*Message of Dec. 25, 1994,
from Our Lord Jesus*

Ruth Ann: Lord, this is Your birthday. Happy Birthday!

Jesus: Little one, yes, this day will be one of joy for many who know the true meaning of Christmas. That will be the special part of this day for Me, seeing those who truly know why this day is special, celebrate it in the love of their Jesus.

Ruth Ann: Many go to church today for this very reason, Lord.

Jesus: Many do not. Those are the ones that are of concern to Me. Those are the ones that were of concern to Me nearly two thousand years ago, and they are still the ones who have made My suffering and death on the cross so painful.

Those of you who love Me, and will take the time to be with Me, are of great comfort, but you must pray for those who do not love Me, and ignore Me. They not only will ignore Me on My birthday, but all year long. They turn their backs on Me. They seek the peace and love that should come from Me, from things. This will continue until all things are removed from them.

Ruth Ann: Lord, that is a strange statement, 'until all things are removed from them'.

Jesus: Little one, it is not a strange statement. It is a statement concerning the state of your world. All around you, in other countries, you see devastation brought on by man's greed and lust for power. You see the world being destroyed because of hatred for one another. The innocent suffer, as well as the guilty, and still the hatred continues.

Your world is going to experience devastation too, child, and it is through those who choose to ignore all the signs that have been put before them. My Mother has told you, "You were only a footstep away from the war and depravation of other nations," and yet, man continues on the road to destruction. He is destroying your world, little by little, through the lack of care and proper treatment of all of the gifts God has given to you, little one. Little by little, your world is being destroyed. Greed, lust, and arrogance, continue to be more important in your world, than the love and care of all that is holy. The love of God and neighbor are no longer important, little one. Through this lack of love, animals, land, water, and air are being polluted and killed. These are all God's gifts to you, and man continually destroys through his selfish desires. 'More and bigger', have been the order of the day, instead of being satisfied with only those things necessary for the good of your soul.

God has sent you the gift of His Son in human form, in order to tell you, and show you, what is and should be, important. His word was ignored, and He was murdered. He has sent His Mother, and His words through Her, and She is being ignored and blasphemed. How much more is God supposed to take, little one? He is disgusted, little one. He is disgusted with mankind and his evil ways. Man is destroying himself little by little, and all that surrounds him. This is sad, but true, child, and even the words given to His children from Heaven are not changing the hearts of those who are in need of this change.

It is up to those of you who have been listening, to continue to gather for prayer in great numbers, in order to show God that you do care about Him and His children. You care about His love and His gifts to you in the form of the land, the water, and the very air you breathe. You need to let Him know you love all He has created, and wish to thank Him for all these special gifts, through the proper treatment of these gifts. Man must respect God, and the gifts given to him from God. He must respect life, and hold all things that come from Him as sacred and holy.

Ruth Ann: Lord, this message is not what I would have expected on Christmas morning.

Jesus: Little one, these words are necessary. This is a solemn time in your world. Many are caught up in greed and materialism. Today means 'presents', and more and more of the things and distractions that have taken them away from the quiet time they could, and should, be spending with Me in prayer. Man is getting farther and farther away from Me. I am here. I am here, just as I was nearly two thousand years ago, but man is not listening to Me. He is not spending quiet time with Me daily, in order to hear what I have to say. He is too busy with other things to listen.

I speak to My children through signs, nature, the gift of My word in the Bible, and through the mouth of others trained in the gift of My word. But man continues to find ways to ignore these words. Because they do not hear My voice in human terms, they choose to believe I cannot, and am not, speaking to them. They are not listening. If they were to listen, they would hear Me. Then, they would have to change their lives. Many would discover all of the things they hold sacred are of little importance.

It is the soul that is of great importance, and it is being ignored and left to die, in many cases. The soul needs food, and it needs nurtured, just as a hungry body needs food to be sustained. Many of you feed your bodies, and ignore the food for your soul. The food for your soul is the word of God. Man must feed his soul through the gift of this word. And through this food, he will realize the need for change in his earthly life. The spiritual life has been ignored, and that is why, little one, the world is being destroyed through the lack of love and care for God, His gifts, and the love of his neighbor. Man is destroying himself and his world. Pray for the conversions of My children, and ask for God's mercy for those who continue to blatantly turn their backs on Him.

Ruth Ann: Yes, Lord.

Jesus: Now, I know you must be about your day. I thank you for your love, and I thank you for your continued fidelity to God's plan for you. Know God is pleased, little one, with all you are doing. Thank you for wishing Me a Happy Birthday. Many will forget, but those who remember, please Me.

Message of Nov. 17, 1993, from Our Lady to Prayer Groups

My Dear Children,

My blessing I give to you for you are in much need of blessings and graces. The world is full of unrest, and you being a part of the world, are experiencing the turbulence of doubt, fear, and unrest. Dear children, it is important that you focus your mind and heart on God during these troubled times. He is your peace and salvation. His love is a light that radiates throughout the darkness. My Son was sent to you as an example of light, love, peace. He lived and died for you so that you would know what God expects of you. Share your wealth that God has given you. Your gifts of prayer and praise, compassion and love, are to be shared in helping all those in need. Gifts from God are not given to keep, dear children, they are given to you to share. I love you. Go in God's peace.

Message of Nov. 30, 1993, from Our Lord Jesus

Ruth Ann: Lord, You wish to speak to me?

Jesus: Little one, do you wish to listen?

Ruth Ann: Yes, Lord. Is there something in particular You'd like to tell me?

Jesus: Only this, little one. Know that God is pleased that you are taking the task put before you, seriously. You are learning much by being unselfish with your time and sharing it with God and so many others. The teachings I am sharing with you are for all of My children, so when you listen, it is as though you were in a giant assembly hall, listening to an important lecture. The only thing is, you are the only one there taking notes, for all of My children who could not be there. See how important it is for you to listen not only for Me but for all those who were unable to hear. Would you have them miss a single word? No, for you know what I am saying is of great importance. I wish to thank you for listening little one, and for being obedient. I am pleased you continue to listen, write, and share what is being said to you, so that those who cannot listen will know what I am saying.

I would like to talk to you about gifts, child. So many of My children have been given special gifts and talents, and they continue to hold these gifts. Gifts are to be shared. They are not given to you for you alone to keep. There are so many gifts that are going to waste, because My children think that these were given to them alone. This is not true. Some continue to say to themselves, "What is God's will for me? How can I discern what it is He wishes for me to do?" Be attentive, My children. If you have a special gift, then know in your heart, I would have you share this gift with those around you. I was an example for you. I came from a very humble back-ground, but I shared everything I had, including My life. I expect no less from My children.

Many of you say you have no special talent because you are not musically inclined, or artistically inclined. That does not mean you do not have something to share. Think of the corporal works of mercy your Jesus has stressed over and over, (visit the sick, clothe the naked, shelter the homeless, bury the dead, visit the imprisoned, feed the hungry, give drink to the thirsty). These are but a few of the major concerns that need to be tended to.

There are causes that need to be fought for, the abortion issue, to name one. These do not take special talents, but it does take time and effort. Time and effort that you should take so that the pain and suffering of your neighbor can find some relief. Sometimes, giving of self is a greater gift than being blessed with a special talent. We cannot all be gifted singers, artists, speakers, and so forth, but we can all be compassionate people who are willing to help our brothers and sisters. It is important to know these things. Anything you do to help the least of My children, you do unto Me.

During this Advent season, preparing for My humble birth, you should realize just how important these words are. Many will not experience the warmth of a home, family. These, the least of My children, are in need of the tender loving care and concern that comes from a love for your neighbor. The greatest of My commandments, 'Love God and your neighbor as yourself for the love of God'. If man would truly read and listen to what God is calling him to do in that one commandment, there would be no wars, no one without shelter, and no one hungry.

Share your gifts and talents, children. In some cases, it could be as simple as visiting the elderly who have no one to look out for them. How much energy and time does it take to speak with someone lonely or needs the help of someone running an errand? Put yourself in the place of one who is in need. Would you not want someone to take the time to tend to your needs, or the needs of a family member? What would your Jesus do? If My children would ask themselves this question when they are not sure what they should do, they would never have a difficult time knowing what to do and when to do it. Follow My example. That is why My father sent Me to the earth, to teach My children by example what is expected of them. The road is not easy, but once traveled, the rewards are great. Love one another, and show this love by sharing what God has given to you.

Ruth Ann: I will share what You have said, Lord.

Jesus: Go in My peace, little one. Thank you for listening and sharing My words.

Message of May 29, 1991, from Our Lady to Prayer Groups

My Dear Children,

You must realize that God loves you. As a result of this love, He has given you many gifts. These gifts are not for you alone, but are for all those around you. Share your special gifts. As a result of this sharing, you will become closer and closer to Our Lord. Turn your lives over to God. In so doing, you are doing His will. You were made to know, love and serve God. How better can you do this than by doing His will? These special gifts given to you by the Holy Spirit are not only to help you find salvation, but are there to help you to help others to salvation. Share your gifts. Love one another enough to share these gifts. As you do this, you will know God. You will become one with Him.

Message of January 10, 1995, from Our Lord Jesus

Ruth Ann: Lord, do You have encouraging words today?

Jesus: Little one, each of My children is in need of encouraging words from time to time. You do realize, the more you try to be like Me, the more the evil one will try to convince you of your unworthiness to minister to My children. The evil one continues to torment those of you trying to do the will of God. That is because he is the father of lies. He wishes to cause doubt and turmoil in the lives of all God's children. It is not just My chosen ones that he continues to harass, but all those who wish to do the will of My Father in Heaven.

Be at peace, little one, you are being granted a respite, and you should be grateful. Instead, you fret because you are afraid you have offended Me in some way, and that is why you are not busy doing more than I would have you do. The Lord has work for you to do. Remember, this is the third weekend of the month, which means you will be very busy this weekend.

Ruth Ann: But, Lord, the groups are very small.

Jesus: You expected even fewer, did you not?

Ruth Ann: Yes Lord, due to the winter storm that morning, I really expected no one.

Jesus: I have told you, those whom God wishes to be here, will be here. It matters not the weather. You have also been told that numbers mean nothing. It is who is touched that is important. Those who are touched, will in turn touch others, through their witnessing. That is the way God works. You are only an instrument, child. You can do nothing without Me. So, know that the words spoken to you, and the people sent to you, are truly from Me. I will do all things for those willing to follow in My footsteps. You continue to be obedient in all things.

When I walked on the earth, I spoke the Word of the Father. Those who were to hear, had their ears opened. Those who were to see the miracles I performed, had their eyes opened. Those who were to be touched, took what was said to them to their heart. From that point on, their lives were changed. All you are asked to do, little one, is to share, and be a beacon of light for those struggling in darkness. Remember, if life becomes difficult for you, how must it be for many of My children who do not have access to hearing My words.

You have a special gift. You can speak to Me whenever you choose. You have access to the heavenly words of My Mother, the Holy Spirit, and God the Father. Be not afraid, little one, the words you are asked to share are here to give peace and hope to those of My children in need of this hope. All of My children struggle in some way, and yet those who love Me, continue to seek ways and means of staying on My path, no matter how difficult. These words given to you out of love, are there for you, but they are also there for all My children in need.

You are not to worry about tomorrow. Live each day in the fullness of God's love. He wishes you to have peace, and He wishes this peace to radiate to all those who come in contact with you. Your ministry is far from over, little one. Do not doubt the goodness and greatness of God's mercy. He has granted you miracles, and He has given you special gifts. These miracles and gifts are for you to share.

My Mother speaks of sharing one's gifts with others, in your message for prayer group this week. You did not understand the significance at the time, but later you came to know why the gifts that are given, are for you to share. The feast of the Epiphany, and the homilies surrounding that feast, reinforce the messages given to you by My Mother. You had doubts as to why such a message was given, but once again, God has shown you, that as long as you listen, and are obedient to His will, He will reinforce all you do, so you know that He is present in the words you share with others. All of My children are to share their gifts with others. No matter what the gift, it should be shared. Those who do acts of kindness to others, are exercising the gift of charity. The gifts need not be great. Not all of My children can be musicians, or great listeners, but anything done out of the love of God, or shared out of love for Him, can be a gift to be given to others. It is not the gift, but what one does with that gift that is important.

That, child, is why you are asked to share those things that God has done in your life. That is why you are asked to share the words spoken to you, and that is why you are to pray with those who come to you seeking prayer. Those gifts have been given to you to share. Be an example for those of My children who are unable to brave the storm of darkness that surrounds them. If they see you do those things you find most difficult to do, they will find strength and trust in their God, to have the desire to share with others their gifts.

You had lost your peace before speaking with Me, had you not?

Ruth Ann: Yes, Lord, I had.

Jesus: Now it has been restored. This is My gift to you, for listening and sharing these words I have spoken to you.

Ruth Ann: Thank You, Lord, for returning my peace.

Jesus: Child, you need not lose it. Trust in Me. Do not let the doubts and fears of tomorrow, darken the light of today. Be at peace, little one, living this day, and the respite being given to you. More is to come.

Message of January 4, 1995, from Our Lady to Prayer Groups

My Dear Children,

As your Mother, I am here to be of help to you in any way you need. God loves you, and because of this love, He continues to find ways to touch you in a special way. Each one of you has been given a special gift. These gifts are not for you to keep, nor hide under a bushel. They are there for you to share. Just as a light is extinguished if it is covered, so too, are your gifts. In sharing your gifts with others, they are not only kept glowing, but they continue to grow and burst into a giant flame, to warm the hearts of all those with whom you share. Share your gifts so God's love and peace will radiate to those around you. Pray, little children. Accept the challenge I am giving to you, so that others may experience God's peace, and the beauty of God's gifts given to you to share.

Message of April 28, 1994,
from Our Lord Jesus

Jesus: As your ministry grows, so will your faith and trust in Me need to grow. Much is ahead, little one, but you will be ready. God does not choose those who are not willing to be molded and used in whatever way He chooses. All is in His hands, little one. He is the divine planner. You need only to listen, do His will, and be patient. God's plan is perfect. Whatever He has ahead for you has been in the making for many, many years. The evil one will continue to come up against you and your family, but know in the end God will win. My Mother is assisting many in order to prepare them for the work God has in store. Minister to My people. That is your task at the present time. Do so with love and patience, just as I did nearly 2000 years ago.

Be an example. Be a role model. So few of My children have someone to look to for an example as living and doing the will of God. Too many look to role models of the world of darkness. They seek out role models in the rich and famous. There is nothing wrong with wealth. I, too, was in need of those who have money to help with ministering to the poor and My disciples. God will not ask you how much you have accumulated in your years on the earth, but He will ask, "What did you do with the wealth I gave you?" Some I have allowed to have more than others. Hopefully those who have much will share with those who have little or nothing. I have tried to be an example to My children so that they would have a role model to emulate. Those who have paid little attention to My example have not learned to share in love, wealth, time, and talent.

Ruth Ann: Lord, I really am not talented, so all I have is what You have given me.

Jesus: Little one, all of My children have a special talent. Yours are many. You seek to do the Will of God, you pray with My children, and you share your home, your time, and your life with others.

Ruth Ann: I was thinking in terms of artistic or musical talent, Lord.

Jesus: Little one, each one has been blessed in some way. You need not be blessed with all talents. Those who have the talents needed to make the farm grow and be fruitful will continue to be sent to you. They will tend to the farm, the grounds, and the buildings. All your needs will be tended to because you have sought to do the will of God.

Ruth Ann: Thank You, Lord.

Jesus: I know you have much to do today. Go in My peace.

Ruth Ann: Thank You for Your beautiful words, Lord.

Message of Dec. 17, 1993, from Our Lord Jesus

Ruth Ann: Jesus, is there anything in particular You wish to speak to me about today?

Jesus: You are being over-whelmed by all you have to do today. Are you sure you wish to listen?

Ruth Ann: I need Your peace, Lord.

Jesus: Then listen. All those things you need to do will be accomplished. Put Me first, and all things will fall into place.

Ruth Ann: Yes, Lord.

Jesus: Many forget that, especially during the holidays when man has filled every minute of his waking hours with tasks that have nothing to do with his spiritual life.

This is a beautiful time of year, but man has turned it into a time of stress and frustration. There is so much that can be learned by reflecting on this holy season, this time set aside to prepare for the celebration of the birth of the One Who came to save man from his sins and eternal damnation. The One Who was, is, and is to come, has been shoved aside for commercialism.

What has happened to My children? How far man has strayed from the path! But where there is life, there is hope. Those of you who pray and realize the true meaning of the Advent Season, continue to pray and reflect on what all your Lord and Savior has done for you. Meditate on the gift of My Mother and Her 'yes' to the will of God. You too, can say 'yes' to His will, and help change a world hidden in darkness. Through prayer and example, you can bring My children into light.

Witness to the greatness and glory of the One Who has saved you from your sins. Share with those who have no hope for the gift of salvation. Help them realize that I came to the earth to save man from His sins. I came to conquer death, death of a physical nature, and death of a spiritual nature. That means all My children have the hope of eternal life. What a special gift that has been given to all those on the earth! My Father in Heaven has given all of His children the gift of light, life, and peace, both physical and spiritual, and they do not take time to acknowledge that great gift that only He could give.

Some will go to Christmas Mass and say, "Oh, how beautiful," but then, that will be the end. Others will be too busy to even work Mass into their schedules. Man is concerned he cannot find peace. He looks for it in material things: alcohol, sex, the blaring sounds of distractions, and many, many other distractions. Peace comes from Me. I am peace. I am the One Who has brought that gift into the world by My birth.

Reflect on what I have said, children. Realize that peace is at your fingertips. Put Me first, and all other things will fall into place. My Mother, with Her simple 'Fiat', has given a gift to the world never before given. She gave physical life to God, so He could come to the earth to bring peace, love, joy, and hope of a life eternal, to a world in darkness. My children need to be awakened to the gift of this great miracle. They need to realize that it was through the greatness of God's mercy that they are given a chance at rebirth.

It is time for My children to know this, and keep it in their hearts. It is not just enough to say, "Oh, I know all about that." One must take all of these things to their heart. Take all of these things to your heart throughout this season and the days thereafter. Keep them in your heart. Let them change your life so that you, too, will be able to say your 'yes' to the will of My Father. That is what He is asking of you throughout this season. His gift to you of the holy family is His example of faith, love, and trust in Him. Join Mary, My Mother, Joseph, My earthly father, and Myself, your Jesus, in this holy season, this time, an opportunity for renewal, and say 'yes' to your God and Savior, and 'no' to the things of the flesh. Die of self, repent of your sins. The Kingdom of God is close at hand. Make straight the way of the Lord, and bring true conversion into your life.

Ruth Ann: That sounds easy, Lord, but every year the season gets more and more hectic for everyone.

Jesus: That is the choice of those who do not put Me first. Be at peace, little one. Know I am God, and have come to the earth to save mankind from the world of darkness. God's will, will be done.

Ruth Ann: I am at peace, Lord. I'm glad I took the time this morning to listen.

Jesus: I, too, am pleased, little one. Your day will be blessed with My gift of peace.

Ruth Ann: Thank You, Lord.

*Message of Dec. 7, 1994,
from Our Lady*

Ruth Ann: Mother, when You said the words, "God, through your Mother, is holding out this special gift of Salvation to you," I was given a beautiful image of You holding out the Baby Jesus in both hands, with arms extended in front of You, as though You were giving Him to someone.

Our Lady: Child, that is what I have been doing, over and over, since His first appearance on the earth. I have continually offered Him to My children, over and over again, and will continue to do so until I will no longer be allowed. I wish for all souls to be saved. I want all souls to know the beauty of God's love. The gift of His Son as a human sacrifice, for the forgiveness of their sins, was the ultimate Sacrifice from your loving Father. This supreme Sacrifice has brought you the light and hope needed in a world of darkness. My Son suffered and died for you, My little children, and I too, suffered His Passion and Death. As each one of you accepts this cross you must bear, know that at the end of carrying this cross, is the hope of life eternal.

Yes, I have held out the gift of My tiny Son to you, but wrapped in the beautiful gift of a tiny Babe, is hope for mankind. Hold onto this hope. Take My Son, and hold Him to your heart. This special gift of love awaits you. You need only reach out your hand, and let Me place Him there for you to hold. Accept Him, and find the peace, love, and hope He brings to a troubled world.
