
“TO JESUS THROUGH MARY”

Lessons and Messages to the World from Jesus and the Blessed Virgin Mary to Ruth Ann Wade of Bloomington, Indiana

Compiled by Mary's Children, P. O. Box 27, Washington, IN 47501 - June 2018

Message of June 28, 1993 from Our Lord Jesus

Ruth Ann: Lord, where did all the time go? It is time for another talk.

Jesus: And you are concerned, are you not?

Ruth Ann: Yes Lord, You know that I am. I didn't sleep well because I was worrying about it last night. I try to put it out of my mind, but with little success.

Jesus: Do you know why that is?

Ruth Ann: Yes, I feel that I do, but it still keeps happening over and over. Each talk is just as difficult as the first. I actually feel physically ill and experience a lot of anguish.

Jesus: Little one, I know this is a difficult thing for you. You have referred to it as a lamb being led to slaughter. In a sense, it is. You are dying of self each time you share so much of yourself with others. You are sharing in what I have done before you. Those who give so much of themselves to others for My sake are special, and are participating in the salvation of mankind. Each time you bare your soul for others to see the work of God in your life, others are touched, little one. Many are brought closer and closer to Me and to My Mother through your great sacrifice of dying of self. Not many are willing to give up life, career, home, time, and anything else I ask of you.

At the present time you do not know the full extent of what will be expected of you. Even so, God knows you will be accepting, just as you are now. Of course, it causes you much grief. But that is because the evil one works on you continuously. He will not let you be, because he knows the extent of the blessings given by Me to those who listen to what you have to say. It is important that you know this, little one, you are only to share what I have done in your life to let My children know that I am alive, and want them to come to Me in prayer and contrition, so I can do great things in their lives. I wish to give them miracles, but they must ask for them.

Ruth Ann: I am having a difficult time even concentrating on what You are saying to me, Lord. I am really distracted.

Jesus: Offer it up in prayer little one, and it will be made easier for you.

Ruth Ann: This I will do, Lord. (At this time Ruth Ann reports that she prayed and offered up her distractions.)

Jesus: I know you have much to do in order to get ready for your talk, but I want to speak with you about something that is very dear to My heart. That is the love that My Mother has for all of God's children. She has been here for you and all those whose lives you touch. She is extremely important as an inter-cessor in the plan of salvation of man. She is the perfect flower created by God to bring forth His only Son. She is perfect, because She was created so by God. Little one, She has led you to Me. She will lead others to Me. Be sure and share this to all those who come to you for prayer and words of encouragement. And that is what these talks are all about little one, they are words of encouragement for My children. So many are not listening in their time of prayer. They pray, but they are not waiting to hear what I have to say. I wish to answer them. I wish also to speak to them through signs and wonders, or as you call them, little miracles.

Ruth Ann: Lord, so many do not recognize a miracle when they receive it. They think it is a coincidence or just plain luck.

Jesus: It is neither, child. It is as you say. It is a miracle given to My children to build and encourage their faith so they can go out and share what God is doing in their life. Too many take My miracles and then do not share. I thank you for sharing the many miracles I have given to you in your journey of faith, little one. There will be many more, and they will continue to help you to grow and extend yourself even more to others. Do you see how God works to help all of His children grow? It is through those who are willing to give up their life for the sake of others that God can do His work here on the earth.

You feel overwhelmed by these talks, and even the prayer life you are participating in on the farm. It is a great sacrifice for you because you are a private person. You are shy, as some would call it. I call it humble, little one. You are perfect for the work I require of you. It is a great sacrifice. If it were not, it would have little effect on all those who come to hear you and pray with you. All those who know you and your family know, I could not have picked another more perfect for this job of sharing My words. You are not perfect, and so you know all I do through you is from God, just as others know the same.

You are continually impressed by all I am doing, and all My Mother does. As a result, much more will be given to you. The miracles on your farm will continue little one, through the faith and love of all who come there. Signs and wonders will continue to be given to My children. Know this, little one, faith begets miracles. The miracles are being poured out at this time as graces from Heaven. My Mother is instrumental in getting these things accomplished. She realizes how important it is for the children to be encouraged in many ways. So the miracles will continue, little one, on this farm that has been blessed by the presence of My Mother. This is only the beginning of these blessings, little one. It is not the end. Know that much more is in store for all those who come for prayer.

Times are difficult and much prayer is needed for the conversion of all God's children. Continue to be obedient and do all God asks of you. Many souls are being saved and brought ever closer to My Mother and to Me as a result of your sharing in God's plan. I love you, and bless you, little one. Go forth to spread the word of God.

Ruth Ann: Yes, Lord. Thank You for giving me the strength to get through this again.

Jesus: Go and speak My words and pray with My children. I will do the hard part. I will grant many miracles this night.

Ruth Ann: Thank You, Lord. I will share what You have said.

Jesus: Let it be so.

Message of January 23, 1993, from Our Lord Jesus

Ruth Ann: Jesus.

Jesus: Yes, My little one.

Ruth Ann: I need encouragement. I am to give a talk tomorrow, and You know how I am feeling.

Jesus: Yes, little one, and you needn't feel that way. I will be with you and guide you. My Mother too, will be there.

Ruth Ann: Then why do I feel so sad?

Jesus: There are many reasons. You have much responsibility placed upon your heart. The sufferings and sins of others are overpowering for those who wish to do My will.

Ruth Ann: I've never thought of it that way, but recently I just want the chastisement to hurry and come, and put an end to all this killing, starving, and pain, especially of little children and the unborn. Dear God, if I could die and wipe away all this I would do it over and over for You. We here hurt God so much, and each day causes it to be more so. It's got to stop, Lord.

Jesus: My dear little one, God knows your heart, and knows you mean every word you are saying, and it will stop soon. The pain and destruction caused by the evil one will be stopped. But not before I have called all my believers to My heart. My most Sacred Heart is bursting with love for all those I wish to have saved. My Mother's heart too, bursts with love for all those She is calling to Her Son. Of course there is pain, child. We suffer much for all those who will be lost and choose to shut their hearts to all the pleas of My Mother, but We will continue to count on those such as you, that through prayer and great sacrifice, will save many of Our lost children. So you must not think of the dark side of what is happening in this world, but you must turn your eyes to the light and life which is Me, your Jesus, Son of the living God. You child, are to continue to be a beacon in this time of darkness.

Ruth Ann: I try, but I know I'm not trying hard enough. I'm sorry I'm being such a baby. Thank You for not being angry with me.

Jesus: My child, do you not know your Jesus loves you? He knows what you are suffering. He knows that everything He has called you to do is difficult for you. He knows you are a quiet, introverted person who wishes privacy. That is why this sacrifice of sharing your walk with Me is so beautiful. It is a great sacrifice for you, and a beautiful gift to God. To die of self and share purely for the glory of God is one of the greatest gifts you can give to God.

Ruth Ann: This is very profound, Lord. I had never thought of what I am doing in those terms. Thank You.

Jesus: It is I who thank you, for your faith and love that you give back to Me through all those whose lives you touch and bring ever closer to Me. Your Jesus knows how difficult it is to walk the earth, trying to bring others the word and healing of My Father. Remember, I have walked that road, I have made that journey. Now, My child, it is your turn. You are to take this journey for Me and My Father, but you will not be alone My child, I will be with you. Not only I, but My Mother too, will be with you. Your journey of faith will be a great inspiration for many. You have already seen the results of what you have done so far, and this is only the tip of the iceberg, as they say. God has your work cut out for you and He will continue to send you little miracles along the way, in order to fortify you. So 'be not afraid,' My little one. Remember this phrase. I have told you this is to be you and your family's theme song, so to speak. 'Be not afraid,' for I am with you even unto the consummation of the world.

Ruth Ann: Jesus, I have read this in the Bible. Will You help me find it, the passage that is?

Jesus: Yes child, I will do so.

Ruth Ann: Jesus, I do feel better. Thank You. I love You and want to do all I can to help You, but it's difficult to be on display. I would wish to be off in some quiet place, praying.

Jesus: I know this child, and it would not be a great sacrifice and special gift to God. Know that each time you speak and pray with others, the angels praise and sing thanksgiving to God in Heaven, not only for the gift of your faith, but for all those many souls whom God chose - chooses - to touch at that time. What greater gift than to give of self for the greater honor and glory of God! You are special, My child. You do not wish to hear this part, but this is so. You have been brought along gradually for this day. All things had to fall into place, and you will continue to see each piece of the puzzle fall into place. You are a chosen one, a chosen one with much work to do. It will all come about child, and as My Mother has told you, it will all be done for you. You will be asked for prayer. You will be asked to talk. God knows you are shy, and this is of His doing. You are for those who would not be forward or outgoing themselves. They can see themselves in you, just as they can see Jesus in you. If it can happen to you, it can happen to them. Do you understand?

Ruth Ann: Yes Jesus, I do. I love You and thank You for taking the time to calm me, encourage me, and give me Your peace.

Jesus: My child, My little one, how I love you. Go on your way knowing I am here for you always, even to the ends of the earth.

Ruth Ann: Thank You, Jesus. Please bless me.

Jesus: Little one, you have My blessing, you need not ask.

Message of Dec. 4, 1994,
from Our Lord Jesus

Ruth Ann: Lord, please calm my spirit. I am not able to sleep, because of my concern about sharing my testimony. I've done this so many times before, you'd think it should be easy by now.

Jesus: It could be, child, but you do not turn loose of those things over which you have no control. Remember, you are only an instrument to be used by God. You do not have to do anything. It will all be done for you. Think about these words, and take them to your heart.

Ruth Ann: I know what You are saying, Lord, but I still have to get up in front of people and speak.

Jesus: Is that so difficult? Think of what I have done for you.

Ruth Ann: I realize all of these things, Lord, but yet that is why it is such a struggle. I am torn between knowing what I am doing is so little in comparison to what You have done for me, and still not wanting to be on display. Why can't I just be a regular person? I don't want to sin. I mean, just be a good, regular person.

Jesus: Little one, we have been through this many times before. Many more hearts can be touched through your witnessing about the love and goodness of God's mercy, than by just being a 'regular person', as you put it. This is difficult for you. It is both a struggle and a sacrifice. If it were not, it would not be as important as it is. You have come so far, child, but you continue to fight against all those things that God wants you to do. If only you would realize that God loves you, and wishes to take care of you. You continue to divorce yourself from that fact. It, His love and mercy, is not just for the ones for whom you minister, it is also for you. You first, little one, then all that you say or do on behalf of those whom you touch, reap the benefits of this love and mercy.

You have said 'yes'. You have accepted the healings given to, and through you. You have listened, shared, and been obedient to all things that have been asked of you. Now, My Mother has asked you to share weekly, the gift God has given to you through His love and mercy. You are finding this difficult. You have been told your ministry would change. You have been told your cross would become heavier. With each new burden placed upon your shoulders, this has been so. But you must remember, not only those you speak to, who will be sent here by Me and My Mother, will receive a blessing, and in some cases, a true conversion, but you too, share in the graces and blessings of this journey.

Put your fears aside, little one. Put the doubts aside. This testimony has been made available on a regular basis, through the prodding of My Mother, for a reason. She has brought you to Me, little one. She has said, "This soul is ready to be molded by You, My Son, to be of great help for the salvation of many. She is reluctant, but wishes to be of help to You." You have been told not to look back, but move forward with your eyes on Me, your Jesus. In your sharing and witnessing, you are able to see how far you have come from the time of your true conversion, until now. That is all God is asking you to do, little one. Share with others how God has worked in your life, so they too, can realize the potential of what awaits them, if they will say 'yes' to the will of God, and turn away from the ways of the world. Many do not even realize they are caught up in their own selfish desires. Many do not realize they are so much of the world, until they are forced to compare themselves to one who has been touched deeply, and has given up their all for their Jesus.

Be patient, and wait for God to work through you, little one. Be not afraid. The holy angels and saints are at your disposal, and wish to assist you. My Mother and I are with you. Does this not fill you with peace?

Ruth Ann: Lord, I hear You, and know what You are saying, but I still have to stand up and witness. This is truly a humiliating experience for me, as well as laying on of the hands. As I have told You before, Lord, I am not an exhibitionist. I am only a person, unworthy, not holy, just a sinful person, struggling to be what You want me to do and be.

Jesus: This would not be such a burden to you, if it were not a cross, child. And it must be worthwhile, or it would not be such a struggle for you. You fight against the demons of hell, and your own humanness, continually. But know, child, that you will continue to win. This is through God's grace and mercy. You have seen your ministry undergo another change. The more you do for Me, the more will be asked of you. You have been through much, and this will not cease.

But know in your heart, that this cross that you bear, is not carried alone. You have other 'Simon's' sent to minister to you, just as I had the help and love of those who had not deserted Me. Granted, they were few, but I was not totally deserted. Neither will you be abandoned, little one. There will always be those to assist you in your hours of need. Have you not seen this come about? Have I not prepared you in advance, by always telling you just enough, so that you are never caught unaware? My goodness and mercy will continue to abound. It was, and is, always there for those who love Me, and wish to do the will of the Father, just as I, and My Mother have done.

Be at peace, little one, and know that I am God, and will be with you through your journey to Calvary each week. Your dying of self is so that others may live, little one. Your sacrifices are so that others' hearts may be touched, and started on the road to their Salvation. What better thing to do for your fellow man, than to give your life to save his soul? In dying of self, you are helping others to see the need for change in their lives. Maybe their change will not need to be as drastic as yours has been, but they too, will experience this dying of self, and living for their Jesus. Love and trust in your God. I am with you through all things. Trust, little one, trust.

Ruth Ann: Thank You for holding my hand, and walking me through this, Lord. I need these words.

Jesus: Others too, need to hear them, child. That is why it is so important for you to continue to share.

Ruth Ann: Yes, Lord. I love You, and thank You for Your love and mercy. Please continue to walk with me. Thank You for Your patience.

Jesus: I am always here for you. So is My love and mercy. It is also there for others. Share, little one. This is of great importance to My children. They are in need. Minister to them.

Message of May 8, 1994,
from Our Lady

Ruth Ann: Mother, I want to wish You a happy Mother's Day.

Our Lady: Thank you, child, and I wish the same for you. As a Child of God, I was given the special gift of becoming the Mother of Jesus. My simple 'fiat' gave birth to the salvation of mankind.

How great God is, little child of God! If everyone could only realize the importance of this special gift. This tiny Baby born of a humble Mother, in humble surroundings, was given to the entire world as a special light to touch the minds, hearts, bodies, and souls of God's children. This Child brought into the world as the result of the love of a Father for His children, resulted in the gift of eternal life to all those who seek to follow in this Child's footsteps.

Child, I have heard you speak of concern as you continue to share with God's children the messages you are receiving. In hearing them read aloud to you, you have felt the power behind these words. You have expressed a concern about stepping out in faith, and you have said, "You are in over your head," as you put it. Child, those who choose to follow the will of God are indeed in over their head. That is because it is not you, but God Who dwells within you who is in control.

Your simple 'fiat', child, has led you to the foot of the cross. There you have said, "Lord, I am willing to die for You, but there is only one of me, and I can only die once." Child, this is not so. You continue to die over and over for My Son and the graces that flow out from you to others as a result of your 'death' continue to multiply. Lives and hearts are being touched. You are making My work easier, child, by sharing in the suffering and death of My Son. God blesses you for that, and I bless you for that. What a gift you are to Me, and what a gift you are to My Son! I thank you from the bottom of My Mother's heart for your love and the tender, loving care you have for My children.

As you share your faith experiences and pray with others, you grow in the gifts and power of the Holy Spirit. This is passed on to those around you. You are experiencing growth in spirit and growth in your ministry. This is the result of your simple 'fiat' to Almighty God. Continue, child, to be obedient and hear and share the word of God. My children are desperate, and they hunger for these words. They need someone to help them grow in their strength and faith, so they too, can witness and bring hope to those around them.

I give you My Motherly blessing. Rest, child, you have had a busy week, and next week will be even busier. Know My love and strength are there with you, as is the love of your Jesus and Mine. Enjoy the time you will spend with your family this day.

Ruth Ann: Thank You, Mother, for such beautiful words. I love You so much. Help me to be all God wants me to be.

Our Lady: I am here for you. Allow Me to take your hand as you walk this path. Let Me help you minister to all God's children. My strength is yours. Do not hesitate to ask for My guiding hand. That is My purpose for ministering to you, little child, to guide all My children back to My Son.

Ruth Ann: Thank You again for being with me and seeing me through my last two talks. Be with me this week for my next talk.

Our Lady: I am with you at each talk you give, child. Thank you for asking.

Ruth Ann: I love You, Mother. I don't deserve such blessings, but now I do understand why I suffer so before my talks and my praying with others.

Our Lady: Child, you have said you feel as though you are a lamb being led to slaughter. You are being led to your death. You continue to die of self, but each time as you are resurrected, you bring light, love, and hope to all those around you. Is that not worth the passion and death you suffer?

Ruth Ann: Yes, Mother. Why didn't someone tell me this before?

Our Lady: You have been told before, child. You just never fully understood till now. As your Mother, I am pleased this has touched your heart. As My Son has said, "Those who love My Mother are best loved by Me." My blessing and love I give to you. Go in the peace of My Son, Jesus.

*Message of Dec. 13, 1994,
from Our Lady*

Ruth Ann: Mother, are You there?

Our Lady: Child, of course I am

Ruth Ann: Help me to be more like You. Right now I am not doing so well. God wishes me to have the same love and trust as You had, and I'm not doing a very good job at the moment.

I am struggling with all that is happening concerning the removal of my priest, friend, and spiritual director, for me and the farm.

Our Lady: Child, you have said 'yes' to God. He has not promised you 'easy', or 'pain-free'. I too, have suffered much, before you, through My 'fiat'. Those who give up their will to do the will of God, do not do it for themselves, but for others. Think of all the many people who have come to you for prayer, and you have asked for these prayers to be answered. You have offered to suffer for those people in order that they be freed from their burdens. It is called 'making sacrifices'. Dying, so that others might live. Granted, the dying is not the death of your physical body, it is only symbolic. The dying of self, and all that ties one to the earth, is even more painful. You must remain here, while your soul and heart yearn to be with Me and My Son.

Ruth Ann: Mother, please be with me, and help me through this.

Our Lady: I am here, little child. You must trust in God, and know that all things will work for His greater honor and glory. Be not afraid. I am with you, as is the love and support of your Rock, My Son.

Ruth Ann: Thank You for sharing this time with me, Mother. I love You, and wish You to help me be what God wants me to be.

Our Lady: I will do so. Trust, child, trust.

*Message of June 28, 1994,
from Our Lord Jesus*

Ruth Ann: Lord, I'm having a difficult time listening.

Jesus: You have too many concerns on your mind. Empty yourself of all worries. Be open to what I have to say. I am your Jesus. I have many things to teach you, you need only listen. My children find it very difficult to do so because they are always anticipating the next project or something they have already done. They can't let go of those worldly things. Put everything in My hands, not just the bad, or the good, but everything in between. Rest in Me. Know that I am God, and will attend to all things in My time and in My way. All you need do is trust.

Ruth Ann: Lord, I am learning, but I need to constantly be reminded. I struggle through so many things. I especially struggle through talks. I know I'm not a speaker, but that's just part of it. Mostly, I struggle because I have to open up myself to ridicule. My whole heart and soul is laid bare before those who come to listen.

Jesus: Little one, you have said to Me, "You only have one life to give, but if you could, you would die over and over for me." Little one, do you still not realize that you are doing just that? You have not made the connection, but you speak of each of these things you must do for Me as so humiliating. You compare it to a lamb being led to slaughter. Your comparison is accurate, little one. You die over and over for Me, for this is something you have offered to do on behalf of sinners all over the world. Great graces abound as a result, and the presence of the Holy
