Message of Jan. 5, 1995, from Our Lord Jesus

Ruth Ann: Lord, do You wish to speak to me?

Jesus: Little one, feel blessed, because your Jesus continues to be available to you, and others through you. As I continue to speak through you, for the benefit of all those who will listen, great graces abound.

My Mother has said, there will come a time when She will no longer speak with you, and give you messages for you to share, and this is to be, little one. It is not that She will no longer speak with you, but you will not share what She is sharing with you. She will be there for you, as you have need of Her.

Ruth Ann: Thank You for that, Lord.

Jesus: Little one, God has a plan, and it is difficult for you to understand all that is happening in your life at this time. As time goes on, those things you do not understand, will be made clear to you. Patience is a virtue, little one. It is also a gift. Not many of My children have this gift. Most of My children wish to have answers now. That is why it is so difficult for you to wait. But remember, all things come to him who waits.

Blessings will abound in the new year, little one. Many will be seeking the face of God, and many will continue to search for the true meaning of their existence. Many hearts will be touched, and many souls will be saved. You have been told this many times, but it is worth repeating. Your ministry is not going to end, but it is going to change. You have been prepared for this change. You will continue to be prepared for each and every task that God puts before you. Remember, many are asked but few are chosen.

You have said many times that you would have preferred God to have chosen someone else, for you feel unworthy. It is because you feel unworthy that you are just what is needed to get the work done, that must be done. None of My children could have related to a proud, arrogant, person who would act 'special', because of this gift. Most of My children are shy about their faith, and hesitant about sharing the gifts and blessings given to them. Others of My children can relate to someone who does not wish to be in the limelight, and would choose to be quiet, rather than share what has been given to them. Many of the same problems you have, are shared by My children who are reading the words I give to you. You do not realize the good you are doing, just in sharing your struggles and concerns.

So many of My children are seeking the same answers that you seek. They are hurting through losses similar to what you are experiencing, and they need to hear that God is watching over them, and will always be there for them through all their difficulties. Many times the feeling of total abandonment by Me, can be alleviated through the encouraging words of another. There is never a reason for one to feel totally alone. I am always here for all of My children. If you ever feel totally abandoned, it is through your lack of faith and trust in Me. God's word has been given to you, so that you could never feel alone. The Bible is at your fingertips, as it should be. If you, My children, would read My words on a daily basis, My children would feel My presence in these words.

My Mother has come to you to share the importance of these words, and has reminded you that these words must be taken seriously. The times have become extremely difficult for many of My children, but know that God's word will always be here for you. The Ten Commandments that were given to Moses many years ago, are just as important today, and just as relevant today, as they were then. They are God's laws, and laws that must be followed to attain eternal salvation. Many continue to feel that these laws are outdated, but this is not so. Man has changed, and the world has changed, but God's word will never be changed. And neither must it be altered to fit the times. Man must alter His life in order to live the laws of God, and attain the peace that awaits him, through the acceptance of these laws.

Peace is not attained through the arrogance and pride of those who choose to ignore the Word of God. Peace is not found through the seeking of pleasures of the flesh in all forms. Peace is found through the acceptance of God's love. Man must repent of his sins, and accept this gift of love God has to offer. You, and others like you, are there to remind My children that God still cares. He loves all of His children. He is here to work miracles, give blessings, and aid you in your hours of need. Trust children, and know that in your burdens and hurts, God is still there for you. He has sent His only Son to the earth to show you just how much He cares. He has allowed Him to be a human sacrifice for the sins of mankind. How much more must He do to show you just how much He cares?

Be at peace, My little children, My Mother continues to bless you through Her appearances, words, and graces, that pour forth in great abundance. I, too, am speaking to, and will continue to minister, to many. Why do you suppose this is true? Because time is precious to the One Who created you. Time, My children, is running out. Man must begin to take these words being spoken, more seriously than he has ever done before. The hand of justice is about to strike, and My children must be prepared with a repentant heart. This is not said to frighten My children, it is said to bring about the change of the heart that will bring peace, no matter what the circumstances.

Those who love Me, and stay focused on Me, will have no need to fear. I love you, and wish you to repent of your sins, and obtain the peace so necessary in this world of pain and suffering. My love remains with you. Seek My peace.

Message of June 16, 1993,
from Our Lady to Prayer Groups

Dear Children,

Again your Mother invites you to listen and live the messages. Again, I ask you to pray. Be aware, little children, that God is in control of your lives. You are not the one who is in control. Let your hearts break open, accept His holy will for you. Do not fight what God wishes of you. Each one of you has a special purpose in God's plan of salvation. Listen to what He tells you. Be obedient to His will and not your own. You cannot have peace and fight the will of God. He loves you and knows what is best. He knows the whole picture. Each one of you and your lives are a part of this picture. Do not hold back, or the picture will not be able to be completed. See how important you are to God's plan? Not man's will, but God's will be done. That is your purpose for being here dear children, it is as you have learned as a small child. You are put on the earth to know, love and serve God, and then return to Heaven and be happy with Him forever. Man has forgotten this. He still thinks his reason for being here is to be happy and serve himself. Give yourselves over to God. Let Him know you love Him. My protective mantle sur-rounds you. Seek God's peace.

Message of October 24, 1994,
from Our Lord Jesus

Ruth Ann: Lord, much is happening over which I have no control. I am at Your mercy.

Jesus: Little one, that is what 'trust' is all about. You must approach each new day with complete abandonment to My will. That is what faith and trust in your God is all about.

Ruth Ann: I truly realize that, Lord, I know it in my heart. But it is difficult to achieve this level of trust, and still live in the real world. I find my life is like a roller -coaster, lots of ups and downs.

Jesus: One day you will achieve this constant trust. Life is a struggle for most of My children. It is filled with those things that pull and tug at the peace you wish to maintain. When you are able to say to Me, 'I don't understand, but Thy will be done', and truly mean it, those pulls and tugs will not be so great. The hills and valleys will become less and less, and you will find yourself in a world filled with very few valleys and more and more hills. The hills will be more like mountains. The day will come when, no matter what happens, you will be able to say, 'It's God's will, and I trust in His plan'.

Ruth Ann: You have such faith in me, Lord.

Jesus: I know you, child. I know there is much happening in your life to cause you great sorrow and pain. I also know you are having to completely trust in Me because you are not sure of what is to come next. Each day is begun in faith, child. Trust in your God to tend to all that is coming about to change your life. Change is not bad. It brings about growth. That growth will bring you even closer to Me than before.

Know that I am in control, little one. You have been told and prepared in many ways for this change. Even though you did not understand My plan, I have told you of a change in your ministry. I have told you many of the things that are coming to pass. I have also told you to trust in a God who loves you. You are to do much for Me and My children. I will not leave you without support. Know this in your heart, and trust that all will be done for the good of your soul, and that of My good. With that in mind, how can you be concerned?

Ruth Ann: Lord, it is my humanness. I am concerned about an injustice being done to someone whom I love very much.

Jesus: I was accused unjustly of great wrongs, child. You too, are accused of being 'not of Me' by those who do not understand what is truly happening in your life. That is the way of the world, child. Much good will come from all the evil that is being done to the person you are concerned about. You do not see the whole picture. 'Vengeance is Mine', sayeth the Lord. Those who wish to do harm to those who are of Me, will have much to suffer. My children see the splinter in the eye of their brother, but they do not see the plank in their own eye. This is true of most of My children. It is easy to find fault with those around you, but it is difficult to notice one's own faults.

Be at peace, little one. God is watching over all that is being said and done. You need not be concerned. All will be tended to in God's time, and in God's way.

Ruth Ann: Yes Lord, I do know that, but that does not change the sadness in my heart for this person.

Jesus: All will be for the good, God's plan is perfect.

Ruth Ann: Yes Lord. Help me to accept all things, even those I don't understand.

Jesus: The graces are there, and so are the prayers of many

Message of Nov. 8, 1994,
from Our Lord Jesus

Ruth Ann: Lord, here we go again. I have been sitting on a message I received many weeks ago. Now it is to begin. All things are being done that have been asked of me. These things are not easy, Lord. You continue to ask more and more.

Jesus: Little one, if you did not do these things, you would not be obedient. Without obedience, there would be no growth. You must continue to trust and be obedient; for all things there is a reason. Many will be able to hear you witness and be brought to the farm. This is the desire of My Mother. This place is a special place of peace and prayer. Know that the graces being dispensed here will be instrumental in the saving of souls. Many conversions will take place here, little one. I know you do not truly understand, but this is not important that you understand. The fact you listened and are obedient, is of great importance. Without your willingness to follow the will of God, these things would not take place. You must continue to be pliable. The Lord will continue to mold you to His liking. You are not to worry. It will all be done for you. You need only continue to say 'yes' to all God asks of you.

Ruth Ann: You know, and I know Lord, each thing I do is difficult for me.

Jesus: Your sacrifices are earning many graces, not only for you, but for others as well. If you think of these things you do as graces for others, that should be of help to you. You wish for My children to receive healings, and what better healing than that of the soul? Other healings too, are made available to My children here. But the best of all, is the spiritual healing that takes place for having come here to pray.

My Mother is here to dispense graces to Her children at all times. The holy angels and saints are here to also minister to My children. You do not understand why you were called to be a part of such blessings. But it is because of your faith, trust, and willingness to be obedient to the will of God, no matter what the cost.

Ruth Ann: Lord, You know I did not wish to have my picture in the paper, nor did my husband. We do not wish to be the focus. Your Mother has said to stay focused on You and prayer. We have tried to do that here, Lord. The message I was given in September, to begin witnessing at the farm weekly, really bothers me. I don't mean in my spirit, but I didn't want to be tied to a specific time and place. Too, I felt people would think that was pretty arrogant, to begin witnessing where I live.

Jesus: Little one, God has a purpose for each task He puts before you. As each task is done, more will be expected. How do you expect to grow, if you are not asked to do these things that are difficult for you? If you continue along, and are not to do anything beyond what you are already doing, there is no growth. I have asked you to minister to My people. How can you minister if you are not made visible, so they can see, hear, and pray with you? God knows your heart, and knows you do not choose to be visible. If your wish was to be visible, and receive recognition for all you do, then you would not be used in this way. God wishes His servants to be humble. He wishes for His children to realize that all gifts given, are given from Him. You, child, know you could do nothing without the graces provided you by your Lord God.

Ruth Ann: Not only that, Lord, I would not have chosen to do these things asked of me.

Jesus: You have not chosen Me, I have chosen you. It is because of your faith, humility, and desire to please Me, that you are an effective tool for Me to use, little one. Your husband is of great support to you, this is also through the grace of God. You were concerned about your children pulling away from you because of this last article in the paper, since it was local. But they too, continue to have the strength and faith to support you. Where do you suppose this strength comes from?

Ruth Ann: Lord, I know where it all comes from. Remember, I have given you my children and grandchildren, if You desire to take them away from me. Everything I have is Yours, Lord. I have nothing more to give.

Jesus: That is where you are wrong. You have everything to give, and it continues to be a blessing to Me, little one. The gift of self, and all you possess, are everything to Me. Not many are able to do this child. Your gift is everything. Body, mind, soul, and all you hold dear on the earth, are the greatest gifts you can give to Me. You have come a long way, and you do not realize this. You are awaiting My arrival, and are being prepared. Be patient, and know that all must be in My time and in My way. Nothing you say or do can go unnoticed by your Creator and Redeemer. You are of great importance to Me, little one. God loves you and is watching over you. Be at peace with all you do.

Ruth Ann: Lord, I am at peace. I'm just not looking forward to the witnessing, but then I didn't want the article or the picture in the paper either. So Thy will be done, Lord. I love You, and wish to be of help to You in any way I can. Even if it is doing those things I find difficult.

Jesus: I know your heart, child. Be at peace with all that is happening in your life. It is all part of God's plan. Remember, His plan is perfect.

Ruth Ann: Yes, Lord.

Message of October 25, 1994, from Our Lord Jesus

Ruth Ann: Lord, yesterday was a fairly quiet day. Even though it rained, it was a beautiful fall day. The colors have been spectacular this year. Thank You.

Jesus: Little one, thank you for noticing Me.

Ruth Ann: Thank You for so many prayers answered. You know the people I'm referring to, Lord. It makes what I'm doing truly worth it, when I hear about all those things You have done for Your children. Thank You too, for all the little miracles You send my way.

Jesus: Little one, I do many things for all My children, but not all take notice. The good and the bad accept My little miracles and say, 'What luck'. I get lots of credit for the bad that befalls My children, but barely get so much as a 'grunt' from the many graces and blessings that are bestowed upon My children regularly. If all goes well, they feel it is through their talent, or just plain luck. Man does not realize that I tend to even the smallest of his needs. You have experienced this on a regular basis, child, so you know exactly to what I am referring.

Ruth Ann: You are right, Lord, but I'm not so sure I'd have recognized your divine intervention in my life a few years ago. It's just that my whole life revolves around You now. We are totally dependent upon You, and Your love and mercy, so even the bad things I give to You, and expect good to come from them. You always come through, Lord.

Jesus: All those things that happen in your life have a purpose, little one, even those things that appear to be very hurtful. The evil one continues to wreak havoc, but remember who is stronger. I am in control. I can use even the evil and painful part of your life to the good of your soul, and the good of those around you.

Man wishes to be in control of his life at all times. He does not realize that God is truly the One Who has the perfect plan. In giving your life and will over to His, you begin to realize all the wonderful gifts and blessings that have been given to you by your God. When My children realize this, and acknowledge it, that time is truly a blessing for Me. You, little one, have so many concerns, some little, and some not so little. You continue to do the will of God through the tears and pain. How could I not tend to your every need?

Ruth Ann: Lord, I have no real physical pain. It's all through the suffering of others that I feel such pain.

Jesus: Watch, child. All things will be for the greater honor and glory of God. You are not to understand God's ways, little one. You are only to be obedient and do all that is being asked of you. Be patient and trust in your God. He has a perfect plan, and you need only listen and trust in His ways. I am a God of surprises, am I not? You have heard this spoken, and these words have truly touched your heart. You have seen the surprises continue to be revealed to you many times in your life, and the lives of your family and friends.

Ruth Ann: You do truly amaze me, Lord. What love and compassion You have for Your children, to tend to even the tiniest of our needs.

Jesus: I listen to all your prayers and desires, those spoken, and those you hold in your heart. All prayers are answered, not in man's time necessarily, but in God's time. Not always in man's ways, but in My way. Man could do well to say 'not my will, but Thy will be done'. That is difficult for My children to do. Again, man wishes to feel in control, and think that he knows what is best for himself and those for whom he is praying. He really hasn't learned to trust in Me.

Once the trust has been established, peace comes about. This peace is the peace that can only come from God. It is an acceptance of the will of God, no matter how painful and heart-wrenching it may be. With the pain will come an inner peace that will help you accept whatever comes for you, because you know God is in control and all will work for His greater good. This is His promise, you do the will of God, and he will tend to the rest. Trust. This is a show of true love of your God. Once man can learn to turn loose of this desire to always feel in control of all things, and put this control into the hands of His Creator, life will become less difficult.

Through the pain you are experiencing now, you are learning these things. This is all part of your journey of faith, little one. It is a journey that all My children must travel, if they truly wish to do the will of God. Be at peace, little one, and know God is in control of all things, the great and the small.

Ruth Ann: Thank You, Lord. I do know that, but it is good to be reminded.

Jesus: All of My children are in need of reminders from time to time. Thank you for listening and sharing what I have said to you. There are others who are in need of hearing this.

Ruth Ann: Yes, Lord.

Message of Sept. 1, 1993,
from Our Lady

Ruth Ann: Dear Mother, thank You for the messages for the prayer group.

Our Lady: Child, it is for all prayer groups.

Ruth Ann: Mother, there is so much evil and destruction going on.

Our Lady: Yes, child. This is a difficult time for My children. That is why Jesus has sent His Mother to the earth. I am being allowed by God to assist His children. I am here to call you out of the darkness, and back to light. The light of the world has grown dim. It is covered with the corrosion of sin. Man must take the blindness from his eyes. The more and more he seeks happiness through material things and self-gratification of all kinds, the further he pushes his way into the darkness. If man could only see that by shedding the need for the excess baggage he has placed upon himself, he could see that things are weighing him down. Things are pulling him away from the true meaning of life; which is love, peace, and light. Man does not need all these things to make him happy. These are all giving him a false sense of security. There is no security on this earth except the will of God. Be consumed with doing His will, and the peace will come, the security and light will come. God continues to call to all His children through many of His children. He is using many who will listen and share His words and miracles with others. He has allowed Me to come to the earth over and over to many: in apparitions, locutions, visions, and manifestations of many miracles. All of these things come from God. Thank Him for allowing Me to guide you in this time of darkness.

Ruth Ann: Mother, we have just been interrupted. I am sorry.

Our Lady: It is all right, child. Pray, and your peace will return to you. I will speak with you at another time.

Message of Nov. 10, 1994,
from Our Lord Jesus

Jesus: You are too close to all that is happening. You cannot see the big picture. It is like standing too close to a painting. All you can see is an area, or one aspect of the picture. As time goes on, you will see many of the revelations brought forth to blossom before your eyes. Know your God has been planning these things before you were even put here on this earth. He knows all things. As I have said before, the evil that brings about many of the changes that are happening in your world, and the world of those you love, are not of Me. But I can use all things for My greater honor and glory.

When you say 'yes' to My will, little one, there is no limit as to what I would do for, and through, you. There are so few willing to give up everything for Me. When I find someone willing to do so, the burdens become extremely heavy. There are so few willing workers in My vineyards. When I find someone willing, they must be stretched beyond belief in love, faith, and obedience. When they have been tested and purified, then they can be molded to suit My purpose for them on this earth. You are in the process of being molded. The process is painful, but God expects much from those who love Him. Trust, little one, you will not be orphaned. You will be attended to. All of your needs will be met, as well as those of the ones you love.

When My children say 'yes' to Me, that 'yes' brings with it the burden of My cross. With this burden comes the guarantee that I am with them unto the very end of their earthly existence, and continue to be with them throughout the rewards of the eternal life, promised by My Death and Resurrection. So be at peace, little one. The pain of your grief will subside, and you will be able to see the purpose for all things revealed to you in the past. Go in My peace.

Your day is full. Do all for My greater honor and glory. Know I am with you through all that is, and is to come.

Ruth Ann: Yes, Lord. Give me the grace and strength to do all You would have me do.

Jesus: It is done.
