*Message of July 1, 1993,
from Our Lord Jesus*

Ruth Ann: Jesus.

Jesus: Yes, little one.

Ruth Ann: Do You wish to speak to me?

Jesus: Child, you know I wish to speak to you and all My children at all times. Do not feel pressured or obliged to do so. I wish this to be done of your own free will.

Ruth Ann: Is there anything in particular You would like to address today?

Jesus: Yes, little one, there is. Today I would like to speak with you about the love of God for His children. You know how much you love your own children? I would like to inform My children that all of the love they hold in their heart for their own offspring is nothing in comparison to the love of their Father in Heaven for them.

Ruth Ann: I feel like You've spoken of this before, Lord.

Jesus: Yes child, but it is worth repeating. There is so much sin in the world, and many of My children feel because they are such sinners, they can never go to Heaven. This is an untruth. God loves each child. It is the sin that He hates. He has given every opportunity to His children for them to repent of their sins, and continues to do so. My Mother has been sent among His children to draw as many back as will listen to Her call. This is God's will. She, My Mother, is only doing the will of My Father in Heaven. She can do nothing without the help of God Who created Her. The same is true of you, My little one. All things you are doing and will continue to do on behalf of God is with His permission. He allows you to pray, talk, even breathe. You can do nothing without the help of God. I have done My Father's will by dying on the cross for all of the sins of His children. This was a great sacrifice for Me, and an even greater one for My Mother. But why was it done? To show you just how much love God has for His children. He brought His only Son into the world, born of a Virgin Child, pure of body, mind, and soul, beautiful in every way. He brought Him into the world so He could work miracles, speak His word, and die for the sins of mankind. So no matter how great the sinner, God loves them and wants them to repent and come back to Him.

Mother of the Redeemer Farm

I, as well as My Mother, was an example of true love and obedience to the will of the Father. Do not mistake why God keeps sending so many miracles to His children. There is a divine plan. He is trying to call as many of His children back to Him as possible before the time of chastisement. He wants as many saved as possible, and brought into His kingdom where they will reign with Him forever and ever. Time is running out, little one. My Mother keeps telling this to all of Her children to no avail. I keep telling My children this. It is as you have said little one, Our Lady and Her Son would not be speaking and appearing to so many if things were not winding down for the world as we know it. God is speaking to many, through many. He is allowing so many graces through miracles daily. Time is running out, and still people continue to hide their heads in the sand, choosing to ignore all that God is doing in their lives. Material things still seem to have the number one priority in children's lives. This is causing sins to be committed beyond belief; murders, abortion, abuse of My children is getting to be as common as telling lies and using God's name in vain. The prince of darkness has indeed taken over your world. The time of darkness has totally covered the land.

But, there is hope. There is hope for all those who are listening. My Mother calls to Her children and says, "Repent of your sins. Come to the Foot of My Son's cross. He has died for you and has risen from the dead. You too, can do the same. You can repent of your sins, die of self, and rise from the dead, be born again in the fullness and goodness of grace and mercy." All man must do is listen. God is a God of love. He wants good things for all His children. He is giving man every chance, little one. Prayer groups are springing up all over the world. Why? Because God in His mercy is giving them time to prepare for His Second Coming. They wish to take advantage of His goodness and mercy. Children who are aware of what God is about, wish to use this time to pray for others who have not heard the cry of My Mother, "The storm is here. Get under My protective mantle so you will not be harmed." It is as a mother hen does for her tiny chicks, as a storm approaches or harm of any kind comes near her little babies. So too, is My Mother gathering Her little ones under Her mantle, so they will be protected from the storm caused by the hate and destruction of the prince of darkness and all his cohorts.

Listen to My Mother. She would not be calling with such desperation if She were not genuinely concerned for Her little children who have been entrusted to Her care over the centuries. She knows the love of God, but She also knows that God is a God of justice. So while the love of God is still available in the graces pouring out to His children who are listening and praying, She continues to call to her children, "Come in out of the rain. Come in out of the darkness. Find the love and forgiveness that comes from God. Come to peace and light. Share in the eternal rewards prepared for you by the Creator of the universe, the giver of life, the Creator of all things. Know that God in His infinite wisdom, and mercy, and love wants each one of you saved and brought home to His heavenly kingdom." Such love God has for you, My children. My Mother is calling all of Her children back to God, just as John the Baptist did in the time of My arrival. Now My Mother is calling all of Her children back to God for the preparation of My Second Coming. Please listen to My Mother. She loves you as God loves you. She will continue to call until God Himself says, "That is enough, now I must act on behalf of justice."

Pray for conversions. Continue to witness of the goodness and love of God and His mercy. Let others know how God has worked in your life through My Mother or Me, your Jesus, or God Himself. All My children need to hear of the love of God and His greatness.

Ruth Ann: It is written Lord, so all who read this will know that this is Your wish.

Jesus: I thank you for your help, little one. Many will read, but not all will listen. Many will say, "This is not real," but that will be their loss, little one. You will have done the will of My Father, just as I and My Mother have done. There will be those who will respond to the call, and others will choose to turn deaf ears. It will be their loss child, but you will be at peace because you are doing all you are called to do, and more. God will do the rest. Now, little one, go in My peace. You have much to do today. Do it with love and patience. God loves you, little one.

Ruth Ann: Thank You Lord, for these words.

Message of April 14, 1993, from Our Lady to Prayer Groups

My Dear Children,

Remember God's mercy is pouring out in abundance to all of His children. It is bursting forth like untamed flood waters covering all in its path. All you need do is ask for this mercy and it is yours. I am your Mother, sent here to help you. This too, is a special grace from God. See how much God loves you. This love is not just for today, this is for all time. God loves you, be grateful for this love. Take advantage of all these graces being given to you by your Father. Just as you wish to give special gifts to those you love, so too, does your Father wish to do the same. My little children, I am here to guide and protect you, I wish to do so. Let Me help you in your hours of need. Listen to My messages. I love you. Go in God's peace.

Message of March 1, 1994, from Our Lord Jesus

Ruth Ann: Lord, I'm listening.

Jesus: Little one, I am here.

Ruth Ann: It seems to me Lord, that God is truly a tough task-master.

Jesus: He does not ask you to do anything He would not do Himself. Remember, He has sacrificed His only Son so that mankind can be saved from his own sins. Not God's sins, man's sins. God did no wrong, but He was willing to send His Son to the earth to save man from his own evil. God may be a tough taskmaster as you say, but He is also a caring, loving God. Otherwise, He would leave His children to their own downward path of destruction of their souls. Instead, He has sent My Mother to minister to His children, and again, give them another chance. She cries out to come back to Her Son. She gives graces and blessings. God allows Her to minister to His children in many ways, in hopes that many more will be brought back into the fold. This will continue to be so until God decides that man has had enough chances.

Be grateful that you play a part in what God is doing. You must not become overwhelmed or saddened by this ministry. Know God is with you every step of the way. Yes, it is true that your Jesus will ask you to carry His cross. But child, consider the blessings of such a request. Consider the souls that will be drawn here as a result, and the anxiety and concern you have will be turned to anticipation and joy at being able to help God and your Mother draw back those who have fallen away from the ways of God, and into the grips of the ways of the world. When you think in those terms, your heart should hold much joy.

Ruth Ann: Lord, my problem is I just don't feel worthy.

Jesus: Little one, do you think any of My children down through the ages felt worthy of the gifts sent to them by God? No child. God chooses, little one, and then He molds and gets His children ready for whatever tasks He wishes to set before them. It is up to those He chooses to listen and follow the instructions given. You have been listening and doing all that has been asked of you. Now it is time for you to see the benefits of all you have done. It is time for you to reap the harvests of His words to you.

Ruth Ann: Lord, I don't understand.

Jesus: I am saying that you have been planting the seeds, and tending to those seeds, by talks and prayer. Now it is time for you to see the benefit of all you have done thus far, for God's children.

Ruth Ann: I am still not sure I understand what You are saying, Lord.

Jesus: It has been said, there is strength in numbers, and so there is strength in numbers of those who pray together for a common purpose. That purpose is the salvation of mankind, little one. You will begin to see the numbers grow and grow that come to your farm to pray. Many will learn the importance of this haven of peace and prayer. Many who seek peace and cannot find it elsewhere, will find it here in this place blessed by Me and My Mother. Yes, little one, the numbers will grow. 'You will know them by their fruits', remember these words. You are producing good and plentiful fruits, child. You are being instrumental in drawing children to prayer. In doing so, God is touching hearts, minds, bodies, and souls, through you. Because you are doing exactly what you have been asked to do, no matter how difficult. Souls are being saved. Be not afraid, little one, God will sustain you. The strength and graces you will need to see you through what lies ahead will be provided.

Ruth Ann: And my family, Lord?

Jesus: They too, will be provided for.

Ruth Ann: Thank You, Lord. Help me to be all You want me to be. I'm not, You know.

Jesus: Little one, you struggle so. It need not be so difficult. You are learning, but you still have much more to learn. Give your burdens to Me. Let Me help you carry all those things that seem to weigh you down. It is all excess baggage. You really have no need of it.

Ruth Ann: Lord, I am learning to turn my talks over to You, and it really does help. Ever since I decided to place the burden on You, it's not near as difficult. I just say to You, "You got me into this, now help me, please. Help me to do a beautiful job to glorify You. Please don't allow me to make a fool out of myself, or of You, Lord." It always seems to help. Sometimes, I embarrass myself, but I don't ever want to do anything to cause You grief.

Jesus: Little one, as long as you listen and are obedient, you will not, and cannot, cause Me grief.

Ruth Ann: Thank You, Lord.

Jesus: Do you wish to go?

Ruth Ann: Yes Lord, I have lots to do, but I'll only go if You are finished talking with me.

Jesus: Child, I am for now. Go in My peace.

Ruth Ann: Thank You Lord, I love You so much.

Jesus: I love you, little one.

Message of July 31, 1993, from Our Lady

Ruth Ann: Our Lady.

Our Lady: Yes, child.

Ruth Ann: You have spoken to me of something important this morning. I did not have a pen or my pad with me. Will You repeat what You have said to me?

Our Lady: Yes, child. I am the Mother of the Son of the living God. I do the will of the Father and Creator of the universe. All things are done for Him, all things are done through Him. He is Who is.

I will repeat those things given to you in prophecy, child. I told you this and it is truth. This is the word of God. You will spend much time in prayer and much time listening to the word of God. Jesus is your teacher, child. I have been your guide. There is much to come but you will be made ready. You are being sent ‘prayer warriors’ to strengthen you through the time ahead. Do not be afraid. Your family will be able to deal with all these things because God will send them special graces. They love you and your husband very much, just as you love them. But remember, this love you have for your family is nothing in comparison to the love My Jesus, your Lord and Savior, God of all, has for you. He will not leave you orphaned, little child. He has sent you His Mother when you have asked, and now, His Son is being sent to you to minister to all your needs.

You have been chosen, little child to minister to His children who have lost the faith they had as a child. You are bringing back the lost sheep. Your faith, love, and trust in God is an example for all those who listen and are attentive to His word.

The chapel I have spoken about is also to be a testimony to His love and trust in you. It will be done. I have spoken to you earlier of a memorial to My Son. This is the memorial.

Your priest speaks of a Fifteenth Station, and wishes to call this chapel, ‘The Chapel of the Resurrection and Glorification of the Sacred Heart of Jesus.’ This has been placed upon his heart, dear child. This is appropriate.

My dear child, please stress that before there could ever be a Resurrection, there had to be suffering and death. This must never be forgotten. I want all My children to realize what My Son has done for them. It must never be forgotten, because in difficult times, it will make it easier for My children to accept their sufferings.

Ruth Ann: Is there anything else You wish to add, Mother?

Our Lady: No, Child, this is all I wish to say at this time. I wish for you to have what I have told you earlier, recorded. It is prophecy and truth.

Ruth Ann: Praised be Jesus.

Message of April 18, 1993, from Our Lady to Prayer Group

My Dear Children,

How God loves you! You must know this. It is a truth being revealed to you over and over and to those chosen as messengers to share His word to His children. In His infinite mercy, He sent His beloved Son to the earth to live among you as an example, and die for you, so that your sins would be forgiven. Is that not true love of a Father for His children? My children, I thank you for gathering here for prayer, I thank you for listening to My messages and most of all, I thank and bless you for loving My Son. Please dear children, pray for all those who have turned their backs on God. He does not deserve to be treated with such disrespect. Ask for His mercy for all those who do not know Him. Many graces are being given out to you today. My protective mantle is around you. I am here with you in prayer, just as many of the angels and saints are here to pray with you. God has blessed you and this place of peace and prayer. Go in His peace, continue to love and serve Him as He truly deserves.

Message of January 8, 1994, from Our Lady

Ruth Ann: Mother Mary, again I feel I am slighting You.

Our Lady: Child, how can you say this, when you are doing exactly what I would have you do? You have answered My call. I am calling all My children back to My Son. That is My reason for coming to the earth. You are doing the will of the Father, by listening and sharing My words and the words of My Son.

Ruth Ann: I guess it's because I don't speak with You for long periods of time, like I used to.

Our Lady: You are speaking with Me through the beautiful prayers of My rosary. You are speaking to Me in your attendance at prayer groups, Mass, sharing in your talks, sharing your farm, and entire being. All you do and say speaks to Me, child, of one who has been obedient and listened to what I have said. You need never feel guilty because you have put My Son first. That is what I wish, and that is the will of the Father.

I am here for you, as I am here for all of God's children. I wish to intercede in prayer, and I wish to call all of My children out of darkness back to My Son, who is light. This is not an easy task, but as long as there are children such as you who listen and share what is being said, there is still hope.

I bless you child, for listening. Continue to be obedient. Love My Son. That is all I ask. Love the One Who has lived and died and earned for you the gift of eternal life. Love Him who has suffered much. Love the One Who is love. These words are for all of My children.

Ruth Ann: Yes, Mother. Thank You for Your reassurance and consolation, and thank You for calling us all back to Your Son.

Our Lady: Thank God for allowing Me to come. It is His gift to you in this time of need.

Message of Feb. 23, 1994, from Our Lady to Prayer Groups

My Dear Children,

God love you. Do you not realize the importance of these three words? He loves you, little children. Be obedient and do only those things that are pleasing to Him Who created you. There is so much discontent in the world. This is not of God. The evil one continues to show his ugly face in all areas of your life. Do not allow this discontent to become part of you, little children. Place all matters in the hands of God Who is love. Only then can you have peace. The peace you seek can only come from God.

Pray, dear children, that the Holy Spirit will enlighten you as to the importance of My messages. I wish to guide you in all things and bring you closer to My Son Who is peace. Pray from the heart, and ask Him to teach you to be an example of this peace. Then, and only then, can the light, His light touch the lives of others. If you listen and truly hear God's words, no matter what goes on around you, you will not lose sight of that which is most important God's love, which brings you peace. My protective mantle surrounds you. You must pray.

Message of Dec. 7, 1994, from Our Lady (After Prayer Group Message)

Ruth Ann: Mother, when You said the words, “God, through your Mother, is holding out this special gift of Salvation to you,” I was given a beautiful image of you holding out the Baby Jesus in both hands, with arms extended in front of You, as though You were giving Him to someone.

Our Lady: Child that is what I have been doing, over and over, since His first appearance on the earth. I have continually offered Him to My children, over and over again, and will continue to do so until I will no longer be allowed. I wish for all souls to be saved. I want all souls to know the beauty of God's love. The gift of His Son as a human sacrifice, for the forgiveness of their sins, was the ultimate Sacrifice from your loving Father. This supreme Sacrifice has brought you the light and hope needed in a world of darkness. My Son suffered and died for you, My little children, and I too, suffered His Passion and Death. As each one of you accepts this cross you must bear, know that at the end of carrying this cross, is the hope of life eternal.

Yes, I have held out the gift of My tiny Son to you, but wrapped in the beautiful gift of a tiny Babe, is the hope for mankind. Hold onto this hope. Take My Son, and hold Him to your heart. This special gift of love awaits your. You need only reach out your hand, and let Me place Him there for you to hold. Accept Him, and find the peace, love, and hope He brings to a troubled world.

Message of Sept. 7, 1994, from Our Lady to Prayer Groups

My Dear Children,

Do you realize just how much God loves you? Be at peace with one another. God's love and mercy awaits each one of you willing to accept His love, and repent of your sins. That means change, My little children. You must open your hearts to accept the love He wishes to give you. You must not only listen to the words I am saying to you, but you must live the messages being sent to you from Heaven. Take the words to your heart, and change your life so you are living for God. Without this change of heart, you cannot know God as you should. Pray for one another, and know I am here interceding on your behalf. I am your Mother, sent here to guide you to My Son. Receive the help God is sending you through the Mother of His Son. Be at peace.

Message of January 15, 1995, from Our Lady

Ruth Ann: Mother, do You have anything to add?

Our Lady: Child, as your Mother, I find it very difficult to stand by and watch God's children ignore the signs that are all around them, signs that could have been avoided altogether, had man never sinned. So many still ignore the warnings. God's love and mercy are still available to His children, but the hand of Justice can no longer be held back. Through the prayers of the remnant few, God will spare those whom He chooses, but woe unto those who continue to turn their backs on Him, out of a lack of love, deserving for One Who created you.

Be at peace, little one, even with the hand of Justice upon this world, there are still those who have found favor with God. There are those that continue to touch His heart, because of their genuine love and concern for others. So do not cease to pray, little children. God is listening. He is listening, and wishes you to know that He is pleased with your prayer.

Ruth Ann: Mother, I find these words discouraging.

Our Lady: Then you have not listened carefully, child. God loves all of His children. If this were not so, I would not have been allowed to come here to the earth to draw you back to Him, and away from all the distractions of the world. So many of you were living in darkness, and were not even aware of this. You were walking in a world of darkness, and your eyes and ears had been filled with only those things that were of the world. Your hearts were not open to the love of God. Through My coming to bring the message of love from Heaven, many eyes and ears have opened to this love that is Divine. Hearts have been broken open and touched, that would other-wise still be hardened and un-accepting of God's love. Child, do not mistake the intent of these messages. They are to draw those of My children, God's children, out of darkness while there is still time to do so.

Man has much to suffer for his evil ways, but this cannot be helped. The extent to which man suffers, can still be lessened by the prayer of those who take the messages seriously. Little children, listen to what is being said to you. Love God, and let Him know you are sorry for having ignored this love He has given so generously to you, when you were not so deserving. Let Him know you have not turned your backs upon Him, and seek to please Him through your prayer and sacrifice. Even in these times of trials and difficulties, He is listening. Stay focused on what is important, the saving of your soul, and that of your neighbor.

Message of March 31, 1993, from Our Lady to Prayer Groups

My Dear Children,

God knows the times are difficult for

His people. He also knows many of you are discouraged with what is going on around you. It is because of this, that your prayers are even more important than before. Do not be disheartened, God has not abandoned His people and He would never do so. I have said many times, "The evil one will be defeated!" This will be so. My protective mantle is around you and all the believers of God's word. "I am the Resurrection, I am the light and life of all My children," says the Lord. "Those who believe in Me shall never die." These are words that guarantee everlasting life to you, His children. Do you not know that God is watching all that is going on? He has known since the beginning of time that the world would come to this. Even your world has become a place of darkness. God has not forgotten you. He has sent Me to help you and others. Through your prayers dear children, others lives too, will be spared. God's love is great for all those who love Him. God's graces and mercy are yours, dear children. It is there in abundance and being poured out on those who ask for it. Ask for it dear children, for your families, friends, and all those in need. I love you and I thank you for listening to My words of encouragement. Go in God's peace.

At the conclusion of this message, Ruth Ann had the following conversation with Our Lady, and Ruth Ann began by saying, "Our Lady, that was a very long message today!"

And Mary replied, Little child, I am aware that many of you are concerned with all that is going on at this time. I am here to encourage you to pray. Those who love God need this help and guidance to continue on the right path. Those who are of God see all the evil and destruction and become discouraged. I want My children to know they are on the right path. Others are so caught up in the material aspect of the world, they are like animals with blinders on. They can only see the evil that is put before them as temptation and continue down this road of destruction. These people need much prayer. People in high places in government need much prayer. It is so easy at this time to become discouraged. That is why I have been sent to you. Be not afraid. God is watching over His children.
