
“TO JESUS THROUGH MARY”

Lessons and Messages to the World from Jesus and the Blessed Virgin Mary to Ruth Ann Wade of Bloomington, Indiana

Compiled by Mary's Children, P. O. Box 27, Washington, IN 47501 - February 2023

*Message of March 12, 1994,
from Our Lady
(Hotel on Sea of Galilee in Israel)*

Ruth Ann: Mother, do You wish to speak to me? I am feeling that You do.

Our Lady: Child, it is so. You have just been to a place where My simple 'Fiat' gave birth to a reality that changed the entire world. That simple 'yes' brought about change. That is the word that I am wishing you to understand. You still continue to deny the importance of what you, too, have done by saying 'yes', little one. You still do not realize the importance of your mission. You have said 'yes', you have been obedient, and you have watched the fruits continue to grow, but you still deny the importance of your part in God's holy plan.

Ruth Ann: Mother, I know my faults. They are many. You were a perfect holy child.

Our Lady: That was God's will for Me. That is because I was to be the receptacle of God's most holy Son. He would not have accepted anything less, and you would not have expected Him to, little one.

Ruth Ann: No, Mother. I understand God's will for You, but I don't understand His will for me, or rather why He chose me for these things that are happening, and for whatever is to come.

Our Lady: You forget all of God's children on the earth are imperfect. He has said so. If you were perfect, little one, you would be God. You have been chosen for your special mission, not for your perfection, but for your imperfections. How else would others be able to relate to you? God will do the molding that is needed in your life to make you ready for the very special gift that is to become a part of your every waking moment. You are to be one with Him, child. You are to be all that He wishes all of His children to be. Your simple 'fiat' is bringing this about.

The time is fast approaching, little child, when your life will be an all-consuming flame burning only for the love of God. Your purpose for being created and placed upon the earth is soon to be fulfilled. You have been prepared gradually, little one of God, but the magnitude of your mission will not be felt until My Son asks you to carry His cross. At that time you will truly realize the reason for your existence.

The years prior to this have only been a testing ground in preparation for your true purpose. You, child, through your willing-ness to do the will of God have said 'yes' and have meant it from your innermost being. You see, little child, God knows your heart. It is one of love and compassion for His children. It is one of sacrifice. He has seen the love you have for His people to continue to grow, little child, and He is pleased at the progress you have made spiritually. You have listened to My instructions and the instructions of My Jesus. You are living your faith. You care not about the humiliation that is being brought about as a result of turning your life over to the One who has created you. You do so in hopes it will save souls. You are willing to die for God's children, little one. God can ask for no greater love from His children, you be willing to lay down that life for the good of other souls.

That is the kind of life God wishes all of His children to experience. He wants His children to die of self and love others with the kind of love Jesus had for His children. This love is one of complete giving of self so that others might experience life. The life of which I am speaking is an eternal life, child. The only life that is truly important is this kind of life. This is true life in Jesus Christ. He was the perfect example of the ultimate sacrifice. Now He is calling you to this same love and compassion for the dying souls all over the world. He is calling you to make the ultimate and supreme sacrifice of your life, so that others may rise from the dead. By your examples of a true life in Jesus Christ, you will win many from the clutches of the eternal abyss. What greater love and purpose can one have on this earth, child!

Ruth Ann: Mother, You do realize I'm writing this and thinking You surely have the wrong person? I am not worthy of such praise.

Our Lady: Child, you still do not understand. Even if you were responsible for only saving one soul from the clutches of the evil one, you would be of great importance to My Son and Savior of the world. But you, My child, will do even greater things than this. Do these words sound familiar?

Ruth Ann: Yes, Mother, You know they do. These are words, the first words Your Son ever spoke to me interiorly.

Our Lady: Believe them, My child, believe them. Know that soon He is going to make His presence known in your life in a greater way than ever before. Others are aware even more so than you, that something is about to happen in your life, that will change the destiny of many. Their lives will be changed and their souls will be saved. Little child, it is because you have given your life to the God of love and mercy. You have said 'yes' to the One Who has created you for this special purpose. Be not afraid, but be grateful for the kind of love God has for His children, that He would use one such as you to save many of His lost souls. All God asks is that you continue to be obedient and do His will. He will do the difficult part. He will mold you and guide you through My Son. I have done My part. I have drawn you to the One who will be the ultimate teacher. I thank you for having responded to My call, child. In your response, God will be able to use you to save others.

I love you, My little child.

Ruth Ann: I love You, Mother. Thank You for being patient with me and bringing me to Your Son. Help me to be all God wants me to be.

Our Lady: It is done, child. Go in the peace of My Son. Enjoy this special trip to the land of Our birth. All of the desires of your childhood will have been fulfilled in this very special time.

Ruth Ann: Thank You, Mother.

Our Lady: Bless you, little child of God.

Message of Jan. 3, 1994, from Our Lady

Ruth Ann: Mother, are You with me?

Our Lady: Yes, child, I am here. I am pleased that you have taken the time to speak with Me today. You are in need of reassurance, and I am here to give that reassurance to you through words from Heaven. What greater reassurance do you need?

Ruth Ann: Mother, I appreciate all You do and say, always. It is difficult for me to believe that I have been chosen for something this special. This is beyond my wildest imagination. It is also something I don't understand.

Our Lady: That is the most difficult part for you to grasp, child. You feel you need to understand and have the full picture laid out before you. That is exactly what will not happen, child. God wishes His children to have the courage and conviction to walk in faith; 'Thy will be done, Lord, whatever it may be'. Those who have given themselves over to the One Who has created them over the centuries, have had to do just that, child: walk in faith, trust in God, do His will and He will take care of the rest. You must be pliable, bendable, and easy to mold into whatever He desires. You are an instrument, child, through which We are to work, so you must be open and willing to trust and give all to God.

If you begin to become concerned about what is to come, you lose your pliability. You lose your peace. These things are needed in order for God to do His best work. Do not impede what God wishes to do with and through you. Many lives are at stake, waiting for your divine revelations. Many are just waiting for the words and directions from Heaven that come just in time to help them in their life. If you were not listening, and if you chose not to share these words, God would find other ways to direct them. But why not be the willing instrument that God needs? I have said 'yes' to the will of God, not knowing what the future held, and look how I was used. I am the perfect example of love, willing-ness, and obedience to the will of God.

That does not mean that all will go well, or that all will be easy. It only means that you are doing the will of God. What better purpose would any life have than to do the will of God? Remember, child, God has a plan for each life He places on the earth. He only awaits the simple 'yes', in order for His plan to come to fruition. It is man in his stubbornness that creates obstacles so that God is continuously having to make changes so that His divine plans can be brought into play. Man needs to listen carefully, and be obedient to the will of God, and as a result, amazing miracles can take place.

Be at peace, little child, with your 'yes' and with your day. You have much to do, but know We are with you. If you feel yourself losing your peace, call on My Son, Jesus, the prince of peace, or Myself. We will restore this peace needed to do the Father's will.

Ruth Ann: Yes Mother, I will do so.

Our Lady: Your Mother loves you and continues to be with you, to bless all who ask you for prayer, and those who come here to pray. All those who come here to pray are the recipients of many graces and blessings.

Ruth Ann: Thank You, Mother.

*Message of May 8, 1994,
from Our Lady*

Ruth Ann: Mother, I want to wish You a happy Mother's Day.

Our Lady: Thank you, child, and I wish the same for you. As a Child of God, I was given the special gift of becoming the Mother of Jesus. My simple 'fiat' gave birth to the salvation of mankind.

How great God is, little child of God! If everyone could only realize the importance of this special gift. This tiny Baby born of a humble Mother, in humble surroundings, was given to the entire world as a special light to touch the minds, hearts, bodies, and souls of God's children. This Child brought into the world as the result of the love of a Father for His children, resulted in the gift of eternal life to all those who seek to follow in this Child's footsteps.

Child, I have heard you speak of concern as you continue to share with God's children the messages you are receiving. In hearing them read aloud to you, you have felt the power behind these words. You have expressed a concern about stepping out in faith, and you have said, "You are in over your head," as you put it. Child, those who choose to follow the will of God are indeed in over their head. That is because it is not you, but God Who dwells within you who is in control.

Your simple 'fiat', child, has led you to the foot of the cross. There you have said, "Lord, I am willing to die for You, but there is only one of me, and I can only die once." Child, this is not so. You continue to die over and over for My Son and the graces that flow out from you to others as a result of your 'death' continue to multiply. Lives and hearts are being touched. You are making My work easier, child, by sharing in the suffering and death of My Son. God blesses you for that, and I bless you for that. What a gift you are to Me, and what a gift you are to My Son! I thank you from the bottom of My Mother's heart for your love and the tender, loving care you have for My children.

As you share your faith experiences and pray with others, you grow in the gifts and power of the Holy Spirit. This is passed on to those around you. You are experiencing growth in spirit and growth in your ministry. This is the result of your simple 'fiat' to Almighty God. Continue, child, to be obedient and hear and share the word of God. My children are desperate, and they hunger for these words. They need someone to help them grow in their strength and faith, so they too, can witness and bring hope to those around them.

I give you My Motherly blessing. Rest, child, you have had a busy week, and next week will be even busier. Know My love and strength are there with you, as is the love of your Jesus and Mine. Enjoy the time you will spend with your family this day.

Ruth Ann: Thank You, Mother, for such beautiful words. I love You so much. Help me to be all God wants me to be.

Our Lady: I am here for you. Allow Me to take your hand as you walk this path. Let Me help you minister to all God's children. My strength is yours. Do not hesitate to ask for My guiding hand. That is My purpose for ministering to you, little child, to guide all My children back to My Son.

Ruth Ann: Thank You again for being with me and seeing me through my last two talks. Be with me this week for my next talk.

Our Lady: I am with you at each talk you give, child. Thank you for asking.

Ruth Ann: I love You, Mother. I don't deserve such blessings, but now I do understand why I suffer so before my talks and my praying with others.

Our Lady: Child, you have said you feel as though you are a lamb being led to slaughter. You are being led to your death. You continue to die of self, but each time as you are resurrected, you bring light, love, and hope to all those around you. Is that not worth the passion and death you suffer?

Ruth Ann: Yes, Mother. Why didn't someone tell me this before?

Our Lady: You have been told before, child. You just never fully understood till now. As your Mother, I am pleased this has touched your heart. As My Son has said, "Those who love My Mother are best loved by Me." My blessing and love I give to you. Go in the peace of My Son, Jesus.

Message of May 31, 1993, from Our Lord Jesus

Ruth Ann: Jesus, would You speak with me?

Jesus: Child, I am here.

Ruth Ann: Is there anything in particular You would like to speak to me about? I am feeling like You wish to speak to me.

Jesus: Little one, you are correct. You were feeling sad because there were problems and misunderstandings among those who are your friends and those who have professed to be your friends. Little one, remember this; there were those who professed to be My friends in the days of My ministering to God's chosen ones, and they crucified Me. You feel this is very strong language for Me to use, little one, but it is truth. Those who do much will suffer much. Yours will be a heavy cross child, I will send help and have sent help to carry that cross. Those who are your true friends will continue on and help you carry your cross. Those who are doing My will in helping you, will receive great rewards in Heaven. Those who choose to harm and hurt you have a free will, child. If one chooses to silently walk away and says to God, "This is not what I wish to do," that is their free will. Not all will be supportive of you or what you are doing. Neither were all those around Me supportive of Me and what I was doing.

Little one, when one follows in My footsteps, the path is narrow, rocky, and extremely difficult, but the rewards are a hundred-fold. Woe unto those who would hurt one of Mine, the least of My little ones. Yes child, I am a loving God, but I am also a just God. So you are not to be concerned about those who would do you harm. Pray for all God's children. Do not be distracted by the tactic of the evil one. Keep focused on your Jesus and the will of My Father in Heaven, and God will do the rest, little one. I have many little ones all over the earth who are helping Me. There will be persecutions suffered because of My name, but know all who love Me and do My Father's will, will not be abandoned. There will be people brought into your life that you would never expect to help you in your journey to the cross of Calvary. Love them. They are your brothers and sisters in Christ Jesus. They are true friends, and will help you on this long and difficult journey. So too, love your enemies and those who would do you harm. They are in need of prayer.

Ruth Ann: Thank You, Jesus, for Your words of encouragement. It helps me to realize that all that is happening, is all part of the plan, even the bad.

Jesus: Little one, where there is good, there will always be evil. That is the way of the world. I wish it were not so, but it is such. I also wish I could say to you, "Little one, you will not have to suffer," but that too, is not as it will be. No, the rewards will be great, as I have said to you before. The end will justify the means. You do not truly understand these words. It means, little one, that all you will suffer will bring many, many souls to God. What greater gift to give to My Father than souls delivered from the grasp of Satan himself? Souls given back to God even more beautiful than before because of the suffering of one of His chosen ones. Does that not bring peace to you, child? Does that not help you to realize that what you are doing is worth the pangs of hurt you are beginning to experience?

Ruth Ann: Yes, Jesus.

Jesus: Be not afraid. God has greater things in store for you. The greater the suffering, the greater the rewards.

Ruth Ann: I'm really not into suffering Lord, but I do want to do the will of God. I guess what I'm really saying is, please help me to do whatever it is You want me to do.

Jesus: The graces will be there for you, little one. It is as you so desire.

Ruth Ann: Thank You, Lord. I will remember my enemies in prayer, as well as those who are of help to me.

Jesus: Go in My peace, child. Enjoy your day.

Message of Nov. 12, 1994, from Our Lord Jesus

Ruth Ann: Lord, please give me the graces to do Your will.

Jesus: It is there for you. I have told you, all you need do is ask.

Ruth Ann: It becomes more and more difficult, Lord. You have left me without visions. Those were truly a blessing and a consolation to me, when You gave me that grace.

Jesus: It is true, you have had much taken from you. Much of what has been removed is to help you grow in your love for Me. It is important that you be able to go forward in faith, prayer, and holy trust in the will of God for you, without this special blessing and knowledge of My presence in your life. Many of the physical and spiritual gifts have been removed, but they will be returned to you. The signs of My presence have been removed, but My love has not been removed. Neither have the graces been removed that have helped you to carry on. Many of the things your God does, are to strengthen you in your love and trust. You are to realize that you are totally dependent upon God, the One Who has created you. You are never to forget that.

Ruth Ann: Lord, I really do know that. I know that I can do nothing without Your help.

Jesus: But you still have a difficult time giving yourself over to total trust. You still have concerns that are of this world. You must reach a point in your life where these things are not of any importance to you. You must come to have complete love and trust that God will tend to all things, whether it be your children, the media, your priest; give everything to Me. I am in complete control, little one. You sometimes forget, and then you begin to fret and worry. I am in control. All things happen for a reason. God loves you, and will tend to all your concerns and needs. Know this in your heart.

Ruth Ann: Lord, I do know this in my heart, but it is humiliating for others to think I am something I am not. It's also humiliating for people to think I'm crazy. I know that no one needs to believe that I am speaking with You and Your Mother to get to Heaven. That part really doesn't bother me, whether people believe all You have done in my life isn't necessary to be believed, to get to Heaven. You have told me, and so has Your Mother, that You would touch the minds and hearts of those You wish to have believe. So I am comfortable knowing that. I am not comfortable with being able to hear the whispers, seeing the stares, and having others relay the fact, that people I know, think I am crazy. Now I understand why You arranged for me to take a leave from school. It's bad enough to deal with these things, not working. Even going to church, going out to eat, or shopping, is getting to be painful for me.

Jesus: This is only the beginning, child. Just remember, those who suffer for My sake, receive many blessings. Remember the words to the song, 'Be Not Afraid'? Imprint them upon your heart. Those words apply to you and your cross, child. Never forget that. That song should always be of comfort to you.

Ruth Ann: It has always been a comfort to me, Lord.

Jesus: Little one, I have been working in your life in a mighty way, long before you ever realized it. Since your birth, you have been being prepared for what you are to do for Me. God's plans are perfect, little one, and He uses all things for His good. Man does not give God much credit for all He is, and has, but it is through My grace and mercy, that all things are given or removed. Man continues to think he is in control, but I am the One Who allows all things. The evil one tempts, bargains, and draws My children into a sinful life, but I am always there to grant mercy when it is needed. Man need only repent of his ways and change, and I am there to pick up the pieces. All it takes is a humble heart, that is truly repentant, to touch Me, and bring about the flood of graces and mercy I wish to give to that soul. The love is always there.

I love all My children, and continue to see to all their needs. In many cases, I grant them time and forgiveness, in order for them to get their lives in order, so they will have a change of heart and gain the gift of life, life in Me. Some choose to use the time wisely, and do just that. Others choose the time granted to them to continue on in their sinful ways. That is their choice. That is called a free will. You can choose evil, or you can choose good. In choosing good, you choose the gift of eternal life. In choosing evil, you receive death. Of course, I give My children every opportunity to choose life over death. I would wish all My children to choose to do the will of God, and not live according to the darkness of the world. That is not to be, in many cases. Choosing to do the will of God is much more difficult than following the ways of the world.

Your Jesus, in His humanity, suffered much in the world. Those who choose to follow in the footsteps, have much to suffer. The way of Jesus is the cross. It is not easy. It takes much pain, perseverance, and many sacrifices. The graces are available for all those who choose to take up their cross of life, and follow Me. Be not afraid. Go in My peace.

Ruth Ann: Thank You, Lord.

Message of Nov. 11, 1994, from Our Lord Jesus

Ruth Ann: Lord, will I ever experience joy and peace in serving You?

Jesus: Little one, it will come. There are changes coming about in your life that could not have come even weeks, or months ago. You continue to grow and accept the cross put before you. You wish to please Me, and you wish to do My will. You wish to be of help to My children. Your heart is full of love for Me. With all of these things in place, the rest will come. Of course, you have struggled. This is to be expected. You have been attached to many of the things of the world, but gradually you have been pulled away from each of those things that might keep you from giving all to Me. You have finally been able to say to Me, "Everything I have and possess are Yours: my family, my home, my job, my animals, my life, all are Yours." When one of My children can say this to Me and truly mean it, I can truly use them to benefit the souls of many.

Ruth Ann: Lord, I am no one special, and I still have moments when I struggle with what You want for me. It’s just as one person said to one of my daughters, ‘Who does she think she is, your mother, that God would pick her out of millions of people to talk to? Does she really believe that He is speaking with her?’

Jesus: How sad, little one. I would speak to that person if she would only take the time to listen. I know these words being spoken by others hurt you, and hurt your family, but those who suffer for My sake, will be rewarded accordingly. For the many who laugh and criticize you behind your back, and to your face, there will be those who believe and truly understand that God can work in the lives of His children in any way He chooses. Know in your heart, little one, that yours is the Kingdom of God, because you have said ‘yes’.

Ruth Ann: I keep waiting to become one who works for you in joy, Lord. I said earlier that I don’t feel peace in what I am doing; that really isn’t so, when I think about it. When I am praying for Your people, I do feel peace and joy. I even find myself looking forward to praying with those who come seeking prayer. I never thought I’d be able to say that, Lord. I really don’t even mind sharing and witnessing anymore. It’s just that I don’t like being the focal point of anything. I’ve never liked being in front of a group, but the more I give of myself, the more I find I want to give.

Jesus: As you continue to be molded and prepared for what I would have you do, the joy will come. Right now, you are feeling acceptance with these things you have struggled with for so many months. You have come a long way, child. Joy and the burning desire to serve Me were felt in the beginning of your conversion. As your burdens became heavier and heavier, you experienced dread, fear, and frustration. Doubts continue to plague and eat at you. Now you are accepting those things I would have you do. You don’t really understand why you have been chosen, because you know your sinfulness. As you grow in your love for Me, you will even feel less worthy. But those who are truly caring and humble, can be used in mighty ways. So these are important qualities that God wishes to see come about in those who serve Him.

You are concerned about the article and picture in your local paper, about the farm and the prayer group that has developed, as a desire of My Mother. You have been told God would take care of everything. Your children have handled everything well, have they not? I have provided them with the graces to do so. All are proud of your stepping out in faith to answer God’s call. They too, have been brought along. This did not happen overnight. Each one has had crosses to bear, in order to prepare you for the ultimate cross. My coming to you will be the ultimate cross. But know, that God in His way, has prepared each one of you. Be not afraid. God’s will be done.

Ruth Ann: Lord, I know You will tend to all things.

Message of July 13, 1994, from Our Lady to Prayer Groups

My Dear Children,
God in His infinite wisdom and love, has a plan for each one of you. You must be open to His will in order to be able to participate in this plan. If you do not open your heart to His will, it does not mean that His plan cannot work. It means that you continually struggle and find life difficult because you have not accepted His plan for you. Pray, dear children, for the gift of faith and openness to the will of God, then you will have the peace that each of you seek and desire. My Mother's heart aches for you. Life need not be such a struggle. Love those who do you harm, strive for holiness, forgive your enemies, and that way you know you are doing God's will. I cannot ask you to do less than My Son has done for you. Pray, dear children. Be open to those gifts of the Holy Spirit that God wishes to give to you. Abide in My love. Go in My Son's peace.

Activities at the Retreat Center in December:

On the First Saturday of December we began the month with our regular devotions, combined with an Advent Day of Reflection titled “Bethlehem, House of Bread,” which combined Advent themes with a focus on the Eucharistic Revival called for by the USCCB, and was led by Friar Gabriel Cortes, one of the Franciscan Friars of the Immaculate stationed here at the Retreat Center. On the following Tuesday, December 6th, the Archdiocesan Office of Catechesis held a one day retreat for catechists from around the Archdiocese of Indianapolis. Later that same week Fr. Mike Kuecher led a men’s retreat on December 8th through the 10th.

Throughout the month of December, we also welcomed several individuals who came and stayed in the Guesthouse while on private retreat or receiving spiritual direction from one of the Friars, as well as several who came to spend the night of December 31st and participate in the celebration of the Solemnity of Mary Mother of God marking the start of the New Year. It was also a great blessing for us to have a lady stay here who came all the way from Australia and spent a week and a half at the Retreat Center in prayer and doing volunteer work.
