
“TO JESUS THROUGH MARY”

Lessons and Messages to the World from Jesus and the Blessed Virgin Mary to Ruth Ann Wade of Bloomington, Indiana

Compiled by Mary's Children, P. O. Box 27, Washington, IN 47501 - January 2019

Message of March 22, 1994, from Our Lord Jesus

Ruth Ann: Jesus, I wish to thank You for a wonderful day of prayer. There were many graces given to Your children yesterday through Your Mother.

Jesus: Yes, little one, and the graces will continue to be poured forth in abundance to all those who choose to accept these graces.

Ruth Ann: Lord, I'm assuming there were physical, mental, and spiritual healings that took place here yesterday. I don't always hear of these, but I do hear of all the little miracles that take place.

Jesus: These little miracles are to boost the faith of those who receive them. These are blessings sent from Heaven for those having the faith to expect miracles. Some of My children are in need of these little gifts of grace, some are not. Some share with others, so they too, can share in these special gifts from Heaven. But as your priest has said many times, these are not to be the focus of your prayer life. Take them as a special gift and thank God and My Mother for these special gifts. These are meant to draw you ever closer to Me and My Mother. In doing so, you will be strengthened in faith by these gifts of love.

Much prayer is needed in your world corrupted by sin and filled with the stench of the evil one. My Mother continues to call out to all of you to be vigilant and to prepare for what is to come. God's patience has run its course. The events set in motion are in preparation for My Second Coming. The miracles, apparitions, and locutions are all being allowed by God in order to call His children away from darkness. Those who are listening will be blessed in great abundance. Their souls will be made ready and they will fear not for their Lord God will be with them in their hearts, minds, bodies and souls. That is the importance attached to the messages being given to so many of My children.

Mother of the Redeemer Farm

Prepare your hearts and souls, little children, for you know not the day or the hour. 'Pray from the heart' has been said to you over and over. Repent of your sins. Many of these same words were said by John the Baptist to prepare for My First Coming. And now My Mother is trying to prepare My children for My Second Coming.

Ruth Ann: Lord, the world is in a mess, and I know the only way to clean it up is through the One Who created the world. Man has really messed it up.

Jesus: The evil one has taken over your world, little one. He has taken over the minds and hearts of those in high places. He has taken over every aspect of human existence. Prayer and God's mercy are all that can save your world. My Mother's pleas continue, and will continue, until God will no longer allow Her to be of assistance to His children. Time is of the utmost importance. Conversions are needed now. Pray that all God's children recognize the importance of all that is going on around them.

Ruth Ann: Lord, in sharing these messages, they will be made aware.

Jesus: Being made aware is one thing, prayer is another. The opening of the eyes and ears to what is to come, is to draw My children to prayer and repentance.

Then My children can be at peace. Give all to Me. I have died on the cross to carry your burdens for you. I have forgiven you your sins. But you must repent. My children are needing a cleansing of the soul.

Confessions are not being heard. My children need to confess their sins. They need to seek out a priest to receive absolution for these sins. The Sacrament of the Eucharist is not being treated with respect. Many are receiving with serious sins on their souls. Much is happening in your world that is displeasing to God. God has had enough, and man will pay the price for all the evil he has brought upon himself by putting God out of his life and letting the evil one into his life.

I am not telling you these things to frighten you. Only to help you realize the importance of your ministry here on the earth. You are right in saying, "God has given me a special anointing to go forth with a new resolve to do His will." This was given to you in the Holy Land for a reason. First of all, to come back and share. Second, because you are being made ready for an even greater cross to carry. You have exchanged one burden for another. You are moving up the road to Calvary, little one. You are being prepared gradually for those things that will be asked of you. This is to come soon, little one.

Ruth Ann: I feel this in my heart, Lord, but I'm not afraid, Lord. I'm really ready for whatever.

Jesus: Yes, little one, I know this to be true. You have come home with joy in your heart at being chosen to do something special for God, no matter what the cost.

Ruth Ann: Lord, it is because of You that I feel this way. It is because of You that my whole outlook has changed. The fear has been wiped away. The doubts are gone. Thank You also, for sending people into our lives who will pray for us.

Jesus: All have felt your struggle, little one. They have realized your burden. Just as you pray daily for all those who come here to the farm to pray, and you pray for those who ask for prayer, they too, pray for you.

Ruth Ann: Lord, I would like also to thank You for the trip to the Holy Land. It was a beautiful trip. I truly felt that we were both blessed while we were there. Thank You.

Jesus: Little one, you both were blessed. I am pleased you have been able to see all the places that were desires and dreams of your childhood. All have been fulfilled by the grace of God.

Ruth Ann: I know that, Lord.

Jesus: This is in preparation for the days ahead, child.

Ruth Ann: It's okay, Lord, whatever that means. Preparation for the days ahead, that is.

Jesus: I know your heart, little one.

Ruth Ann: I love You, Lord.

Jesus: I love you. Go about your day in My peace.

Message of Dec. 6, 1993,
from Our Lord Jesus

Ruth Ann: Lord, I am here, ready to listen.

Jesus: Thank you, little one.

Ruth Ann: I wish to thank You for the retreat this past weekend. I feel it helped Jim and I understand a little better what our role is.

Jesus: Yes, little one, you have been told many things you did not understand. Now, some of what has been told to you is becoming clearer. The words echoing in your heart, concerning My children not being ready for My Second Coming, are true, little one. My Mother has said to you, She has come to Her children, God's children, as a prophet to announce Her Son's Second Coming, just as John the Baptist announced His First Coming. Those of you who are being spoken to are to help My Mother prepare My children. I wish to return to a people ready to accept Me in all that I am. My children are not ready.

My Mother has been calling for prayer and sacrifice. She has said many times, "Return to the faith you had as a small child, when you trusted in Me and My Son completely." Where is the faith of My children? Where is their love and peace? Little one, My Mother has come to help guide all of you back to the right path, which is light, love, and peace. She has come to call all of God's children away from the ways of darkness, the world, and back to God. Her task is not an easy one. Many to whom She is speaking choose not to listen. Many of those who listen, only listen for a short period of time, and then are pulled back into the darkness by the one who is the father of all lies. He wishes to lull My children into a false peace, and a feeling that they do not have to follow God's laws.

Man will answer for all those things he knows in his heart are wrong. This is a time of repentance and preparation, little one. Man must see this before it is too late. Through little ones such as you who are listening, My Mother and I will continue to draw all those back who are ready to hear what is being said. You, child, are instrumental in helping My children prepare for My return. Your farm is a place of peace and special graces. You too, child, are a source of graces and peace for My children.

Child, continue to pray for all those who ask for prayer. Be My eyes, ears, hands and feet upon the earth, until I will need no one to do so for Me. Be My conduit, so My words will spread like wildfire, blown by a strong wind. Your obedience and determination are a blessing, little one. You continue to stand steadfast against very strong odds. You know that you are in the minority, child, but you are willing to do My bidding. Thank you, little one.

Ruth Ann: Lord, I love You, and don't want to disappoint You, but I also want to go to Heaven.

Jesus: Many want to go to Heaven, but are not willing to do all that is being asked of you. And child, you know there is more to come. Persecutions and sufferings are there for those who take up My cross and follow Me, little one, and yet you continue on, knowing these things in your heart.

Ruth Ann: Lord, are You trying to discourage me? I have told You I love You, and would die for You, what more can I say?

Jesus: Child, I am not trying to discourage you. I am only trying to prepare you for what is to come.

Ruth Ann: Lord, I am only one person and have only one life. It is Yours.

Jesus: It is through those words that My children who are weak will gain the strength and courage to carry their crosses. I know much of what I am saying to you, you do not truly understand at this time. You do not realize the importance of what you are doing, but in time you will come to realize just how important your role is in preparing My children to receive Me.

Ruth Ann: Lord, I'm not a priest. They are the ones who should be doing this. They have the gifts that are needed. I really am only like a 'band aid'. Your children need Confession and the Eucharist. They need forgiveness for their sins. Your priests have been given these gifts.

Jesus: It is through children such as you who are listening, that many will be drawn back to their Church. Many will begin to realize the importance of their faith. Many will realize just how far they have strayed from their beloved God. Listen to Me, and listen to My Mother, little one. Share what you are being told, so My children will come back to their God and Savior before it is too late. The time is now, to repent and prepare for My Second Coming. I wish to return to a people ready and waiting, with lamps full of oil. Be not afraid. Love Me. I give you My peace.

Ruth Ann: Thank You, Lord.

Message of January 26, 1994,
from Our Lady

Ruth Ann: Mother, Your message to the prayer group is very strong this week.

Our Lady: Yes, child, there is a need for prayer, fasting and penance among My children, and they continue on about their life without making the extra sacrifices that are needed to help Me with the Triumph of My Immaculate Heart. A Mother can only do so much, and then it is left up to the child to do the rest on his own. A child must be able to stand alone before he will have the confidence to try to walk. You, My children, must be able to do the same. If you do not pray and listen to what I am saying to you, you will not be able to stand firm in your faith, or walk alone when I am no longer here for you. My messages have become more and more urgent as the world of darkness continues to invade every aspect of your lives: your homes, schools, places of work and government, have been taken over by the prince of darkness. It has been so subtly done that many of you are saying, "Where was I when all of this was going on?"

Children, you were right in the middle of it. Some of you were even instrumental in bringing the moral decay about through your lack of trying to make a difference. "What can one person do?" you have said. One person can make a difference through prayer. Changes can be brought about through prayer. Do not be content to sit back and let others try to make a difference. It is time for all My children to listen and live what is being said to you. You can look around you and see that the evil one is having a great time destroying all the good that was in you world. 'Was', children, there is very little good left.

Those of you who listen and understand the importance of My messages must make extra sacrifices for those of God's children who still hide their heads in the sand. They do not realize, and refuse to recognize the signs. If they were to truly accept, then it would mean they must change their life. For those living in darkness with materialism their god, this is impossible for them to do. In the time of Noah, man continued to ignore the warnings, and he perished. Is this to be the same for My children today?

I continue to call out, "Please, children, come back to My Son, pray from the heart." Are My words falling on deaf ears? You are living in the end times. Pray that the Holy Spirit will enlighten you to this fact. I am your Mother. I am here to help you. Thank God for allowing this to be. He too, wishes to save His children from the eternal abyss. Children, you must pull away from all those things of the world that would keep you from living your life the way God wishes you to live. Consecrate your families, yourselves, and others to Me. I will do all I can to help and I intercede for you before the Throne of God. Repent of your sins, children. God so loves a repentant heart. Dear children, My Immaculate Heart will triumph, but not before there is much trial and suffering for My children here on this earth. Pray and stay focused on My Son. I will do all I can for you, but you must do the rest. Pray, dear children, pray.

Child, do not hesitate to share this message. The disasters that are falling upon your country are for a reason. Hopefully, it will get the attention of those who have ignored My pleas for prayer. This is only the beginning. Man must turn back to God and seek his peace in prayer. There is no peace in this world of darkness. You must seek your peace in the heart of your Jesus. Stay focused children, even though the world continues to fall apart around you.

Ruth Ann: These are very strong words, Mother.

Our Lady: Child, some still will not take them seriously. You are doing your part by sharing. It is up to them to listen and take them to their heart. I bless you, little child, for being obedient.

Ruth Ann: Thank You, Mother, for Your blessing. Be with me this day.

Our Lady: Yes, child, go in My Son's peace.

Message of Jan. 19, 1994,

from Our Lady

Ruth Ann: Mother, since You have just given me the Wednesday message, will You speak with me?

Our Lady: Little child, your peace has been disturbed.

Ruth Ann: Yes Mother, it has. There are those who call or write to me asking for answers I can't give. They truly do not understand that I am told only those things You wish me to know.

Our Lady: If you knew all the answers, you would be God. Do not become frustrated or let your peace become disturbed when you are bombarded with these kinds of questions. Just reassure them that you are being given those things that God would have you know. Do not get caught up in those things that do not concern you. You have been given a gift to share. You are listening and being obedient to the will of God. That is the purpose for your gift, to share. You are to share the goodness and kindness of God's love and mercy to those who will listen.

It does not take a great intellect to realize that we are in the 'last days'. It does not take a brilliant person to know that your world is as corrupt as it has ever been in the history of mankind. There is only one way to clean up the mess created by the wicked ways of the world, that is through the justice of God. God is love, but He is also a just God. Man continues on down the path of evil and destruction. He cares not for anyone or anything but his own greed. His love of self is so evident in this world covered with darkness.

Where is peace? It certainly is not in this world. Since it is not in this world, you must create a peace in your heart. This can only come from God. You must focus on this inner peace while the world is in turmoil. All the disasters set into motion by God are to draw children back to the focus of your existence. Those who have not believed the importance of My messages in earlier years might begin to believe it is time to get their life in order. It is time to get right with God. God is trying desperately to get the attention of man. He has used miracles and graces beyond belief. At no other time in history has God tried so desperately to get the attention of His children. I have been sent to assist in the great mission of calling all back to God.

Many continue to turn a deaf ear. Many prefer to hide from the truth. If they recognize that we are in the end times, then that means they must get their lives in order. That means they must give up the ways of the world, and concentrate on the salvation of their souls. That means God must be put first, and their wants and desires must come last. For a people who have lived for themselves and all they could get and achieve monetarily, that is asking much. Little children, that is exactly what is being asked of you. Put God first in your life, and He will care for your needs.

My children, you are not listening, so drastic measures must be taken in order that you listen and take His words seriously. You have been warned. I have been calling to you for years. My messages have fallen on deaf ears for many, and those who listened in the beginning have become lax in prayer. Time is running out, little children. It is time for My messages to be taken seriously. The time will come when I will no longer be here to assist you in your prayers and needs. Listen while there is still time to take advantage of the graces and miracles provided by the One Who is love.

Ruth Ann: Mother, this all sounds a little scary.

Our Lady: Child, it is not meant to be so. All of these things must be, to usher in the time of the Triumph of My Immaculate Heart and the Second Coming of My Son. If man puts his life in order, and is right with God, he should be looking forward to this time. Focus on My Son. Focus on light, love, and peace. Pray and do all that God is asking of you and the fear will be gone. You must not fear for your life or the life of those you love. You must fear for the loss of your souls. Does that help put things in proper perspective, child?

Ruth Ann: Yes Mother, it does. I feel much better.

Our Lady: You cannot stop the disasters that are to come. These things have already been set into motion by a stubborn people who have turned their backs on God. You can change the condition of your soul and those around you by witnessing and sharing your love, faith, and trust in God. Pray, dear children, that those experiencing these disasters will awaken from this deep sleep of darkness, and realize it is time to turn back to God. It is through prayer that many will be saved that otherwise would be lost. Continue to listen and share what is being said to you. Continue to witness to those around you of the many miracles given to you by God.

Now, little child, go in the peace of My Son. My love radiates in those who love Me.

Message of March 2, 1994,
from Our Lady to Prayer Groups

My Dear Children,

I am your Mother, sent here to bring you back to My Son. Man continues on the road to destruction, little children. He continues to ignore the signs put before him to remind him that God is the Supreme Being. He alone is deserving of praise, honor, and glory. He is the creator of all things. He is the giver of life, love and peace. Man must repent of his sins. He must come to the foot of the cross and ask for forgiveness for all the wrong he has done. Then and only then can God truly work in his life. Pray, dear children, that man recognize this need for a true conversion. Pray that all God's children accept the love being offered to them in the signs and wonders that surround him daily. My love I give to you. Go in the peace that can only come from God. Share this peace and love with others.

Message of Feb. 13, 1993,
from Our Lord Jesus

Ruth Ann: Jesus, would you

repeat what You told me earlier this morning when I asked You why do I have to do these things, why not someone else to give these talks? I am not even a good person.

Jesus: Yes, little one, I will repeat what I have said. I need you, little one, I need someone such as you to give witness to My other children who have no clue as to what I can do in their lives. You have seen, and heard, and been witness to My many miracles. Unless one has experience firsthand the works of God, it is difficult to give testimony. You have seen and felt the power of God in your life and in the lives of others.

Ruth Ann: But why must I witness to children? They have religion teachers.

Jesus: You too, had a religion teacher, but would you not like to have heard someone tell you that God is a God of love and mercy? Would it not have made your life more simple if someone had said to you, God knows you are a sinner, but He still loves you? Tell Him how much you love Him for all He has done for you, tell Him you are sorry for your sins and you will try to do better. All will be forgotten and washed away. The gift of confession is a special gift to His Catholic children. The priest is Me. He has the power to wash you white as snow, as clean as a newborn baby. What a gift from God!

The Eucharist too, is a special gift and miracle made available to all My children, daily, on this earth. Children, I am alive and walking among you. Do not despair of the darkness on the earth. I have sent you children who are of light, children who will bear witness to the works I am doing in all the lives of My children who have the faith and believe. See what I am doing, little one? I am sending you out, just as I have sent Peter, James, and John, and all the other apostles. You are one of them, little one. You are a chosen one of God. See why you must go? I can send no one else.

Ruth Ann: But Lord, if I would refuse, You would come up with someone else. You are God. I am not that important.

Jesus: Little one, this is true. I am God and can do all things, but you must remember, God has a divine plan. For it to unfold, all things must fall into place. It is time for more of the puzzle to become known to you. That means, little one, that certain other lives must be touched so that more of what is to happen can fall into place, just as placing the right piece of a puzzle in just the right place is vital for the whole picture to be clear. You have heard over and over, from Me, My Mother, and the Holy Spirit, 'It is time.' You did not know what that meant. Now, you will begin to realize as all things begin to move more quickly.

Ruth Ann: Jesus, I feel You overestimate me. I am a lowly sinner.

Jesus: Little one, all My children are lowly sinners. If you were all holy, there would be no need of Me, your Jesus. There would have been no need of My death on the cross. Remember, I have died for your sins, not others' sins. I have died for your sins. I have known all your weaknesses, and have known you would succumb to the temptations of the evil one. I knew this of all My children. You have been forgiven for all your sins, even those you have not committed this day, but will do so before the day has past. I am the God of yesterday, today, and forever. I Am Who Am. These are words you do not understand, little one, but you will.

It is your faith, little one, your faith. It far outshines the brightest star in the universe. Your humility is a beautiful gift placed before the Throne of God, and the more you feel unworthy, the more God wishes to use you. The more you feel the need to hide, the more God wishes to place you before all His children to shout, "See God's children, see what I am doing for the very least among you? If I will do it for her, the very least, then I will do it for you." Do you see what I am doing in your life? Do you see the magnitude of the task before you?

Ruth Ann: Yes Lord, it humbles me that You would use me in this way.

Jesus: Little one, you will be traveling to places you have never seen before, talking before people you have never dreamed of witnessing to, and praying over the most helpless and needy of all My children. The magnitude of what you will be doing has not yet occurred to you, but it has to many around you. You are an apostle of the new times, and the end of the old. You are to bring good news to My children. Your grandmother had spoken of wanting to witness to God's children, and you were
