
"TO JESUS THROUGH MARY"

Lessons and Messages to the World from Jesus and the Blessed Virgin Mary to Ruth Ann Wade of Bloomington, Indiana

Compiled by Mary's Children, P. O. Box 27, Washington, IN 47501 - July 2018

Message of March 16, 1994, from Our Lady (In Jerusalem)

Ruth Ann: Mother, I am truly touched by this pilgrimage, but I have had little time to listen and write.

Our Lady: Child, My Son and I have both said to you to go and enjoy the trip to the land of My Son's birth, death and resurrection. This is always a busy time for you, but you will have much to reflect upon as you return to your home and family. God has been so good to you, child. He has given you many gifts since your first gift of 'yes' to His holy will.

There is much more to come child, and you will be fortified with the graces to help you in these difficult days that are ahead of you. You need not be concerned. God loves you and is watching over you with a mighty gift of love. You are being told of the personal cross that will make it possible for others to come to a true and deeper conversion of the heart. Be attentive to the words being spoken to you. Take them into your heart, little child. You are being prepared for great graces. Your mission has only begun, child. As what God wishes for you continues to grow, many other gifts will be given to you. God does not take from His children without replacing what is taken with greater and better gifts in return.

You, My child, must be receptive to all that God wishes for you. The graces are available in abundance. Your gift of receiving His words is a special gift that is to be shared with others. It would do no good to only receive without sharing. God's light must not be hidden under a bushel. There it would burn out and die. In sharing what is being said to you, you are fanning the flames of love and causing a great fire to burn in the hearts of those who choose to listen.

Gifts are given to all of My children. It is up to them to discover their special gift and use it to the greater honor and glory of God. He wishes all His children to agree to do His will so He can work great wonders in their lives and hearts, and the lives and hearts of their loved ones. All wish for their loved ones to be saved. God wishes this too. He does not wish to lose even a single soul. This would be possible if only My children would take to heart all that is being said with great seriousness.

Prayer can change many things. Prayer can bring about the conversion of your dear ones, and those who are your brothers and sisters in Christ Jesus. You are all to be one, little child. One in the spirit of love and peace. But it takes much prayer and love. Do not be so critical of one another. Look for My Son Jesus in each and every one you meet. Then it will be difficult for you to find fault with those around you. Many of you can see the splinter in your brother and sister's eye, but cannot see the boulder in your own. You must guard against this. It is not of God.

The evil one has a way of finding little irritants to place before you. These little irritants then grow into big ones. Do not allow him to use you in this way. Be kind to those around you. Seek forgiveness from those whom you have hurt in any way. That is the way to gain peace in your hearts and in the world. God has continued to wait for His children to come to an understanding of peace with one another, but this peace has not come. Man has so much animosity in his heart for his neighbor, that his peace is not being achieved. Seek peace in your hearts, dear children, so this peace with your neighbor will come.

God's patience has come to an end. He is telling you through many signs and words that the time is now for His children to stop this anger and hatred toward one another. He has sent His only Son to the earth as an example of what He chooses for you to be and do. Live with your neighbor with love and patience in your heart, then peace can be achieved where there is no peace.

I will continue to help all of you for as long as I am allowed. Seek this help from Me. I am your heavenly Mother full of love and compassion for you. Bring your heart to Me. Join with My heart to touch the lives and hearts of all God's children. Seek peace, little children, seek it in your heart, in your daily lives, and in the world around you. Be the light to achieve this peace. Share it with others.

Now, I know you have another busy day ahead. I thank you for listening. Go in My Son's peace.

Ruth Ann: Thank You for these words, Mother, I love You.

Our Lady: I love you, child.

*Message of Feb 9, 1994,
from Our Lady to Prayer Groups*

My Dear Children,

Do not be afraid, God's love surrounds you, even though darkness has covered your earth and all that is on it. God's love is ever present to His children. Call out to Him in these hours of need. He is listening and answering your prayers. There is so much suffering, children, and so much need for prayer. Do not turn away from the One Who can save you from this suffering. Man continues to destroy himself and those around him through hate, greed, and lust for power and control over others. Over and over I tell My children to seek the peace that can only come from God. Dear children, love one another as you are loved, and then peace can come to your world. Pray so you can get peace in your hearts. Then and only then, can change come about. Please, dear children, listen to what is being said to you. So much suffering could be avoided if only you would listen. I love you little children. Seek God's peace.

*Message of Jan. 8, 1994,
from Our Lord Jesus*

Ruth Ann: Lord, do You wish to speak to me?

Jesus: Little one, your Jesus is always here for you. I am always here for all of My children, if only they would take the time to listen to Me.

Ruth Ann: Lord, there are so many distractions.

Jesus: Yes, the evil one interferes even in the prayers of My children who wish to listen. But the effort is being put forth, the graces and blessings are there for My children who make an honest effort to seek My comfort and that of My Mother. God knows the hearts and minds of those who were created by Him. 'Seek and ye shall find'. Those who truly look for Me will find Me. Those who truly listen will hear. I wish to speak to all My children, and I wish for all My children to listen to what I have to say. My children wish to hear what they want to hear, and not what I have to say. In a world made up of children who have been led into darkness, it is difficult for Me to be heard.

My Mother has asked all of you to return to the faith you had as a small child. Many have forgotten these words. It takes faith and trust in God to survive in a world of sin and degradation. The faith and trust is not there as it should be. The evil one continues to cause turmoil and strife, even among those who desire to do My will. "Love one another as I have loved you." If you truly try to live the messages of My Mother, the graces and blessings will come to you in abundance. All I ask is for you to make the effort. I will multiply all you try to do in My name and the name of My Mother.

There is so much pain and suffering that is being caused by man's refusal to acknowledge Me, and their easy acceptance of the ways of the evil one. It is much more difficult to be good than it is to go along with a society steeped in moral decay. To follow the way of the cross brings with it pain and suffering, but it also brings with it, peace. This peace is an inner peace that can only come from God. Following the ways of the world brings only turmoil, confusion, and frustration, little one. Why can't

My children see that? They are seeking peace in all the wrong places. Sacrifices will bring peace. Love for one another brings peace. Confession brings peace.

My children have wandered far away from Me. The sadness is, they don't even realize this. The evil one has taken over their lives, and they have no clue that he is even near. Where there is peace, so also I shall be. Seek this peace. Come to the foot of the cross. Leave your burdens with Me and I will give you peace and rest from all the ways of the world.

It is true what My Mother has spoken. Time is running out. Man continues to go about each day as though he is not concerned for his own soul. He thinks only of those physical needs and desires that have become his whole life. It is true man must work and earn a living. It is true that you have families to care for, but it is also true that you have a loving God Who has given all of these things to you. It is up to you to arrange your priorities. God first, and all other things will be provided. That is where trust and faith come into play. Make time for Me. Read My word in the New Testament. Read materials that will lift your spirit and not pull you down into darkness and despair. Listen to those things that will bring peace and joy to your spirit. Receive the sacraments. These are all the things you have known and have been told many times.

But all of these things are pushed aside because you are too busy for Me. Being 'too busy' does not bring one peace. It brings confusion and frustration. It brings doubts and fears. All of these things are not of Me. Children, arrange your life so you have time for Me. I love you and wish for you to have the peace that will make you happy no matter what your cross is, and no matter what your burden is that you carry. I wish for you to be happy. Peace brings happiness and joy unimaginable, even in suffering. I am here, children. I am here to speak to you. I am here to love you and I am here to lighten your burdens.

'Come to Me, all you who are weary, and I will give you rest'. These are not just words, these are My words. These are meant for you. Trust and have faith, little children. Your Jesus wishes to come to a world ready to receive Him. Do not waste precious time on things of the world. Focus on Me. I will bring you joy and peace beyond belief. These words are truth. Believe them. Believe in Me.

You have much to do today, but I thank you for putting Me first, little one. Go about your day knowing I am with you in all things. Be filled with My peace.

Ruth Ann: Yes, Lord. Thank You for taking this time with me, and thank You for the peace that You have given me.

Message of March 23, 1994,
from Our Lady to Prayer Groups

My Dear Children,

Thank you for responding to My call. Prayer is much needed in your land. The evil one continues to interfere in all I wish to accomplish through each of you. He continues to distract and discourage you in your prayer life. Do not let this happen, little children. Focus on My Son and the needs of your world. Come to Me, come to My Son. We wish to strengthen you and your life of prayer. Shut out the world and all the distractions, if only for a few minutes each day. Pray from the heart. This will bring you peace. Through this peace, you will touch the hearts of others who are in need of this peace. Think of the beatitudes, little children. Blessed are the peacemakers for they shall be called children of God. Peace begins in your hearts. Pray, dear children, pray!

Message of Aug. 21, 1994,
from Our Lady
(After Prayer Group Message)

Ruth Ann: Mother, do You wish to add anything?

Our Lady: Child, these messages are extremely important. The time is drawing near for My children when these words will be the very fabric to sustain many of My children who have found themselves without a place to pray. God has placed a great cross upon your shoulders, little one, but one that you carry with love and peace. My children must have calm in the midst of all this confusion and evil that surrounds them. That peace can be found here on this farm, and within you. God has given you a heavy cross that will grow even heavier, but He has also blessed you with many special gifts. He is allowing you the grace to pass on the peace you have been given, that lives within you, that radiates from you, and you are allowed to share it with others. You are not only allowed to do so, it is His Will that this be done.

When I spoke to you of this love and peace in the prophecy which was given to you in Medjugorje, you did not understand. Now, you are beginning to accept and understand the importance of what was being said to you. I thank you for listening and sharing this peace through My messages, praying with others, and witnessing to My children. You have been given special gifts, child, and they are to be shared. More is to come, and many more of My children will be sent here to you to share in this peace and love which is here for that purpose. Thank you for being an instrument that is willing to be used for the greater honor and glory of God. Thank you for listening and responding to My call.

The meaning of the words, 'You have finally come', that were said to you on the bus as you entered Medjugorje are finally becoming clear to you. The evil you saw and felt there was for a reason, child. I wished for you to know the evil one was trying very hard to wreck My plans, and much prayer was needed to stop him. Much prayer is still needed, and I am depending on the help of prayer groups such as yours to help Me crush the head of the evil one. Be not afraid, child, great graces abound for those who love God and are willing to give of themselves for the sake of others.

You are your brother's keeper. Love God and your neighbor as yourself, for the love of God. This is the greatest of all commandments. In praying for the salvation of your fellow man, you are following the commandment of God. In doing this, you can bring about peace for yourself, your family, and the world around you. As all else crumbles, seek God's peace, pray, and know I am praying with you. Go in the peace of My Son. Love one another.

Ruth Ann: Thank You, Mother, for taking the time to speak with me.

Our Lady: Thank you for being obedient, and opening your mind and heart to My Son.

Message of May 4, 1994,
from Our Lady to Prayer Groups

My Dear Children,

I come to you bearing a message of love and peace. I am your Mother and I wish for each one of you to have peace in your heart. Little children, unless each of you has peace in your heart, it cannot come to the whole world. Man continues to wish for peace, but all around him is turmoil and pain. This is not of God. He wishes only good things for His children. The evil one continues to work his way into the hearts of those who do not wish to accept the love and peace that is offered by a God Who loves you. Be loving and caring children. Do not let darkness influence your lives. Seek out the light. Seek out the peace that can only come from God. Then, and only then, can peace come to your world. God loves you and I love you. Go in His peace.

Message of Feb. 23, 1994,
from Our Lady

Our Lady: As you work and witness for My Son, great graces will be granted to you in the form of blessings and answers to your prayers. There is so much unrest in the world that My children must have those such as you to keep a balance in their lives. God has touched your life in such a way, little child, that the peace and light He has left within you radiates to those around you. This calm and love comes from God, child. Only He can give this kind of peace and contentment in a world torn by sin, grief, torment and pain.

Ruth Ann: You are right, Mother. I keep hearing these awful things coming from other sources. I no longer fear anything that is to come. I am at peace with everything, even for my children and their children. I feel whatever happens is God's will, and let His will be done.

Our Lady: Child, you have totally given yourself over to God. That is why you have achieved this peace. You know God loves you and is in control. Whatever He has to do to purify the earth and His children on it, has to be so. Whatever it takes to make the earth ready for My Son's Second Coming will be done according to God's holy will. Much suffering is ahead for My children, but as I have said before, pray and turn your lives over to God. Stay focused on My Son. Be steeped in light, love, and truth, and there is nothing to fear. Man has always been told to live each day as if it were to be his last day on the earth. This is not anything new. All God's children must live prepared to meet their Maker at any moment. Not many do so, but that is how one should live. If God's children follow His Commandments, they cannot go wrong, and will be at peace with each day of their lives.

Ruth Ann: I understand what You are saying, Mother, and yes, we have been told that over and over.

Our Lady: Pray and make sacrifices. Tend to the needs of your neighbor. Love one another. Pray for each other. Life is very difficult for many of My children. They struggle about in darkness, not realizing that the light they must seek is My Son. This saddens Me. I see so many sinking deeper into the muck and mire of sin, death and destruction. They seek peace in pleasures of the flesh, and it is the spirit that is crying out for nourishment. They cannot and will not be satisfied until they have a conversion. That is why I continually ask all of My children to pray for this conversion that is so important to the life of the soul. It is important for those who have this peace to share it with others, so they, too, can pass it to those around them.

Ruth Ann: I thank You for enlightening me of what my true mission is, or Whoever is responsible, Our Lord, Holy Spirit, Whoever.

Our Lady: You were reminded of the prophecy I gave to you in Medjugorje, child. It is just that you are better understanding what God expects of you. He has said to you, "Minister to My people," and I have told you many years ago, you are to spread love and peace to your family, prayer group, and in time it will grow bigger and bigger. This peace will spread throughout your country, and into the entire world, little child. You cannot comprehend this, but it is true. Much is to come, but you will have the support of your family, your God, and those friends chosen by God to assist you. Be not afraid.

Ruth Ann: Mother, I truly am not afraid. I get sad from time to time for losses that have occurred in my life, but I'm truly not afraid, for I know You and Your Son will take care of us. God is in control. It is all in His hands. I am in His hands, and I can think of no better place to be, in a troubled world. I love You so much, Mother. I thank You for taking the time to speak with me again this week.

Our Lady: I love you, little child, and I thank you for listening and sharing. Now, go in My Son's peace. Spread this peace to others.

Ruth Ann: Yes, Mother.

Message of August 17, 1994,
from Our Lady to Prayer Groups

My Dear Children,

My Motherly blessing I give to you. Be at peace with one another. God awaits your total commitment to doing His will. Live the messages that I bring to you. Then, and only then, can peace reign in your hearts. Let this peace begin with you, so that you can be an example for My children who do not seek peace. Love one another as God loves you. Be forgiving, and know in this forgiveness there brings hope for a new tomorrow. Sing praises to My Son Who is the prime example of love, peace, and forgiveness.

Message of August 17, 1994,
from Our Lady

Ruth Ann: Mother, do You wish to add anything to what has been said in the weekly message?

Our Lady: Child, there is always room for improvement in the lives of My children. Striving for holiness is an ongoing process, and continues in our life from birth until death. That is why prayer is so important. Man cannot hope to be all that God would have him be, without God's help. There are so many temptations and distractions in your world. You must seek quiet time to talk with My Son. Let Him know you love Him. Let Him know you appreciate all He has done and continues to do for you. I am here to bring you closer to Him. That is why I continue to speak to many, and through many, of His love. I wish to draw you away from the distractions, even if it is only for a little while.

Be not afraid of tomorrow. Focus on My Son, and live each day with love and peace in your heart. Forgive one another the hurts that come from lack of love and understanding of one another. Do not hold grudges. Forgive. Do not seek revenge. 'Revenge is Mine, saith the Lord'. Tend to the needs of your hearts and souls, and God will tend to the rest. You, My children, must seek peace. Without it there is no hope for this world. I am counting on you, those who are listening, to pray and help others obtain this peace so important in this troubled world. Know that I continue to pray with you for all that God wishes to see achieved in the greatness of His divine plan. Much prayer is needed in order to achieve all He has in store.

My Immaculate Heart will triumph. This prophecy was made many years ago. It was true then, and it is true now. It is through your prayers and faithfulness to the God Who has created you, that you will help Me bring about this magnificent day. Again, do not be afraid. God has much in store before all things can come to fruition. Stay focused on the greatness of His love and mercy. Know I am with you, and pray constantly for the conversion of all of God's children.

Go in My Son's peace. Pray, pray, pray!

Message of Nov. 23, 1993,
from Our Lord Jesus

Jesus: Child, I know you don't have a lot of time, but I also know you wish to speak to Me.

Ruth Ann: Yes, Lord, this is true. But since I was called away early this morning, I was afraid there would be too many interruptions and therefore, not possible to speak with You.

Jesus: I will make all quiet, child.

Ruth Ann: Thank You, Lord.

Jesus: I wish to share with you just how much God loves you.

Ruth Ann: Lord, I know there is much more than this to share.

Jesus: You are right, little one, there is much to add. God loves you so much, He sent His only Son to live and die for you, so that you could gain the reward of Heaven.

Ruth Ann: This sounds like a review of my catechism, Lord.

Jesus: Yes it does, little one, those were the days when My children had no doubts as to why they were put here on the earth. Those were the days when My children knew exactly what their purpose was in life. Now My children continually question what they are doing. So many are trying to find themselves. What they are really looking for is God in their lives, and they don't even realize that is the burning desire that is in their heart. They complain about hating their jobs, their life, the people they work with. They complain of dissatisfaction of all kinds. What they need, they are not finding, because they are not looking in the right places.

Dissatisfactions, irritations, boredom, depression, these are not of Me, little one. And the minute one complains of such, you know right away the evil one is working in their life trying to disrupt, cause grief and turmoil, and bring them down on his plane. They must turn to God in prayer in order to find peace and a calmness in their life. This can only come from God. They must learn to use the Sacraments and sacramentals available to them to deal with the darkness that tries to disrupt and cause hate and anger in the lives of many of My children. The prayer, 'I bind and rebuke the evil one in the name of Jesus', must be used at times.

There is much My little ones can do to combat the evil one. The best thing is prayer, the rosary given to My children by My Mother will break the stronghold one day that the evil one seems to have upon the world. The Woman Clothed in the Sun will shine Her light on all of Her children and draw them out of darkness. Goodness and light will triumph over evil. My Mother's Immaculate Heart will see to it. But My children must listen and live the messages being given to them, in order to be able to know what it is they are being called to do. Many continue to ignore this fact, and use the excuse that the messages haven't been approved. My Mother, and anything She would say, would not cause harm to anyone. These are Her children She is calling out to at this time. What Mother would do anything to cause Her children harm, especially One Who is from Heaven? In the meantime, these children who wish to ignore are denying themselves, and their loved ones, many graces that they could otherwise be getting, graces that would combat fear, hate, confusion, and depression. That is as it will be.

During the time of My teaching on the earth, before My death on the cross, many ignored what I had to say. As a result, they were among those who were responsible for My death. It is important for My children to listen and pray for one another so all My children's eyes will have the blinders removed. Love one another as I have loved you. There is no room for hate, anger, or envy in a world that is steeped in My divine love. Peace, children, strive for peace. Peace in your hearts, homes, and the whole world. Much of this can be done through prayer.

Ruth Ann: I continue to pray, Lord. There is so much pain, and suffering, and unrest in the world. Will there ever be peace?
