Activities at the Retreat Center in February:

On Saturday, February 5th, we began the month with our usual First Saturday Devotions. This month we were joined by a group who came for a day of reflection on the Flame of Love movement, which took place in conjunction with the usual First Saturday Devotions. Over the second weekend of February, a women's group from the Diocese of Evansville came for a 3-day retreat with talks given by Deby Sansone Schlapprizzi. Then, on the following weekend, we welcomed a small group for a retreat on the Spiritual Exercises of St. Ignatius, given by Fr. Ignatius Manfredonia, one of the Franciscan Friars of the Immaculate stationed here.

During the month we were also blessed to welcome a number of individuals who came and stayed at the Guesthouse for a private retreat, or while visiting the Friars for spiritual direction, including a seminarian from the Archdiocese of Cincinnati who came for a week-long private retreat.
