
"TO JESUS THROUGH MARY"

Lessons and Messages to the World from Jesus and the Blessed Virgin Mary to Ruth Ann Wade of Bloomington, Indiana

Compiled by Mary's Children, P. O. Box 27, Washington, IN 47501 - March 2018

Message of Aug. 25, 1993, from Our Lady

Ruth Ann: My dear Mother, will You please speak with Me? I have not spoken to You for a while.

Our Lady: Child, I am here for you when you have need of Me.

Ruth Ann: I just feel lonesome to hear You speak to me. I continue to be so busy.

Our Lady: Things will quiet down soon child, then you will have time for quiet prayer.

Ruth Ann: Thank You for telling me this Mother, because I was beginning to feel like I'd never again have quiet time.

Our Lady: Do not be discouraged little child, have I not just spoken these words to your prayer group?

Ruth Ann: Yes Mother, You have.

Our Lady: This applies not only to your prayer group and other prayer groups, but to you as well. It is easy for you to get into a rut. Man must remember that time must always be set aside for prayer. There must always be a quiet time to sit and talk with God. There are so many distractions in the lives of My children, distractions that are considered important. In the end, child, nothing is as important as communicating with God. Without Him, none of the other things would exist. You are beginning to see that. When you are around others, you have the need to say, "All these things that are distracting you are not of importance. Put your lives in order. Return to prayer. Return to church. Time is running out, and you need to be right with the One Who created you."

You are learning child, the importance of your mission. You see so many that seem to be working on the earth with no purpose. They are going to work daily and tending to their physical needs, but have forgotten their spiritual needs. You shake your head and walk away, and say to yourself, "They have completely missed what it is all about." Remember child, it was not so long ago and you were doing the same thing yourself. There is hope for those who have found themselves caught up in the darkness. It is through your prayers, and those like you who have been made aware of God's presence and importance in their lives, that they too, will be touched. So pray child, for all those who continue to wander around in the dark without a purpose in life. Pray for those who have lost heart, that God in His infinite wisdom and mercy will touch them and awaken them to the beauty of His love.

Life is not easy. These are difficult times. God knows this. That is why He has sent His Mother to minister to His children. God knows the prince of darkness is having a great time messing with the minds, hearts, bodies, and souls of God's children. This was true in times of old, and it is especially true of this generation. Man has become so sure of himself, he believes he is the one who is in control and in charge of all things. He has continually downplayed God's part in creation and all the other things God is responsible for. Without God, man can do nothing. With Him, man can do all things. God has sat back and watched man make a mess of the world He created. He continues to watch man struggle to do things on his own, making a bigger and bigger mess of the lives of God's children. If man would only turn back to God little child, He could help man put his life and the lives of all those around him in order.

Prayer is the key, child. See why it is so important for those like you to share the word with those who will take time to listen? The world is full of hurt and pain and suffering of all kinds. My children need to know there is a light at the end of the tunnel. They need to know that God is just waiting for each of His 'prodigal sons' to return to Him and ask Him for forgiveness. That is all He wishes to hear, and then He will shower them with graces and blessings beyond belief to get them through these trying times. You must tell them not to lose heart. There is hope. God is with you.

He is sending people among you to save you from yourselves and the life of darkness you have made for yourselves. He is sending light among you to bring you out of darkness. Be not afraid. God wishes to draw all of you to Himself. I, your Mother, have been sent among you to call you back to the ways of God and away from the darkness of the world. Listen to My call, little children. Take heed. God's plan is perfect. Listen to His words through those chosen to share them. This is what you are being used for, child. You are being used as a mediator between Heaven and earth. You are listening and you are sharing. This is what God is asking you to do at this time. Thank you for this, child.

It is most important that you continue to listen and be obedient to His will for you. As I have said, "I am here to guide you." I will continue to do so as long as you have need of Me. Go in the peace of My Son, Jesus. Continue to pray for all those who have lost their way in darkness.

Message of Oct, 21, 1994,
from Our Lord Jesus

Ruth Ann: Lord, I'm listening, but it seems I've had little time to listen the last couple of weeks. I was ill, and we also had our new grandson. Today is also another busy day, but still I feel the need to listen and write.

Jesus: It is so, child. I am here for you at all times, but there are times when you cannot write the words being spoken to you. You have continued to communicate with Me, and with My Mother. You have been ministering to My children during this time. With these things in mind, continue to listen and share with the time that is available to you.

Ruth Ann: Yes, Lord. What is it that You wish to share today?

Jesus: That I am always here for all of My children, even when they do not feel I am with them, they are never deserted. Friends and family may turn their back on them, but I will never do so.

Ruth Ann: Lord, sometimes I find it extremely difficult to even pray. When I am so tired that I can barely think straight, that seems to be the last thing I want to do.

Jesus: It is then, little one, you must offer up this tiredness and feeling of being 'empty' to Me, and I will accept it just as I would any form of prayer. That too, is prayer, child. Anything you give to Me, with love in your heart, is prayer. So many of My children, who find themselves unable to sit and pray, read My word, or are unable to attend Mass, feel like they are unable to pray. Prayer can be as simple as offering up your entire busy schedule, and asking Me to be with you throughout the day. It is true that I wish for all of My children to find some time for Me throughout each busy day, but when this is not possible, then offer up the gift of your busy day to Me. I will accept it with all the love and desire that comes with it. Yours has been a busy month, but you have taken the time to listen to Me when you have had the time.

Ruth Ann: Not as much as I should have, Lord, and I feel guilty about that.

Jesus: Little one, I have understood your feelings of being torn between your family, and the need to minister to My children. You have made a great sacrifice in choosing to do the will of God.

Ruth Ann: You are too kind to me, Lord. I don't deserve it. I still can't understand why You bother with me. I continue to get angry when things don't go the way I feel they should go, and I become irritated when I have to choose between time with my family, and doing whatever You would have me do.

Jesus: You become irritated and angry, but you have never deserted Me. How could I do less for you? When you have had to make a choice, you have chosen Me. What greater love for Me could you show than that?

Ruth Ann: So You continue to tolerate my temper tantrums, and forgive me? You totally amaze me, Lord.

Jesus: Little one, what is there to forgive? Of course you become angry. You are a mother. You desire time with your family. You were in hopes after leaving your career behind, you would have lots of time to do those things you enjoy, being a mother and grandmother. Now as you become busier and busier with My work here on the earth, you are finding yourself torn between those things you desire, and those things I desire for you. This will continue to be so, little one. I have said the time will come when you will have little time for your family, and more and more time will be spent ministering to My people. I ask you this question, who is your family, child? All God's children in need, are your family. Those sent to you for prayer are just as important to Me as your family is to you.

Be at peace with what you have been chosen to do, child. There is much more to come. I am always here for you, so do not feel that because you do not feel prayerful, that I am not ministering to you. I will continue to minister to you and your family. Through your tears, joys, and irritation, I am still here for you. Never doubt My presence in your life. My love for you is so great, you cannot even begin to imagine its greatness.

Ruth Ann: Thank You, Lord, for always being here for me.

Jesus: I am here for you, and all My children. Now I know you are anxious about this day. I am with you. Know all you are about to do today is for My greater honor and glory. Be at peace with God's will.

Ruth Ann: Yes, Lord.

Message of Dec. 31, 1993,
from Our Lord Jesus

Ruth Ann: Lord, I have felt so empty, with no desire to pray. I'd just like to have the time to read a book, not spiritual, and ignore all the other daily rituals. I look at the world around me and think, "What's the use?"

Jesus: Child, of course there will be days like this where you feel overwhelmed with your daily routine of prayer. These times, you must offer up your feeling as a prayer. Always tell Me exactly how you feel, and I will help restore your peace and desire to pray. If you let the feelings continue for long periods of time, prayer can become a real problem. Sometimes you just need a day to pray in another way. Maybe you just need quiet time with Me, to listen. If you pull away entirely, then you know it is not something that is of Me that is happening to you.

Sometimes the evil one wishes to interfere and draw you away from prayer, through selfish motives. One must analyze their feelings at these times, and decide if the desire is because they have been praying a great deal, and just need a quiet change for a few days, or if the evil one is trying to deceive you into thinking you need a change. He would like nothing more than to pull you away from those things that provide you with this special grace to continue to do the will of God. So think about how you really feel. Do you wish to be away from Me entirely, through selfish desires, or are you just feeling the need to listen, and not feel obliged to do your daily routine?

Ruth Ann: I don't wish to ignore You completely, Lord, and I feel guilty not attending Mass and Communion, so I guess it's just that the daily prayers begin to wear on me.

Jesus: I am pleased you do not wish to give up the Eucharist. That is most important for your peace and the graces you need for what is to come. My children do not understand that graces can be stored up so they will be available for use at another time. All things you do in faith and love of God is a prayer. Even the work you do throughout the day can be offered to God as a prayer. Any little sacrifice you do for someone is a prayer.

When My Mother says to you, "Make sacrifices," there are many ways in which one can make a sacrifice. It can be, not taking dessert, abstaining from complaining about someone or something that is bothering you, doing something for someone without complaining about it, all of these things are sacrifices, and are a form of prayer, if they are done for the right reasons.

Mothers of small children have a difficult time saying prayers or having a set time to pray, but they can offer up all they do on behalf of their little children, as a prayer. There are many ways to pray, little one, and sometimes one must take time to decide if what they are doing is out of habit, or the desire to please Me and make a difference in this world that is so full of darkness.

Prayer is just not for the one doing it, it is for those around you who never take time to pray at all. Your prayers are needed for all those who are not aware they should be praying. My Mother continues to tell all of Her children, "Pray for those who are in need of conversion." Those are the ones who continue on each day, feeling as though they are in charge. They have no clue that the evil one is in control of their life. They would have you think there is no God. These are the ones who need much prayer, and they have no idea there is anything wrong in their life. They go through each day, filling it with work, television, or some other form of distraction, totally shutting Me out and feeling that they are doing what they should be doing. Some will attend Mass on Sunday and feel they have done all that is required to make them a good, Christian person. There is much more than that needed to please Me.

That is what My Mother is trying to tell all of My children. Pray from the heart. Don't do it out of habit. Don't just 'rattle off' a bunch of prayers. Think about what you are doing and saying. It is better to say one prayer from the heart than many out of habit, with no feeling. God listens to all prayer, but 'quality' is most important, versus 'quantity'.

Hopefully what I am saying to you is helping you with the feeling you are having. Just remember, if you are being pulled away from Me, and the desire to be with Me, then the evil one is at work. If you are only feeling a need to be at prayer in another way, such as just quietly sitting and thinking about Me and all I have done for you, then it is just 'change' you are seeking.

But please, child, do not deny yourself the Eucharist. That is most important for the graces needed to do the will of God. The Eucharist and Sacrament of Reconciliation go hand in hand. If for any reason you cannot attend Mass, then make a spiritual Communion, but do not deny yourself this most important source of strength. This daily miracle, celebrated by My chosen servants, is most important for you. This is true of all My children. So few take the time to make this sacrifice in order to receive these special graces, but it is most important to do so.

Ruth Ann: Thank You for putting things in proper perspective for me, Lord. So many prayers have been added over a period of time, that I guess I was just concerned about not being able to do it all every day. I guess I just need to rest in You and the prayer will come.

Jesus: This is true, child. Love and trust in Me, and I will tend to the rest.

Ruth Ann: Thank You Lord, I already feel better, and want to pray.

Jesus: There is such a need, little one, such a need. If only

My children were aware of what awaits them if they do not turn back to Me in prayer, they would not be spending so much time entertaining themselves with mindless tasks and noise. They would be praying, attending Mass, and reconciling themselves and their souls with their divine Creator. But man wishes to bury his head in the sand, and ignore all the signs that tell them they are in the 'end times'. Man wishes to ignore that he has very little time to reconcile his life and prepare his soul. He wishes to think he is not in need of the One Who created him, or the graces being made available through the Mother of His Son. These are the ones who are in most need of much prayer, little one. These are the ones you must take the time to pray for, so they will be converted before it is too late for them.

Ruth Ann: I understand, Lord.

Message of Nov. 1, 1993,
from Our Lord Jesus

Ruth Ann: Lord, I can hardly believe November is already here. Where has the time gone?

Jesus: So often I hear that from My children. They say, "Where has all the time gone?"

Usually it is in retrospect at the end of their earthly lives. So many realize what they have done with their lives was not for the honor and glory of God, but for themselves.

Ruth Ann: Lord, I feel that way

on a regular basis. I always feel I am not doing enough for You and I should do more, but so much else gets in the way.

Jesus: That is why it is important to set aside time for prayer. My children will find once they set aside time daily for prayer, then all the other things that need to get done will somehow get done. I am to come first and then all other things will fall into place.

Ruth Ann: I know this to be true Lord, and not only that, but the day goes more smoothly when I have set aside time first thing in the morning for You. How in the world do we get so sidetracked, Lord?

Jesus: Little one, the evil one would have you believe that all else is more important than prayer. He will distract, confuse, and tell you, you do not have enough time to pray. You can do that later. He knows full well if you put off prayer, your life will fill up with other chores and distractions that take your mind and heart totally from God. You must be good to yourself and set aside some time every day to be at peace with Me.

Talk to Me children. Tell Me your sorrows, woes, and concerns. Tell Me how much you love Me. All of these words are sharing of your mind and heart with God. This is prayer. Let Me comfort you. So many wish to suffer in silence and then their anger builds until they cannot deal with it alone. Children, you do not have to deal with any of your hurts on your own. Give them to Me. I have suffered and died for all of your hurts, and all of your sins. I wish to continue to help you in this way. Do not let your burdens consume you or your joy in living. Greet your God and Maker each morning with a joyful heart. If you have something in particular that you are not looking forward to dealing with, ask Me to assist you. I am with and in each one of you. Let Me be of help to you.

I have said before that each one of My children must take up their cross and follow Me. This is true. Some of you have heavier crosses than others, but it does not mean that each person does not have some type of burden at some time in their life that seems unable to be carried alone. At that time, children, it is for you to say to Me, "Lord, I cannot do this alone. I must have Your love and strength to see me through this." And I will do so.

Ruth Ann: Lord, why is it so difficult for me to remember?

Jesus: Little one, it is because man is of the earth. He thinks he is in control, he has charge over his life, and he is the one who must take care of his own problems. This is not so. Give your burdens to Me. Give Me your problems and I will find solutions better, and answers better, than you could possibly find on your own.

Ruth Ann: Lord, I have been struggling for two weeks with some hurts and problems and I have not been able to give them over to You. I hear Your words and write them down, but I'm not really allowing them to sink in, Lord.

Jesus: Little one, more is being learned and absorbed than you can possibly know. Why do you think you continually suffer so? Remember the article you were referring to the other day, when sharing with others who were here to pray with you, about the tallest, strongest tree is the one that attracts the most lightening? It is so, child. Those who stand up in faith and follow My word can expect attacks such as this. The evil one does not bother those who do nothing, or are doing evil. He goes after those who are trying to do the will of God. He wishes life to be as difficult as possible for those who love God.

That is where graces, blessings, faith, and trust in your Creator come in. Sometimes it is not so easy, especially when the attack comes at times when you are most vulnerable. But know, child, as I would say to all My children, I am with you. I hear your cries, your anger, your disappointments, and your joys. I love you and want to lighten each burden, as well as share in your joy. Give all to Me. You are My children, and no one loves you more than I do. No one wants to see you happy and at peace as much as I wish to see this. Has this been of help to you?

Ruth Ann: Yes, Lord. You know it has, and hopefully it will be of help to others.

Jesus: That was the purpose of this lesson today, child. Share it with others.

Ruth Ann: It is done, Lord.

Message of Jan. 18, 1995,
from Our Lady

(after Prayer Group Message)

Ruth Ann: Mother, do You have anything You wish to add?

Our Lady: Child, the messages that I continue to give to all My children, are not being taken to heart. The peace that you seek is not being found in your world. My children continue to look in all the wrong places for this peace. They are trying to find peace in the pleasures of the world, and it can only come from God. The peace and love from Him is the true peace that all must seek and find, in order to exist in such a troubled world.

Pray, dear children, pray from the heart. Many of you still do not understand what these words mean. It means you must find time to speak with God. Speak to Him from your heart. Tell Him how much you love Him, and how much you appreciate all He has done for you. Read His Word in the New Testament. Let Him speak to you through these words. These words I have been giving to you through so many, are nothing new. Realize, little children, these words were spoken to you two thousand years ago, and were recorded for you to have access to.

Many of you do not read God's Word, so therefore, I have come to share these words with you in a simple way. Love God as you love yourself, and you cannot go wrong. Love your neighbor, and forgive the hurts that he imposes upon you. Be forgiving, as your Jesus would forgive. Trust, little children. Pray for your enemies, so they too, can experience the love and peace that you have experienced.

I am praying with you for those who have wandered from the fold. Pray, little children, and trust that God will tend to all things. My blessing I give to you. Go in My Son's peace.

Message of March 9, 1994
from Our Lady to Prayer Groups

My Dear Children,

Love Me, love My Son. Know the Lord God, Yahweh, is in your midst. Know I am here with you. Blessings I give to you in abundance for the gift of your prayers. You are a part of the remnant few who are taking My words seriously. You have prayed and understood the importance of what is being said to you in many ways. Continue to be faithful to your prayers, little children, God is listening. My heart is filled with great joy for those who continue to be vigilant and pray with a heart full of love and concern for those not responding to My call. I love you. Go in My Son's peace.
