*Message of August 6, 1993,
from Our Lord Jesus*

Ruth Ann: Jesus.

Jesus: I am here, little one. Little one, bless you for listening. You have been having a difficult time. This need not be the case. Your Jesus is here for you. You feel overwhelmed by the demands placed upon you. This need not be the case. Little one, remember how you need encouragement in this, your mission, and this will help you in being patient with those around you.

Ruth Ann: Lord, it's just that so many people continue to ask me for advice about their personal lives.

Jesus: Little one, you will be told only those things that God wishes you to know. They too can hear the voice of God and My Mother in their prayer. God answers all prayer. It is their responsibility to listen and be patient. There will be much demand for these answers placed upon you, your gift, and your time. You need only decline, child. You cannot be all things to all people. This is only possible with God. He can do all things and be all things to His people. Your priest has told you, you must keep your peace, so have I. God's people will completely take over each hour of your life if you allow them; not because they wish to harm you, but they wish to be close to someone who is bringing the light of God into their lives. So you must be patient little one, but you must be firm. You must let them know that My Mother is not to be bothered with mundane things. They too, can pray and get answers. You are not a fortune teller. You are a child of God, blessed with a special gift. You have been told this gift has been given to you because God knows you will not abuse it. You do not ask mundane questions for yourself or your family. Why should you do it for others? And too, you feel burdened concerning the mechanics of all that is being done on your farm. Child, you are not to be concerned about these things. That is why you have been sent helping hands along the way. They are to make the decisions that are to beautify your farm for Me and for My Mother. Child, remember, in all you do and say, you must focus on Me. This will help to lighten your burden. Others will come to know that God only speaks those things to you that He wishes you to hear. Sometimes it is through My Mother, sometimes the Holy Spirit, sometimes it is through your priest. But God makes sure you hear what He wishes you to hear.

Mother of the Redeemer Farm

You do not have to ask questions for others. This is not your gift, and you are not to abuse your gift in this way. When someone asks you to ask My Mother a question, tell them, "She only tells me those things She wishes me to hear." Be kind and be gentle, and tell them you will join them in prayer for their answers. They need only listen, and they too, will be spoken to. Sometimes it is through others they will receive their answers, or some special sign, but all God's children must listen and be attentive to the answers given them. They are not to depend upon those such as you to have their questions answered.

You are to listen to Me and My Mother. You are to share the words and blessings that have been given to you. You are to pray and prepare for My coming. That is all you are responsible for at this time. Listen to the instructions given to you and share all with your priest. He has been given much wisdom and will do great things for Me and My Mother. Know this is true, child. Be not afraid, and do not be overwhelmed. The graces are here for you, and so is the peace needed to get through the trying times ahead. I am that peace. You are not to feel pressured to listen to Me.

God knows you have a family and that you have much to do. That is why He has provided this year for you to grow and be with your family, without the daily pressure of your job. He does not wish to take anything from you, and He realizes you will miss teaching, but the graces you will earn as a result of doing His will, the will of God, will earn you much peace. Your weekends are full, so you must have time through the week for prayer and family. That time is to be for you. Speak with Me child, even when you do not have the time to write down what I am saying to you. It is most important that you do this. It is easy to lose sight of the peace given to you child, in a world filled with noise and things that are not of Me. That is why it is so important to receive the Eucharist on a daily basis. The Sacrament of Reconciliation is extremely important. The priest is 'Me' in confession. He can return peace when your peace has been disturbed. There are all kinds of helps along the way. Prayer partners are available when you feel you are in need of extra prayer. All of these things are available to all My children. I have given man so much to help him walk the way of his cross, but he forgets, and tries to do all these things alone. I did not put man on the earth to be alone in his journey or his sufferings. I did not die on the cross for Me, or My Father. I did it for you, My children. I did the will of My Father, but it was for you, My little ones, that My life was given up on earth, and renewed in the Resurrection. All of these things I have done for My children, so they can have Me to carry them through the difficulties of life. My Mother is here during these times too, that are difficult. She is sharing graces and signs to help them through their journey of faith.

That is what life is all about, child. It is not success, money, big homes, cars, etc. It is being sustained through your way of the cross, so that you too, can be resurrected in the last days, and spend eternity with Him Who has made you. Your life here is short, but the road is long and difficult. God sends as many helps to you along the way, that it takes to get you where He would like for you to be. He wants you to see His will in all He does. He wants you to call out to Him for the graces needed to complete your journey here on the earth. His graces are there for you. He knows your needs but He likes for you to ask for these graces. He also wishes to be thanked when you have been blessed with the answers to your prayers. This is no more and no less than you would expect from one another.

Now child, I know you are busy. These things I have told you should help you and others understand the will of God. You are here to share what God has told you through the Heavenlies. You are here to listen and pray for others. You are not here to answer questions that My children would have you ask of Me or My Mother. That is not your gift, child. If it were, you would have not time for peace. And it is important child, that you keep your peace, in order that you be able to pray for others and share this peace with others. Go in My peace, little one. You have another busy day ahead of you.

*Message of Feb. 19, 1995,
from Our Lord Jesus*

Ruth Ann: Lord, I am truly anxious to go to the Holy Land. Hopefully, we will have more time for prayer and quiet time than we had last year.

Jesus: Little one, you have expressed that desire as you left the Holy Land, now it has been arranged. Other special graces await you on your return trip to the land of My Birth, Death, and Resurrection. All things happen for a reason. Nothing is done by chance. There is a reason for your return trip. It is all part of the plan. As God's plan unfolds, you will be more and more aware of the 'big picture'. Be patient, little one, know all these things said in prophecy, are to be fulfilled. In God's time, and in God's way, all things will be made known to you.

Jesus: Little one, be at peace with all you are called to do. You have been told change was to be the word that was to dominate your life at this time, and it is change you are experiencing. You have been asked to leave your Wednesday prayer group and St. Charles Church, and change your membership to another church. These things you have done. You are not to concern yourself with the things of the earth. You are to stay focused on Me. You are being molded by many changes that are taking place in your world. You are being asked to accept these changes with peace and love in your heart. God's plan is perfect, little one. More is to come, and you must be ready for all that is to be revealed to you.

Soon the words I speak to you, to share, will be removed from My Children. This too, will be for a reason. You will witness in a new way, and therefore, the weekly testimony will also, be removed. You have been told this many times. And now it is time to share these words with those who are listening, so they will be ready when the time comes for these words from Heaven to cease. You are not being told these things to frighten or cause alarm for My children.

The prayer on the farm will increase, little one. It will grow in leaps and bounds. The words from My Mother have ceased, and still She continues to draw others here to prayer. Many come to hear your witness of God's love and mercy, to one such as you. I know you find this witnessing extremely difficult, child. But it has been instrumental in drawing many here to receive the graces God wishes them to be given.

The 'laying on of hands' has been another gift you have received, and have been asked to share with God's children. The gift of healing is not a gift to be taken lightly, little one. It is a gift for My children. It was given to you to share. What good is a gift if it is kept hidden? Gifts are not to be kept under a bushel, but are to be brought out into the light for all to share. I thank you for being obedient, and sharing this gift.

I thank you for finally being able to pray for those who ask for prayer, without feeling hurt if they do not get the healing they seek. You finally have come to realize that I will give each of My children what they need. You are to let go of their pain and suffering, and know with their faith, I can work in their lives, just as I have worked in yours.

Many of the tasks you have performed have been difficult and humiliating for you, but you have continued on. Your faith, trust, and obedience are truly a beauty to behold. Continue on, little one. Your ministry is about to undergo another change, but know you are ready. I have prepared you, and you have been prepared well. You have been obedient, and receptive to the will of God. You have done all the small tasks set before you. Now, you are about to do even greater things. Know My Mother and I will be with you at all times.

You are at peace, and this peace is not to be removed from you. The struggle is almost over, little one, and now you are to bask in the love and peace that is of God. You will have much to suffer as time goes on, little one, but the peace that will come with this attachment to God Himself will never, never leave you.

Ruth Ann: Thank You, Lord, for these words. Thy will be done, Lord.

Message of Dec. 28, 1994,
from Our Lord Jesus

Ruth Ann: Lord, I have just spoken with Your Mother, do You wish to speak to me?

Jesus: Little one, She has shared the words from Heaven sent especially to those who are listening. They continue to fall on deaf ears, but those who are listening, continue to accept God's intervention with faith and trust. These of My children with childlike faith, have not lost hope. This is most pleasing to Me. Those who are listening, and taking the messages to their hearts, are experiencing God's peace. And those who have not, are still struggling in this darkness that has covered the earth.

Be at peace, little one. You have done, and continue to do all those things God has asked of you, even though you find it most difficult to do. You have been obedient, little one. You have humbled yourself by sharing all those things you have been asked to share. God knows this is not easy for you. You are being persecuted and criticized. You have been warned about this from the very onset of this gift, and yet, you will continue on. Know in your heart, little one, God loves you, and knows your heart.

He also knows the hearts of those who cause you pain. Be at peace, little one. God tends to all things. Those who criticize and wish harm to those loved by Me, are not to be of concern to you. You need only be obedient, and do the will of God. Trust, little one, God's plan is perfect. Those who have criticized, and have not believed in the gift you have been given, will one day wish they too, had listened. My Mother continues to touch the hearts of those who are willing to be receptive to the gifts of God's love.

Those of My children who have listened to the words being spoken to them from Me and My Mother, have been asked to share. This is to strengthen the faith of those willing to listen. They have not asked for praise. They have been most humble. That is why they have been chosen. They and you, realize your unworthiness. Be at peace, and listen to the words that I give you, and the words of My Mother. Share what God has done in your life, and do it with love and trust in your heart. Know that those who are touched, will go forth and touch the lives and hearts of others.

Those who choose not to accept, will not. That was true in My time of sharing God's word, and it will be true in your time of sharing. This does not make the task any easier, I know, little one. But know that even if one heart is touched and brought closer to Me or My Mother, it has been worth any pain or persecution you have received, and will continue to receive. God's plan is perfect. Pray for those who persecute you, little one.

Ruth Ann: I always pray for those who hurt me, Lord. You have said, "Love your enemies." This I try to do, Lord.

Jesus: Little one, I know this to be true. I am telling you this, so you can not only be reminded, but you can share those words with all those who will be reading these words. Those things said to you, apply to all My children. That is why you have been asked to share what is being spoken to you. Your gift is for others. It is not just for you alone.

Ruth Ann: I have come to appreciate this, Lord, and I mean it with deepest respect and love.

Jesus: Little one, you need not tell Me this, I know your heart.

Ruth Ann: It is being said to You, Lord, so others realize that I do not do this out of any wish for notoriety. I do this out of obedience, love, and respect for You and Your Mother.

Jesus: Those who know you realize this, little one. For those who choose to think otherwise, that is not to be of concern to you. The persecution you receive on My behalf is all part of the cross, little one. Do not take it to heart. Accept it in the light it is given, and move on.

Now, you have much to do today. Thank you, little one, for taking the time to listen. Be at peace with this day. God loves you.

Ruth Ann: Thank You, Lord, for being here for me and those who are listening.

*Message of Feb. 6, 1995,
from Our Lord Jesus*

Ruth Ann: Lord, I feel this need to talk with You.

Jesus: Little one, I am here.

Ruth Ann: Lord, I guess I feel I need to speak with You at every opportunity, because You have said You too, would cease giving messages to share.

Jesus: Little one, you need not be concerned. My Mother has had ample opportunity to say those things to Her children that needed to be said. So too, will it be the same for Me. It is not how many times you listen, but that you listen, and record those things I would have you share. There is no need for the guilt you carry, little one. I will say to you again, you have shared those things that needed to be shared. You have not abused My gift. Those things that have needed to be shared, have been shared.

Many would like to have used your gift so they could have known the future. That was not your gift. Your gift was to draw My children away from darkness, into the light. It is important that you remember this, when the gift is no longer there.

Ruth Ann: Lord, You sound as though this gift is going to be removed sooner than I had anticipated.

Jesus: Little one, the 'words to share' will soon cease, but you will not cease doing the will of God, and neither will He leave you without the comfort of the voices of Me and My Mother. So you are not to worry. Your burden will become heavier, but you will not be left to carry this burden alone. It is important that you come to terms with these words. You are being prepared for a change, little one. You have heard these words before. The words that have been spoken to My children, have been spoken over and over, and in many ways, through many of My children, and they have yet to be taken as seriously as they are intended. Now it is time for these words to cease. You will need to be the strength, for many who have depended upon these words and messages.

You will still minister to My children, but in a different way. You will continue to pray for, and with, My children. The touching of the minds, hearts, bodies, and souls will not cease, little one. That responsibility will not be lifted from you. God has need of willing, obedient, humble vessels willing to do all that He asks of them. You are one of those vessels, child. Be at peace with what is being said. This place has been chosen by God as a special place of prayer. It is a refuge for those of My children who believe it to be blessed and holy. Many graces and miracles are given here, and they will continue, even though the words and messages will cease. Many conversions take place here, and this will continue to be the case, but in greater and greater numbers.

Little one, you need not understand what is being said. You say, "How can this be?" Little one, it will be done through the grace and mercy of God, just as all things have been done thus far. You can do nothing without this special grace and gift given to you from the Most High God. You could not have started a prayer group, or brought about the numbers who come together out of reverence for Me and My Mother. None of this could have been done by you. You have the hand of God upon you. You have received His light and special grace to do His will. You need only listen, and continue to be open to all that He asks you to do. Remember these words little one, 'it will all be done for you'. This did not only mean physical things, but spiritual as well. The 'all will be done for you', is through the grace of God.

Now, if He has seen to all these things that have brought you this far, will He not tend to those things that are to come? You have been told that you are to experience change. The changes have been coming since your 'yes', and they will continue. Be at peace with what has been said to you. You have the strength to deal with anything God places upon your shoulders, or in your path. Many prayers are being said on your behalf, little one. God hears, and

God is tending to these requests. Just as He listens to your prayers, as you pray for others, so too, does He hear those that are being said on behalf of you, your family, and your mission.

You are tired, little one. You must take time to rest, and become renewed in body, mind, and spirit. Because you are a willing worker in My vineyard, does not mean it must be something that must be so great a burden that you cannot seek time away to become refreshed. This too, is important. Do not become overburdened, little one. You must also take time for yourself so you can return ready, refreshed, and willing to get on with the work and tasks set before you.

Be at peace, little one, and go about your day knowing you have served Me well.

Ruth Ann: Thank You, Lord.

*Message of May 29, 1991,
from Our Lady to Prayer Groups*

My Dear Children,

You must realize that God loves you. As a result of this love, He has given you many gifts. These gifts are not for you alone, but are for all those around you. Share your special gifts. As a result of this sharing, you will become closer and closer to Our Lord. Turn your lives over to God. In so doing, you are doing His will. You were made to know, love and serve God. How better can you do this than by doing His will? These special gifts given to you by the Holy Spirit are not only to help you find salvation, but are there to help you to help others to salvation. Share your gifts. Love one another enough to share these gifts. As you do this, you will know God. You will become one with Him.

Message of Feb. 13, 1993, from Our Lord Jesus

Ruth Ann: Jesus, would you repeat what You told me earlier this morning when I asked You why do I have to do these things, why not someone else to give these talks? I am not even a good person.

Jesus: Yes, little one, I will repeat what I have said. I need you, little one, I need someone such as you to give witness to My other children who have no clue as to what I can do in their lives. You have seen, and heard, and been witness to My many miracles. Unless one has experience firsthand the works of God, it is difficult to give testimony. You have seen and felt the power of God in your life and in the lives of others.

Ruth Ann: But why must I witness to children? They have religion teachers.

Jesus: You too, had a religion teacher, but would you not like to have heard someone tell you that God is a God of love and mercy? Would it not have made your life more simple if someone had said to you, God knows you are a sinner, but He still loves you? Tell Him how much you love Him for all He has done for you, tell Him you are sorry for your sins and you will try to do better. All will be forgotten and washed away. The gift of confession is a special gift to His Catholic children. The priest is Me. He has the power to wash you white as snow, as clean as a newborn baby. What a gift from God!

The Eucharist too, is a special gift and miracle made available to all My children, daily, on this earth. Children, I am alive and walking among you. Do not despair of the darkness on the earth. I have sent you children who are of light, children who will bear witness to the works I am doing in all the lives of My children who have the faith and believe. See what I am doing, little one? I am sending you out, just as I have sent Peter, James, and John, and all the other apostles. You are one of them, little one. You are a chosen one of God. See why you must go? I can send no one else.

Ruth Ann: But Lord, if I would refuse, You would come up with someone else. You are God. I am not that important.

Jesus: Little one, this is true. I am God and can do all things, but you must remember, God has a divine plan. For it to unfold, all things must fall into place. It is time for more of the puzzle to become known to you. That means, little one, that certain other lives must be touched so that more of what is to happen can fall into place, just as placing the right piece of a puzzle in just the right place is vital for the whole picture to be clear. You have heard over and over, from Me, My Mother, and the Holy Spirit, 'It is time.' You did not know what that meant. Now, you will begin to realize as all things begin to move more quickly.

Ruth Ann: Jesus, I feel You overestimate me. I am a lowly sinner.

Jesus: Little one, all My children are lowly sinners. If you were all holy, there would be no need of Me, your Jesus. There would have been no need of My death on the cross. Remember, I have died for your sins, not others' sins. I have died for your sins. I have known all your weaknesses, and have known you would succumb to the temptations of the evil one. I knew this of all My children. You have been forgiven for all your sins, even those you have not committed this day, but will do so before the day has past. I am the God of yesterday, today, and forever. I Am Who Am. These are words you do not understand, little one, but you will.

It is your faith, little one, your faith. It far outshines the brightest star in the universe. Your humility is a beautiful gift placed before the Throne of God, and the more you feel unworthy, the more God wishes to use you. The more you feel the need to hide, the more God wishes to place you before all His children to shout, "See God's children, see what I am doing for the very least among you? If I will do it for her, the very least, then I will do it for you." Do you see what I am doing in your life? Do you see the magnitude of the task before you?

Ruth Ann: Yes Lord, it humbles me that You would use me in this way.

Jesus: Little one, you will be traveling to places you have never seen before, talking before people you have never dreamed of witnessing to, and praying over the most helpless and needy of all My children. The magnitude of what you will be doing has not yet occurred to you, but it has to many around you. You are an apostle of the new times, and the end of the old. You are to bring good news to My children. Your grandmother had spoken of wanting to witness to God's children, and you were concerned about the fact that it would have embarrassed you. You will reach a point in your life, little one, when you will live to witness to My good works. The more pain and suffering you see in the world, the more you will want to help Me with My work here on earth. You are My body here on the earth. You are My eyes, ears, hands, feet, and most of all, My love and peace. As you touch and bless others in My name, I will be there with you. It will be as though I have touched them because you are being used by Me. You will perform many, many miracles of the flesh. But the most beautiful, little one, will be the healings of the spirit.

I wish to thank you for being obedient and listening even though you do not understand always what is being said to you. Continue to be obedient. This is a special gift, your locutions. It will be a mixed blessing to you and your family, because those on the earth do not understand. I am with you, and so is My Mother, and now you have someone else to help. She has said to you, "We will help each other." She will pray with and for you, and you can tend to her needs here on the earth. You had no idea how prophetic her words were.

Now I know you must be on your way. Go to love and serve your God. Do not force your prayer, but do you not feel like you would like to spend some time reading My word?

Ruth Ann: Yes Lord, thank You for this hunger. I love You.

Jesus: I love you and give you My best blessing and peace.

Ruth Ann: I feel it Lord, already.

Message of January 4, 1995, from Our Lady to Prayer Groups

My Dear Children,

As your Mother, I am here to be of help to you in any way you need. God loves you, and because of this love, He continues to find ways to touch you in a special way. Each one of you has been given a special gift. These gifts are not for you to keep, nor hide under a bushel. They are there for you to share. Just as a light is extinguished if it is covered, so too, are your gifts. In sharing your gifts with others, they are not only kept glowing, but they continue to grow and burst into a giant flame, to warm the hearts of all those with whom you share. Share your gifts so God's love and peace will radiate to those around you. Pray, little children. Accept the challenge I am giving to you, so that others may experience God's peace, and the beauty of God's gifts given to you to share.

Activities at the Retreat Center in September:

As is our new tradition, the retreat Center started out the month of September with First Saturday Devotions. Thanks to the positive response, Father Ignatius has decided that the devotions will be held year-round, so be sure to join us on the first Saturday of each month. This is the devotion that was given to Lucy. (During her July 1917 apparition at Fatima.) Our Lady said to Lucy, “I shall come to ask... that on the First Saturday of every month, Communions of reparation be made in atonement for the sins of the world.”

I promise to assist at the hour of death, with the graces necessary for salvation, all those who, on the first Saturday of five consecutive months, shall confess, receive Holy Communion, recite five decades of the rosary, and keep me company for 15 minutes while meditating on the 15 mysteries of the rosary with the intention of making reparation to me.

September 17-19 we were very blessed to have Fr. John Hollowell lead a retreat which focused on the Franciscan Third Order. Fr. Hollowell, a priest of the Archdiocese of Indianapolis, has recently recovered from a malignant brain tumor. We are very blessed and grateful for his recovery and willingness to come and lead the retreat!

Mary's Children welcomed our local group of MIM (Mission of the Immaculate Mediatrix) members for their yearly retreat led by Fr. Terrance Chartier with the topic being “The Attributes of God.”

Each month individuals come staying at the Retreat Center to spend time in private prayer and devotion.
