Activities at the Retreat Center in March:

Over the first weekend of the month, we welcomed a CHRP men's group to the Retreat Center for a retreat led by Fr. Ignatius Manfredonia, FI. This retreat took place alongside our regular First Saturday devotions. On March 19th, the Solemnity of St. Joseph, a Day of Reflection took place which was led by Fr. Todd Goodson, a priest of the Archdiocese of Indianapolis, with conferences on the topic "Praying With St. Joseph." The following Saturday, a group of several choir members from St. John the Evangelist Parish in Indianapolis came with their choir director for a one-day retreat. Then, on March 29, we were blessed to have nearly 50 priests attend the Presbyteral Lenten Day of Prayer for the Archdiocese of Indianapolis, which took place here at the Retreat Center.

Finally, the month of March also saw several individuals who came to the retreat center and stayed overnight in the Guesthouse while attending a private retreat or receiving spiritual direction from the Friars, as well as two Dominican Sisters from Nashville who stayed at the Retreat Center while doing ministry work at St. Paul's Catholic Center in Bloomington.
