

Message of Nov. 11, 1993, from Our Lord Jesus

Ruth Ann: Jesus.

Jesus: My child, I am here.

Ruth Ann: Many thoughts are going through my mind, but I keep remembering what was read at prayer group last night from the book 'God Calling' on November 7. I felt that particular message was for me.

Jesus: Little one, that message is for all My children, and yes, you are one of My children, are you not?

Ruth Ann: Lord, do You realize the dilemma I am put in? Many come to the farm to pray, but I don't feel I am to walk out and say, "Here I am." That only encourages a distraction. At least, that is the way I see it.

Jesus: Child, you are right about not calling attention to yourself, because the main reason for this farm now, is for those to come to gain peace. But you have been given a gift, and as I have said before, it is a gift to be shared. Those who ask for prayer are to receive prayer, but you have set a special time for that, and those who expect prayer must understand this. You have said you are available most Saturday's after prayer group, and every third Sunday after prayer group. These times are sufficient for the time being, but you do know that the numbers will grow, and your weekends will be consumed with people in need of prayer. This is not something you wish to hear child, but it is something that is to be. You have been told this many months ago by My Mother, and as time goes on, you will see how all will come about.

This irritates you little one, because you do not feel that your prayers should be important to other people. They should be able to pray to Me and My Mother here on this farm, without need of you. They can and do, but it is also true that you are a channel through which the water of life flows through. You are My instrument. You are their connection from Heaven to the earth.

Ruth Ann: But Lord, that does not sound right.

Jesus: In what way, child?

Ruth Ann: I mean, they can pray straight to You or Your Mother, without me being present.

Jesus: As I have said, this is true. But if you had been told that a certain person has a gift from Heaven, and was speaking with our Lord and His Mother, wouldn't you wish prayers of that person?

Ruth Ann: I don't know as I would wish prayers of that person, but I suppose I would be in awe of their gift. Maybe even a little envious, but I am more interested in those who get to see You or Your Mother, since I have never been given that gift.

Jesus: Little one, you have not as yet had an apparition from Me, but the time will come when you will no longer be able to say this.

Ruth Ann: So why are You waiting so long to do so?

Jesus: You have been told by Me and My Mother that you will see Her at the time of your death. She will be there to walk you into the Kingdom of Heaven. I will come to you after all of your children are settled, and then you will receive a complete healing, but you will be asked to carry a very heavy cross. The cross is one I have carried, and others after Me, too, have carried this cross.

You are being prepared, child. Trust in God. He knows your limits, your strengths, and weak-nesses. You have growing to do, you have things to do in the meantime. And you have been given this year with your family, and time to do some of the things you have not been able to do when you were teaching. Enjoy your respite, little one. The time is coming when there will be little time for anyone, or anything, but Me.

That is God's will, and His will, will be done.

Ruth Ann: I know I have been told these things, but it was so long ago, I had forgotten. I guess I had just put it out of my mind.

Jesus: Little one, it was set aside because it was something that was not relevant to that particular time in your life. Now, it is becoming apparent to you that changes are taking place in your life.

Ruth Ann: Lord, I visited school today. That is, the school where I taught last year. I was there for a breakfast for a retiring teacher. Do You think I will ever go back to teaching, in school, that is?

Jesus: Little one, you have been told you will be teaching, but in a different capacity. Let's just leave it at that for the time being. God has much for you to do. Know that, and be ready and willing to do His will, and not your own. You were a teacher for many years, and will continue to be so until the day you die. Once a teacher, always a teacher, but there are different forms of teaching. God wishes you to be teaching on behalf of His kingdom, so you must wait and see what He has in store. Patience, little one.

Ruth Ann: I've sure heard that enough, Lord.

Jesus: It is true, child. God will tell you what He wishes for you to do, and when. You must be attentive to what He wishes for you to do, and also be willing and obedient. He will take care of all the rest. You have much to do today, go in My peace.

Ruth Ann: Thank You, Lord.

Message of February 2, 1994, from Our Lady

Ruth Ann: Mother, would You speak with me?

Our Lady: Yes child, I thank you for taking the time to do so. Many of My children need to take the time to do so, but are always too busy with things of life. They don't realize that I would appreciate whatever time they have for Me, but if their time is so limited, they should spend it with My Son instead of Me. I am here only to help and guide all of God's children back to Him. I desire nothing for Myself.

Ruth Ann: But Mother, the rosaries and devotions to You, are they not important?

Our Lady: Child, they are greatly loved and appreciated by Me and My Son. Of course, they are of great importance. All I am saying is, that if you have limited time, please spend it with My Son, Who has given all for you. I am calling all of you to prayer, child. Those who are listening and answering My call are receiving graces and blessings in abundance. Yes, child, to love Me is to please My Son. To show respect and devotion to Me, again, brings blessings and graces in abundance to those who do so. These are not desires of My heart. I would desire that all love My Son in the way He deserves. No one upon the earth has done so much for so many, and has been treated so badly in return. Many have done it merely by neglect. How many of My children continue to accept the gifts of God's grace and mercy, and still do not thank Him? My Son is taken for granted and it should not be so. There will come a time when My children will realize their grave error, and it will be too late to make amends. If only My children would listen and heed the words of their Mother. I can free them of this burden before it becomes a great sorrow to them. Once they realize how they have hurt My Son, they will be overcome by grief. Some will repent and others will choose not to do so.

I continue to speak to My children, through many, and in many ways, but I have still to get the attention of those who refuse to accept that these are the 'end times'. I have great love for all of My children, and will continue to help in any way I can to draw them closer to My Son. Child, I am pleased that you have accepted this cross of spreading God's word among His people.

Ruth Ann: I am the one who is grateful to You and Your Son for allowing me to be Your instrument, unworthy though I am. I am sure You will continue to mold and make me what You will.

Our Lady: Child, it is only because you have chosen to do the will of God that this can be so. You could have chosen to say 'no' and walked away.

Ruth Ann: Then I would have disappointed God. That is not my wish. I intend to follow through, Mother, no matter what comes. In my heart I realize that times will become extremely difficult for those of us who have become visible in our love and witnessing for Our Lord.

That is God's will, and His will, will be done.

Ruth Ann: I know I have been told these things, but it was so long ago, I had forgotten. I guess I had just put it out of my mind.

Jesus: Little one, it was set aside because it was something that was not relevant to that particular time in your life. Now, it is becoming apparent to you that changes are taking place in your life.

Ruth Ann: Lord, I visited school today. That is, the school where I taught last year. I was there for a breakfast for a retiring teacher. Do You think I will ever go back to teaching, in school, that is?

Jesus: Little one, you have been told you will be teaching, but in a different capacity. Let's just leave it at that for the time being. God has much for you to do. Know that, and be ready and willing to do His will, and not your own. You were a teacher for many years, and will continue to be so until the day you die. Once a teacher, always a teacher, but there are different forms of teaching. God wishes you to be teaching on behalf of His kingdom, so you must wait and see what He has in store. Patience, little one.

Ruth Ann: I've sure heard that enough, Lord.

Jesus: It is true, child. God will tell you what He wishes for you to do, and when. You must be attentive to what He wishes for you to do, and also be willing and obedient. He will take care of all the rest. You have much to do today, go in My peace.

Ruth Ann: Thank You, Lord.

Message of February 2, 1994, from Our Lady

Ruth Ann: Mother, would You speak with me?

Our Lady: Yes child, I thank you for taking the time to do so. Many of My children need to take the time to do so, but are always too busy with things of life. They don't realize that I would appreciate whatever time they have for Me, but if their time is so limited, they should spend it with My Son instead of Me. I am here only to help and guide all of God's children back to Him. I desire nothing for Myself.

Ruth Ann: But Mother, the rosaries and devotions to You, are they not important?

Our Lady: Child, they are greatly loved and appreciated by Me and My Son. Of course, they are of great importance. All I am saying is, that if you have limited time, please spend it with My Son, Who has given all for you. I am calling all of you to prayer, child. Those who are listening and answering My call are receiving graces and blessings in abundance. Yes, child, to love Me is to please My Son. To show respect and devotion to Me, again, brings blessings and graces in abundance to those who do so. These are not desires of My heart. I would desire that all love My Son in the way He deserves. No one upon the earth has done so much for so many, and has been treated so badly in return. Many have done it merely by neglect. How many of My children continue to accept the gifts of God's grace and mercy, and still do not thank Him? My Son is taken for granted and it should not be so. There will come a time when My children will realize their grave error, and it will be too late to make amends. If only My children would listen and heed the words of their Mother. I can free them of this burden before it becomes a great sorrow to them. Once they realize how they have hurt My Son, they will be overcome by grief. Some will repent and others will choose not to do so.

I continue to speak to My children, through many, and in many ways, but I have still to get the attention of those who refuse to accept that these are the 'end times'. I have great love for all of My children, and will continue to help in any way I can to draw them closer to My Son. Child, I am pleased that you have accepted this cross of spreading God's word among His people.

Ruth Ann: I am the one who is grateful to You and Your Son for allowing me to be Your instrument, unworthy though I am. I am sure You will continue to mold and make me what You will.

Our Lady: Child, it is only because you have chosen to do the will of God that this can be so. You could have chosen to say 'no' and walked away.

Ruth Ann: Then I would have disappointed God. That is not my wish. I intend to follow through, Mother, no matter what comes. In my heart I realize that times will become extremely difficult for those of us who have become visible in our love and witnessing for Our Lord.

That is God's will, and His will, will be done.

Ruth Ann: I know I have been told these things, but it was so long ago, I had forgotten. I guess I had just put it out of my mind.

Jesus: Little one, it was set aside because it was something that was not relevant to that particular time in your life. Now, it is becoming apparent to you that changes are taking place in your life.

Ruth Ann: Lord, I visited school today. That is, the school where I taught last year. I was there for a breakfast for a retiring teacher. Do You think I will ever go back to teaching, in school, that is?

Jesus: Little one, you have been told you will be teaching, but in a different capacity. Let's just leave it at that for the time being. God has much for you to do. Know that, and be ready and willing to do His will, and not your own. You were a teacher for many years, and will continue to be so until the day you die. Once a teacher, always a teacher, but there are different forms of teaching. God wishes you to be teaching on behalf of His kingdom, so you must wait and see what He has in store. Patience, little one.

Ruth Ann: I've sure heard that enough, Lord.

Jesus: It is true, child. God will tell you what He wishes for you to do, and when. You must be attentive to what He wishes for you to do, and also be willing and obedient. He will take care of all the rest. You have much to do today, go in My peace.

Ruth Ann: Thank You, Lord.

Message of February 2, 1994, from Our Lady

Ruth Ann: Mother, would You speak with me?

Our Lady: Yes child, I thank you for taking the time to do so. Many of My children need to take the time to do so, but are always too busy with things of life. They don't realize that I would appreciate whatever time they have for Me, but if their time is so limited, they should spend it with My Son instead of Me. I am here only to help and guide all of God's children back to Him. I desire nothing for Myself.

Ruth Ann: But Mother, the rosaries and devotions to You, are they not important?

Our Lady: Child, they are greatly loved and appreciated by Me and My Son. Of course, they are of great importance. All I am saying is, that if you have limited time, please spend it with My Son, Who has given all for you. I am calling all of you to prayer, child. Those who are listening and answering My call are receiving graces and blessings in abundance. Yes, child, to love Me is to please My Son. To show respect and devotion to Me, again, brings blessings and graces in abundance to those who do so. These are not desires of My heart. I would desire that all love My Son in the way He deserves. No one upon the earth has done so much for so many, and has been treated so badly in return. Many have done it merely by neglect. How many of My children continue to accept the gifts of God's grace and mercy, and still do not thank Him? My Son is taken for granted and it should not be so. There will come a time when My children will realize their grave error, and it will be too late to make amends. If only My children would listen and heed the words of their Mother. I can free them of this burden before it becomes a great sorrow to them. Once they realize how they have hurt My Son, they will be overcome by grief. Some will repent and others will choose not to do so.

I continue to speak to My children, through many, and in many ways, but I have still to get the attention of those who refuse to accept that these are the 'end times'. I have great love for all of My children, and will continue to help in any way I can to draw them closer to My Son. Child, I am pleased that you have accepted this cross of spreading God's word among His people.

Ruth Ann: I am the one who is grateful to You and Your Son for allowing me to be Your instrument, unworthy though I am. I am sure You will continue to mold and make me what You will.

Our Lady: Child, it is only because you have chosen to do the will of God that this can be so. You could have chosen to say 'no' and walked away.

Ruth Ann: Then I would have disappointed God. That is not my wish. I intend to follow through, Mother, no matter what comes. In my heart I realize that times will become extremely difficult for those of us who have become visible in our love and witnessing for Our Lord.