
“TO JESUS THROUGH MARY”

Lessons and Messages to the World from Jesus and the Blessed Virgin Mary to Ruth Ann Wade of Bloomington, Indiana

Compiled by Mary's Children, P. O. Box 27, Washington, IN 47501 - November 2020

*Message of Aug. 22, 1994,
from Our Lord Jesus*

Ruth Ann: Lord, You obviously have something to say to me.

Jesus: Only if you wish to listen, little one.

Ruth Ann: Lord, I am listening.

Jesus: You are concerned about many things, child, and you need not be concerned about anything. God is watching over you and will tend to all your needs, as well as those who come to you seeking prayer and peace.

Ruth Ann: Lord, I give up. I don't understand any of this, but Thy will be done. All of this is difficult for me, but I will do whatever you wish, no matter how humiliating it is for me.

Lord, the messages are reaching more and more people, I am told. And more and more people are coming to the farm.

Jesus: My Mother knows whom She desires to be here, and who is ready to receive the graces and conversions available through this ministry, little one. That is why She has chosen this method, word of mouth, to see this ministry grow. She did not wish to overwhelm you, so She did not choose to have people to come in mass as curiosity seekers. She wishes only those be present here who are genuinely interested in helping Her achieve all God would have Her do. She is here, present on this farm, anytime there are people here to pray.

Mother of the Redeemer Farm

This is a special place, blessed by God, to receive graces from My Mother. Graces that will be instrumental in the days ahead. There will come a time, when it will be difficult for some of My children to find a place where they will be able to pray the Rosary, for example. Much is being taken away from those of My children who choose to follow the true teachings of their church. Much has been removed, using the excuse that Vatican II has removed it, or called for its removal. The evil one has been subtle, but He is undermining the faith of My people.

Please, little one, make people aware, who are listening, that it is important to stand firm in their faith. Follow the New Testament. My words are there to help you. They are your salvation. My Mother has been speaking them over and over, in different ways to different people, in order to reawaken those who have been dead in their faith. She continues to look for, and find, those of Her children who are ready to listen and share. She is in need of much help. That is what this place, and others like it, are all about. She is calling all of Her children to pray the Rosary for peace.

It need not matter what faith or religion you are, She needs the help of all of Her children. The evil one continues to murder, maim, and influence the lives of those who have turned their back on God. Even those who think they are good Christians, just because they attend church one day a week, are in need of conversion. They have not given themselves that which is necessary for salvation. They still have many gods other than the one true God. Money, greed, lust for power, and self, rules their lives.

Where has the love of God and neighbor gone? The true Christian values, by which all of My children should be living their lives, have gone by the wayside. God is not willing to stand by any longer and watch this nation continue to turn its back on Him. He is angry and disgusted with His children. My Mother has been sent here to warn, plead, and encourage Her children to pray. Those who have, and are listening, will find solace in this. Those who wish to ignore Her call to peace and prayer will continue to find life more and more difficult.

Those of you who are listening, continue to pray and stay focused on your Jesus and His Cross. Much is to come which will be very difficult. But as long as you have the faith and trust in God that you have nurtured over the years, that My Mother has been speaking to you, you will be able to keep the peace that will be so badly needed in the days ahead. Pray for peace, and all of My children who do not have a clue as to what is going on around them. It is easier for My children to turn a deaf ear and walk away, than it is to listen and make a needed change in their life.

Pray for all of My children who will be lost if they do not have a conversion of the heart, mind, and soul. Be attentive, and share My words, little one. God is with you. My Mother is with you. Strength will continue to be poured out upon you to sustain you through these troubled times. Minister to My people, child. It is imperative that you do so. Go in My peace.

Ruth Ann: Yes Lord, but why am I receiving such strong messages lately?

Jesus: Little one, this is nothing new. My Mother spoke of these times that were to come in the messages given to you a few years ago. Now the time has come for those things to happen of which you were warned. She had told you they were messages for the world. Many read them and ignore them. Those who did read them and listened, have been waiting for the fruits of your work, in order to take these messages seriously. The problem is, there is no more time. The waiting is over, and precious time, that could have been spent in prayer and spreading those messages, has been wasted. Time is no longer running out. It has run out, and still many of My children are unaware.

That is through no fault of yours, little one. You have done all you were asked to do. Pray, little one, for God's mercy on all those who choose not to listen and be converted.

Ruth Ann: Yes Lord, I will do so.

*Message of Sept. 22, 1994,
from Our Lord Jesus*

Ruth Ann: Jesus, I'm not sure hearing these words given to me by Your Mother will be of comfort to many. There are so many seeking a time for all things to come to a halt.

Jesus: Many are doing just that, child, and they should be living the messages given many years ago. The messages of Fatima, had they been lived, would have brought about a peaceful world. Instead, My children did not listen then, and they are not listening now. My Mother will continue to call out to the lost sheep wandering in the night, until She will no longer be allowed to do so. She has been a kind and loving Mother to all God's children. She has been ignored, and much worse, has been treated with much disrespect from the very ones She is trying to draw back to God. This is displeasing to Me, and the One Who created Her. Those Who love My Mother are best loved by Me. You have heard that before.

My Mother has suffered much pain over the centuries in concern for all of you. She is extremely concerned for your souls at this time, for She knows time is running out. You, My children, should be aware of this, through the messages and appearances of My Mother all over the world at this time.

It has become quite evident that the world is in trouble. You need only listen to the news, or read the newspaper, and you will find the condition of the world is the worst it has ever been. The moral decay is all around you. Values have been destroyed that were extremely important to good family life. Man has turned from God, and has turned to pleasures of the flesh, seeking comfort.

Yes, you are living in the end times, and it is important that you listen to, and live the messages being spoken to you by My Mother. Love one another, and pray for God's Mercy to be poured out abundantly on all those who ask for it. Pray for the conversions of all sinners. Listen, and be obedient children. Your souls are in need of grace and mercy that is available to you from God.

Ruth Ann: Thank You for taking the time to speak with me, Lord. I will share this with others.

Message of Nov. 20, 1994, from Our Lady to Prayer Groups

My Dear Children,

I wish to thank you for gathering together in prayer. 'Be it done to Me according to Thy word'. These words were spoken by Me to God the Father many years ago. Now it is time for these words to be repeated. God has allowed Me to come to the earth to minister to His children to draw them away from the world and back to His Son. He has allowed Me to speak to, and through, many of His chosen ones. Soon the messages you have been receiving here will cease. I must decrease and My Son must increase.

I have come to point the way to My Son. Those of you who have listened and taken to heart the words being spoken to you, have been of great help to Me with your prayers. These prayers must continue. Many of My children are still in need of conversion. Many of My children feel that because they attend the church of their choice weekly, they are not in need of conversion. There is more to conversion than going to church. A true conversion comes when you have decided to follow Jesus, no matter what the price.

You were created by God for a reason. Many of you forget this. You were put on the earth to know, love, and serve God, and to be happy with Him in Heaven for all eternity. Many of you do not know God. Many do not love Him as your Supreme, Divine, Creator of all things. Many of you do not serve Him. How can that be? It is reflected in the way you treat one another. Love God and your neighbor as yourself for the love of God. It is the greatest of all commandments. These are not just words, dear children, these are a blueprint for your salvation.

The words I have spoken to you over and over, are words that have been spoken to you before. I have not been giving you any new revelations. God has been good to you. He loves you and wishes for you to find peace in your heart, lives, and world. Peace will not come to a world filled with hatred for one another. Change your hearts. Find forgiveness in your hearts for all those who do you harm. Love one another. Be at peace with one another. Then, and only then, can a true conversion begin in your heart. I wish this peace for you. God wishes this peace for you. Pray, dear children, for God's mercy to be given out in abundance to all those who choose to ignore Him and blatantly flaunt their sinfulness in His face.

God is a God of mercy, but He is also a God of justice. As any good parent should do, He must discipline those who continue to live their lives doing only those things that are bringing them pleasure, and ignoring the feelings of others. In using your free will, many of you have made choices, not for God, but instead you have chosen to live your lives according to the world. Your world is full of evil. It is full of darkness. You must choose to live your lives following the example of His Son and My Son, Jesus. This is the supreme example put before you for your good. God loves you and I love you. You must pray!

Message of October 12, 1994,
from Our Lady to Prayer Groups

My Dear Children,

Do you not realize the importance of the words being spoken to you? God loves you, but He is also concerned about the world and the condition of the souls of all His children. Many still do not listen or take to heart the words that God is telling to all of His children at this time. My Mother's heart aches for all those who choose to ignore all that is being said, because it was My hope that these words would draw many back to My Son. Too many still choose darkness over light. Those of you who are listening and taking to heart what I am saying, please continue to pray for all My intentions. Satan wishes to destroy this world and all those who live in it. Pray for peace, God's peace. Know I am joining with you in prayer.

Message of October 12, 1994,
from Our Lady
(After Prayer Group Message)

Ruth Ann: Mother, You seem very sad.

Our Lady: Child, the condition of the world, and the condition of the souls of My children, these continue to bring sadness to My Heart. My Son awaits His children with open arms. He is ready and willing to take them back at the first sign of repentance, but they choose to ignore all that is being done and shown at this time. People must open their eyes and hearts. They must listen. The signs are all around you. Soon I will no longer be allowed to minister to you in the ways I have been doing. You will be on your own to survive the difficult times that are upon you.

Many of My children continue to hide their heads in the sand. Do you not see the time is now, to turn back to God, and leave the ways of the world behind? What more can I do and say, as your Mother? I have continued to bring you words of love, hope, and encouragement. I have continued to guide you away from self-destruction, and back to My Son. Still you choose to walk into the depths of hell, grasping for peace. How can this be? I love you, and wish to save you. You continue to ignore and seek self-gratification, and all those things that draw you further and further away from the truth.

You have said I sound sad, child. My heart is saddened. Not only am I saddened, but I am disappointed in My children. Please listen. Pray, pray, pray! God is still listening. His mercy is great, and so is His love. The hour of justice is at hand, My little ones, and still you do not understand. Pray, and ask the Holy Spirit to help you to understand all that is being said to you. God loves you, and I love you. We wish your souls to be saved. You must choose. We cannot choose for you.

Ruth Ann: Mother, You sound like things are winding down.

Our Lady: Child, you have been listening and hearing what has been said to you. You have been sharing and doing those things that are asked of you, but know, child, many are not. Many still seek to believe they have much time ahead to prepare for the hand of justice. It is upon them, and they still choose to hide from the facts.

I have told you before, that the time is coming soon when the apparitions and words will cease. Then, what of those who have not taken to heart these words being said to you? What of all those children still seeking signs and wonders, and have not tended to their souls? You must pray with, and for them. They will need your strength, love, and trust in God in the times ahead. You will still need to minister to My children, but even more so than before. We will continue to be here for you, but the messages to share will cease.

Ruth Ann: Mother, how can this be? Why would You withdraw the messages to share? This gives hope and strength to Your children.

Our Lady: All that is being said has not been taken to heart, child. Many listen and read the messages, and then do not pray. They wait for the next message, or go seeking signs all over the world. The signs have been there, the wonders have been there, and the words have been there for My Children. These have been allowed to draw My children to a true conversion. These were to bring about a willingness to turn back to God, and away from sin. There has been a purpose for each gift and grace granted to each one of My children. For many, it was granted so they could share these special experiences with others, to bring about more conversions.

It is the changing of the heart, and the changing of your life, that I have been seeking for you. I have asked you to turn back to My Son. Do not continue to hurt Him by turning your back on Him, and choosing evil over good. You must listen to the words being spoken to you! Live the messages by changing your hearts and lives.

Ruth Ann: Thank You for sharing these words with me, Mother.

Our Lady: Child, My children are not listening.

Ruth Ann: Many are, Mother.

Our Lady: For those who are listening, I thank you for doing so. Please pray, and know I am praying with you.

Message of Sept. 18, 1994, from Our Lady

Ruth Ann: Mother, do You have anything to add?

Our Lady: Man continues on the path to self-destruction. Much pain and suffering is in store for My children. They have been blind and deaf to all that is being done. This is by choice, that man is destroying himself and the world around him. God has allowed Your Mother among you for many years, to help and guide you away from the path you have chosen.

Man continuously chooses evil instead of those things that are good for him. He seeks pleasures of the flesh, and yet he knows that flesh must die. Your soul lives on forever, little children. You must seek to nourish this soul through those things that are of God. My concern for you and your world is great. There is much pain in My heart because of the hardness of your hearts.

Soon I will no longer be allowed to be among you. My words, being shared with you, will also cease. What then will happen to My children who do not have the faith to sustain them? You must listen and live the messages that have been spoken to you. Know that God is trying to save your immortal souls. This precious gift He is giving you of My appearances and messages, is to bring you back to Him. Discard all in your life that is not of God, so that you can be at peace. God's peace is of the utmost importance in a world filled with no peace.

Darkness has covered your world. The only light in this darkness is that of My Son. Seek One Who is Light, Truth, and Love. Seek the Prince of Peace and know that this is the most important peace of all. As times become more and more difficult, know that His love endures forever. Listen to all that is being said to you, little children. My protective mantle surrounds you. You must pray.

Ruth Ann: Mother, the message You gave me for the farm today was quite strong.

Our Lady: Child, it too, will fall on deaf ears. My children do not wish to know the truth. If they know the truth, then they must change their heart, their lives must change, and all they hold dear must change. Things of the earth must be set aside for them to have room for those things that are of the utmost importance.

Message of October 29, 1994, from Our Lady

Ruth Ann: Mother, would You please speak with me?

Our Lady: Yes child, I am pleased to do so.

Ruth Ann: I just wish to thank You for ministering to me and all Your children these many months. You have said soon the messages will cease, and I just wanted to let You know how much I have appreciated being allowed to speak with You, and share the words spoken to me.

Our Lady: Child, you will still be able to speak with Me. It is just that the messages will cease.

Ruth Ann: There are those who will truly miss the messages from You, Mother.

Our Lady: Child, I have said all that has needed to be said. The words have been of great help to many, but others do not listen. You must hear the words and live the messages for them to be of any help to you. Many listen, but do not change their lives. You must truly take the messages to heart. My Mother's heart aches for those who refuse to take heed, and turn back to My Son. The words I have come to share are not new.

God loves you, and wishes you to become concerned about your soul. He wishes you to turn away from darkness. Man is destroying himself through greed, lust, and hate. Darkness is everywhere. It covers your land. You have no regard for life in any form, before or after birth. There is so much hate, anger, and unrest. Man must learn to take time to listen to God through His word. He must take time to pray, and in prayer, thank God for His many blessings. Man has taken so much for granted. Everything he is, and has, comes from God, and can be removed as easily as it was given to you. Your family, good health, jobs, all your material things, can be removed in the blink of an eye. What then?

If that is all you have lived for, the physical and worldly part of your life, where will you be spiritually? You must concern yourself with your soul, little children. You must cultivate a love and trust in God that will survive, no matter what is to come. I am here to help and guide you back to My Son. I am here to help you attain the love and peace that is needed in your hearts, and in your world. All the words have been said that have needed to be said. Now, My children must read the words and take them to their hearts.

Your work is far from done, child. God still has much for you to do, but you have been told months ago that your ministry will change. This is part of that change. Share what has been spoken to you many times, over and over. It is time for all My children to turn back to God. I have asked that you begin giving your talks on the farm. I am pleased that you are doing so. This land is special, and I will provide special graces and blessings for all those who come here in faith to pray. I will send those to listen to what you have to share. The numbers will be small in the beginning, but it will grow.

Be at peace with all that is asked of you. You do not understand much of what you are being told to do, but God's plan is perfect. You are to listen and be obedient. He will tend to the rest. Now go in My Son's peace. Minister to His people. I will be praying with you.

Ruth Ann: Yes Mother, I love You.

Our Lady: I know you are concerned because you are being told so little, but your faith will sustain you, little one. It has, up to now, and it will continue to do so. God has His hands upon you. He will not leave you for even an instant. Trust in all that has been spoken to you. God's love is great. You are to listen, and do all He has told you to do. Have faith and trust in Him. He will do the rest.

Message of Sept. 28, 1994,
from Our Lady
(After Prayer Group Message)

Ruth Ann: Mother, is there anything You wish to add to the message?

Our Lady: Little one, My children are not taking prayer as seriously as it is needed to be taken. There is much evil and deceit in your world. The suffering and killings continue, and still many have not put it all together. Many do not see a connection between evil and the suffering. I have come to your world as your Mother and Protector. I have come to help you find your way out of this darkness. I continue to give messages to all of you, and few show any sign that they are taking My words seriously. These words and messages must be taken seriously, children, for there will come a time when you will be on your own, with no one to guide you. You will be left with your faith and trust in God alone.

If you have accepted all that has been said to you during these times I have been here with you, you will be able to walk and stand steadfast with your faith and trust in God. You will be able to stay focused on My Son. Many have not listened, and those who have listened have not taken My words seriously. I would not be here among you at this time if some-thing of great seriousness was not about to happen in, and to your world. As your Mother, I suffer greatly for those souls who are going to be lost, because they have chosen to turn their back on God during a time when He is needed most.

Stop the killing, hatred, lust and greed that consumes your minds and hearts! These things are not of God, Who created you. You are worshipping false gods, and this will bring destruction to your world. The evil one continues to tempt and control you. You must not let him destroy you and those around you. That is his desire, to destroy you and your world. He does not wish to see peace anywhere in your world. He is wreaking havoc among you, and I need much prayer to help turn all that is evil to good.

God is watching, in hopes that I can gather a remnant few together with faith and trust in Him, that will help Me save those most in need of His mercy. With My prayer, the Rosary, My chosen ones will bind the evil one, and stop him from destroying everything I have worked so hard to achieve. Stay focused, little children. Continue to pray and do not lose heart, no matter what the circumstances. Know God loves you, and I love you. My Immaculate Heart will triumph, but there will be much suffering before this comes about. Man continues to bring this upon himself through his lack of love for God. You must be patient, obedient, and follow all God asks of you. My Son is pleased with those who continue to seek His help, and the help of His Mother. Be at peace, little children, and be vigilant.

*Message of Dec. 18, 1994,
from Our Lady to Prayer Groups*

My Dear Children,

I thank you for responding to My call. The needs of My children are great, and much prayer must come from those who realize this. Hearts must be touched and broken open, in order to receive all the love that God has to give His children. I am here to see that hearts are touched, that otherwise would continue to struggle in darkness. I am here to draw you out of this darkness and into the light. The light of love and peace awaits all those willing to open their eyes to see, and their ears to hear. Most of all, their hearts must be open to receive a true conversion.

Little children, do not continue to seek those things that are not of God. Seek God first, and He will tend to all those things that will draw you to Himself. Great sacrifices are needed from you. God loves you, and wishes you to share in His peace. Listen to Me, little children, I wish to help you achieve this peace needed in your life, and in your world. I am with you to help you in any way I can. Turn to Me and take My hand. I will take you to My Son. He awaits you with His love and mercy. I am blessing you in the Name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit. Go in God's peace to love and serve him.

*Message of Dec. 18, 1994,
from Our Lady
(After Prayer Group Message)*

Ruth Ann: Mother, is there anything You wish to add?

Our Lady: Child, do you realize that a lot that is being said is falling on deaf ears?

Ruth Ann: Mother, this was true of the words spoken in the time of Your Son's ministry.

Our Lady: Yes child, you are correct. But the need is even greater now, than it was before. That time was the beginning. This time is the end. That means, child, that time is running out for My children to receive the true conversion needed to receive the gift of God's love and mercy. Words can be spoken, but unless these words are taken to heart, they cannot, and will not, bring about the change of heart needed to receive all that God has to give His children. That is why it is so important for those who are listening, to take to heart the messages being spoken to so many.

My children are in need of conversion. They continue to seek those things in this world that bring about temporary happiness. God asks that you seek happiness that lasts for all eternity. This can only come from placing yourself in His hands. He will tend to all things. Put Him first, and know that in doing so, you could not be in greater care. Lives must be prioritized. You must change your hearts in order to receive all that God wishes to give to you. Place Him first in your life, and all things will fall into place. God's plan is perfect, and so is His love. Be at peace, little children, God's love awaits you.
