
“TO JESUS THROUGH MARY”

Lessons and Messages to the World from Jesus and the Blessed Virgin Mary to Ruth Ann Wade of Bloomington, Indiana

Compiled by Mary's Children, P. O. Box 27, Washington, IN 47501 - October 2018

Message of August 24, 1994, from Our Lady

Ruth Ann: Mother, You seem to be concerned about so many of us keeping our peace.

Our Lady: Child, many of you are struggling to keep your peace, and it need not be such a struggle if you can stay focused on God. In many of the messages earlier, I spoke to you of being able to keep this peace when times would become more difficult. Times are becoming more difficult, and I am seeing My children struggle to stay at peace. The evil one truly enjoys this. If he can distract and disturb those who try so hard to do the will of God, then think how easy it is for him to use those who are not focused. He continues to destroy what peace My children try so hard to obtain and keep.

My heart aches for you, because so many of you are losing your focus. It does not matter if the whole world should crumble around you, stay focused on My Son. You were put on this earth to know, love, and serve God, and be happy with Him in heaven. You need only strive for holiness by picking up your cross and following in the footsteps of My Jesus. This was not easy for Him, and it will not be easy for you. Know I love you and am praying with, and for, each one of you. I am in your midst to keep you focused on My Son, even though life continues to be difficult for you.

Man has caused his world to become so corrupt, and full of unrest and hatred, by allowing the prince of darkness to take over the earth. There is a war being waged at present time. This is not of a physical nature. It is called spiritual warfare. Good is fighting evil, and evil seems to have the upper hand. Be at peace, My little children. Good will eventually triumph over evil. There will be much suffering, which My children must endure, before this great battle, that is being waged, will be won, but do not doubt the strength of prayer. That is why I am calling so many to prayer. Only prayer can stop the evil that is taking over your world, prayer and the power of God.

Do not doubt for one minute that God is not listening to your prayers. He sees your tears and He feels your pain. Be at peace little children, and know that God is in your midst. When the time is right, all evil will be destroyed. Listen to My messages. Stay focused on My Son, and do not let the evil one destroy your peace.

God loves you, and I love you. Be at peace with one another. Pray to keep this peace.

Message of August 31, 1994, from Our Lord Jesus

Ruth Ann: Lord, the words told to me by Your Mother after the weekly message were quite strong.

Jesus: She realizes too few are listening to what is being said. She also realizes that God is not pleased with all those who continue to ignore all She is doing in the world to draw them away from darkness and into the light. As a good Mother wishes to protect her children and keep them safe, She too, is trying to do all in Her power to love and protect you. She continues to work tirelessly to draw all of Her children under Her protective mantle, and many continue to fight against this protection. They will have to experience many hardships before they realize She is trying to be of help to them with the salvation of their souls.

Man continues to be so stubborn, child. He thinks he is in control, and that he has all the time in the world to prepare to meet his Creator. She, My Mother, is here now for a reason. She has warned Her children of the coming of God's wrath if they did not repent of their sins, and return to the ways of God, in messages prior to these.

Man wishes to think he has lots of time to get his act together. This is not so. She would not be appearing to so many, and speaking to so many, if this were so. She is calling Her children to the safety of Her Immaculate Heart. She is asking for true conversions of Her children. She wishes every soul to be saved. Even the hardest of hearts She wishes to see broken open, and the love and mercy of Christ poured into them. She is pouring forth graces at special places of prayer all over the world. Those who are listening are benefiting from these graces, which will sustain them through the difficult times that are ahead.

Those who seek to hide their heads in the sand and ignore all the warnings, bring more and more hardships upon the land. God must get the attention of His children if they are to be saved. Apparitions and messages do not seem to be enough. So greater measures must be taken in order to get the attention of those who have chosen to ignore the signs.

Ruth Ann: Lord, those of us, who are aware, are trying to do all Your Mother is calling us to do.

Jesus: Your God is aware of this. Your prayers and efforts do not go unnoticed, little one, neither do all the efforts, put forth by those who wish to have the messages given to the world by My Mother, gone unnoticed. But much prayer is needed for a world totally taken over by the evil one. My Heart is saddened, as is the Heart of My Mother. So many of My children continue to be lost, stumbling along in darkness, when they could choose to be in the light, and at peace.

Man has chosen to be on the wrong path. He has chosen to follow the ways of the world and turn his back on God. Truth and love have been replaced by lies and hatred. Peace is not to be found anywhere in your world, so you must seek peace in your hearts, Gods peace, in order to survive in a world of disorder and corruption. Know that this peace that you have found through the love of God, must be sustained through prayer and reception of the Sacraments. Strive for holiness, little ones, and know I am with you. Listen to the words of My Mother. These words are from Heaven, and are being sent to you by a God Who loves you. Be obedient, and follow the laws set down for you by Moses in the Ten Commandments. Love God and your neighbor. All else will follow.

Share what I am saying to you, little one. Share your gifts with all who will listen.

Ruth Ann: Yes Lord, it is done.

Jesus: Go in My peace, and know I am with you throughout this day, and the days ahead.

Ruth Ann: Thank You, Lord, for this blessing.

*Message of Sept. 8, 1994,
from Our Lord Jesus*

Ruth Ann: Lord, I can't get back to sleep, and I feel You are wanting to speak with me.

Jesus: Little one, this is true. You are experiencing concern about many things, and you need not. Your concern for all things must be placed in the hands of One Who is in control. You are merely human, child, and can do nothing about any of the things that are bothering you. So why do you fret so?

Ruth Ann: It's probably habit, Lord.

Jesus: Habit, and the tactics of the evil one. How many times must I remind you that when your peace is being disturbed, it is not of Me. Always come to Me when you are concerned about those things of which you have no control. Be at peace, little one.

Ruth Ann: Yes Lord, I'm already feeling better.

Jesus: Those things I am telling you are also important for My other children to hear and to realize. The evil one uses all kinds of tactics to bother My children. When you are of Me and at peace, nothing can disturb this peace that surrounds you. Too many times, doubts and fears creep into the minds of My little ones, and then those things that normally are considered little irritants, become bigger and more stressful than they should become.

Be at peace little children, God is in control of all that is happening. He knows your every fear, hope, and dream. Give all to Him. He has a reason and purpose for all that is going on in your life. All things work for the good of God, when you are striving for the holiness that God desires for you. Even the bad can be worked for good. Remember, God can use all things for His greater honor and glory. You do not see the big picture, but know that as long as you do the will of God, He will tend to the rest.

Ruth Ann: Thank You for the reminder, Lord. Is there anything else You wish to add?

Jesus: Only this. My Mother is calling My children to unite in prayer. This is extremely important. Those who are listening to Her call are pleasing to Me. She works tirelessly trying to help My children recognize the importance of the times. Make no mistake about it, little one, the end times are in your midst. Those who choose to close their eyes and ignore all the signs, are only fooling themselves. The need for prayer is great in your world, and My children would do well to listen to My Mother.

Ruth Ann: Many do not wish to hear, Lord.

Jesus: You are right, child, because if they truly listen, they know then in their heart, that lives must be changed. Their TVs and radios must be silenced. The time spent concerned about those things of the world, could, and should be spent focused on prayer. Effort should be put forth toward the saving of one's immortal soul, and the souls of others. Instead, the time is spent trying to find ways to tend to the physical pleasures of the world, or in some cases, man shuts himself in the confines of his home, watching TV.

The television has destroyed family life. Time that used to be spent in communicating with one another, and interacting with one another, My children are spending in isolation, swallowed up in a world of make-believe. It has destroyed family life, values, and the peace of My children. The media in general, seeks to share all that is ugly. It is rare that the headlines in a newspaper tell of something good happening. Magazines, newspapers, movies, television, radio, all seem to find the negative and dark side of My children, and sensationalize it to the maximum degree. Even the music of today reflects the moral decay in the world around you.

See the need for prayer, little one? See why My Mother is working so hard, in so many places, to make known to Her children that time is running out? There is indeed, need for change in the lives of My children, and repentance of their sins. Man must not be caught sleeping. Instead, he must become aware of the signs surrounding him. He must realize My Mother is trying to get his attention for a reason. That reason is the salvation of his immortal soul.

Those of you, who are vigilant, are aware of the signs, and have changed your lives for the better. You must pray for the souls of others who are not listening. Pray that their hearts be touched and broken open, to receive the greatness and goodness of God's love and mercy.

Ruth Ann: Lord, we try to do that in prayer group through saying the Rosary, attending daily Mass, reading the Bible, and praying for others. Is there anything else we should do?

Jesus: Yes, child. Witness to the good that has been done in your life. Those things that happen to you and your loved ones, that has brought about a conversion for you, must be shared with those that have not experienced this conversion. This is called evangelizing. All of My children are called to do this. Anytime the opportunity presents itself, share what God has done, and is continuing to do in your life. This is important in a world filled with darkness and loss of hope.

There is a light at the end of the tunnel, little one, and it will shine for those seeking to find hope and peace in their life. In many cases, they do not realize that it is God who is missing from their life. It is My peace they seek. My Mother is trying to guide Her children through the darkness into the light of My love and mercy. Pray for all those caught up in the world, and the darkness of the world. Pray that they recognize the signs that all is not right with their world. Pray for those who will be lost if they do not take the blinders from their eyes.

Ruth Ann: These words will be in print, Lord, as a reminder to Your children.

Jesus: Thank you for sharing, and I thank all those who are in any way helping My Mother spread the importance of what is being shown to those who have eyes to see. Be at peace, little one. Know I am with you through all you say and do. Be obedient, and continue to do the will of God.

Message of October 4, 1994,
from Our Lord Jesus

Ruth Ann: Lord, I had such peace yesterday after speaking with Your Mother. I think I truly felt blessed with this gift, instead of the mixed emotions that I usually feel. I usually feel my gift has been a mixed blessing because of all the sacrifices and struggles that have come with it.

Jesus: My Mother has a way of giving peace to all those whose lives she touches in any way. I sought this peace during My public life. When I was rejected, tired, and discouraged, I always sought the refuge and comfort that My Mother could bring to Me. You have discovered Her warmth and encouragement in hours when you have felt abandoned and alone with your cross. All of My children can find the same source of strength and encouragement in this special Mother. She is special in the eyes of God, for She was chosen to be the Mother of His earthly Son. She is special because She has cared and nurtured His Son unto His death on the cross.

Now She is tending to all His children on the earth. She is concerned for all. She wishes all of God's children to have the peace and feelings of hope that you experienced yesterday. She wishes you, to keep that feeling of warmth and protection from all that would bring you unrest and the feeling of abandonment. Stay close to Her in prayer. She wishes to be your Mother, your strength, and your refuge, not just for you, little one, but for all God's children.

Ruth Ann: I feel so sorry for Her. She is so kind, loving, and caring. I can hear and feel it as She speaks with me. She is so concerned for all of us, and works so hard continuously, to bring us out of darkness, and closer to You. Yet so many of us ignore Her. Many think She is only for Catholics, and refuse to give Her the love and respect She deserves.

Jesus: You are correct, little one. She is here for all God's children, as is Her special prayer, the Rosary. Many need to use this source of strength in this time of darkness. You are feeling many of the feelings of My children so that you can understand their needs. You have felt despair, abandonment, hurt, anger, frustration, fear, doubt, and the list could go on and on. The reason for these feelings being allowed to come upon you, is for the sake of others. They must know that there is hope for them. There is a place of refuge for them. There is a source of strength and peace that many have not tapped, or bothered to seek. In a time when God's children struggle so, My Mother is a great source of strength and comfort. She was, and is, there for Me, and continues to be there for all of God's children. Those who have no earthly Mother, have not realized the source of love beyond earthly limits, if they have not turned to My Mother in their time of sorrow, grief, fear, or a feeling of abandonment.

My Mother is there to help and guide you to the source of all that is holy. She was, and is, the epitome of holiness and goodness. She wishes to share this love She has to give to all God's children, and wishes to draw them out of the darkness and back to the source of light. You were touched by the love and kindness given to you yesterday when you were in need. This awaits all of God's children. She truly loves and cares for all, and wishes to see all attain Eternal Salvation. She knows what awaits those who listen and live God's Word in the Holy Scriptures. She also knows what awaits those who choose evil over good, and darkness over light.

As a good and holy Mother, She wishes only good things for Her children, so those who seek the love and solace of My Mother can never go wrong. She wishes to bring all to Me. This too, is the will of God, that all His little children come unto Him Who loves them. Those who love My Mother are best loved by Me. I have said this before, and I will say it over and over. She has experienced deep pain and sorrow through the 'fiat' She gave to the will of God. She has suffered My agony and death, and She continues to suffer for all the children lost to Her Son. She has suffered My pain of rejection, humiliation, and eventually My death. She is your Mother, and has earned that right through the greatness of the One Who chose Her for this role. She has played a great part in the salvation of mankind, and continues to do so. Listen to the words being spoken to you by Her, and live these words. They are from Heaven, and are being brought here by One Who loves you.

Ruth Ann: Thank You for this message, Lord.

Jesus: It is to be shared.

Ruth Ann: It is written, Lord. It will be shared.

*Message of December 11, 1993
from Our Lord Jesus*

Ruth Ann: Lord, I have not written what Your Mother has spoken to me for quite a while, but yet I feel I should be speaking with You this morning.

Jesus: If you have time, speak with both of Us today.

Ruth Ann: Yes, Lord. Is there something in particular You wish to say, or is it my desire that has made me feel there is a need?

Jesus: Little one, you know I would speak to you and any of My children, any time of the day or night. It is up to you to find the quiet time in order for you to listen without interruptions or distractions. Even if it is only for a few minutes, it is important to have that contact with Me, the God of peace.

Man talks of the world being such a 'mess'. This is not difficult to notice. Most of My children who pay any attention to the news of any kind are aware of the death and destruction all around them. The violence that man does to each other has become commonplace.

While My Mother is calling for peace in your hearts and homes, the violence continues on. How can there be peace in the world, if man does not have that peace in his own heart? It is important, little one, that My children find this peace that is so necessary. A true conversion must come within oneself. There must be a peace and contentment in one's inner self, so that he can help those around him find peace. Once you have found peace, and share this peace with others, it acts as a chain reaction among My people. Those who have lost this peace, or in some cases, have never had it, wish to know peace, or have it returned to them.

During these times of war in so many places, and turmoil of all kinds, it is important for My children to have a place to gather where they can have this peace, even if it is only for a few minutes. It is good for My children to have this common goal. Remember, when two or more are gathered in My name, there I will be. God hears all prayers, but He is especially pleased when My children gather in great numbers to pay homage to all that My Mother is asking Her children to do.

This is a time of grace, and My Mother is pouring out graces to all those who ask. Sometimes, it is in the form of little miracles. Sometimes, it is big miracles. It depends on what God will allow Her to do. God is the One Who is in control, but know My Mother will continue to plead for all of Her children, for special graces, until God tells Her it is no longer possible. That time is drawing near, little one.

My children continue to ignore the signs, but that does not mean, by ignoring, that it will go away. As in the time of Noah, man continued on his merry way, ignoring God. It did not stop God from carrying out the plans He had for the punishment of man, for all the evil he had brought upon himself. Man will have to answer for all the death, cruelty, and abuses he has afflicted upon himself and his neighbor.

Man was given a commandment, 'Love thy neighbor as thyself for the love of God'. How many truly observe this commandment? How many even know it exists? Man has become so corrupt and self-serving, he loves self and money. Even the love he has for 'self' is not a good love. He does not respect himself as a temple of the Lord God. He loves 'self' in such a way as not to wish to deny 'self' any pleasure: whether it is food, drink, material things, sexual pleasure, man does not wish to deny his body anything.

But what of his soul? His soul continues to wither and die from lack of care. His spiritual self is denied in so many ways. The spirit, too, must be fed. In doing so, My children will find peace. It is through prayer and the word of God that the spirit can grow and soar and become one with the divine Creator. Without tending to the spirit, there can be no peace and no true love of self. Man must give up his selfish way of living. He must learn to tend to the needs of his neighbor, both physical and spiritual. And in doing so, his true inner self will break through this shell he has built around him; 'conversion', this word you hear over and over from My Mother. Pray for conversion, a true conversion of self and others. This is what the world needs, and it can only come through prayer and the grace of God.

Ruth Ann: Yes Lord, we all continue to pray for a true conversion, just because Your Mother has asked. I'm not sure if anyone really knew what we were asking for. Thank You for explaining it to me.

Jesus: Soon it will be time for you to go about your busy day, go with My peace, little one.

Ruth Ann: Thank You, Lord. I love You.

Jesus: And I love you, little one.

Message of Sept. 26, 1994,
from Our Lord Jesus

Jesus: Share the words I have spoken to you, and the words My Mother has spoken with you. Share the way God works in your life, and continues to work in your life. This place is a special place of prayer. My Mother wishes others to be drawn here for the graces available on this land. It is through your sharing and witnessing that this can come about. Be at peace with all you do.

Ruth Ann: Lord, many wish to go to places where Your Mother is appearing.

Jesus: Those who listen, and live My words in the messages being given to you, will find the love and peace here that is needed in the days ahead. Little one, I have told you many times before, My Mother is drawing the children here She wishes. Those who are serious about prayer will continue to be drawn here. They will be those children God wishes to gather in prayer. Those of My children who love Me and My Mother, and wish to help Her gather together the remnant few that will be instrumental in the salvation of souls, will continue to be called to this place. There is strength in numbers, and power in prayer. Put the strength and power, together with faith and trust in God, and you have a powerful group of people, serious about ushering in My Second Coming.

Of course, there will always be those who say you and this place are not of God, but if what you are doing is producing good fruit, that is proof enough. Those who wish to love and serve Me are needed to gather together in prayer, to be of assistance in saving the souls of those who do not believe in the power of prayer. There are still many souls lost to Me, and consumed in the ways of the world. Those, little one, are the ones who are most in need of prayer.

Conversions are needed for My children. Most do not even know they are lost to Me. They continue through each day, caught up in the ways of the world, thinking that all is well in their life. All is not well in their life, and the world in general. The peace is gone. Living your life for the purpose of pleasing Me is gone. What sorrow

I feel in My Heart. What pain My Mother feels for Her lost children. Be patient and be obedient, child. You have more to do for Me, but it will be in God's time. Love Me, and continue to do all that is asked of you. Be patient, and I will tend to the 'how' and the 'when'. I love you. Be at peace. Go about your day in love and service to My children.

Ruth Ann: Yes, Lord.

Message of Oct. 19, 1994,
from Our Lady
(After Prayer Group Message)

Our Lady: The words I am saying to you are not new. I continue to tell you to be at peace, and still the hatred and unrest in your world continue. Peace cannot be achieved where darkness is so much a part of your lives. You have choices to make. That is the way of God. That is the way of a free will. The choices you are making are not of God. You still wish to be in the world. You still wish to be of the world.

Again, I am telling you, you cannot have two gods. You must make a choice to serve God, and turn away from all those things that hold you back from achieving your salvation. Be at peace with one another. You are bringing about so much pain and suffering through your selfish desires. You must find peace and forgiveness in your heart, for those who hurt you and do you harm. It is easy to love those who love you, but the test is being able to love those who have no love for you in their heart. You are your brother's keeper. You must love one another, and care for
