
“TO JESUS THROUGH MARY”

Lessons and Messages to the World from Jesus and the Blessed Virgin Mary to Ruth Ann Wade of Bloomington, Indiana

Compiled by Mary's Children, P. O. Box 27, Washington, IN 47501 - February 2019

Message of Sept. 15, 1993, from Our Lady

Ruth Ann: Mother Mary.

Our Lady: Yes, child.

Ruth Ann: I thank You for the message. It was very beautiful. You continue to bless us with encouraging words, even though all around us there is so much sin and suffering, so many terrible things happening in the world.

Our Lady: Child, you are not to focus on the bad. You are to pray for those things that only God can change. Keep your mind and heart on the One Who is light, love, and peace. Pray for His light to permeate the peace in the darkness of this world. God is the only One Who can change a world that has become bogged down in so much muck and filth. Man continues to flounder about, unable to pick himself up and out of this darkness of sin.

God will continue to send lifelines to each of His children. These lifelines will be in the form of special graces and blessings of all kinds. There are chosen ones all over the world receiving messages, visions, apparitions, and other visible signs that God is alive. He is ministering through His children by sending His Mother among His children to grab their hands and pull them out of this darkness. He is allowing Me to call out to My children in so many ways, and many are responding to this call. Many are not. Those of you who are chosen to spread the word of God and minister to His people by prayer and sharing of His blessings He has given to you, are a special blessing to Me and My Son. You have taken up the cross, and have begun to follow My Jesus on this difficult road to Calvary. Those who do the will of God have much work to be done. Be not afraid. The graces will be there to sustain you.

Mother of the Redeemer Farm

Ruth Ann: Is the lady I met today of You and Your Son? I hate to ask, but she certainly seemed genuine.

Our Lady: Yes child, she is of Me and My Son. She too, has a special mission. She too, must be patient and wait for God's plan to unfold. Her mission and your mission are not the same. The end results, however, are. The purpose for you, your gifts, are to bring souls to God. The sharing of these gifts was to give strength and encouragement to each other. This too, was a special blessing from your Jesus. Know in His love and tenderness He wishes to give peace and solace to all of His children chosen to perform a special task or mission here on the earth. The fact that you were brought together brought much joy to you both. All of God's children need to hear things that will encourage them in the work put before them. Even though your gifts are different, there is a similarity and clarity to the call. You are both doing the will of God, not knowing in what direction it will lead. This is true faith, child. Faith is going forward and doing what is asked, without knowing exactly what God has in store. Such faith is a beauty to behold. God's chosen ones have this faith.

Remember, God has said He has chosen you, and He will do the molding. These things are coming about gradually child, through prayer, sharing, and spiritual readings. You will continue to grow and change through these very special graces granted to you by God. You are an instrument being shaped, molded, and polished by love and guidance given to you through your Creator. Thank God frequently for these graces, child. Not many are given so many beautiful gifts as those granted to you.

Ruth Ann: Is there anything else You wish to say, Mother?

Our Lady: Child, I know you have a busy day ahead. Know that My blessings and graces are with you. Continue to minister to God's people. The graces are there for you as you need them.

Message of April 30, 1994,
from Our Lord Jesus

Ruth Ann: Lord, thank You for listening to our prayers.

Jesus: Child, I listen to all your prayers. I make no exception. All prayers are listened to.

Ruth Ann: I guess what I really mean is, thank You for answering our prayers. You know what I am referring to, so I really don't need to elaborate, but we are so grateful to You. Thank You for Your grace and mercy. Please continue to bless this person and the situation.

Jesus: Little one, those Who choose to follow Me and die of self experience the pain of My Death and Resurrection. The process is painful, but the result is one of great beauty. Remember, God can do all things. He can take the most difficult situation and turn it into one of grace. Good can come from evil, and darkness can be turned into light. So long as My children call upon and give Me free rein over their life, I can do much. The most humble and dejected of My children can become My best instruments. My children must be emptied of self before this process can be done to its fullest. Once it has been done, the purification, the molding can truly begin. This is not an easy process, but one that brings with it the love and compassion of all the Heavenlies. My Mother is especially touched to see someone who is willing to undergo this process. She will personally see to this person you are concerned about.

Ruth Ann: Thank You, Lord. That has given me much peace.

Jesus: Little one, you must learn to let go once you have prayed for the needs of others. Continue to pray but know that all is in God's hands. You have My word, and My word is truth. Only good things can come from one who has completely turned their life over to God. Sometimes self can get in the way of what God has planned for the individual, so that has to be emptied. The process is painful, but the perfection achieved is above all else that is. Be not afraid. For those who love God and are called in His plan, all things work out for good.

Ruth Ann: I believe, Lord.

Jesus: Those who are willing to accept the will and plan of God, no matter what, have earned great merit in the eyes of God. The graces and strength will continue to be heaped out in great abundance. The plan is unfolding. All things must come together so that all things be fulfilled. God's plan is perfect. Have no doubt as to what is to be.

Ruth Ann: Thank You for Your graces, strength, and mercy.

Jesus: Many see themselves in you, and they know God is working in your life in a mighty way. That gives them hope. Continue to be obedient and God will tend to all else. We love you and thank you for allowing God to use you as He does.

Ruth Ann: Thank You for being loving and patient with me, Lord.

Message of March 1, 1993,
from Our Lord Jesus

Ruth Ann: Jesus.

Jesus: Yes, child.

Ruth Ann: Please speak with me. I feel so down.

Jesus: Little one, it is not necessary for you to feel this way. 'Down' is not of Me.

Ruth Ann: I know, Lord. Please help me.

Jesus: I am always here to help all of My children. You are without My peace. This is so because you have not taken the time to be with Me in spirit. You have not taken the time to listen to Me. You are busy with worldly things.

Ruth Ann: You are right Lord, but most of them, or all of them, have been things that needed to be done. I love You Lord, but I find so little time to spend with You, and it is making me very sad.

Jesus: I know, little one, you lose My peace when other things are put before Me.

Ruth Ann: There is much sadness in my life right now, the loss of a dear friend and the need to help the family remain, and I have lost two relatives in the past week. Much of this brings back the death and loss of my parents. I am sorry Lord, but even though I realize they are with You it still brings back childhood memories, when life was not so complicated.

Jesus: Not so complicated for whom, though? Life has always been complicated for My children. Your parents did not have an easy life. It is just that they did not complain. They accepted their crosses because they knew it was God's will.

Ruth Ann: I am sorry Lord, I do not mean to complain. I truly feel sad. There is so much pain and suffering in the world, and so many come to me for prayer, for they feel I am closer to You and Your Mother, and You will hear my prayers more clearly, and answer them as though You would grant me a favor that You would not grant them. That saddens me, Lord. I know You love all of us the same, and will answer all our prayers.

Jesus: Little one, you have found favor with God, and it is true that those who find favor with God are granted special graces to pray for others. These graces are necessary to all God's children, so that their prayers can be heard. Why do you at times pray to special saints for special favors? It is because you feel these favors will be taken directly to God with no delay. It is like having a lawyer plead your case before a judge. That person has the skill to plead your case. It has been proven so. In your case, child, it too, has been proven. Others have seen that you listen and you have heard the word of God and, too, you have found favor with God. It has been proven through the visions, miracles, and healings you and others have received as a result of your prayer and obedience. So even though you do not wish to accept this special honor bestowed upon you by God, as such, it is so. So when someone calls or comes to you for prayer, continue to do as you have done. Take it to your heart.

You feel others pain and suffering, and it is because you are a very sensitive child. I would have it no other way. God sees your tears and feels your pain for others. He takes it to His heart. It is precious to Him, little one. He wishes all His brothers and sisters to love each other as you do.

Child, you feel this to be a terrible burden. Are not all crosses burdens? This is only the tip of the iceberg, so to speak, little one. Not only will the graces flow from you, for and to others, so that God will grant them special favors, but the crosses and burdens will become heavier and more burdensome, little one. That is why it is so important to be in constant unity with Me. With Me, nothing will be too great for you to handle. I am strength and peace. I am life. I am graces. I am your Jesus. With My hand in yours, you and I can walk any path, no matter how steep, how narrow, or how rocky. Together, we can do all things. Without Me, you can do nothing.

See how important your life with Me is? See how important your life is to Me? See how important it is for others to know you and call on you for prayer?

Ruth Ann: But Lord, You are making me out to be someone of greater importance.

Jesus: You have been given a special gift. It is so. As you pray for others, I am there with you. So is My Mother. As you touch others in prayer, I too, touch them. Is that not a special grace? So yes child, these truths that have been told to you this day are 'for real.' You do not wish to feel important, and this is good. God loves your humility. That is why He loves you so much. You continue to be untouched by your importance to Him.

Ruth Ann: It is because I realize all my faults and how truly worthless as a human being I am. I feel like a 'low-life', Lord. I am a 'low-life'.

Jesus: Little one, without God, all human beings are 'low-life'. You are growing in leaps and bounds by realizing your unworthiness. This is what God requires of His chosen ones before they can truly be used. It is at this point He can begin to work wonders among His people, because you realize that He is the true giver of life, spiritual, physical, emotional, all life.

Little one, even the very learned do not realize truths that you accept as part of your everyday life. God is the beginning and the end. Without God, man can do nothing. Even prayer, without God, is not of help to anyone. It is prayer from the heart that God listens to, child, so do not hesitate when called on for prayers for others. Pray, child. God is listening, and He will answer your prayers. Sometimes it is not in the way you would wish, so you do not feel that your prayers are any more important than any other person's prayers. Some prayers are answered in such a way that it brings sadness to you, but maybe in bringing sadness to you, it has brought great joy to God. Which is more important, your happiness, or God's?

Ruth Ann: You know what my answer is, Lord. I can cry many tears and have much pain in my heart for others, but I truly wish to make You happy. I want to do Your will, however difficult it may be. As long as You are with me, and continue to love me, what more can I ask for? Lord, I love You.

Jesus: Child, I love you. Have you regained your peace?

Ruth Ann: You know I have, Lord.

Jesus: Now you will have a better day because you have taken the time to be with Me and listen. Little one, this is important for your growth and what is to come. Others are aware of what is before you. You continue to be in awe and unaware. This is good, little one. This is something else that makes you special to Me. Go in My peace, little one, I am with you.

Ruth Ann: Thank You, Lord.

*Message of April 28, 1994,
from Our Lord Jesus*

Jesus: As your ministry grows, so will your faith and trust in Me need to grow. Much is ahead, little one, but you will be ready. God does not choose those who are not willing to be molded and used in whatever way He chooses. All is in His hands, little one. He is the divine planner. You need only to listen, do His will, and be patient. God's plan is perfect. Whatever He has ahead for you has been in the making for many, many years. The evil one will continue to come up against you and your family, but know in the end God will win. My Mother is assisting many in order to prepare them for the work God has in store. Minister to My people. That is your task at the present time. Do so with love and patience, just as I did nearly 2000 years ago.

Be an example. Be a role model. So few of My children have someone to look to for an example as living and doing the will of God. Too many look to role models of the world of darkness. They seek out role models in the rich and famous. There is nothing wrong with wealth. I, too, was in need of those who have money to help with ministering to the poor and My disciples. God will not ask you how much you have accumulated in your years on the earth, but He will ask, "What did you do with the wealth I gave you?" Some I have allowed to have more than others. Hopefully those who have much will share with those who have little or nothing. I have tried to be an example to My children so that they would have a role model to emulate. Those who have paid little attention to My example have not learned to share in love, wealth, time, and talent.

Ruth Ann: Lord, I really am not talented, so all I have is what You have given me.

Jesus: Little one, all of My children have a special talent. Yours are many. You seek to do the Will of God, you pray with My children, and you share your home, your time, and your life with others.

Ruth Ann: I was thinking in terms of artistic or musical talent, Lord.

Jesus: Little one, each one has been blessed in some way. You need not be blessed with all talents. Those who have the talents needed to make the farm grow and be fruitful will continue to be sent to you. They will tend to the farm, the grounds, and the buildings. All your needs will be tended to because you have sought to do the will of God.

Ruth Ann: Thank You, Lord.

Jesus: I know you have much to do today. Go in My peace.

Ruth Ann: Thank You for Your beautiful words, Lord.

*Message of March 12, 1994,
from Our Lady
(Hotel on Sea of Galilee in Israel)*

Ruth Ann: Mother, do You wish to speak to me? I am feeling that You do.

Our Lady: Child, it is so. You have just been to a place where My simple 'Fiat' gave birth to a reality that changed the entire world. That simple 'yes' brought about change. That is the word that I am wishing you to understand. You still continue to deny the importance of what you, too, have done by saying 'yes', little one. You still do not realize the importance of your mission. You have said 'yes', you have been obedient, and you have watched the fruits continue to grow, but you still deny the importance of your part in God's holy plan.

Ruth Ann: Mother, I know my faults. They are many. You were a perfect holy child.

Our Lady: That was God's will for Me. That is because I was to be the receptacle of God's most holy Son. He would not have accepted anything less, and you would not have expected Him to, little one.

Ruth Ann: No, Mother. I understand God's will for You, but I don't understand His will for me, or rather why He chose me for these things that are happening, and for whatever is to come.

Our Lady: You forget all of God's children on the earth are imperfect. He has said so. If you were perfect, little one, you would be God. You have been chosen for your special mission, not for your perfection, but for your imperfections. How else would others be able to relate to you? God will do the molding that is needed in your life to make you ready for the very special gift that is to become a part of your every waking moment. You are to be one with Him, child. You are to be all that He wishes all of His children to be. Your simple 'fiat' is bringing this about.

The time is fast approaching, little child, when your life will be an all-consuming flame burning only for the love of God. Your purpose for being created and placed upon the earth is soon to be fulfilled. You have been prepared gradually, little one of God, but the magnitude of your mission will not be felt until My Son asks you to carry His cross. At that time you will truly realize the reason for your existence.

The years prior to this have only been a testing ground in preparation for your true purpose. You, child, through your willingness to do the will of God have said 'yes' and have meant it from your innermost being. You see, little child, God knows your heart. It is one of love and compassion for His children. It is one of sacrifice. He has seen the love you have for His people to continue to grow, little child, and He is pleased at the progress you have made spiritually. You have listened to My instructions and the instructions of My Jesus. You are living your faith. You care not about the humiliation that is being brought about as a result of turning your life over to the One who has created you. You do so in hopes it will save souls. You are willing to die for God's children, little one. God can ask for no greater love from His children, you be willing to lay down that life for the good of other souls.

That is the kind of life God wishes all of His children to experience. He wants His children to die of self and love others with the kind of love Jesus had for His children. This love is one of complete giving of self so that others might experience life. The life of which I am speaking is an eternal life, child. The only life that is truly important is this kind of life. This is true life in Jesus Christ. He was the perfect example of the ultimate sacrifice. Now He is calling you to this same love and compassion for the dying souls all over the world. He is calling you to make the ultimate and supreme sacrifice of your life, so that others may rise from the dead. By your examples of a true life in Jesus Christ, you will win many from the clutches of the eternal abyss. What greater love and purpose can one have on this earth, child!

Ruth Ann: Mother, You do realize I'm writing this and thinking You surely have the wrong person? I am not worthy of such praise.

Our Lady: Child, you still do not understand. Even if you were responsible for only saving one soul from the clutches of the evil one, you would be of great importance to My Son and Savior of the world. But you, My child, will do even greater things than this. Do these words sound familiar?

Ruth Ann: Yes, Mother, You know they do. These are words, the first words Your Son ever spoke to me interiorly.

Our Lady: Believe them, My child, believe them. Know that soon He is going to make His presence known in your life in a greater way than ever before. Others are aware even more so than you, that something is about to happen in your life, that will change the destiny of many. Their lives will be changed and their souls will be saved. Little child, it is because you have given your life to the God of love and mercy. You have said 'yes' to the One Who has created you for this special purpose. Be not afraid, but be grateful for the kind of love God has for His children, that He would use one such as you to save many of His lost souls. All God asks is that you continue to be obedient and do His will. He will do the difficult part. He will mold you and guide you through My Son. I have done My part. I have drawn you to the One who will be the ultimate teacher. I thank you for having responded to My call, child. In your response, God will be able to use you to save others. I love you, My little child.

Ruth Ann: I love You, Mother. Thank You for being patient with me and bringing me to Your Son. Help me to be all God wants me to be.

Our Lady: It is done, child. Go in the peace of My Son. Enjoy this special trip to the land of Our birth. All of the desires of your childhood will have been fulfilled in this very special time.

Ruth Ann: Thank You, Mother.

Our Lady: Bless you, little child of God.

Message of Nov. 10, 1993,
from Our Lady to Prayer Groups

My Dear Children,

My Son has lived and died for you. I am asking you to do the same in return for this love He has given to you. I am asking you to live and die for Him. How is this possible? Follow the example that has been put before you by the One Who has created you. God in His loving generosity gave you His Son so there could be no doubt as to how you should live your lives. Be humble, loving, obedient children. Just as My Son was all of these things before God, so you too, should follow His example. Do the will of the Father. Die of self. Die to those things of the world that hold you back on your climb to Calvary. Love one another as He has loved you. Pray for one another. My children, I am blessing you, in the name of the Father, and the Son, and the Holy Spirit. Go in God's peace. Pray, dear children, pray!

Message of May 15, 1994
From Our Lady to prayer groups

My Dear Children,

God loves you. Again I thank you for gathering together in such great numbers to pray for your needs and the needs of mankind. Know that as you pray, I am praying with you, as are many of the angels and saints. There is great rejoicing in Heaven because this place of peace and prayer has been made available to many of My homeless. Trust, little children, that your prayers will be answered. God knows your needs and the needs of the decaying world around you. You need not voice these needs for God knows your heart. Pray from your heart, My little ones, and watch the miracles unfold before your eyes. Be not afraid. Focus on My Jesus. He will tend to any and all needs.

God's plan is perfect. Man's plan is not. Pray for guidance and wisdom so you know what His will is for you, then you may go forth with the purpose for which you were created embedded deep within your heart.

Courage, My little children, I am here to guide you through this darkness into the light. That light is My Son. Continue on in your journey of faith together, giving support to each other as it is needed more and more. I love you and am here with you. Feel My presence. I love you and leave you with My blessing. My Mother's heart aches for the peace that your heart and soul desires. Pray, dear children, and know in your heart that this peace will come. Prayer will bring this peace. Go forth to love and serve God, and live for the purpose for which you were created.

(The following message was given to Ruth Ann at the end of the prayer group message)

Ruth Ann: Mother, I thank You for these beautiful words.

Our Lady: You are most welcome, child. These are for you to share. Hearts will be touched through this message, as will those who receive your prayer and loving touch. My Son and I are with you. Your reluctance that you feel in doing the will of God only graces your testimony. Do not feel that you have hurt Me or My Son by this reluctance. You have great love for Me and My Son. You have given up much, and continue to do so. How much you are loved, My little child! God knows your heart, and it shines forth as the
