
“TO JESUS THROUGH MARY”

Lessons and Messages to the World from Jesus and the Blessed Virgin Mary to Ruth Ann Wade of Bloomington, Indiana

Compiled by Mary's Children, P. O. Box 27, Washington, IN 47501 - January 2023

Message of Nov. 28, 1993, from Our Lord Jesus

Ruth Ann: Lord, I'm here, ready to listen.

Jesus: I am grateful, little one. There is much that needs to be said. So many of My children are choosing to ignore the signs being given to them. They choose to hide their heads in the sand. There is a reason for this, however. It is because if they acknowledge that they are living in the 'end times', they will have to change their lives. It will mean, in most instances, that whole lifestyles will have to be changed in order for a true conversion to take place. You and your husband have already experienced that. You have said many times, your life has been 'turned upside down'.

Ruth Ann: It is true, Lord. We have had to make time for things we never dreamed of, and then on top of that, we try to pray as much as possible. It seems any more, when my mind is free, I'm finding myself in prayer for someone.

Jesus: Little one, I have said that I am to become the focus of your entire life, and you are to be consumed with the desire to pray more and more.

Ruth Ann: Well, Lord, I think You've gotten me there. I seem to be consumed with wanting to help with all the needs of others. There is so much pain and suffering, Lord, and Your Mother keeps calling us to prayer. I know it's necessary, just as I know something of tremendous importance is about to happen, or You would not be talking with me. I am no one, and don't deserve this kind of attention from You or Your Mother.

Jesus: All of My children deserve the opportunity to save their immortal soul, and you are wrong to say that you are 'no one'. At the moment of conception, when God breathed life into your immortal soul, you were someone. You are a soul ready to begin its journey back to God. That is why all life is so important. Each individual life is important. Each gift of life has a purpose to fulfill on its journey back to the One Who is its Creator. Each soul has a purpose. God has a perfect plan. He does not place children upon the earth for no reason. He is not man, who does things on whims, or because he feels like it. All life has purpose. That is why the despicable crime of abortion is so against all that God stands for. You cannot be a true Christian and believe that you have the right, as a human being, to take a life, no matter what the circumstances. Man can rationalize all he wants, but murder is murder.

There are groups who work to protect the rights of animals, and to stop the mistreatment of animals. This is a good thing, for God wishes these gifts given to man to be treated with kindness and goodness. If it is important to protect the animals of the world, put here for man's proper use, then how much more important is it to protect the life of the unborn? Life is life, from the moment of conception until the last breath is taken, and that life returns to Me Who has created it.

Man can rationalize, make excuses, say they have the right to destroy life, but your life is not your own. Your life belongs to God. Why do you think it is so important to do His will? That's your purpose for being given life. Many say they didn't ask to be born. This is true. God has made that choice for you. He has created you, and He wants to see you live your life doing good deeds, fulfilling your purpose for being given this gift of life.

You cannot rationalize murder. Many are horrified when a small child is murdered or abused in any way, as they should be, but these same people think nothing of destroying a tiny baby inside the one protective shelter of its mother's womb. If they had to hear the cries of the unborn as they are being torn to shreds, as My Mother and I do, they would think twice about the horrendous crimes that are being made in the name of democracy, of change, of freedom. There is no freedom in a country where life has no value.

Darkness consumes your land, little one, and those who are thriving on this darkness are not even aware of it. Satan has taken over your land. The spiritual war between good and evil is in progress, and evil is at its peak, little one. Everywhere you turn there are crimes of all sorts. No one is safe from the destruction that is going on around them, and rightly so. You have let evil have the upper hand.

It is time, little one, for all to put their lives in order. It is time to set aside the evil desires of the world, and turn back to God. Seek the face of God and live. Those of you who are heeding My words, and the words of My Mother, are being given time to listen and prepare. Those who ignore these warnings, it will be their loss. All should live each day prepared to meet their Maker. You know not the day or the hour of My Second Coming. Prepare while there is still time to do so. Turn your lives around and live as God would have you live.

I have said this many times, and I am wasting My time and yours in many cases. But if each time I speak these words, only one soul hears and begins the journey back to Me, then all you are doing is of great importance. Listen, and share what I am saying, little one. My Mother and I will do the rest.

Ruth Ann: Yes, Lord. I love You.

*Message of April 8, 1994,
from Our Lord Jesus*

Ruth Ann: Thank You, Lord, You tend to my every need, no matter how small.

Jesus: Little one, it is because of your complete turning of your life and will over to Me. You will continue to see Me work in your life in all ways. When My children trust and have such faith in Me, how can I not produce? I am continually reminding My children of this, and they must learn that this is something I mean. Trust, have faith, and I will see that your faith is rewarded. Not only in little things, but in big things as well.

My children have lost this faith that was so much a part of their life as a child. Society has a way of destroying this childlike faith. Man, in following the ways of the evil one, destroys and tarnishes everything that he touches. God wishes only good things for His children; and His children, because of greed and hunger for power and all that is not holy, continue to ruin his life and the lives of those around him. If only My children would learn to give their lives over to Me and do the will of the Father by not following the ways of the evil one, life could be peaceful. But no, man cannot be satisfied with what he has. He continually wants more and more, no matter what the cost, no matter who is hurt in the process. Man always wants what he cannot have, or what he should not have.

You notice every little thing I do for you, little one. That is because you have given everything to Me, even your sorrow and pain. If all My children were such as you, I could continue to work miracles in their lives just as well, but some are so blinded by their own selfishness and greed, they would not even notice.

Ruth Ann: Lord, there have been times I did not notice. It's just that my life has changed so drastically that I can't help but notice all You do for me. You and Your Mother are continually blessing me.

Jesus: Your faith and trust in Me will be rewarded, little one. Know I am with you.

Ruth Ann: Thank You, Lord.

Message of Feb. 17, 1993, from Our Lady to Prayer Groups

My Dear Children,

May the peace of Christ surround you and become the very essence of your life. I am calling you to prayer and sacrifice, so you can obtain this peace. The times in which you are living are most difficult. Darkness is everywhere, and so many of My children are unaware of this darkness. They feel unrest and dissatisfaction in their lives and do not realize the reason for this. This unrest is not of God. God is a God of peace, love, and joy. Continue to pray and seek this peace. I want all God's children to have this peace and so does He. Listen to and live My messages. My protective mantle surrounds you.

*Message of July 7, 1993,
from Our Lady*

Ruth Ann: Mother, You had much to tell me yesterday, and I had nothing to write with at the time. You said You would repeat it for me. Is this a good time for You to do so?

Our Lady: Child, of course. I will speak of all I have addressed earlier.

Ruth Ann: Thank You, Mother.

Our Lady: Child, it is so important for you to listen to all We are saying so you can share Our words with others.

Ruth Ann: A lot of what You told me yesterday was of a personal nature.

Our Lady: Yes, but most of it had to do with the farm and its future use, did it not?

Ruth Ann: Yes, Mother.

Our Lady: The things you are being told child, are of God. I have told you before, this place would become a shrine to Me and My Son. Now you are beginning to see just how this is to come about. There will be a retreat house here, and it will be manned by retired priests. This too, will come about. You continue to be amazed, but remember, God can do all things, and for those who love Him, and are called to His plan, all works out for good. They will know them by their fruits. You must not concern yourself with those who have chosen the wrong path. All men have a free will. Man can choose to do the will of God, or the will of the one who has control over the earth. Some find it easier to do those things they wish to do. Easier, is not always the way of truth and life.

Ruth Ann: I have found that out.

Our Lady: You have expressed a concern that your life is so intense with all that is happening, and your concern with the hurts and needs of others, that you do not laugh any more.

Ruth Ann: Mother, I didn't realize how intense my life had become until I went to my class reunion, and a couple of my classmates who sat across from me at dinner, had me in stitches most of the dinner. It felt good to laugh and act normal for a change.

Our Lady: You are right child, in realizing your life has become intense, as you say. The way of the cross is just that. There are more tears and suffering than reasons for laughter and joy. Soon you will have a reason for laughter and joy. The birth of your grandson will bring much joy to your family. There is nothing like a baby to bring smiles and laughter to minds and hearts of all those participating in the great gift of love God has for His children. Babies are so very special. Babies used to be considered a blessing from God. Now in a society of materialism, they have become a curse to many. So much so, they destroy life without concern. How My heart bleeds for My children who have chosen to believe they have the right to kill an unborn baby. Life is life from the moment of conception to the time of delivery. That tiny human being has, and is, life. No one has the right to take away that life but the One Who gave it, God. Man has so much to be sorry for. Man must repent of these horrendous crimes against the love of God.

Ruth Ann: I am sorry about all the abortions that are being done. We continue to pray for an end.

Our Lady: Pray too, for God's mercy on all those who continue to believe that it is not a moral issue. They hide their heads in the sand. Soon they will face God, and then it will be too late to be sorry for the crimes they have committed against God and His little ones.

Ruth Ann: I am grateful for our grandchildren.

Our Lady: Many children have health problems that will never be corrected. But even those children have a purpose in God's plan. Through some children who are handicapped, God touches hearts and conversions take place. God's plans are perfect, as is His timing. All things fall into place when, and however God wishes. Man must be patient for God's plan to work. That is not always easy in a world where instant gratification is of the utmost importance. Child, there will be tears and pain ahead, but there will also be love and laughter. Where there are children, there will always be joy and laughter.

I know you have much to do today. I will speak to you about some of the other things I have told you at another time. Go in My Son's peace.

Ruth Ann: Thank You, Mother.

Message of Sept. 1, 1993, from Our Lord Jesus

Ruth Ann: Jesus, You have said if I would come up to the hill, You would see that I was alone so that You could speak with me. Is there any particular reason?

Jesus: Child, you had spoken of losing your peace, and not having quiet time. I am wanting to return it to you.

Ruth Ann: Thank You, Lord.

Jesus: Child, I am always with you. Why do you fret so, when you have a few minutes when your peace is destroyed or interrupted? All you need do, is take the time to speak with Me, and your peace will be returned.

Ruth Ann: Lord, I'm just human enough to look at all my confusion, busy schedule, and forget that You will come to my aid. I must learn to put You first at all times. I know and hear that Lord, but I don't always remember to do so. Forgive me, Lord.

Jesus: Child, you are forgiven. It is something that all of My children do. When something happens to upset them, they feel the need to solve the problem in their way. It would be so much easier if they would give the problem to Me and let Me take care of it, especially if it is a problem disruptive to their peace.

Child, I know this life is not easy. This is a time of darkness. The evil one is everywhere. He is at the height of his destructiveness. He will continue to maim, kill, and confuse My children. He will continue to tempt them with promises of success and riches, but none of these will bring peace to My children. That is because God is peace. He is not things. Until man realizes that God comes first, then all other things will fall into place. Family, friends, jobs, and so forth, will fall into the proper order.

My children continue to measure success by 'how big,' or 'how many.' These only cause more concern. The less you have, the less you are concerned about what you will lose. And children, the material things will be lost. In the end, nothing truly matters except your eternal soul. That is all there is, and should be, for you to be concerned about.

God loves you so much, little child, and He wants you to receive and keep the peace that is only of Him. That can only come from putting Him first and doing His will. That really should not be so difficult, but it is, for so many. Love of this earthly life and all its comforts far outweigh love of God. Sad, isn't it? The very One Who is responsible for all man has, has been forgotten and ignored. Society and the media have surely done a good job at destroying the values that used to be the center of each home in America. God first. Prayer. Now, these are something to be ashamed of or mocked. Satan has surely done the job he has set out to do. He has destroyed the very backbone of your country.

Without a backbone, it makes it very difficult to stand. Child, what I am saying, not many are standing. Not many have a backbone that will allow them to take a stand for anything of moral or spiritual value. Isn't that sad? I am depending more and more on those of My children who are listening, to carry the cross of conviction.

It is important for those of My children who have been touched by God in some way, to share and make known that He is working in your life. My Mother comes to many, and continues to cry out to come back to Her Son. Leave the world behind and all of its corruption. Many hear the call, and ignore it, little one. No one really wants to be considered different. No one wants to acknowledge to others the wonders and mercy of God's love. Many are called. Many are given miracles, signs, and wonders. Many are healed in so many ways, and they are grateful for a time, but after a while they too, take My love and miracles for granted.

Ruth Ann: Lord, I'm guilty of what You are saying. I don't find it easy, exclaiming Your greatness. I sometimes forget to thank You for all the wonderful things You have done in my life. Please continue to help me be whatever You want me to be, and do whatever You want me to do. I sometimes forget to focus on You, Lord. I forget to live one day at a time. The whole picture begins to worry me. I begin to be concerned about some of the messages I have received about carrying Your cross.

Jesus: Child, you are not to look to the future, and worry is not of Me. Look to your Jesus and continue to follow the will of My Father. In doing so, you will not lose your peace. Many prayers are being said for you and your family, so that when all begins to unfold, sufficient graces will be available for all that God is to have you do. You are not to concern yourself about things you have no control over. God will continue to shower you with graces. Many miracles will be evident in your life daily, through those sent to you and those sent to this holy place of peace and prayer. Be not afraid, little one. God is with you. You will do much for Him, but you will be given much in return. Now, go in My peace.

Ruth Ann: Yes, Lord. Thank You for restoring my peace. I love You.

Jesus: I love you, little one.

*Message of April 6, 1994,
from Our Lady*

Ruth Ann: Mother, Your message this morning was quite strong.

Our Lady: Child, how else am I to get the attention of My children? I have given them many messages and yet they continue to seek more. If they would only live the simple messages of love and peace they have been given from the start, no other messages would be necessary. Prayer is the answer to all the problems and turmoil of your world. Why do My children not see that? My Son has lived and died for you. He has set the supreme example of sacrifice and love for all of His children to follow. Many ignore what has been done for them. Through My Son's passion and death on the cross, man's sins have been forgiven. All man need do is repent of his sins and come to the foot of the cross.

I continue to call out to all of My children through those who will listen. I ask them to please pray, fast, and do penance. I ask them to return to their churches and receive the sacraments. Through signs and wonders, in special places chosen by God, I continue to give blessings and graces to those who gather to pray. You, My child, have been asked to lay hands on those who wish to have prayer. This you do, out of obedience to the will of God. Many hearts have been touched by this. Through your talks and sharing of these words said to you by Me and My Son, many more have been touched.

There is still so much to do. Many are being called to pray and some are listening, while some do not. It will be their loss, child. I can only do so much. I can plead, warn, and give graces and signs, but I cannot save those who are not willing to be saved. That is where your prayers come in. You must pray for the conversions of those who do not seek a true conversion. Ask God to touch and break open even the hardest of hearts, so all of His children can experience His peace through a deeper love and peace for Him Who is the Creator of all things.

Pray for these conversions. Time is running out, and still so many of My children have not experienced a true conversion. Man must mend his ways. He cannot continue to harm, hurt, maim, and take lives of the innocent. This country is no longer an example of good moral and Christian values as it once was. It has turned to the one of darkness. It has sold its soul to the one who is in charge of moral decay. Through all of the warnings down through the years, My children have turned a deaf ear. Man has continued to think that these warnings are for others. In times past, this might have been so, but man does not have to be a genius to know that this country has become a pit of disgust! The disregard for human life in itself is enough to cause the anger of God to wish to destroy this nation, and that is not all that has brought on the darkness that covers your land. Pornography destroys the innocence of My children. Through this, and abuse of all kinds, the morals have become less than that of animals. At least animals stay with their own kind and reproduce according to the laws of nature.

Ruth Ann: Mother, I have never heard You speak this way.

Our Lady: Child, the world continues on its merry way destroying all the good that God has put forth. How long, as a parent, would you stand by and watch your own children do these things to each other, and those around them, before you as a parent would step in and do something drastic to stop them from harming themselves and others?

Ruth Ann: I understand Mother.

Our Lady: Do you? Do you really understand what I am saying? Will anyone really understand the importance of this message? They will look to other messages for times or some specific sign when God is going to strike with a heavy hand all those who deliberately turn their back on Him. My children have become lax. They no longer find My messages enough to draw them to devout and daily prayer. Their prayers are like everything else in their lives, superficial.

Ruth Ann: Mother, that is not true of all Your children. There are many prayerful people.

Our Lady: I need many who will take My messages seriously. I need many who will willingly turn their lives over to God so that His anger with the human race can be appeased. I have been allowed to minister to His children in a mighty way, and have been able to draw others such as you to Him, so that you, too, can minister to His people. The time is short, child, and the laborers are few. Pray, dear child, that more and more will be converted and brought closer and closer to My Son before it is too late. Many disasters await your country. My heart aches for the innocent. Pray, dear children, pray that God's mercy will not be denied to those who ask. Man has literally destroyed himself and all that is sacred by turning to the ways of the world and away from God. Pray for conversions!

Ruth Ann: Mother, are You sure this message is from You? I have never heard You speak with such concern before.

Our Lady: Child, I am the Mother of Jesus, the Daughter of the Father, and the Spouse of the Holy Spirit. I have done the will of the Father and continue to bow down to Him Who has created the universe. You must also do His will and draw others to prayer and away from the world.

Ruth Ann: I can only do this with Your help and the help of God.

Our Lady: The help you will need to bring about many conversions is to come soon. Your cross will become extremely heavy, My little child, but God will see that you have many 'Simon's' to help you along your path to Calvary. Listen, be obedient, and pray. Go in My Son's peace. My love is with you.

*Message of July 7, 1993
from Our Lady to Prayer Groups*

My Dear Children,

How I thank you for the many prayers you are sending to Heaven for all those in need. As your Mother, I wish to tell you there are many who do not realize they have totally removed God from their lives. In His place, they have idols. The media has brainwashed society into believing that money, fame, prestige, and careers, are the things one should strive for. Therefore, there is no time for the One who gave man all these things. Without God, man has, and is, nothing. Dear children, pray that man's heart is touched before it is too late. Pray for conversions. Go in God's peace to love and serve the One who has created you.

*Message of Aug. 10, 1994,
from Our Lady*

Ruth Ann: Mother, do You wish to add anything in addition to the message?

Our Lady: Child, My children need to listen to the messages already being given. Many say they are repetitious, but how do you teach little ones, except by repeating what you wish for them to learn and take to their heart? I repeat over and over, and still many do not listen, and those who are listening do not take the messages to heart and live them. Only a few are taking anything being said, seriously. So many souls are in danger of being lost, and still they do not listen. What must I do to have My children take the messages to heart? I can only offer the gift of Life. I cannot force it upon those who choose not to accept it. Much prayer and sacrifice are needed by My children who are listening.

Ruth Ann: In looking around, Mother, I truly feel this is a lost cause. The world is in such a mess, and most people do not even realize there is a real problem here, or that prayer can change things.

Our Lady: You are right in one sense child, many ignore there is a problem, because if they choose to believe there is a problem, then they must also choose to know there is a solution. All problems must be solved. The solution to this problem is simple, turn back to God. What is so sad, many would say they haven't turned away from Him. They think they are being faithful to God by attending Mass on Sundays. Those same people go out all week and do not give God a second thought, or His commandment to love Him and your neighbor. It takes more than one hour a week spent in a church, to save your soul. Granted, it is better than nothing, but there is much more to be done.

Pray, My children, for hearts to be touched and broken open, so that each of God's children are aware of Him every waking moment, in the sunrise, the flowers, the trees, the rain, the wind, and the animals. All things come from God. Little ones' lives are being destroyed because no one values all God has created. Nature, life, there is no respect for either. Man pollutes and destroys the very earth on which he lives. He destroys the very air he breathes, and life is no longer respected. Children are abused, maimed, and killed all over the world. Why? Because man has put God out of his life as the Giver of these gifts. He instead says, it is man's choice to destroy life in any form or stage of existence. Sad, but true, child, the world has, and continues to turn it's back on the very Author and Creator of all that is seen and unseen to those who live on this earth.

More concern is given over the loss of a historical landmark than over the murder of an innocent victim. I am speaking of the unborn children who continue to be slaughtered, in the name of it being best for that life not to exist. Who has chosen to make that decision? Certainly not the child, and certainly not the Creator of all life. No, it is through greed, selfishness, and all that is unholy, that these decisions are made. Your world has much to answer for, because so many stand back and allow these things to take place, without so much as a whimper of protest from those of you who know this is wrong. There is so much to be done child, and so little time in which to do it.

I am in need of many to pray, and take to heart the messages being given at this time of crisis in your world. It is time for man to sit up and take notice, and do something about all those things he can change. Those things he can't change must be bombarded with prayer and sacrifice. Why do My children not listen? Why do they not realize the seriousness with which I come to this earth? I would not be here speaking to so many, if what I am saying was not so important. Listen, and take to heart, the words being spoken to you. Recognize that the only hope for your world is through prayer. Listen, and heed the word of God.

Activities at the Retreat Center in November:

This past November was a quieter month than normal for us here at the Retreat Center. We began the month with our typical First Saturday Devotions on November 5th, with a Rosary Procession, followed by a Marian talk, which was given by Fr. Matthias, one of the Franciscan Friars of the Immaculate who was just recently stationed at the friary here, and concluding with Holy Mass. Aside from this, we were blessed to welcome a priest who came from Ohio for a five day retreat, as well as a number of individuals who came and stayed in the Guesthouse for a private retreat, or while receiving spiritual direction from one of the friars.
