asked you to turn back to My Son. Do not continue to hurt Him by turning your back on Him, and choosing evil over good. You must listen to the words being spoken to you! Live the messages by changing your hearts and lives.

Ruth Ann: Thank You for sharing these words with me, Mother.

Our Lady: Child, My children are not listening.

Ruth Ann: Many are, Mother.

Our Lady: For those who are listening, I thank you for doing so. Please pray, and know I am praying with you.

*Message of Sept. 7, 1994
from Our Lady*

Ruth Ann: Thank You, Mother, for the message.

Our Lady: Child, the message is given in love and warmth of a Mother concerned for Her little children. These words I repeat over and over, and yet so few are listening. Many ignore the messages because the words must be taken to heart. When this is done, a change must come about in one's life. Not many want to make this change. So many still seek the comforts of the body, and ignore those things that bring comfort to the soul. No amount of money or material wealth can bring about true happiness. True happiness cannot be bought. Peace of mind and heart come from God, and are available for the asking, but man does not choose to accept this peace, because it means a change in his life. It would mean that God must be put first, and that all other things would follow. The material comforts of the body would no longer be of importance.

Man does not realize, child, that God is giving him many chances to have a change of heart, and choose to live a life of peace. Peace can only come from God, and staying focused on all things that are of God. In a world totally given over to materialism, it is difficult to find peace or happiness. Man continues to want bigger and more, thinking this will bring happiness. When he gets those things, he finds his life is still lacking, so he seeks to find other ways to fill his emptiness.

The happiness he seeks cannot be found in the things of this world. Things of this world can be snatched from you in an instant. If all your material things were removed from you, at this moment, what would you have? If you are of God, you would have peace. If you are still of this world, you would be totally devastated and think your life was over. You must have a change of heart, little children, and realize that materialism is not the answer to happiness. The happiness it brings is superficial, and only lasts for a little while. God's love and peace is for eternity.

You must make a decision, My children. You must choose to live for My Son and have eternal happiness. I am here to help you choose to live for God. To live for God brings eternal happiness. This is what I want for you, but I cannot make this decision for you. You must listen and live My messages. Then, you will be able to decide for yourself that which is most important. The gift of eternal happiness with God in Heaven, is waiting for you. Change your heart. Be at peace.

Ruth Ann: Thank You for sharing this with me, Mother.

Our Lady: Child, your Mother wishes to save all souls, even the hardest of hearts. All are in need of help. I am calling out to all God's children. Some are listening, some are not. I will continue to call out for as long as I am allowed.

Message of August 2, 1994, from Our Lord Jesus

Ruth Ann: Lord, is there anything You wish to say to me today?

Jesus: Only this, child; it is extremely important that the world listen to what My Mother is saying. She has been chosen to herald in My Second Coming.

Ruth Ann: Lord, when people hear these words 'second coming', they all start thinking this is tomorrow, or the year 2000.

Jesus: God's and man's time are not the same, little one. You must realize that many things are happening, and will continue to happen. You will not know the day or the hour. Only My Father in Heaven knows. Speculating does not change anything. Prayer does, and can, change much. When My Mother asks for Her children to pray and change their hearts, She means every word. Man has not been taking the signs and wonders put before him seriously. Many more are in need of conversion. She calls Her children to peace, and asks them to love one another. They are not listening. The wars continue, and so do the disasters that continue to plague the entire world. Man is destroying himself with hatred, lust, and greed. My Mother is bringing love, peace, and hope. All man need do is pray, trust, and change his heart.

Those who are listening have a grave responsibility to help in this process. Conversion, true conversion, works like a chain reaction. When your heart is touched and changed, you wish for those around you to experience this peace and love. You in turn, pray for the conversions of those around you. Their lives, too, are touched, and they touch others. It is true that some fall by the wayside, for they do not choose to live and listen for long. They prefer to return to the life they had before their hearts were touched. That is their loss. What is important, is that all God's children have the opportunity to hear God's word and make that choice. They can then live for God, or live for the world. Living for the world will bring about destruction of their soul, but again, that is their choice. Man has a free will.

God wishes all His children saved. All of His children do not wish to make the sacrifice necessary in order to achieve salvation. A life of sin is much easier to face here on the earth, because that life is all around you. It's much more difficult to change your heart to live for God. Living for God is contrary to all that man has come to believe is important. My Mother continues to call Her children back to a life of love and peace. They continue to ignore Her. She will continue to do so as long as She is allowed by God, and then it will be too late for many.

Be at peace with what I am saying to you, little one. It is time for My children to take heed of the messages. You are only an instrument, and only do as you are asked. Be obedient, and you will know you have done all that you can do for God's children. Share, pray, and live the words being shared. Be that beacon of light in a world of darkness that My Mother has called you to be at this time. Let the light, love, peace, and hope that is yours, touch the lives of those seeking these blessings and graces for themselves, and their loved ones. Let God's love work through you to allow many lives, hearts, and minds to be touched. Grow in His love, and let it overflow to all whose lives you touch. Love and peace, child. My children are seeking these qualities that have been given to you, to share with those who come to you for prayer. They are in need, little one, and their hearts cry out for this peace, so difficult to find in a world filled with turmoil. That is why it is so important for you to keep your peace at all cost.

Ruth Ann: You have been my lifeline, and so has Your Mother, in helping me keep my peace. Even when it leaves me for a little while, it never interferes with what You would have me do for You. I credit You Both for that. I know I can do nothing on my own. All things are done because this is Your wish and will for me. I'm not smart enough, or good enough, to do or say any of these things You would have me do or say. Please continue to hang in there with me, Lord. I cannot do any of these things alone.

Jesus: Child, that is all it takes, the desire to do God's will above all else. 'Thy will be done'. Those words changed the entire world, they can do so again. I need to hear that from all My children.

Ruth Ann: Lord, those of us who are listening will continue to do all we can. We need lots of help though.

Jesus: The help is there, little one. As God touches minds and hearts, the help is there. You continue to be an instrument, and God will do the rest.

*Message of Dec. 22, 1993,
from Our Lady to Prayer Groups*

My Dear Children,

I am your Mother sent here to guide you back to the right path. Focus on My Son Who is light, love, and peace. Then you, too, will have the peace you desire. Take My messages to your heart so you will bring about a true conversion. Once you have gained a true conversion, then you will be able to help those around you. Understand what I am saying to you. I would not be here, if what I am saying to you was not most urgent. Change your lives, dear children, pray from the heart. Ask the Holy Spirit to enlighten you to the seriousness of what I am telling you. My messages are no longer accomplishing what I had hoped. Man listens with a dull heart and mind, and continues to live his life without changing his ways. Time is running out dear children. There will come a time when you will no longer have Me to guide you. Thank God for allowing Me to move freely among My children, to touch the minds and hearts of all those who listen and are turning back to My Son. Thank you for listening and for taking My words to your heart. My love I give to you and your dear ones. Go in the peace of My Son, Jesus.

*Message of Sept. 18, 1994,
from Our Lady*

Ruth Ann: Mother, do You have anything to add?

Our Lady: Man continues on the path to self-destruction. Much pain and suffering is in store for My children. They have been blind and deaf to all that is being done. This is by choice, that man is destroying himself and the world around him. God has allowed Your Mother among you for many years, to help and guide you away from the path you have chosen.

Man continuously chooses evil instead of those things that are good for him. He seeks pleasures of the flesh, and yet he knows that flesh must die. Your soul lives on forever, little children. You must seek to nourish this soul through those things that are of God. My concern for you and your world is great. There is much pain in My heart because of the hardness of your hearts.

Soon I will no longer be allowed to be among you. My words, being shared with you, will also cease. What then will happen to My children who do not have the faith to sustain them? You must listen and live the messages that have been spoken to you. Know that God is trying to save your immortal souls. This precious gift He is giving you of My appearances and messages, is to bring you back to Him. Discard all in your life that is not of God, so that you can be at peace. God's peace is of the utmost importance in a world filled with no peace.

Darkness has covered your world. The only light in this darkness is that of My Son. Seek One Who is Light, Truth, and Love. Seek the Prince of Peace and know that this is the most important peace of all. As times become more and more difficult, know that His love endures forever. Listen to all that is being said to you, little children. My protective mantle surrounds you. You must pray.

Ruth Ann: Mother, the message You gave me for the farm today was quite strong.

Our Lady: Child, it too, will fall on deaf ears. My children do not wish to know the truth. If they know the truth, then they must change their heart, their lives must change, and all they hold dear must change. Things of the earth must be set aside for them to have room for those things that are of the utmost importance.

*Message of July 1, 1993,
from Our Lord Jesus*

Ruth Ann: Jesus.

Jesus: Yes, little one.

Ruth Ann: Do You wish to speak to me?

Jesus: Child, you know I wish to speak to you and all My children at all times. Do not feel pressured or obliged to do so. I wish this to be done of your own free will.

Ruth Ann: Is there anything in particular You would like to address today?

Jesus: Yes, little one, there is. Today I would like to speak with you about the love of God for His children. You know how much you love your own children? I would like to inform My children that all of the love they hold in their heart for their own offspring is nothing in comparison to the love of their Father in Heaven for them.

Ruth Ann: I feel like You've spoken of this before, Lord.

Jesus: Yes child, but it is worth repeating. There is so much sin in the world, and many of My children feel because they are such sinners, they can never go to Heaven. This is an untruth. God loves each child. It is the sin that He hates. He has given every opportunity to His children for them to repent of their sins, and continues to do so. My Mother has been sent among His children to draw as many back as will listen to Her call. This is God's will. She, My Mother, is only doing the will of My Father in Heaven. She can do nothing without the help of God Who created Her. The same is true of you, My little one. All things you are doing and will continue to do on behalf of God is with His permission. He allows you to pray, talk, even breathe. You can do nothing without the help of God. I have done My Father's will by dying on the cross for all of the sins of His children. This was a great sacrifice for Me, and an even greater one for My Mother. But why was it done? To show you just how much love God has for His children. He brought His only Son into the world, born of a Virgin Child, pure of body, mind, and soul, beautiful in every way. He brought Him into the world so He could work miracles, speak His word, and die for the sins of mankind. So no matter how great the sinner, God loves them and wants them to repent and come back to Him.

I, as well as My Mother, was an example of true love and obedience to the will of the Father. Do not mistake why God keeps sending so many miracles to His children. There is a divine plan. He is trying to call as many of His children back to Him as possible before the time of chastisement. He wants as many saved as possible, and brought into His kingdom where they will reign with Him forever and ever. Time is running out, little one. My Mother keeps telling this to all of Her children to no avail. I keep telling My children this. It is as you have said little one, Our Lady and Her Son would not be speaking and appearing to so many if things were not winding down for the world as we know it. God is speaking to many, through many. He is allowing so many graces through miracles daily. Time is running out, and still people continue to hide their heads in the sand, choosing to ignore all that God is doing in their lives. Material things still seem to have the number one priority in children's lives. This is causing sins to be committed beyond belief; murders, abortion, abuse of My children is getting to be as common as telling lies and using God's name in vain. The prince of darkness has indeed taken over your world. The time of darkness has totally covered the land.

But, there is hope. There is hope for all those who are listening. My Mother calls to Her children and says, "Repent of your sins. Come to the Foot of My Son's cross. He has died for you and has risen from the dead. You too, can do the same. You can repent of your sins, die of self, and rise from the dead, be born again in the fullness and goodness of grace and mercy." All man must do is listen. God is a God of love. He wants good things for all His children. He is giving man every chance, little one. Prayer groups are springing up all over the world. Why? Because God in His mercy is giving them time to prepare for His Second Coming. They wish to take advantage of His goodness and mercy. Children who are aware of what God is about, wish to use this time to pray for others who have not heard the cry of My Mother, "The storm is here. Get under My protective mantle so you will not be harmed." It is as a mother hen does for her tiny chicks, as a storm approaches or harm of any kind comes near her little babies. So too, is My Mother gathering Her little ones under Her mantle, so
