Message of July 24, 1993, from Our Lady

Ruth Ann: Mother, something bothers me.

Our Lady: Yes, child.

Ruth Ann: I speak less and less to You, and more and more to Your Son. I feel guilty for not taking more time with You.

Our Lady: Child, My whole purpose for being allowed to come to you, and others like you, is to draw you closer and closer to My Son. I, like you, am an instrument used by God to do His will and bring all of His children back to the fold. Many who would have been lost forever in the abyss of hell, are now in Heaven because they have responded to My call. Had I not been allowed to come, many would have been lost in this time of darkness. Many still are being lost child, but I continue to call and ask all of My children to listen to the words of My messages. Do not, little children, get caught up in the messengers but concentrate on the messages. That is why God has picked humble children to receive these special words from Heaven. You, the receivers of these messages, realize the importance of the words but do not wish any attention for yourselves. That is as it should be. Without these words, you are nothing, child.

Ruth Ann: Yes Mother, I realize

this. That is why it is so embarrassing for me when people ask me to bless them. I am not a priest.

Our Lady: Child, you have been given the gift of healing. It is a special gift. God has placed His hand upon you and has told you that, as you touch His children, He is touching them. Is that not a special gift? Is that a gift you can deny His children who are in such need? Remember child, you can do nothing without God. He is the healer of all wounds, the divine healer, and comes to His children in whatever way they will receive Him. You are an instrument being used by your divine Creator, so child, do not hesitate to pray for those who ask. God will do the rest. He will tend to the healing. God heals in many ways, and He will choose the way in which He wishes to touch His children. You are only to be obedient and do the bidding of the One Who has given you this special gift.

Ruth Ann: Mother, they are putting up the Stations of the Cross here on the farm today.

Our Lady: Yes child, I know. It has been placed upon the heart of one who loves Me and My Son very much, but there was a need here. Did I not tell you, you will not have to do anything, it will all be done for you? It will continue to be so, child. You have listened and have been obedient. You have not walked away as many would have done. Your steadfast love and faith have caused you to persevere when others would have fallen by the wayside.

Ruth Ann: Do you realize how many times I have wished You would have chosen someone else? I'm ashamed to admit it, but it is true. This is a heavy burden I have accepted. My family especially, is having to pay a heavy price. It becomes more and more difficult to get together as a family. We are busy daily praying with people.

said before to you, this is to give you a respite before your time becomes in greater and greater demand. God has much for you to do, but He is giving you time to catch your breath. You will have time with your grandchildren, children, and husband.

Your husband too, will not have the pressure he has had this summer. He is a faithful, true, devoted partner. God has chosen and molded your family well. Your children grumble from time to time, as all children will who must share their parents with others, but they love and support you and your work. That is because of your faith, child. You have instilled this in the minds and hearts of your little ones, and as they have grown, the faith has grown. You are amazed at their faith child, but you are responsible for this faith. You have planted the seeds and prayed with them when they were very small.

Your love, faith, and patience throughout all your trials has been apparent to your family, as it has been for others. You know your thoughts, so you do not see the good you have done. You are aware of your sins, so you do not wish to be given these compliments from Heaven, but child, all children are sinners. He could not have chosen someone perfect to help in this mission, because only God is perfect. He has chosen one who is humble, obedient, and loves Him very much. He has chosen one who will persevere to the very end. You do not wish to give yourself credit, because you have said you would like to turn away. Child, My Son's apostles did turn away, and still they were used in such a mighty way. God would still find a way to use you. It is in your weakness that you are made strong, little child. God has not chosen you because you are perfect. He has chosen you because you are willing to listen and do His will. He blesses you for that. He will continue to bless you and your precious family. You have responded to His call, now He will use you to call others to Him. That is how the plan works. Watch it unfold. It is a plan to behold, child, a truly beautiful plan to behold. I am aware of this plan as are the saints and angels in Heaven, so do not hesitate to call on any of the Heavenlies. They are all aware and are praying for you. You have doubts and fears, and these are because the evil one wants you to become discouraged. He would have you dead, if it were possible. God has His warring angels around you and your loved ones. Evil will continue to come against you, but God is stronger than all evil. Prayer is powerful. God has placed it upon the hearts of many to pray for you, child.

Ruth Ann: Thank You for telling me this, because I am in need of much prayer.

Our Lady: Child, God would not place such a burden as has been placed upon you, without providing the proper amount of graces to help with this burden. He has taken care of your monetary needs, and He will provide for your spiritual needs as well. The monetary is the easy part. This is the one that fascinates you most, though, child. It is because it is something that is tangible and can be seen. The spiritual is different only because you are the one who must receive and accept the graces and put them to use.

God cannot force graces upon His children. They must be receptive. You must ask for these graces, and they too, will be provided. Ask for specific graces. Ask for the grace to listen. Ask for the graces to do His will. Ask for the graces to forgive and love your neighbor. He makes all of these things possible. The graces and miracles are available in abundance. All you have to do is ask. This is true of all God's children. When in His Bible, His Holy Word, He says, "Ask, and you shall receive." This is exactly what God means. Then too, you should thank God for these graces and miracles when they are made available to you. God loves to give, but He likes to be recognized for the gifts He has given His children. Too many ask, receive, and then go about their lives until they are in need again. Do not ignore God or what He has done for you.

Ruth Ann: Mother, I realize God has done so much more for all of us than we can ever realize, or even know to ask for. I too, am guilty. There is so much I take for granted. I just always trust that God will take care of everything.

Our Lady: That is faith child, but even that is a gift, and one should thank God for this gift of faith. Many would wish to have this kind of faith, and it is not available to them because they have not asked for this gift.

Ruth Ann: Thank You, Mother. I love You and thank You for taking the time to talk with me this morning. I'm sorry I have not spent more time with You.

Our Lady: It is best that you spend more time with My Son. I love you and will always be here with you.

Ruth Ann: I wish to thank You for the smell of roses throughout the time we were talking together, Mother. That was very special to me.

Our Lady: It is My pleasure to give this gift to you. Now go in God's peace.

*Message of August 17, 1993,
from Our Lord Jesus*

Ruth Ann: Lord, I feel a need to speak with You. This has been a very difficult week. Now I understand why I was told by You and Your Mother to take a year's leave. I could never be preparing my classroom and doing workshops, preparing lesson plans, etc., and still do all You have me do. It's all beginning to overwhelm me, Lord. Please help me.

Jesus: Little one, I am here. Do not feel sad.

Ruth Ann: But Lord, I do. It's one thing that I'm giving up my life for You, but my children shouldn't have to suffer as a result. They have careers. They all live and work in this town.

Jesus: Little one, I will care for you and your family. Be not afraid. Have I not told you this before? I will not leave you orphaned.

Ruth Ann: I know You have said this, Lord, but I hear the children and their concerns. I understand where they are coming from. I too, would like to be able to sit and visit with my children in peace. I too, would like to be able to walk outside without feeling like I'm intruding in someone's prayer.

Jesus: Did I not tell you that there would come a time when your peace would be disturbed? The time is here, little one. You must not let this overpower you. You will be given a respite from this feeling. Do not feel overwhelmed. Take your life one day at a time. That is how all My children should do. Know that God is watching over all that you say and do. Be at peace, little one. Thank you for sharing all of your fears and concerns with Me. That in itself helps you to put your life in proper perspective. The dying of self that I have spoken of to you is taking place. You are giving up much for Me, but it is nothing in comparison to what I gave up for all of you.

Ruth Ann: Lord, I am not comparing. I realize the difference.

Jesus: Do you really, little one?

Ruth Ann: I can only imagine, Lord. You are right. I can't possibly know. I can only think in human terms. I am sorry.

Jesus: You must remember little one, when My chosen ones say 'yes' to Me, they bear a heavy burden. It takes much prayer to carry such a heavy burden. You must take what is happening to you one day at a time. Yes, you have much to do, but you are being brought along gradually. You are not to think ahead to the future. You are to deal with the here and now. One day at a time.

You are being attacked by fears, doubts, and concerns for your children, because they too, feel a need to share their feelings with you. You are very sensitive child, and take all they say and do to heart. Let them voice their concerns to you, little one, but always reassure them that God is in control. He will see too, that their burdens will not overcome their strength.

Trust, little one, trust in your God. He does not expect more than His children are able to give. Everything you have expressed to Me this day will be attended to. You will have peace, child. You will have time with your family, and they too, will find the peace and strength to deal with what lies ahead. This will come from Me, child. I expect much from you little one, and in doing so it will affect your family. I will send the strength and graces needed to you and your family. Your husband is a pillar of strength, is he not?

Ruth Ann: Yes Lord, to a point of irritation at times. He is so calm and grateful to be able to do all he is doing. It makes me feel ashamed and irritated at times that I can't feel more grateful and less afraid. I guess I'm wanting to feel the joy and peace all the time, not just when I'm ministering to Your people in prayer and listening to You. Also Lord, as the crowds get bigger and bigger, and more and more people want prayer, it is taking forever to get through the prayer lines.

Jesus: Little one, My Mother and I have spoken of this before. I see it is time to remind you, you are taking too much upon yourself. Remember, I do all the work. A gentle touch of your hand, and it is though they are being touched by Me. You need not stand and listen to each individual problem. I know the needs of My children, they need only hold them in their heart. It is true I wish you to give My blessing to those who wish to receive it, but it need not take the time that you are spending in praying with My children.

I am God and can do all things. You need only be obedient. My Mother and I will give out the blessings, graces, and healings, to all those who answer the call to come to this place of special blessings and prayer and peace. When you touch someone in prayer, know that I am touching and healing them in whatever way I choose to heal them. You are not to feel burdened by their physical, spiritual, or emotional needs. I will tend to all their needs. They are My children.

You are only an instrument, a reluctant instrument to be sure, but that will change, little one. As time goes on, that will change. I continue to shower you with graces and blessings, some you are not even aware of, some you are, but know this, little one, the blessings and graces will continue to come to you whether they are acknowledged or not. I love and value your soul beyond your belief or imagination.

I will do all I can to prepare you for your cross. I am with you now, tomorrow, and forever. I will never be away from you. Trust Me, little one, trust Me. Trust Me to tend to your needs, wants, and desires for you, your family, and others. Do not take so much upon yourself. Place all your burdens at the foot of the cross. Any problem you have is Mine. This is something that you forget from time to time, just as all My children do. I want to help with all problems. No problem is too great or small to bring to Me.

Each soul sent from Heaven I wish to tend to, nurture, and watch over to full maturity, till it is at rest with Me in the rewards of eternal life, light, and salvation. The time spent on the earth, in darkness, is a difficult task for many of My children. Some listen, grow, and blossom into beautiful flowers for My garden. Others do not make it to My garden. Some do not listen, and wither from lack of My nurturing. This is their choice. What I want for all My children is that they listen and feel the joy and peace of My love and graces that I shower upon them. I do this through My Mother, and others on the earth, chosen and blessed to share in this nurturing.

Man must have the word of God to grow and stay strong during this time of darkness and struggle between good and evil. He must have those such as you to share all the good God has done in your life. Man needs to hear that God is alive and performing miracles daily. Man must hear that he is not orphaned. I am here waiting to answer any and all prayers. They may not be answered in man's time frame, or in the way man would choose, but I will do what is best for My children. I will see that all is done in My power, that man choose light over darkness. Then, if man walks away, it will be of his own doing. I am giving chances to man that he would not give to one another.

Your souls are at stake children, and I wish not to lose a single one. That is what I want, but I am also realistic and know that some will turn their back on Me and walk away. My Mother is calling out to many. They too, choose to walk away from Her. My representative here on the earth, Pope John Paul II, continues to witness and cry out to the world My desires. He too, is walked away from and told he needs to become 'modern.' Sin is sin. Murder is murder. It does not matter if it is yesterday or today.

Man has a choice, true. He can choose darkness and damnation, or he can choose light and the rewards of eternal life. That is the only choice man has in this world. He can choose good, and let Me into his life, or he can choose evil, and shut Me out forever. I prefer man choose light. It is through the witness of those of My children who have said 'yes,' that many will choose light and goodness.

With this kind of encouraging words child, how can you possibly be concerned about what lies ahead? All that you are going through will give many the chance for eternal life they might otherwise not have had. To know this should help you through the difficult times.

Ruth Ann: Lord, thank You for reminding me. I already feel better and stronger.

Jesus: Child, I know it is difficult, but there will be respites along the way. I too, needed these. I also became discouraged and was given encouraging words by My Mother along the way. I too, took time for prayer when I needed renewal in strength of body, mind, and soul. I have walked the earth. I know the temptations of the evil one. I know there is much darkness to fight against. I also know that God has a divine plan, and His plan is perfect. He is light, life, love, and peace for all time and for all generations. Trust in God, and all will fall into place, little one. Go in My peace that is now a part of you. Call on Me as you need.

Ruth Ann: Thank You, Lord.

*Message of Feb. 1, 1994,
from Our Lord Jesus*

Ruth Ann: Lord, I love You. I was just thinking about some people who came seeking a healing for a little child last Saturday. It was a very emotional time for me. I want healings for children, Lord, more than anything else in the whole world, Lord, and it hurt so much to see the pain of the families. Why does all this have to be so heart rendering? Lord, You know You've succeeded in completely changing me and my way of thinking and feelings, Lord.

Jesus: Yes little one, and I am pleased you have recognized the change. You have been hurt by others, and therefore had put up a shield around yourself to protect you from feeling the hurts of others. You chose not to get close to others and preferred giving that love to animals instead of people.

Ruth Ann: You are right, Lord. But I had a reason.

Jesus: Yes child, I know you felt you had a reason. But no matter how many times you have been hurt by others, you must forgive and see Jesus in them. Even the most cruel person must be loved, because all of My children are loved by Me. You chose the safe way to live. Don't get too close to others and they can't hurt you. Transfer that love to animals. Animals are loving, and their love is unconditional. They would never do anything to deliberately hurt you. That is safe, child, but it is not realistic.

Now with doing the Father's will and ministering to His people, you are finding yourself getting close to others, and so much so that you feel their pain. This is what it is like to become like Me. I too, felt the pain and suffering of others. I too, took on the mental anguish of the suffering. My agony in the garden was not so much for Me as it was for all of you and your sins. You must not become overwhelmed by these feelings, little one, but it is all part of the cross. You have been told your cross will be heavy, and this is to be so. Courage, little one, I am with you. And it is good that you have such love and compassion for all those who come here for prayer. God hears those prayers best that are said out of true love and compassion for those in need.

God knows what He is doing, little one. Have no doubt. He is doing the molding, and in such a way that you do not recognize it until it is very obvious. You would not hesitate to pray for others for hours on end. Whether you had other things you need to do, or even if you were not feeling well, you continually put yourself last when you feel there are those who are in need of prayer.

Ruth Ann: But Lord, You have said to pray for those who ask for prayer. How could I possibly turn down even one person? You know I couldn't. You have asked that I be obedient, and You have asked that I pray for those willing to have prayer. You have told me that I am only an instrument being used by You. How could I not try to reach out to those who are willing to be touched by You?

Jesus: Little one, do you hear yourself? You are a blessing to Me and all My people that I ask you to minister to. I have said to you, "Minister to My people," and you have said, "I wish You would be more specific, Lord." Child, in following the will of God, and by listening to the voice of My Mother and Myself, and sharing and praying with others, you are ministering to My people in a mighty way.

Ruth Ann: Thank You, Lord, for choosing me as an instrument.

Jesus: Know this, little one, everyone you have touched and prayed for will receive something from Me. That should fortify you as you pray for those you wish to have a complete healing. You be the instrument, and I will give the graces, blessings, and healings I wish to give to the person. Remember, it is not your will or theirs, but My will be done.

Ruth Ann: Yes, Lord. I know that is to be true. But couldn't You make allowances in some cases?

Jesus: This will be so. Be patient little one, this will be so. Now, little one, you have much to do and I wish you to know that I will be with you throughout this entire day. Do not hesitate to call upon Me. I love and bless you for your obedience and your special love you have for My children.

Ruth Ann: You have brought that about, Lord.

Jesus: Only in one so caring and loving could this have been done.

Ruth Ann: Lord, I am only trying to be obedient. Don't give me more credit than I deserve. I am so imperfect. I have so much growing to do and have so many faults.

Jesus: No one is perfect but God, little one. You are striving for perfection by following the will of the One Who created you. That is what all of My children are called to do. Be at peace, little one.

Ruth Ann: I am, Lord. Thank You for these beautiful words today.

Message of Dec. 21, 1993, from Our Lord Jesus

Ruth Ann: Lord, I feel I must take time to speak with You today.

Jesus: Do you have something that concerns you?

Ruth Ann: Lord, You know there are lots of things that concern me. I am thinking too far ahead. Please help me to take one day of my life at a time. Also, help me to accept Thy will for me concerning each day.

Jesus: Remember, it will all be done for you. You have no control over who comes for prayer and why they come. You also have no control over who receives graces, blessings, and healings. That, too, has already been decided. You are only an instrument, child, to be used in order that My children can receive the healings, graces, and blessings I wish to give them. Take these words to your heart, little one. This place is being made ready for even greater things that are to come. Yours is not to be concerned, but to be patient and pray. You are to grow in the Holy Spirit and become ready for God's special mission that is yours. Be not afraid. All will be revealed to you as there is a need. You are not to concern yourself with the mechanics or the 'how's' and 'why's' and 'when's'.

Ruth Ann: Lord, I'm still human, and I do become concerned about those things. I try really hard not to.

Jesus: Little one, you have given your life to Me and My Mother. You have said you wish to do the will of God. You cannot do both. When you give of self, you must die of self. Those things that were important to you before, have no place in a life given to God. God and His will must be your focus. All other things will be taken care of. You are not to concern yourself with things of the future. God is your future. Your Lord and Savior is your future. The gift of eternal life is your future. The present is to be lived preparing for that future. Live each day for Me and with Me and know that I am in control. Love Me, trust Me, little one. You cannot trust when you are concerned about what is to come. Faith, little one. You have the faith to do all that God has asked of you. He will continue to provide you with all the graces and little 'pick-me-ups' you will need to get through each day. I have told you before, "You will be given a little miracle each day." These are to provide you with the graces you need to move closer and closer to Me.

Ruth Ann: I had forgotten You had said that, Lord.

Jesus: Yes, I know, little one. But I continue to do as I have said, whether you recognize and thank Me or not.

Ruth Ann: Now I really feel bad, because I know this is true. Some days when I am feeling, "What in the world am I doing? I am a no one, a nothing. Someone else should be doing this that is better suited, or would really like to do this kind of thing."

Lord, I want to thank You for being patient with me and allowing me to receive little notes in the mail just when I need them. Your timing is perfect. About the time the doubts start creeping in, You always send something or someone to me that reaffirms what it is You are using me for. I am here for You, not me, and I forget that. It's difficult to
