
"TO JESUS THROUGH MARY"

Lessons and Messages to the World from Jesus and the Blessed Virgin Mary to Ruth Ann Wade of Bloomington, Indiana

Compiled by Mary's Children, P. O. Box 27, Washington, IN 47501 - August 2019

Message of June 18, 1994, from Our Lord Jesus

Ruth Ann: Lord, this has been such a busy time for me. I'll be glad to see things settle down and get back to normal, whatever 'normal' is.

Jesus: Little one, you have had many concerns, and yes, they have kept you very busy, but thank you for not shutting Me out. Thank you for letting Me continue to be a part of all your concerns, hurts, and happiness.

Ruth Ann: Lord, many of the things we have discussed for the past two or three weeks have been of a personal nature, not much I feel I can share with others.

Jesus: Just the fact that you have continued to keep the dialogue with your Jesus and His Mother throughout these difficult times, should be of great assistance to those who will be reading what you have to say today. You have shed many tears, have hurt deeply, and have laughed, also, during this time. The main point is, you have kept the lines of communication open between you and your Jesus. You have continued to come to Me throughout these times. You have not shut Me out. You have continued to pray, make sacrifices, pray with and for others, and attend daily Mass. This is how it should be.

Mother of the Redeemer Farm

Do not be concerned because most of what we have shared in your writings of our conversations have been of a personal nature. I have said much to you that will be of help to you as well as others when they, too, have much to deal with in their lives. You will be able to encourage them to continue on in prayer even though it may be very difficult. Sometimes it is the last thing you wish to do, but it should be the first. Even if you feel you cannot say another prayer, and feel that God has surely forsaken you, you must bring these feelings to Me so that I can be of help to you. Did you not have times like that?

Ruth Ann: Yes, Lord, I remember at one time I was so exhausted from dealing with so much at one time, I just said, "Lord, I can't pray right now. I give all my concerns and problems to You. I know You are going to tend to those things in Your time, in Your way. Jesus, I love You. Holy Mother Mary, I love You." I felt such love and peace, and fell asleep. I had thought I wouldn't be able to rest at all. I had so many concerns at that particular time.

Jesus: Little one, just sharing with Me that you knew I'd take care of all these things that were bothering you, showed great trust in Me. Telling Me you loved Me and My Mother, even though life was seemingly burdensome at that particular time, was a great gift. You feel you are not growing, and at times have little to offer My children. This is not true, little one. You have such faith and trust in Me.

Ruth Ann: Lord, I have to have trust. Who can I turn to? Many of the problems which I encounter can only be solved by You. You have said many times to all of us in many different ways, "When life gets too burdensome, bring these burdens to Me and leave them at the foot of My cross. Share them with Me." I'm only doing what You tell me to do, Lord. Don't make me out to be something I'm not. Lord, I'm so imperfect in so many ways, that I have a difficult time believing You would use me to do anything for You or Your Mother.

Jesus: It is because you feel this way, you are able to be used. You realize your imperfections and know you can do nothing without Me. That is what all of My children should realize. I wish all of My children to become holy, but it is not something they can achieve alone. It can only come through the grace of God. Saints are not made in a day, little one. They have learned through much pain and suffering to accept and do the will of God. Many of the saints felt their unworthiness to be used by Me unto their deaths. Many felt they were unworthy to enter the gates of Heaven, though what joy they brought to Me throughout their sufferings and feelings of unworthiness. The more they humbled themselves before God, the more they stressed their imperfections before Me, the greater love I felt for them. My children have a difficult time understanding these things.

Yes, I want My children to be holy, but I also know that it is a continual struggle from birth until death. The evil one continues to find ways to keep My children from achieving the holiness they desire and I desire for them. It is the struggle that is important. It is the picking oneself up and coming to Me in sorrow because of this faltering that is important to Me, for in doing so, it shows your love for Me and your concern for your immortal soul. I wish for My children to strive for perfection, but know I am here for you, if and when you falter along the way. Trust and have faith that I will always be there for you, no matter what the circumstances. This is true for all of My children.

Ruth Ann: Lord, I thank You for speaking with me this morning. I also appreciate these words of encouragement.

Jesus: These are for you and all of My children, little one. Now go in My peace. You have a busy day ahead of you. Know I am with you.

Ruth Ann: Thank You, Lord.

*Message of July 12, 1993,
from Our Lord Jesus*

Ruth Ann: Jesus.

Jesus: Yes, little one.

Ruth Ann: Will You please speak to me?

Jesus: Of course, little one. Is there anything you wish to discuss with Me, or would you like to just have Me do the talking?

Ruth Ann: Whatever You wish, Lord.

Jesus: Then I will speak to you about the need to be holy.

Ruth Ann: Yes, Lord.

Jesus: My children continue to search and search for happiness through material things, and the more they try to be happy, the more complicated their lives become. What they are searching for is truth. Their spirits are crying out for light and truth, which is Me, and they have no clue that that is why they are so unhappy. This generation in particular has grown up being satisfied and rewarded with material things. Mothers and fathers are so busy trying to purchase a big house, cars, and all of the things that society considers success that they have forgotten the real purpose for being created. Man has forgotten he was brought on this earth to know, love, and serve God, and then be happy with Him in Heaven for all eternity. No amount of money, homes, cars, and expensive wardrobes will bring man any closer to the supreme goal that his soul cries out for. When someone says they are miserable, and have all the money they need, then they should know something is missing in their lives. They feel it and know it, but do they turn to the One Who waits patiently for them to come? No, they try to buy something else in hopes that that will make them happy.

Ruth Ann: That reminds me of the story of 'The Giving Tree' that I read to my class each year.

Jesus: I am happy to give to My children, especially to those Who love Me and wish to please Me. I continually give to those who do not thank Me, in hopes that someday they will. I want My children to be happy, but material things will not bring happiness. Becoming holy will bring happiness. Many say, "This is an impossible task," but it is something all of My children are called to do. No matter what your walk in life is, you are called to holiness. Each one's path may be different, but you must all stay on the path directed toward God and Heaven. An impossible task? No. That is to be your main goal in life. Holiness can be brought about in whatever career you have chosen. The secret is, put God first and foremost in your life. Love God more than you love yourself, then all the things that must happen to bring you even closer to Him will occur.

The Commandments will be lived by you in a new way. The Mass will become a daily part of your life, as will receiving the Eucharist, as will prayer, and reading God's word in the Bible. Even the way you treat your neighbor will be different. You all will become kinder to one another. Goodness and kindness begets love and holiness. Confession is a big part of this holiness I speak of. My Mother has spoken many times of Confession. This is very important, child. All of My children must return to Confession regularly. This in itself is a grace that leads you to holiness. Confessing and trying to overcome any weaknesses in your life is difficult. It requires special graces from God. Pray to make a good and holy confession. Cleanse yourselves and receive the grace necessary to go out and face the world full of darkness and temptations.

Life is very difficult during these times when Satan is at his strongest, but My children have My Mother, Her messages, and My word in Holy Scripture to guide them along the way. Many miracles continue to happen, to fortify the faith of My little ones. Prayer groups are being blessed by those who are seeing and hearing from Me and My Mother. The gift of God's Holy Spirit promised in the last days has been poured out upon the earth. Prayer in itself is a gift. Those who are participating in prayer groups are helping others be brought closer and closer to Me. That is what holiness is about little one, helping those who do not know Me as well as you, to know Me better. That is why these talks you give are so important to Me. Your sharing what God has done and continues to do in your life lets My other children know that they too, can receive these miracles. They too, can expect great things in their life and the lives of their families. Prayer, patience, and obedience, My children must know to ask for the grace to be holy. It is not something that is easy and can be done all in one day. It is a continuous struggle, day in and day out. That is why graces are needed and should be prayed for, for all those who truly want to be holy. To be holy, you must be willing to give up your will and do the will of the Father in Heaven. This is no easy task, but then, life in itself is not easy. Better that you work at being holy and reach the peace of God, than live with this world of darkness, striving always to buy bigger and more. Bigger and more do not bring happiness. Working at being holy does eventually bring happiness and peace. Better to work at something you know eventually brings happiness, than to work and work for something that has no lasting value. Graces can lead you to holiness and Heaven.

Material things and other idols that replace God can only bring one reward. Material things in themselves are not bad. God wishes His children to have good things, but He wishes for them not to be the reason for existing, for material things will rot, crumble, and be destroyed. Graces built up over time cannot be taken away. These go with you into Heaven. Not only do the special graces help you here on the earth, but they earn for you even greater happiness in Heaven.

So My children must strive for holiness. It is not something that can be done overnight, but each day is an opportunity to become closer to God. Listen to the words of My Mother. Listen to the words of the Holy Father, the Pope in Rome. Read My words and hear what We are saying. Do not only listen, but live My word, which is light, and truth, and peace.

Now, I know you have much to do today. Go in My peace, continue on the road to holiness.

Ruth Ann: Thank You Lord, for all You shared with me today.

Message of April 13, 1994,
from Our Lady

Ruth Ann: Mother, the message You gave this morning was very profound. I guess that should not be surprising considering where it came from. Maybe the word 'different' is really what I should have said.

Our Lady: No, child, your first inclination was an accurate one. It was not the usual statement that I have been making in the messages to My children. I want My children to reflect on the goodness of God and the link between the God-Man and the God of Heaven. It is through the Father that all has come about or will ever come about. Do not under-estimate the power of God. He has brought you the gift of salvation in the form of a tiny, humble Creature sent to the earth as an example for all of mankind. He was and is the Savior for all. I am speaking of the gift of My Son. His life was to be an example for all those who were to come after. He was brought to this earth in very humble surroundings. He lived very humbly. He was a kind, loving, peaceful child, and never changed as an adult. He died in the same way He was brought into this world, filled with peace and love. Even though there were those in the cruel world around Him seeking to do Him harm from birth till death, He lived a life of love. My children could learn much from such a Teacher. He was the perfect example for all of God's children. They need only look to His life and death, and His complete resignation to do the will of the Father no matter what, to see how they, too, should live their lives. Total giving of self, this is not an easy task.

Ruth Ann: No Mother, it isn't. It is extremely difficult. I'm not so sure many of us will ever achieve this kind of abandonment. I struggle daily.

Our Lady: To become aware that you need to change your way of living, and focus more on God is only the beginning of conversion. It is an ongoing process from birth to death. As long as there is evil in the world, the struggle will always be there. But you have with you One Who has conquered evil, My Son. Turn to Him and focus all you say and do on Him.

I am here to help by interceding in any way I can. You need only ask. I am the Mother of all God's children. I desire nothing more than to bring all of His children back to Him. That is why I am here. I can think of nothing greater than being able to give such a beautiful gift of souls to the Father Who has given Me everything. If man could only see what Heaven is like. If he could only see the great gifts God has in store for those who love Him enough to strive for holiness, man would not give in to so many temptations set before him as traps by the evil one.

You speak of life being a struggle, child, and yes, for many it is so. The cross on the way to Calvary was carried by My Son, that too, was a struggle. Your life is not expected to be free of difficulties and struggles. Of course there will be pain and suffering along the way. My Son has given you the way to live your life. Turn to Him in times of need. He is always there for you. The struggle will be there, but so will My Son. Seek His peace, children. Know that He will always be there for you.

Message of July 27, 1994, from Our Lady

Ruth Ann: Mother, Your message today of peace says it all. But hearing it and living it is very difficult.

Our Lady: That is because My children continuously lose sight of what is truly important in life. Man forgets because of his humanness, that his real purpose for being here on the earth is to know, love, and serve God, and to be happy with Him in Heaven. If you know this and believe it, all other things will become less and less important to you. All that really matters to you is that you do all you can to keep your peace, and please the One Who created you.

Many of you lose heart daily, because life does not run smoothly for you. Because of this, you wish to give up and go back to your life that you lived before your conversion. Lives without prayer, and without true focus on your God, are empty. If you would only listen and live the messages being brought to you, life would have more meaning for you. Decisions would not be so difficult. Love, peace, and hope would be a continual part of your daily life.

Instead, many of you fight the divine Will of your Maker, and cause unrest to be a part of your existence. You ask for help in order to get through all of your trials and sufferings, and then you don't accept the help being sent to you by God. He has, and continues to send messages to you from Heaven. Messages of love, peace, and hope, for all of you living in a world torn by pain and strife of all kinds.

These messages come to you to bring you encouragement. Those of you who are listening await each one with an open heart. Please listen, and turn toward all that is holy. My Son awaits you and your prayers. Do not lose heart, My little ones. God loves you, and continuously shows you this love by always being there for you. No need is too great or too small. He is always listening, and He answers each and every prayer. I am here to help and guide you through these troubled times. As your Mother, I wish to intercede for you, if you so desire. My intercession is being allowed by a God Who loves you deeply. Pray for the graces you need to get through all of your problems. Stay focused on My Son, and your purpose for being put here on this earth, to gain eternal salvation.

Man continues to strive for material wealth, thinking that is what makes him a success. In the eyes of the world, this is true. In the eyes of God, this should not be mankind's goal. Strive for holiness, and God will provide all other things needed to sustain you. All things come from God, so it is through Him and for Him you should live your earthly lives. Love one another, and there will be peace throughout your world. Pray dear children, that all men will open their hearts to what is most important in their lives, the saving of their immortal soul. What profit a man if he gain the whole world, and yet loses his soul?

Your soul lasts for eternity. It can spend this eternity in the love and rapture of God's love, or without it. This is man's choice to make. Many of My children are blind to this fact. Many of My children have become lost in the darkness of a world steeped in pride, lust, and greed. Man has lost his focus, because the evil one is very subtle, and continuously places money and all it can buy in front of mankind, daily. This has caused man to lose focus of what life is all about. It is up to those of you who have been touched by God to bring His children back to what should be important, and the focus of each one's life, My Son, and their salvation.

Pray, dear children. Listen to what is being said to you. Listen, and live the word of God.

Ruth Ann: Thank You, Mother, for these words. Please help us stay focused on what we are really all about.

Our Lady: That is why I am here, child. Now My children need only listen and take to heart all that is being told to them. Then, and only then, will they achieve the peace that is of the utmost importance in a world where there is no peace.

You have a busy day ahead of you. Go about your day, in peace and love of My Son, Jesus.

Message of April 18, 1994,
from Our Lord Jesus

Ruth Ann: Lord, thank You for ministering in a mighty way to Your people yesterday.

Jesus: Little one, I am always in complete control. Turn all over to Me, and watch the miracles happen. Isn't that what you have been told many times?

Ruth Ann: Yes, Lord.

Jesus: Well, that is exactly what I mean. All those who do the complete will of the Father can expect great things to happen in their lives. Trust and have faith, little one. God has a mighty plan in store for you. It is a perfect plan. As you grow and work for Him Who created you and chose you, He will dispense more and greater things for you to do. That is how it works, little one. God will continue to stretch you spiritually. As He does, your cross will become heavier and heavier to bear. You need not be concerned about this, because God never asks more of His children than what they are capable of handling. As you continue to grow, your ministry will grow and change. Much will be asked of you, but it will all be in God's time. Enjoy your time with family at the present, because that time will become less and less. More and more will be spent ministering to My children and their needs. But that will come at the time appointed by God.

Continue to be obedient, pray, fast, and do penance. Daily Mass and Communion is a necessity as you strive for holiness. Confession, too, must be done on a regular basis. Do not lose My peace. If for any reason you should lose My peace, immediately seek to gain it back.

Ruth Ann: Lord, there were many here seeking physical healings yesterday, many with incurable diseases. I sure hope You gave out physical healings yesterday, Lord.

Jesus: Child, I attend to each of My children you touch. I give them exactly what I wish for them to have. For some, it was physical healings. For some, it was spiritual. Others needed peace. Those who came in faith seeking prayer received something from Me, little one. My Mother was busy dispensing graces and blessings. As you prayed, She too, was praying with you, as were many angels and saints. This is a special place of peace and prayer chosen by God. He will see to the needs of His children who come here in faith to pray.

Ruth Ann: Thank You Lord, for these special blessings for those who came. My heart goes out to all of them.

Jesus: I know, child. You care, and that is another reason for your having been chosen. Your total love and giving of self, farm, and time is a beauty to behold. Many could learn from your example of total commitment to God's will.

Ruth Ann: Give me the strength to always be willing to do what is asked of me.

Jesus: I will always be there for you. I love you, little one. Go in My peace.

Ruth Ann: Thank You, Lord. I love You.

Message of June 15, 1994,
from Our Lady to Prayer Groups

My Dear Children,

Don't you know that to achieve God's peace, you must open your hearts to one another in forgiveness. No one is perfect but God, so you must accept one another as children of God, even those who do harm to you, and to those around you. Pray that God in

His divine mercy will touch them and break open their hearts and open their eyes to the beauty of His peace. Love one another. Do not allow the evil one to destroy what God in His love for you would have you achieve. He wishes each one of you to be holy, and be an example for those who do not know Him. My dear children, I love you and wish for all of you to be at peace. Pray and accept His will.

Message of June 15, 1994,
from Our Lady
(After Prayer Group Message)

Ruth Ann: Mother, thank You for the message today, and thank You for this peace.

Our Lady: Little one, do not let the darkness around you remove your peace. It is most important that you keep this peace. All things, even bad, can work for good, if God so chooses. So many times, those who are used by the evil one to bring about destruction, turmoil, and unrest, have the tables turned and the result is not always what they wish. Trust in God and pray. Be at peace, and put all your problems, worries, and concerns in His hands. He will see that all, in His time, will work for the good of those under attack.

Those who suffer persecution for His sake will achieve a greater level of perfection. In the end, that is all that is truly important. As one is purified or 'pruned', one becomes more and more what God wishes for His children to become. He wishes each of His children to achieve holiness. Only those who do so can be of great help here on this earth to Him. Those who have learned that peace in your heart, mind, and soul are needed to be accepting of all that comes your way, have learned much. This is God's way. Just as a bush to be healthy must be pruned, watered, and nurtured, so too, must all of God's children. Man must have all those things removed from his life that would prevent him from growing more and more in the light and love of God's wisdom.

All things result in God's greater honor and glory because of those who love and trust in Him. So be at peace, little child. Know all things happen for a reason. Even those things brought about by evil can work for the good of God. Love one another. Be at peace with one another. Do not wish harm to come to those who do harm to you. God will tend to these things in His time, and in His way. In the meantime, He wishes for His chosen ones to be strong, child. It is important for those around you that you do so.

Ruth Ann: Mother, I am only human, and I get angry and say things that I wish later I hadn't said. My patience wears thin when I see someone being attacked unjustly, especially when I know the ones doing the attacking are doing so out of hatred and evil. I want to point the finger at those, and let others know who and why they are being so unjust.

Our Lady: Child, it is not necessary for you to stoop to the level of those bringing about this
