
"TO JESUS THROUGH MARY"

Lessons and Messages to the World from Jesus and the Blessed Virgin Mary to Ruth Ann Wade of Bloomington, Indiana

Compiled by Mary's Children, P. O. Box 27, Washington, IN 47501 - October 2019

Message of July 30, 1994, from Our Lord Jesus

Ruth Ann: Lord, I've just been up the hill to do the Stations of the Cross. Is there anything You wish to say to me, while I'm sitting here resting?

Jesus: Child, I feel you are in need of encouragement.

Ruth Ann: Yes Lord, daily, continuously. Sometimes I feel really frightened.

Jesus: That is understandable, little one. In your humanness, there is so much you must accept in faith and trust. So, yes, from a human stand-point, all of this is overwhelming to you at times.

Ruth Ann: I appreciate this gift, Lord, please don't misunderstand me. But I feel those who are able to see You, or Your Mother, as You speak with them, are at a real advantage.

Jesus: You are correct, little one. Your cross is difficult to carry. Just remember what has been said to you, "Blessed are they that do not see and still believe."

Ruth Ann: I know, Lord, and I keep forgetting those words. In my case, they are really important.

Jesus: Do not become discouraged, little one. There will come a time when you will see Me. You are aware of this, and are being prepared. You need only be patient, and do those things that are being asked of you, at the present time. Your life is going to change, and so is your ministry. You do not understand what I am saying, but be patient, and let God work in your life as He sees fit. My children have a difficult time with patience, yet patience is extremely important in each of My children's lives. In following God's will, and not your own, you must wait for all things to fall into place. Trust and faith are an important part of God's divine plan.

Mother of the Redeemer Farm

Ruth Ann: Lord, it sounds so easy, and it is really very difficult.

Jesus: That is because man has a tendency to want what he wants, when he wants it. That's man's plan. When man turns his life over to the Master Planner, then he must learn that patience is the key to living each day in peace. Again, patience is not something My children have an easy time with in this world. The world is filled with 'instant everything', from food, to all the material possessions and pleasures of the world. Even with access to so much, My children are still not happy or satisfied. The more they get, the more they want.

Little one, much prayer is needed by those who see and are aware of what is going on all around you. There is a war going on, child, a war of good versus evil. It appears that evil is winning because of the darkness all over the land, but child, prayer can move mountains. Good will triumph over evil. Again, little one, be aware that much suffering will come about before the Triumph of My Mother's Immaculate Heart. She is gathering Her mighty army, and it is She and Her prayer warriors, who, in the end, will help bring about this beautiful victory.

You, and what you are doing, is a small part of this great plan, child. You are only a piece of God's giant puzzle. Be patient, and witness to the love of God in your life, and let God do the rest. Your prayers, sharing, and love will help bring peace to all those who are attentive to what My Mother and I are saying.

Now child, I know you have a busy day ahead. Do you not feel encouraged and at peace?

Ruth Ann: Yes, Lord, I do.

Jesus: Then continue this day in My peace. Know that God has His hands upon you and yours. Be at peace with all you do and say.

Ruth Ann: Thank You, Lord, for always being here for me when I need You.

Jesus: Thank you, for allowing Me to use you for the good of others.

Message of Sept. 12, 1994,
from Our Lord Jesus

Ruth Ann: Lord, there is so much going on today. Please help me get everything done that needs to be done today.

Jesus: Little one, it will be so. However, that is not your real reason for wishing to speak with Me, little one. I have already told you, I will be with you. I am always with you. You need only ask for My guidance and assistance. I am there always for all of My children. They need only to seek and they will find Me. Again I say, blessed are those who do not see and still believe. Your rewards will be great in Heaven.

You have been told My Mother is here on this land. This is holy ground, blessed by God. All things are being done according to God's choosing. You have been chosen for this special gift that requires great faith. You have been given a healing because of this faith. Now those who come here to pray and receive the graces provided by My Mother too, are chosen. I have said, and so has My Mother, that only those who My Mother has invited, come here to pray. She is choosing those who are serious about helping Her achieve the end of the reign of the evil one on the earth. Many hearts are being touched, and those who are faithful are given great graces to sustain them through the difficult times to come.

You have been told your ministry is to change soon. Much more is needed to get the attention of My children. There is much suffering ahead for a stubborn world that continues to turn its back on God. Your faith has been of great help to Me, child. It has been of great help to those who continue to watch you for direction. You are to be a model for My children to imitate.

Ruth Ann: Lord, this can't be. I'm a sinner. You don't want Your children to follow My example. Please don't say this to me.

Jesus: Little one, it is your faith and trust in God that continues to sustain you through all you do. The messages you share, the talks you give, the prayers you pray for others, all that you do and say, has been done in faith. You were asked to give up your career, your home, your very life, to share with others. You have given all to Me. You have said, "Your Will be done, Lord." Your simple 'yes' to the will of God will bring about the salvation of many. Yes, it has cost you much. Your privacy is gone, but in giving much, much will be returned to you.

You must not feel slighted because you are not having apparitions of My Mother. That was not to be your gift. You will see Me though, child, when the time is right. I will come to you, and ask you to carry My Cross. All will know you are of Me, and that I have been here. Because you have been true and faithful in little things, much more is to be required of you.

Ruth Ann: Lord, I am not sure of what You are saying. I wish You would speak clearly, so I knew exactly what it is You are saying to me.

Jesus: Little one, have I not always given you clear direction when it has been needed?

Ruth Ann: Yes, Lord.

Jesus: The direction you need in your life will continue to be given to you. I will continue to speak to you when there is a need. My Mother will do the same.

Message of February 2, 1994,
from Our Lady

Ruth Ann: Mother, would You speak with me?

Our Lady: Yes child, I thank you for taking the time to do so. Many of My children need to take the time to do so, but are always too busy with things of life. They don't realize that I would appreciate whatever time they have for Me, but if their time is so limited, they should spend it with My Son instead of Me. I am here only to help and guide all of God's children back to Him. I desire nothing for Myself.

Ruth Ann: But Mother, the rosaries and devotions to You, are they not important?

Our Lady: Child, they are greatly loved and appreciated by Me and My Son. Of course, they are of great importance. All I am saying is, that if you have limited time, please spend it with My Son, Who has given all for you. I am calling all of you to prayer, child. Those who are listening and answering My call are receiving graces and blessings in abundance. Yes, child, to love Me is to please My Son. To show respect and devotion to Me, again, brings blessings and graces in abundance to those who do so. These are not desires of My heart. I would desire that all love My Son in the way He deserves. No one upon the earth has done so much for so many, and has been treated so badly in return. Many have done it merely by neglect. How many of My children continue to accept the gifts of God's grace and mercy, and still do not thank Him? My Son is taken for granted and it should not be so. There will come a time when My children will realize their grave error, and it will be too late to make amends. If only My children would listen and heed the words of their Mother. I can free them of this burden before it becomes a great sorrow to them. Once they realize how they have hurt My Son, they will be overcome by grief. Some will repent and others will choose not to do so.

I continue to speak to My children, through many, and in many ways, but I have still to get the attention of those who refuse to accept that these are the 'end times'. I have great love for all of My children, and will continue to help in any way I can to draw them closer to My Son. Child, I am pleased that you have accepted this cross of spreading God's word among His people.

Ruth Ann: I am the one who is grateful to You and Your Son for allowing me to be Your instrument, unworthy though I am. I am sure You will continue to mold and make me what You will.

Our Lady: Child, it is only because you have chosen to do the will of God that this can be so. You could have chosen to say 'no' and walked away.

Ruth Ann: Then I would have disappointed God. That is not my wish. I intend to follow through, Mother, no matter what comes. In my heart I realize that times will become extremely difficult for those of us who have become visible in our love and witnessing for Our Lord.

Our Lady: This is so, child, but remember, God will provide sufficient graces for all He will have you do. Much more is to come child, and as your Mother, I have great love and concern for you, and I am also pleased to see you are receptive to God and His will for you.

We have not spoken of the gift of My Son coming to you. What a glorious day for you! This is a very special gift child, and will bring with it much joy and many trials. Yes child, your cross will become heavier as time goes on, but be not afraid. I am with you and your Jesus will be with you until the very end of your walk to Calvary. You will suffer the passion and death of your Jesus, child, but not before you have brought thousands upon thousands to the foot of the cross of My Son, Jesus. You cannot comprehend what I am saying to you, but that is fine for now. My love is with you, as is the love of My Son. Please know this child. You are at peace with all I am saying to you. It is not disturbing, or a great burden for you. Your heart is bursting with love for God, that He would choose someone as humble and lowly as you, to be used in such a way.

Ruth Ann: Mother, this is true, but I also don't really understand all that is coming, so it is difficult to get upset, besides, I have said, "Thy Will be done." I really have no control as to what is coming.

Our Lady: Child, you could not, and would not, stop it if you knew. You have an idea about what is to come. You have been given many messages, dreams, and visions. Many of those things revealed to you are beginning to fall into place, so that you are comprehending the 'big picture'. I said, "Beginning to understand." One day you will understand fully where all this is leading: the words, the visions, the talks, prayers, and miracles, as well as graces. All will come together when the time is right and all will know you are of God. Those who have had doubts before will have none. Be patient child, love, grow, and be obedient. Be a willing instrument for God. He has much for you to do. God blesses you, as I do. Continue to do His will.

Ruth Ann: Yes, Mother, thank You for speaking with me today.

Our Lady: Thank you, child, for listening.

*Message of Jan. 28, 1995,
from Our Lord Jesus*

Ruth Ann: Lord, do You have anything You wish to share today?

Jesus: Little one, if you mean a message for your prayer group, that is not to be.

Ruth Ann: I guess I'm just in the habit of having something to share. I'm like everyone else, Lord. I have taken it for granted that the messages would continue for a long, long time.

Jesus: Little one, you have been told for many weeks now, the messages for prayer groups would cease. Now that they have, you are concerned about whether it is a trick from Satan to cause you pain or embarrassment. Also, you feel that it is because you have not been as cooperative as you think you should have been. Little one, the messages have ceased through no fault of yours. Be at peace with these words. I am telling you, you were prepared gradually, just as all those who were listening, were prepared. My Mother has said all She needs to say. Now it is time for the messages already received, to be taken to heart.

You are not to worry or fret, little one, you have been told that the word 'change' would play a big part in your life. The changes have begun. The messages have ceased. And there will be more. Do not be discouraged, or dismayed. All is in the Divine Plan. You do not see the big picture, but if you could, you would be at peace, and pleased with all God has in store. Your 'yes' little one, has brought with it many sacrifices, and much pain, but none of it has been in vain. Think of the lives that have been touched, and the hearts that have been changed through the sacrifices made by you and your family.

Never feel that anything you have done for God, no matter how great or small, has gone unnoticed. The words you have shared, the testimony you have given, over and over, continues to touch the lives and hearts of those brought here to listen. All of your gifts have been given to you to share. It is up to God to decide if the gifts you have been given, are to be removed, and when. It was time for the messages to cease. They have been removed. The timing was perfect. Remember child, God's time, and not your own. There will be other things removed as time goes on. Giving your testimony will cease, little one, and you will begin to witness in a new way. That too, is part of the plan.

When I come to you, and ask you to carry My cross, the witnessing will be evident without words. You still have a difficult time believing I will come to you. But, child, it is to be so. Have I not told you that before I would come to you, you would begin receiving visions of Me? This has been done through the special picture that you used to keep close to you in your bedroom. Now, it is in the shelter for others to share. You miss it, but you know the person who gave it, meant it for the farm, and not just for you. Again, you have overcome a selfish desire, and have placed the picture in the shelter for others to see.

Ruth Ann: You are correct, Lord. I do miss it. Even though it is still here on the property, it is not the same as having it near me at all times. I still go out and pray before it when I have the time, and I do thank You for the visions that are so evident when I pray before it. That is truly special, Lord.

Jesus: I am only reminding you of that, child, for one reason, and that is because it is a forerunner for what is to come. I have said I will come to you, and I want you to know I will keep My word. My word is Truth, little one, so know in your heart, this too, is to be. Not the day, or the hour, child, but it will be soon.

Ruth Ann: Your 'soon', and my 'soon', are not the same, Lord.

Jesus: It does not matter, little one. It will be in God's time. Now be at peace, little one. You must give witness to the special way God has worked in your life, and continues to do so. Know that My Mother and I are with you, through all that you say and do.

Ruth Ann: Thank You again, Lord, for taking the time to speak with me. I am always so concerned I am going to lose contact with You Both.

Jesus: We will always be here for you, little one. Even when We cease giving you words to share, We will continue to be here for you. You have given up much for many. This will not be removed from you.

Ruth Ann: Yes Lord, and thank You.

Jesus: Thank you for listening, and saying 'yes', little one.

Message of Feb. 8, 1994,
from Our Lord Jesus

Ruth Ann: Jesus, do You wish to talk to me today?

Jesus: Yes, I would like to speak to you about what is to come.

Ruth Ann: You mean personally to me, or to others, Lord?

Jesus: Little one, I am speaking now of both. You realize that there is more to come in your prayer life, child, because when I come to you, your life will undergo a rapid change. There will be many come to your farm who have never been here before, and there will be many seeking you out for prayer, interviews, private audiences, and others just to be in your presence. For these things you must prepare yourself. I have tried to prepare you on a gradual basis, but it is difficult to prepare you completely. Just know, little one, that I will be here for you. You will not be left alone. Anything I will have you do will be with My help and support. You will also have the help and support of your Mother and Mine. The fairly simple life that you have led up till now will cease to exist. Are you prepared for this?

Ruth Ann: Lord, I have done everything You have asked me to do. Also the things Your Mother has asked of me. Should that help?

Jesus: Yes, little one, and I thank you for being obedient and following all those things you have been asked to do. Your prayer life has improved greatly. You are attending Mass daily, receiving the Eucharist, going to Confession on a regular schedule, and you are reading My word, praying the rosary and many other prayers that you have been led to pray. Your prayer groups and the prayer groups at the farm, these have all been part of preparing you for what is to come, little one. The groups will continue to grow, little one. The fruits that are being produced here at this place of prayer are good fruits. Rest assured, your Jesus and your Mother are pleased with all you are doing. God blesses those in great abundance who live their life for Him.

I am telling you again, child, so that when the time comes you will not be overwhelmed. Your ministry will continue to grow in leaps and bounds. I know you do not wish to take these words seriously, and you are saying to yourself, 'We'll just have to wait and see', but your Jesus loves you and wishes for you not to be caught off guard. Those who work with you know this already. They see God at work in your life.

You are living one day at a time and not looking at the 'big picture'. Many can already see what is to come for you, and are spending much time in prayer for you. This I have placed upon their hearts. As you continue each day and listen to My voice and the voice of My Mother, realize that this is not the norm. Most people do not hear Us speak. You are, and have been, chosen to hear what We are saying because We knew you would be obedient and share, and We knew you would remain humble. You still cannot believe that I am going to come to you and ask you to carry My cross. This appears to be beyond your wildest dreams. You continue to listen and write these words, but you have reservations about this particular revelation. Why would I tell you something such as this if it were not to be so? Why would God have put you to the test all these many years? Why would My Mother have asked for a prayer group to be started at this particular location?

Little one, do you not see what is coming for you and all those who know you and have been of help to you? They know the work load is going to increase. They, your helping hands, realize that the closeness they share with you now, will be difficult in the days to come. The crowd will continue to grow, and so will the prayer and the time spent ministering to My people.

It is good you have your priest. He will keep a tight rein on all that is to happen. He will not let your farm be turned into an unholy place. This is an important ministry, and it must be kept with a single focus, prayer. Along with this prayer will come peace, and graces and miracles in abundance. But the single focus is prayer. Praise God, praise Me, and thank all, Father, Son, and Holy Spirit, for the many graces and blessings being poured out upon those who come here by My Mother.

Without the help of My Mother, many would not be brought ever closer to Me. She is preparing Her little ones for the Second Coming, and She is being very diligent in Her effort. Many do not realize Her importance as My Second Coming is being ushered in, but they will come to know this very special person of My Mother. She has loved and cared and prayed for all of Her children down through the ages, and She continues to do so even today. Her concern and love is touching to behold, little one. You write and you listen, and you continue to share, but you doubt the importance that you are to play in the salvation of many of My children.

Ruth Ann: Yes Lord, I cannot take myself too seriously. I know me, and I do know I am a sinner. It's difficult for me to think that You would spend any kind of time with just a 'regular person' like me.

Jesus: You are not just a regular person. Yes, you are a sinner, but you have been given a special gift. Gifts are to share. This you have done. Now, you will be given something even more beautiful, the gift of My presence and My cross. You have been entrusted with small things, and these small things have grown and produced great fruits. Now, you shall be entrusted with even greater things.

Ruth Ann: Whatever You say, Lord, but I am sorry it is so difficult for me to take all of this very seriously. I love You, and I will do whatever You ask, You know that, so that isn't a problem. It's just difficult for me to imagine You will actually come to me. I want it to be so, but I will wait and see just what You have in mind, and You know I will do anything You ask of me, just as I've tried to do in the past.

Jesus: That is why you have been chosen, little one, for all that is to come. Go in My peace. I love you.

Ruth Ann: I love You, Lord.

*Message of Dec. 2, 1994,
from Our Lord Jesus*

Ruth Ann: There are so many thoughts going through my mind right now, Lord, I really need to settle down. The heat that comes from my body as I pray, is getting to be a problem. My husband is continually telling me to move my hands and feet away, because I am burning him. Could You please elaborate on that, Lord?

Jesus: Little one, the heat is caused by your burning desire to be with Me. Your love for Me ignites the flame of your heart, and therefore, produces this overwhelming heat or energy. Your spiritual love is manifesting itself in a physical way, when in prayer, you are consumed with your love for Me. This is as I would have you be. This is your desire, and in fulfilling your desire, you are also pleasing your Jesus. I have said I wish to have you consumed with your love for Me. This is being accomplished. You have felt it in your heart, and now you are seeing and feeling it manifested through a physical phenomena. The heat produced will continue to become stronger and stronger, child.

Ruth Ann: Why in the world must this be? Can't I love You without this heat?

Jesus: Of course, child, but this is more than just love. This is a desire of the soul to unite with your God. The fire of your love burns brightly, little one. It is not seen with physical eyes, but it can be felt by your touch.

Ruth Ann: Thank goodness it is not continuous, and only when I am in prayer.

Jesus: Is it so bad to have this burning desire to unite with the love of God?

Ruth Ann: No Lord, that desire is fine. I want to feel this love for You. It's becoming an interesting journey, Lord. I am continuously wondering what is to come next, but I am trying to remain patient and vigilant, as You have told me. It's been so long since You have told me that You would come to me, that I am beginning to think that it really isn't going to happen.

Jesus: Little one, you are testing your Jesus. You must continue to be patient. When the time is right, you will see Me. Not until then will this be possible. That is all I am going to say to you on this subject. Where is your faith and trust in what has been said to you many times previously?

Ruth Ann: I am just tired of waiting, Lord. If whatever is going
