
“TO JESUS THROUGH MARY”

Lessons and Messages to the World from Jesus and the Blessed Virgin Mary to Ruth Ann Wade of Bloomington, Indiana

Compiled by Mary's Children, P. O. Box 27, Washington, IN 47501 - May 2023

*Message of Feb. 22, 1994,
from Our Lord, Jesus*

Ruth Ann: Lord, we survived another third weekend. Thank You for Your love, strength, and support. I thank Your Mother also.

Jesus: Child, speak to Her later and tell Her so.

Ruth Ann: Yes, Lord, I will do that.

Jesus: Little one, when you say you have 'survived another weekend', it sounds as though you have been in a battle. I am teasing you. I have a sense of humor, even if it does not get much use in these days of pain and suffering. But you have understood your role better than you realize. You are 'in battle', little one, against the warring angels of hell. Those of you who have taken My words seriously and are trying to do the will of God and minister to His people, are in continual battle with the evil one. Many do not believe he exists, little one, but you have seen him and can witness to his evil ways. That you have seen him many times, and have smelled his stench, and witnessed to his evil deeds, should be shared.

Ruth Ann: Lord, I do, and will continue to do so.

Jesus: It is important that My children know he is alive and doing damage in many ways all over the world.

Ruth Ann: Yes, I know, Lord. Those of us who know You are aware of this.

Jesus: You are aware, little one, but you cannot possibly realize to the extent of what he has done. He has infiltrated all walks of life. I could go on and on naming them, but I think you understand what I am trying to say.

Mother of the Redeemer Farm

Ruth Ann: Yes, Lord, I'm afraid I do. But I'm only one person and can not do much about all that is going on around me, or all over the world, for that matter.

Jesus: Pray, little one. Prayer can work miracles. The gatherings you have on your farm through faith and trust in God are bringing about the prayer that is needed for conversion of the hearts and minds of many. These are those of My children who are turning away from the ways of the world and seeking the face of God. You do not think you are doing much, but each soul brought to God is one snatched from the hands of Satan and the gates of hell. Even if you were only responsible for one soul being saved, it would be worth the sacrifices you are making. But, My little one, you are responsible for bringing many souls back to Me, by your witnessing, prayers, sharing, and your good example. Know I am pleased, little one. Know My Mother is pleased. Those who are of help to you continue to be blessed in ways they cannot imagine.

Ruth Ann: Lord, many who are of help to me are being attacked by the evil one.

Jesus: I know this to be so, child, but they stand firm, and as a result they earn graces and blessings by doing so. Life is not easy for those who choose to be good. The evil one leaves those alone who he already has. Those he is losing, he fights hard to get back. Faith and trust in God prevents My little ones from losing hope. The evil one cannot and will not win. This he knows, but he can cause much upheaval in the lives of My children. Do not allow him the pleasure of giving in to his evil temptations. Keep your faith and trust in God, and he cannot detour you from My path.

Now, I know you have a limited amount of time to spend with Me this morning, child, and I would like for you to spend some time with My Mother, so I will let you go about the rest of your day so you will have time to spend with Her.

Ruth Ann: Yes, Lord, and thank

You again for helping our family get through another weekend. I love You.

Jesus: I love you, little one. Go in My peace.

Message of Nov. 3, 1993, from Our Lord Jesus

Ruth Ann: Lord.

Jesus: Yes, little one. All is well. Do not be concerned about tomorrow. Sufficient are the problems of today. Trust, little one, trust. God is with you.

Ruth Ann: I know this, Lord. I have my good days and bad, but I know You will always be here for me. I have been offering up my sadness over losing my little friend, my dog, for the poor souls in purgatory. That seems to help, Lord.

Jesus: I thank you for the gift of your sorrow as a sacrifice, child. Does it not lighten your burden?

Ruth Ann: Yes it does, Lord. I need to learn to turn things over to You sooner, Lord. Instead, I find myself having a 'pity party', which I know is just what the evil one likes for me to do. It is so easy to play into his hands.

Jesus: Child, that is because you live in a world of darkness. The evil one is everywhere, and is continually discouraging, attacking, causing doubts, and dragging you down in whatever way he can. Put your feet firmly on the path of goodness and light, and know that no matter what is being sent your way, that God is there to help and comfort you and your family in all that you say and do.

Sometimes you may be over-whelmed by all that is going on in your life. You must always remember to offer up all of your sorrows for the conversions of those souls in need. What a beautiful sacrifice that is. Be at peace, child. God is in control. No matter what difficulties arise, you will be given sufficient graces to deal with all that lies ahead of you. Go in My peace, little one, love and trust in Me. All is well.

Ruth Ann: Thank You, Lord.

Message of May 25, 1994, from Our Lady

Ruth Ann: Mother, since You gave me the message this A.M., do You have anything you'd like to add to me, or to others reading this?

Our Lady: Dear child, your Mother is always here to be of help to you or those being attentive to what I have to say. My love and graces go out to each and every one of you. You all struggle so, and how it makes My Mother's heart ache, since it need not be the case. If My children would take the messages that have been given all over the world to heart, there would be no need to struggle. Doing the will of God brings peace in great abundance. It lessens trials and sufferings that, if left to the individuals, become too much for one to bear. Those who bring their sufferings to the foot of the cross and ask for God to share in this suffering, or even offer the suffering for the good of other souls, give purpose to their pain and trials. Not only do they provide graces and blessings for others through their trials, but their burden becomes lighter.

Ruth Ann: That is a beautiful thought, Mother. In prayer, lots of times, I try to offer up the trials I must deal with for the poor souls in purgatory, or for all those who have no one to pray for them.

Our Lady: God hears these prayers, child, and these prayers are put to good use. No prayer goes unheard or unanswered, even those done in anger are listened to by God. All prayer is important. If only more of God's children would take the time to pray. That is of great concern to Me. Even those who listen to God's word in the messages do not always take the time to pray. They say they are too busy to do so. Even a few minutes of time speaking to My Son is better than no prayer at all.

So much prayer is needed to fight the evil in the world. If only My children would take to heart the messages, much could be accomplished for the good of your land, your country, your world. Those who are listening and being attentive know that I appreciate each and every prayer. Continue to have faith. Your prayers will be answered. My Immaculate Heart will triumph over the evil one, and it will be through the prayers of My faithful listeners. It is not just listening, you must hear the word of God and act upon it. So, too, must you hear the words of God in My messages, take them to your heart, and live them.

Now go in the peace of My Son. Love Me, love My Son, and love your neighbor. My love I give to you in great abundance.

Message of March 19, 1994, from Our Lord Jesus

Ruth Ann: Lord, You said You wished to speak with me, You also asked that I record this and share it.

Jesus: Yes, little one, this is true. There is much I wish to say to My children. You have been given a spiritual healing while you were in the church at the sepulcher. This was a total spiritual healing, and you were told this was to give you the courage to go forth and do all God asks of you. Do you not feel a resolve to do this?

Ruth Ann: Yes Lord, I do. It's as though I'm resigned to do whatever comes. Not like before, because I have to and see no way out, but I feel a need to do these things. I still realize my unworthiness, but I have the knowledge that You are the healer and wish to use me as You see fit to help Your children. And yes, there is a peace with this I didn't have before. Please continue to strengthen me, Lord, so I can be of help to all those You send in my path. It's okay, whatever.

Jesus: Little one, in the Chapel of the Resurrection you felt the power of the Holy Spirit come down upon you in a mighty way. This was the moment I lifted this tremendous burden of fear and doubt from you. This does not mean that you will always be at peace with all you do, and are asked to do. But it does mean you have been given an understanding you did not have before. I have placed a desire for you to go forth in love and peace to minister to My people.

Ruth Ann: I feel it, Lord. This is the third Sunday weekend. The weather is nice and I'm sure there will be many people here. I also have a better understanding of the plight of the people in the Holy Land. Before, I felt so far removed. Our guide brought the feeling of the people alive in my heart.

Jesus: Pray for peace in the hearts of all those in My land of birth, death, and resurrection. They wish peace and continue to live in unrest. I have wept for My children, for I could see all that was to come after My dying on the cross. I still continue to weep for them, as does My Mother. I know you feel in your heart it seems hopeless, but through prayer, God can do anything that would seem impossible to man. You have to work from the inside out, just as a wound must heal in such a way so that it be made truly well again, so too, must My children all over the world experience a healing from deep inside the heart. Once the healing comes, then a lasting peace will come to the earth.

My stubborn children must listen and pray. A surface peace will not heal a deep wound. The healing will only be temporary, and in a matter of time, the wound again will fester and break open and the process will begin anew. Much prayer and sacrifice is needed from those of My children who are listening and willing to make these great sacrifices.

You My child, have much work to do. You have gone on a pilgrimage to better understand the problems that exist all over the world. You did not realize this, but each time your mind and heart has been opened a little further to help you realize the importance of what you need to do for God's people. Prayer can bring peace, little one, a lasting peace. The kind of peace that is total and complete. Healings from the inside out. This is truly the only kind of peace that is important, God's peace. As man continues to cause more and more unrest in the world for each other, those who have this inner peace and healing will not be affected in a negative way. Those of My children who understand the importance of prayer and peace will be able to continue on in a world filled with unrest and turmoil. Those of My children will be more ready to make sacrifices of all kinds to help this feeling of inner peace come to those who are in need.

Little one, continue on. Share My words. Share My peace. Pray with and for those who are in need. Minister to My people.

Ruth Ann: Lord, I am only one person, but I'll do the best I can. Stay with me throughout each day, Your Mother too, and St Joseph. Today is St Joseph's feast day. Wish him a happy feast day for me. I feel he gets so little recognition.

Jesus: I will extend these wishes to him, and you are right. He is a powerful intercessor, and very special to God. He would not have been chosen as protector for Me and My Mother had God not had great love for him. Your husband should look to him for strength in the times ahead. Now, you must get on with your day. You have just returned from the Holy Land and you are not yet rested. You will receive the strength you need to get through this busy weekend. Go in My peace to love and serve your God.

Ruth Ann: Yes, Lord.

Message of Jan. 20, 1994,
from Our Lord Jesus

Ruth Ann: Lord, I'm not sure I thanked You for seeing me through another talk. If I didn't, thank You.

Jesus: Little one, do you remember what you said to Me right before you were to give the talk?

Ruth Ann: Yes, Lord, I do. I remember saying I didn't want to deal with preparing for the talk, and after spending two or three minutes looking over the outline, I said to You, "If what I am doing is really of You, and if I'm really on the right path, You'll make this one of my best talks. It will flow smoothly and the words will pour forth without any hesitation and with little effort from me."

Jesus: Was it not so? Did I not come to your aid? You continue to 'test', little one. That is as it must be. I know your heart, and how you do not wish to say or do anything that would not be as I would have you do. You will not lead anyone astray, child. These talks are a witness of all the good the Lord God has done in your life. There is no way you can go wrong. But, little one, I will continue to reassure you at every possible moment in your journey. I realize what you are doing is not easy for you, but I intend to make it as easy as possible. It is because you have said 'yes' to all that has been asked of you. Sometimes you are reluctant, and you find what you are asked to do extremely humiliating, but you continue to do what is asked of you, no matter what.

Ruth Ann: Lord, You are referring to laying hands on people and praying with and for people. That is terribly humiliating for me. Many of those I am asked to pray for are better and holier people than me. Besides that, I feel priests should be doing that kind of thing.

Jesus: Some do, child.

Ruth Ann: The things You ask me to do: the witnessing, praying with people, and recording and reading what has been told to me, are all things that bring attention to me, and I'm one who wants no attention. I was in hopes this could all have been done anonymously.

Jesus: That would have been impossible, child. You were told from the very beginning you were to share and witness to your healing and all the other miracles that had been given to you. Had you not told who you were, they would not have had the impact that they now have. Other things that had to happen along the way would not have been possible. So in your saying 'yes,' many graces and blessings have been made available to those who otherwise would not have received them.

Ruth Ann: I guess I just need to have Your reassurance.

Jesus: You have My reassurance and My love. You also have My peace.

Ruth Ann: Lord, I have another talk coming up this weekend. Would You please see to this one also?

Jesus: Little one, it is done. Give it all to Me and I will use you in the fullest possible way to touch the minds and hearts of My children. Many graces and blessings accompany you on each one of your talks. My Mother and I choose those We wish to have listen, at just the right time. So it is as you have said, you are among those brought there by Us. How can the group ever be a hostile one? You will find the ones who are listening and being touched, know in their hearts they were supposed to be there. So don't ever be afraid to stand up and witness for fear of being 'put on a spot'. No one wishes to do that to you. They too, know they would have difficulty witnessing in front of their peers.

My children appreciate your courage and trust in Me and My Mother. In your witnessing to your faith and trust, it strengthens the faith and trust of others. That is how this sharing of faith works, little one. It is called 'evangelizing'. That is what all My children are being called to do by Pope John Paul II. Many more need to take it seriously as you do.

Ruth Ann: Thank You Lord, for Your words of encouragement.

Jesus: Thank you for listening and carrying out the work here on the earth that you have been asked to do for your brothers and sisters.

Ruth Ann: I love You, Lord. Be with me today. I have much to do.

Jesus: Little one, I am always with you. Go in My peace.

*Message of Dec. 13, 1994,
from Our Lady*

Ruth Ann: Mother, are You there?

Our Lady: Child, of course I am here.

Ruth Ann: Help me to be more like You. Right now I am not doing so well. God wishes me to have the same love and trust as You had, and I'm not doing a very good job at the moment.

I am struggling with all that is happening concerning the removal of my priest, friend, and spiritual director, for me and the farm.

Our Lady: Child, you have said 'yes' to God. He has not promised you 'easy', or 'pain-free'. I too, have suffered much, before you, through My 'fiat'. Those who give up their will to do the will of God, do not do it for themselves, but for others. Think of all the many people who have come to you for prayer, and you have asked for these prayers to be answered. You have offered to suffer for those people in order that they be freed from their burdens. It is called 'making sacrifices'. Dying, so that others might live. Granted, the dying is not the death of your physical body, it is only symbolic. The dying of self, and all that ties one to the earth, is even more painful. You must remain here, while your soul and heart yearn to be with Me and My Son.

Ruth Ann: Mother, please be with me, and help me through this.

Our Lady: I am here, little child. You must trust in God, and know that all things will work for His greater honor and glory. Be not afraid. I am with you, as is the love and support of your Rock, My Son.

Ruth Ann: Thank You for sharing this time with me, Mother. I love You, and wish You to help me be what God wants me to be.

Our Lady: I will do so. Trust, child, trust.

*Message of Sept. 16, 1994,
from Our Lord Jesus*

Ruth Ann: Lord, do You wish to speak with me? This has been a very eventful week. I could use some encouragement.

Jesus: Little one, I am always here for you. My children should be aware of this. No matter how difficult the situation, I am always here for all of My children.

Much pain and suffering is ahead for My children, because they have not listened and followed the words being shared with them through My Mother. She has said, "Pray from the heart. Live the messages." Very few have taken Her words seriously. Because of this, mankind is bringing much pain upon the world and the innocent. The warnings have not been heeded.

Ruth Ann: Lord, I am in need of encouragement. These words are not giving me much comfort.

Jesus: Child, you are at peace, are you not?

Ruth Ann: Yes Lord, I am, but I was expecting You to tell me something positive.

Jesus: It is difficult to do so when God is extremely unhappy. My concern for all of My children continues to be of the greatest importance to Me and My Mother. Why do My children continue to ignore the signs? Those of your friends and families, who have been called home to their Heavenly Father, are to escape the pain that is to come. Be grateful to God that He has seen fit to spare those gone before you, from what is to come.

Ruth Ann: I understand so little, Lord. You do not tell me very much.

Jesus: You hear what is necessary for you to hear.

Ruth Ann: Lord, You are expecting an awful lot from me. I am only one person.

Jesus: Little one, you under estimate the power of God in the use of 'one person'. Look at the lowly Handmaid of the Lord, My Mother, and her simple 'fiat'. She is now, and has been since My death, the Mother and caretaker of all God's children. Granted, your role is not as Hers, but you too, have a part to play in the salvation of My children. Through your 'yes' to the will of God, you will experience great suffering, but it will bring about the conversions and healings of many of My children who would otherwise have been lost. Soon you will understand what it is that God expects of you. You have been faithful in all He has asked of you, so great things will now be required of you. You have been tested and purified by the fire of God's love. The evil one continues to come up against you and your family, but you stand firm and steadfast.

Ruth Ann: I have no choice, Lord.

Jesus: You have a free will, and can walk away any time you so choose. Many of My children have chosen to do so. You, My child, continue on in faith and trust, not knowing from day to day what will be expected of you. You have given up everything for the love of God.

Ruth Ann: Lord, I want to go to Heaven, and yes, I do feel a need to be of help to You and Your Mother, so I'll hang in there as long as You have need of me.

Jesus: Be not afraid, little one, the courage and strength will continue to be there for those who love and trust in God. Stay focused on Me, and the strength and courage, needed to sustain you in the days ahead, will be there.

Ruth Ann: Yes, Lord

Jesus: Now, I know you have much to do today, and your weekend is extremely busy. Do all you do with love of your Jesus in your heart, and it will shine forth and touch all who are in your presence. This is God's gift to you for your obedience to His will.

Ruth Ann: Thank You, Lord.

Message of Feb. 3, 1994, from Our Lord Jesus

Ruth Ann: Lord, I keep hearing people talk about horrible things to come, predictions that are for the immediate future, I mean in a few short months. Why have I not been told these things that others seem to know?

Jesus: Little one, be at peace. You have been told those things God would have you know. He has much for you to do, little one, be not afraid.

Ruth Ann: Lord, it's not that I am afraid, at least not for me.

Jesus: Child, if more of My children would focus on the main thrust of the messages, they would realize that, yes, the world is in a mess, and yes, it's going to take much prayer and the grace of God to clean up this mess. Little one, the world is in need of a purification before your Jesus can return to the earth. My coming is eminent, little one. All has been set in motion, but there is much to be done before this can come about. There must be a cleansing. My children are in need of drastic measures to bring them back on the right path and away from the ways of the world. Many are being brought back through those such as you, willing to set your life aside in order to save others.

Ruth Ann: But Lord, my life is Yours. I have no right to usurp Your authority over my life. You gave me life, and are free to take it as You wish. You are also free to do with it as You see fit.

Jesus: Little one, that is because you have turned your will over to Mine. You have said, "Thy will be done."

Ruth Ann: Lord, the motives are selfish. You keep saying over and over You want us to do Your will and not ours. Who am I to say 'no' to You? If it is to gain me eternal salvation, and You have said it will, then I am not about to say 'no'. There are times when I think, 'What have I done? There is no turning back'. But that is only temporary. If I can help You save only one soul, then that is one that will pray for me after that soul reaches heaven. My motives are probably not completely pure, Lord. I want to gain heaven.

Jesus: Little one, you make me smile. You think you are being 'tough' and you have a heart of gold. I know you, little one. Because you have sinned, you have a difficult time seeing past your sins. You have been forgiven for your sins, and yes, you will sin again and again, because you are not perfect and will never be so until you are with Me, but you have come a long way. Many who know you, and realize what you have given up, have seen the change in you. Not many would have made such a commitment on faith alone, child. You and your husband have given up your jobs, your home, your farm, your lives, for Me. What faith, little one! You are doing these things because you have been asked to do them by Me and by My Mother. You have trusted that We will care for you, and you have no doubts that We will. What faith! How you fill My heart with joy, little one.

Ruth Ann: It, my faith that is, has come from You, Lord. You placed me where I was to grow up and You have molded me. I take no credit.

Lord, someone asked me about earning heaven. I know I am changing the subject, but could You elaborate on that?

Jesus: Little one, of course My children earn heaven. Why do you think there are the Ten Commandments? The right to heaven has been earned by My death on the cross, but you, too, must participate in gaining your eternal reward. It is not just handed to you because you have been baptized a Christian, or because you go to church. There is much more to it than that. Faith without works does not give you all you would hope for. You have been told to love your neighbors, but that does not mean just in your heart. You must take it a step farther. You must care for the needs of your neighbor and not wish to do them harm. You are told to love God, but loving is not enough. You must show your love for Me by being willing to do what is required of you. So yes, child, the right to heaven has been earned by My death on the cross, but you must pick up your cross, whatever it may be, and follow Me. In this way you earn, or gain heaven.

Ruth Ann: Thank You, Lord, for expanding on that particular point.

Jesus: Little one, live each day at a time. Do not look to the future. As I have said, God has much for you to do. Listen and be obedient to what He would have you do. Your ministry will continue to grow and reach out to many. Through your faith and sacrifices, many souls will be healed and brought back to God. Continue on this journey of faith, little one, knowing full well I am with you until the end.

Ruth Ann: Thank You, Lord.

Message of Nov. 24, 1993, from Our Lady to Prayer Groups

My Dear Children,

Blessed are they who do not see and still believe. It is beautiful to see the faith and trust of My children who continue to pray for all those in need because I have asked them to do so. My many messages that continue to call you to trust and have faith, have been taken to heart by all of you here. I bless you for this, dear children, and will continue to send graces and blessings to all My children who have responded to My call. Your faith, trust, and love, acts as a catalyst to all those with whom you come in contact. The love you have for My Son is evident in all that you say and do. Let it continue to be so, little children, so that those who are in great need of prayer and faith will be strengthened by your example. My protective mantle surrounds you. My love and prayers I join with you. Go in God's peace.

Activities at the Retreat Center in March:

Over the first weekend of March, we began the month with our usual First Saturday Devotions, as well as welcoming a CHRP (Christ Renews His Parish) men's group from St. Pius X Catholic Church in Indianapolis for a two-day retreat. The talks for both events were given by Fr. Matthias Sasko, FI. The following weekend, March 10-12, a women's group came for a weekend retreat led by Fr. Christian Raab, OSB. Then on Saturday, March 18, we were excited to welcome Deacon Ed Walker, who was just ordained a deacon for the Diocese of Evansville in August of 2022, for a Lenten Day of Reflection titled "The Creed: Understanding What We Profess." On March 21, the Archdiocese of Indianapolis held their Presbyteral Lenten Day of Prayer, for which we were blessed to welcome 43 priests of the Archdiocese, as well as Archbishop Charles Thompson, here at the Retreat Center. On March 23 a group of homeschooling families, including about 50 children, came for a one-day retreat. Then, on March 24-25, we welcomed an RCIA group from St. John the Evangelist Catholic Church in Indianapolis for a two-day retreat led by Fr. Rick Nagel.

As usual, we also saw many individuals come and stay at the Retreat Center during the month for a private retreat, or while receiving spiritual direction from one of the Friars.
