Message of July 5, 1994, from Our Lord Jesus

Ruth Ann: Lord, thank You for the peace that I've felt yesterday and today. Please let this continue.

Jesus: Little one, it is up to you to keep your peace. It is always available to you through the grace of God. It is you who allow the concerns of the world to come in and disturb your God-given peace.

Ruth Ann: You are right, Lord. And I still thank You for Your help.

Jesus: Little one, I am here for all of you, all of the time. Each one of you tries so hard to run your own life, making all your own decisions. You think you are in control. Don't you realize, at the blink of an eye, I can end your life, and all things you thought were so important to your life, would no longer be of concern to you. That is why I continue to say, put Me first, and all things will then fall into place. Man still hasn't learned to do this. Mankind still frets over the things and problems of the world as though this is going to bring about his eternal salvation. If only My children would concern themselves with those things of a spiritual nature as well, or even as much, I would not have to be finding so many ways to get mankind's attention.

It saddens My heart, little one, to see so many of My children wasting their time, getting bigger and better material things in this world, and ignoring the state of their soul. The more they get, the more they want, thinking these things will bring them peace and happiness. These things do not bring happiness. Knowing you are right with your Maker will bring peace and happiness. Knowing you are doing the will of your Father in Heaven brings you peace. When you have this peace and share it, those around you begin searching and re-evaluating their lives so they too, can gain this peace. Peace truly begets peace. Love begets love, and faith begets miracles.

Ruth Ann: I thought You were going to say 'faith begets faith'.

Jesus: You cannot give someone faith. You can give them hope. You can share your faith and trust in God and help them in their journey to strengthen their faith, but it is not something tangible that you can give to another. If that were the case, those of you who have such faith, would have an easy task before you. As it is, you are called to share the miracles God has worked in your life, and this helps others to find the strength and courage to begin their journey to become stronger in their love and trust in God. As their faith is strengthened, they begin to recognize the miracles that God has been working, and will continue to work, in their lives.

So that is what I mean when I say, "Faith begets miracles." Everything must be turned over to God, so He can work in your life continuously. Even in the bad times, He is working. That is when your faith and trust is truly tested. It is easy to love and trust God when everything runs smoothly in your life. It is through the difficult times that your faith is tested. Then you discover, and so do I, just how strong your faith is. If you are grounded in a strong love for Me, you are able to survive all the hardships that life has a way of bringing your way. If your faith does not have a strong or firm foundation, then it begins to crumble, and so does the world around you.

Faith is extremely important. Those who have it are truly blessed. It is a God-given blessing, that continues to be cultivated throughout your entire life. Those who put their God first realize this, and continue to thrive when everything around them seems to be falling apart. Then, faith and peace continue to radiate to those around them. Those who do not have this faith fall apart when their world falls apart, because they have let the world and the material things of the world be their god. I continue to say, "Put Me first, and all other things will fall into place."

That is what I am saying to all of My children again, "I am the Way, the Truth, and the Life, no one can come to the Father except through Me." My Mother continues to tell Her children, "Come to Jesus." She has the wisdom of the ages. God is allowing Her to work in the lives of His children, again and again. Just as She brought forth Her Son 2000 years ago, He is allowing Her again to bring Him forth into the world. Take heed My children, listen to Her, listen to Me. There is great need of this faith, love, and peace in this world. Trust in God. His plan is about to unfold. Prepare for the Second Coming of your Jesus.

Ruth Ann: These words appear very strong, Lord.

Jesus: Child, they are of the utmost importance. So many of My children continue to search for signs and wonders, looking for a specific date of the Second Coming of Christ the King, when in fact they should realize the time is nearing, and the most important thing they can do is gather in prayer. Strengthen the faith and trust in God of those around you, by witnessing to the greatness and goodness of His love and mercy in your lives. In doing so, you will be doing what I would have you do.

Many of you experience miracles, but do not share. You hide your light under a bushel. The light goes out, and is never seen again. Witness to the greatness and goodness of these miracles in your life. Know that God is, was, and always will be here, for all of His people. Those of you chosen to share and go forth among His people, as in the days of old, are like a light that shines forth in this time of darkness. You are a saving light, to draw others closer and closer to Me. Continue to be this beacon. Draw My children back to Me.

Ruth Ann: Thank You, Lord, for these words.

Message of Sept. 28, 1994
from Our Lady to Prayer Groups

My Dear Children,

You must realize that God is watching over you, and He wishes for you to be at peace with on another. There is much unrest in your world. You continue to struggle with all those problems that can only be solved by God. You must stay focused on My Jesus. Let Him carry those burdens which have become too heavy for you to carry. I too, am here to help you in any way I can. I wish to help you gain the light and peace which comes with hope, faith, and trust in God. Follow God's will for you, and all else will fall into place. Dear children, God loves you, and I love you. Thank and praise Him for what He has done, and continues to do for you. Pray, dear children, so that others may gain the peace and hope that is so much needed in your world. I thank you for your continued efforts and support in prayer. Go in My Son's peace.

Message of Nov. 30, 1994,
from Our Lady
(After Prayer Group Message)

Ruth Ann: Mother, is there anything You wish to say to me?

Our Lady: Child, the time is nearing when I will no longer be allowed to minister to My children in the way I have been doing. God in His mercy has allowed Me to come to the earth and minister to His children in many ways, through many of those who were receptive to this gift. My heart is saddened for those who have not chosen to listen and take the messages to heart. As your Mother, I am concerned for the welfare of your souls. Many have listened with their ears to what has been said, but have not taken the words to their heart.

Many continue to search for answers that are not there, wanting to know the future. If My children would only listen to what has been said, and take it to their hearts, much pain and suffering could be avoided. But man continues to believe that he is in control of his life and his destiny. He gives God no credit for all that he has, and is. God does not care how much you have, but He does care what you do with what has been given to you. When you stand before the Throne of God on judgment day, He will hold you responsible for, and accountable for, the use of all He has allowed you to have in this world. For those who have been given much, much is expected. My children must come to realize that money and materialism are not to be the focus of their lives. There is only one God. There is only one life that is important, and that is eternal life.

Man frets over his earthly life, wanting to satisfy his earthly pleasures and desires, and he thinks not of his soul. Your life can end in the blink of an eye, little children, and all the material possessions you have gathered together, can be removed just as easily as it was given to you. Imagine yourself with all your material wealth and possessions removed. What do you have left? Is your faith strong enough to accept this kind of hardship? What if your good health was to be removed? Is your faith strong enough to be tested in such a way?

Focus on My Son. Tend to your immortal souls My little ones, and let God tend to all your needs. Arrange your priorities. Put God first. He loves you, and wishes your souls to be saved. My concern for you is great. You must choose to live for God, and not for the world. Your body lasts but an instant. Your soul lasts forever. I wish for your soul to be in Heaven for all eternity. Pray, dear children, and know I am praying with you. Go in My Son's peace.

Message of August 5, 1994,
from Our Lord Jesus

Ruth Ann: Lord, I know You are wanting to speak to me, what is it You wish to say?

Jesus: Child, you are in need of encouraging words. You have a talk this evening, do you not?

Ruth Ann: Yes Lord, and You are right, I am in need. I was not ready to listen because of my own irritation at having to do this.

Jesus: Little one, you are not hurting Me when you do these things, you are only hurting yourself. You are denying yourself the peace to get through the day, so you will have the calmness you need in order to give your talk. I am only trying to help make all you do, and need to do for Me, a little easier.

Ruth Ann: Lord, I have come to the conclusion it is never going to become easy for me.

Jesus: You are right child, but even in the pain and suffering of this knowledge, you can still experience peace. There can be peace with pain and suffering of all sorts if one knows they have a divine purpose to fulfill. Even those of My children who suffer severe pain through disease, poor health, loss of a loved one, or any of the pains of life that befall them, can find peace as long as they accept the suffering for My greater honor and glory. So you, in pain, suffering, and sharing, gain graces for those who are to hear of the mighty deeds I have done in your life.

For many, you bring hope, little one, for some, you bring salvation of their souls, and for others, you bring peace with the suffering and trials of their own lives. You do not realize the significance of your suffering, but it is extremely important to Me that you have accepted your cross, so that others too, can be at peace with their cross, which they suffer in their life. You bring healings of all sorts to My children just in your witnessing and prayer. For many, it is just a great faith boost. So many of My children have strayed from the teachings of their childhood. These teachings brought them a faith and trust in God, that over the years has waned. Now I am sending out new disciples to enkindle in My children the love and faith that is needed to get through the difficult times ahead. For some, it is just a rebuilding of that love, for others, it is a new love and trust in Me. When they hear all you have experienced through your love and trust in Me, it gives them hope and peace, for which there is great need. Be not afraid. That which you experience is not without the rewards of eternal life for you and others.

Ruth Ann: I know that what You are saying is true, Lord, and I will be fine tomorrow. Not only fine, but I'll be on a high. Then comes the day after that, and I'm usually at an all-time low.

Jesus: Little one, I have told you there will be peaks and valleys. Did I not experience these same feelings? Did not all those who have followed in My footsteps experience the peaks and valleys? That is true of all My children. They experience these feelings in their lives through their jobs, relationships, loss of loved ones, just the daily living brings with it these peaks and valleys. To accept them, and live them for God, brings graces and blessings. Anything done for the greater honor and glory of God, brings with it great rewards.

So continue to persevere, child. Be that hope and light for My children in darkness. They are in need of encouragement along their difficult path of life. They need to hear that I am here with you and them. I am still working miracles, just as I did two thousand years ago. Through those of you who have listened and accepted the crosses being sent to you to share, others will be saved. It is as simple as that, little one.

Be at peace with this day, and all you are called to do. Know that many are praying for you to help you on your way to Calvary with this very heavy cross that you carry. I am with you, and so is My Mother. Great graces will be given out this day through your sacrifice and pain. I will touch many hearts through your witnessing and prayer. Miracles will abound as always, little one.

Now go about your day in peace. I am with you and so is My abundant love.

Ruth Ann: Thank You, Lord. I'm glad I listened. I love You so much, Lord.

Jesus: I know your heart, child. I know the struggling with what you do has nothing to do with your lack of love for Me. The struggle comes from your humanness, little one. You are afraid of making a fool of yourself. You are embarrassed for emptying your heart and soul in front of others. If you are too embarrassed, or make a fool of yourself, what better reason to do it than for Me.

Ruth Ann: You are right, Lord, as always.

Message of Nov. 24, 1993,
from Our Lady to Prayer Groups

My Dear Children,

Blessed are they who do not see and still believe. It is beautiful to see the faith and trust of My children who continue to pray for all those in need because I have asked them to do so. My many messages that continue to call you to trust and have faith, have been taken to heart by all of you here. I bless you for this, dear children, and will continue to send graces and blessings to all My children who have responded to My call. Your faith, trust, and love, acts as a catalyst to all those with whom you come in contact. The love you have for My Son is evident in all that you say and do. Let it continue to be so, little children, so that those who are in great need of prayer and faith will be strengthened by your example. My protective mantle surrounds you. My love and prayers I join with you. Go in God's peace.

Message of April 8, 1994,
from Our Lord Jesus

Ruth Ann: Thank You, Lord, You tend to my every need, no matter how small.

Jesus: Little one, it is because of your complete turning of your life and will over to Me. You will continue to see Me work in your life in all ways. When My children trust and have such faith in Me, how can I not produce? I am continually reminding My children of this, and they must learn that this is something I mean. Trust, have faith, and I will see that your faith is rewarded. Not only in little things, but in big things as well.

My children have lost this faith that was so much a part of their life as a child. Society has a way of destroying this childlike faith. Man, in following the ways of the evil one, destroys and tarnishes everything that he touches. God wishes only good things for His children; and His children, because of greed and hunger for power and all that is not holy, continue to ruin his life and the lives of those around him. If only My children would learn to give their lives over to Me and do the will of the Father by not following the ways of the evil one, life could be peaceful. But no, man cannot be satisfied with what he has. He continually wants more and more, no matter what the cost, no matter who is hurt in the process. Man always wants what he cannot have, or what he should not have.

You notice every little thing I do for you, little one. That is because you have given everything to Me, even your sorrow and pain. If all My children were such as you, I could continue to work miracles in their lives just as well, but some are so blinded by their own selfishness and greed, they would not even notice.

Ruth Ann: Lord, there have been times I did not notice. It's just that my life has changed so drastically that I can't help but notice all You do for me. You and Your Mother are continually blessing me.

Jesus: Your faith and trust in Me will be rewarded, little one. Know I am with you.

Ruth Ann: Thank You, Lord.

*Message of Sept. 23, 1994,
from Our Lord Jesus*

Ruth Ann: Lord, do You have something to say to Your children? There are so many suffering through sickness, loss of loved ones, need of jobs, and the feeling of being alone through all of these trials.

Jesus: Little one, they need not feel alone. Man does not understand why he suffers and others do not. That is because he does not see the big plan. If the suffering of one person brings about the conversion of another, it is well worth that suffering. So many of My children have lost faith and trust in God.

Remember in your youth when you were told, 'Offer up your suffering for the poor souls in purgatory, or someone in need of conversions'? These things are seldom done, and they are just as valid now as they were then. God loves the purity of 'victim souls' willing to accept their suffering gladly for the good of other souls. If man could be grateful for the bad that has happened in life, as well as the good, he could gain a better understanding of the workings of God. God is in control. The evil one is not stronger than God. Sometimes 'bad' is allowed to happen in your life, in order to draw you closer to God. Sometimes it is a 'wake up' call to help you realize just how good God has been, and is. Sometimes He sends concerns as a 'reality check'. It definitely is just that. It is to let them know that God is always in control of your life, and best of all, He is the Giver of life.

Man must never take anything he has for granted, not the material things he accumulates, nor his good health. God can remove either, or both, at the blink of an eye. That is why it is so important for man to have his life in proper perspective, God first. Faith is such a blessing to those who have it. It is something that cannot be given to someone else, but it is something to be shared. Those who have no faith live in constant fear and dread when something extremely difficult happens to them, or those around them. With faith and trust in God, you know all things happen for good. God can take the worst of circumstances, and use it to the good of souls. It is difficult for those without faith to see this, but it is so.

No matter how painful the loss, God can use it for the good of others. Many times, it is to win souls for Him. It is difficult for My children to see this, but many situations work out for this very purpose. How many times have you yourself said, if it hadn't been for your 'reality check', you would have gone on your merry way, seeking material things and being a lukewarm Christian? It took you losing your health, and My intervention, to bring you to where you are today. As a result, many other lives and hearts have been touched. Had you been left to your own resources, you would not have survived. But through My plan, and allowing the hardships in your life to continue to manifest themselves in many ways, you were forced to make a choice. You chose to give all to Me.

Ruth Ann: 'Forced' is a strong word, Lord. We have a free will. You have told me that many times.

Jesus: You do have a free will, child, and you had a choice to make. You could have continued on ignoring Me and the importance of My being, or you could have made the choice to turn everything over to Me. You made the correct choice. But would you have ever come to the realization that I am in total control, if I had not continued to allow all these hardships in your life to continue?

Ruth Ann: You are right, Lord, I would have continued doing all those things that were getting me nowhere spiritually, if You had not intervened in my life.

Jesus: That is why it is so important for you to share these facts. Many do not realize the importance of God and the turning over of their very lives to Me. I can only work in the lives of those who are ready to receive all I have to give. Sometimes it takes much pain and suffering to make My children realize that all is not right in their life. I must come first.

My Mother continues to call Her children away from things of the world, distractions that can lead to the loss of their souls. Listen to what She has to say. She is your Mother, and knows what is best for you. Continue to share what I am telling you, little one. These words are important to My little ones struggling in the darkness. Help Me, help them, strengthen their faith. Help Me, help them, realize that all is not lost, no matter what is going on in their life. God is there, ready to pick up the pieces and make you whole again. Love Me as I have loved you, little ones! Have faith and trust in Me. No matter how great your pain, I am here to help you on the road to the salvation of your soul. Be at peace.

Message of June 6, 1994,
from Our Lord Jesus

Ruth Ann: Lord, there are those who come to me seeking advice. Please help me guide those who are asking my help.

Jesus: Little one, the advice you have given is of the utmost importance, that advice being, trust in the Lord, do His will, turn everything over to Him and let Him work in your life. Once My children admit they can do nothing without My help, I can begin to work in their lives in a greater way than ever before.

Ruth Ann: I find it very easy to tell others that, but I know how difficult it really is for one to do. I also know it really shouldn't be difficult.

Jesus: My children are so used to being in complete control, that they find it extremely difficult to survive when they find they do not have control of a situation. Instead of saying, 'Lord, I really don't know what to do. You are going to have to tend to this. I put it in Your hands', they panic and try even harder to try and to some kind of control or order in their lives. My children have a difficult time turning all things over to Me, the great and the small.

Ruth Ann: Lord, I find myself doing the same thing. It is difficult to get up each day, going forth, doing all that You ask, and not knowing exactly where it's all going to end. I thought at one time I pretty well had my life mapped out, and now I realize I have no idea where my life is going. I do know I can do nothing without You, so I say to You, "Work all things out for Your greater honor and glory, it's all Yours."

Jesus: Thank you for your faith and trust, little one. I will tend to your every need, just as I will tend to all those who come to Me in faith and trust. Without complete faith and trust, there can be no peace. My children struggle so, trying too hard to control their lives, and the lives of those around them, and all I ask is for them to submit to My will, and let Me help them with those things that seem to overwhelm them. Nothing can be too difficult if you have My help or the help of My Mother. She, too, wishes to be of help to Her children.

Life could be so much more peaceful for the entire world if all My children would learn to turn their struggles over to Me. I will never allow you to carry too much. When the burden gets too great, share it with Me. Many of you carry very heavy crosses, but you need not carry them alone. Know I am here for you. God loves you, little children. Allow Him to help you carry on with peace and harmony in your midst. Do not let the one of darkness keep you in turmoil. Do not allow him to influence you toward thoughts and deeds that are of an unkind nature. Be at peace, children. Love one another as I have loved you. Put all in God's hands. His plan is perfect. Be patient, love, and trust, and watch God's plan unfold.

You can rest assured that in the end, all things work for the good, even those things done through the work and at the hands of the evil one, will bring about beautiful things for those who continue to love and trust in Me. Do not lose heart, children, I am with you even to the end of the earth. I am here forever and always, throughout eternity. What better friend could any one of My children have, than He Who would send His only Son to the earth to redeem mankind for their sins.

Now He sends the Mother of His Son as co-redemptrix, to bring about an end to the evil, and the salvation of mankind. Make no mistake, the Immaculate Heart of Mary, Mother of your Jesus, will triumph over all evil. She Herself has said, "In the end, My Immaculate Heart will triumph. Satan will be defeated." These words were, and are prophetic. These words are truth. They will be fulfilled.

Ruth Ann: Thank You, Lord.
