
“TO JESUS THROUGH MARY”

Lessons and Messages to the World from Jesus and the Blessed Virgin Mary to Ruth Ann Wade of Bloomington, Indiana

Compiled by Mary's Children, P. O. Box 27, Washington, IN 47501 - November 2023

Message of Oct. 22, 1994, from Our Lady

Ruth Ann: Mother, do You wish to speak to me?

Our Lady: Child, your Jesus has said all that needs to be said. You must stay focused on Him. He is your hope and salvation. He is Love, Hope, and Peace. My children continue to walk in a world where there is no light. The darkness is all around them, and if they do not focus on My Son, Who is the Light and Hope of salvation, they will be lost in this darkness.

I have come to lead My children out of this darkness, and into the Light that is My Son. Many refuse to listen, and this is causing them to continue on a path that leads to destruction. I have come to lead them and guide them, but I cannot make the choice needed in order for them to achieve the peace they desire. If they choose God, and all He stands for, there will be peace in man's heart, even though there may not be peace in the world around him. My children must realize that it is God's peace they seek. They try to find solace in the things of the world, and it cannot be found in material things. Greed and lust are common among you.

There is much sorrow in My Heart for those of My children not listening to the word of God, brought to this earth by His Mother. I can only do so much. I am allowed by God to do all that I am doing, but the time will come when what I am doing will no longer be allowed. I have come to assist you, and bring you back to My Jesus. You must listen, and follow the will of God for you. Be at peace with one another, and love God above all things. I am your Mother. Listen, and be obedient to your Father in Heaven. He loves you, and wishes your souls to be saved. My mantle surrounds you. Go in God's peace.

Ruth Ann: Thank You, Mother, for speaking with me.

Our Lady: I do so that you may share what I am saying to those of My children who are willing to listen.

Ruth Ann: It is done, Mother.
Message of June 26, 1993, from Our Lord Jesus

Ruth Ann: What a week, Lord. There have been too many things going on. School has been out since the 8th of June, and I'm still waiting for vacation to start. I have had no time to just sit and read Your word. We are busy from sunup to sundown.

Jesus: You are making time for Me in other ways little one, in ministering to My children, attending Mass and Communion, and making little sacrifices, you are making time for Me. These are things My children do not realize. I too, was kept busy in the times of My ministering to God's people, and at times would feel overwhelmed. At those times I would withdraw for a few days to have quiet time alone with My Father. This too, is possible for you to do, is it not?

Ruth Ann: Yes, Lord. My husband and I have spoken of spending a couple of days at St. Meinrad. I've never been, and Jim said he felt it would be a nice quiet place to pray, rest, and regroup.

Jesus: That would be a good place for you to go. When you are ready, you should do so. Little one, you do not seem to be at peace with the decision you have made. Why?

Ruth Ann: Lord, it seems no matter what decision I make about anything, I'm always afraid of making someone feel bad.

Jesus: You are concerned because you have said you would attend your class reunion, and now you feel too busy to do so.

Ruth Ann: Yes Lord, that is true.

Jesus: It is not a requirement for you to do, you know. You can send a note to those in charge explaining your situation. They will understand. Is there anything else you need help with today?

Ruth Ann: Lord, yes, but I know that all things will fall into place now that I have those things off my mind. Thank You for your help.

Jesus: Bring your concerns to Me, no matter how small. I am here to help you, as I am here for all My children.

Ruth Ann: Thank You, thank You for the confirmation on the Sunday message from Your Mother. I was rather disappointed Sunday when no one came forward with the confirmation at that time. Then last night, at a friend's house, someone said that her friend had had a vision of Our Lady moving from person to person, touching people in a crowd. It was a large crowd and she didn't know where it was. She was given the vision after Mass, in the town where she was visiting, during the same time of the prayer group on the farm. That's pretty amazing, Lord. The best part was that You reassured me again. Thank You. There are so many little things You do to reaffirm my faith and trust in You, Lord. I truly do appreciate them. I know that You are going to attend to all my needs and the needs of my children. I just need to learn more patience.

Jesus: Patience is a very difficult thing for all of My children. It is not only you who have difficulty with this virtue. All of My children expect answers to their prayers immediately, and I have said before, all things must fall into place, so that all My children's prayers may be answered.

It is important that God's plan not fail. God's plan is perfect, so it is important that the things man does, does not interfere with what I have in mind for him. Only I know what is good for My children. My main concern is for the salvation of each soul. In order for all these things to come about, it is important that man pray, and listen, then he cannot go wrong. To do My Father's will, is to be assured that God's plan will be accomplished. Waiting for God's plan to fall into place, is where so many of My children fall short. They become impatient and begin to do their own will. This some-times causes My plan to take even longer than it would have ordinarily. Many stumble about blindly, as a child in the dark, instead of sitting quietly waiting to be led to the light by the words of their loving Father. But that is the way of man since the beginning of time. Man wishes to be in control, and causes himself so much pain. All man needs to do is give his problems to Me and I will care for him. You have seen this over and over, have you not?

Ruth Ann: Yes Lord, and I have You talking to me, and I still need to be reminded.

Jesus: At this time, I am reminding My other children, they must first seek the will of My Father and do it. Then all things will fall into place.

Ruth Ann: It sounds so simple, Lord.

Jesus: It is child. It takes time, and patience, and faith, and trust in God. Then I can do My work. And it is Me who does all the work. Man seems to think he has become what he is, on his own. Man can do nothing without the help and grace of the One who created him.

Ruth Ann: I realize this now too, Lord. I was also guilty of all the things of which You are accusing Your children. I remember a time, after our last child was born, and I became very ill. I went to church after being diagnosed with what the doctors called irregular cells, or precancerous cells, and during the time in church, I prayed to You that my husband could not possibly raise three children, three very small babies, alone, and that if You would make me well, then You could do with me as You wished, if You would just let me raise our children. Little did I know what I was saying at that time.

Jesus: Little one, I do remember. But I would have done what I am doing with your life, no matter what you would have said. It just helps you to realize that God does listen to prayer. Had it been better for My plan to have taken you then, I would have done so. It was not to be child. It was My will that you were not to be brought home at that particular time. It was not your will or your pleading, but My will that was done, and it will continue to be so. I know what is best. Just be patient, listen, and trust, that what I want for you and all of My children, is the will of My Father. It will bring you true and lasting happiness, something you can never accomplish here on the earth.

Ruth Ann: This I believe, Lord. Now I must go if I am to have things ready by the time people come for the prayer group today.

Jesus: Go in My peace, child.

*Message of Nov. 9, 1994,
from Our Lady to Prayer Groups*

My Dear Children,

Be at peace with one another. God is watching over you. The times are difficult, but remember, God can take all things and use them for good. You must pray for strength and courage to accept those things over which you have no control. The unrest you are experiencing in your world is not caused by God. He is a God of love and peace. Man continues to hurt one another by playing into the hands of one who is very subtle. Do not allow yourselves to be used in this way, little children. Love one another, and find forgiveness in your heart for those who do you harm. God loves you, and I love you. Go in His peace.

*Message of Nov. 9, 1994,
from Our Lady
After the prayer group message*

Ruth Ann: Mother, You are right. The times are very difficult right now, and our peace is being disturbed. Please be with us.

Our Lady: Child, I am here. You need not feel abandoned. God is a God of love, but He is also a God of justice. You must not concern yourself with the 'whys'. But know that even those things that happen in your world, caused by evil, can be used for the good of those who love and trust in Him. I wish for you to have peace, but in your world, it is difficult to find peace. Turmoil continues to disturb and take you away from all that is good and holy. Focus on My Son. Accept this cross, and know that you are not to carry it alone. The evil one is persistent, and will do all he can to bring unrest, hatred, and confusion into your world. This does not have to remain.

Give all to God. Place those things, over which you have no control, at the foot of the Cross. Give your hurts and burdens to One Who loves you. God's Son has carried the ultimate burden. You too, are asked to follow in His footsteps, but you are not to carry these burdens alone. Just as God's Son had Simon to help with the cross He carried, you too, will be provided with help in the carrying of your cross.

I am your Mother, here to help you, as you walk this difficult path. You cannot see the big picture, little children. Good will triumph over evil. Those who harm the least of My chosen ones, will have much for which to answer. It is not for you to wish harm to those who hurt you. Vengeance is Mine, sayeth the Lord'. Be at peace, and bask in the warmth and love of My Son Jesus. He is Light, Love, and Peace. Much prayer is needed, but know in your heart, God will tend to all things in His way and in His time. Do not allow the evil one to destroy the peace in your heart, so necessary for the salvation of your souls.

I give you My Motherly blessing. Know I am praying with you through these troubled times. Seek peace, little children. I am with you. You must pray.

*Message of April 3, 1993, from Our
Lord Jesus*

Ruth Ann: Lord, is there anything You wish to say to me today?

Jesus: Little one, I am always here to speak with you. It is you who must listen.

Ruth Ann: I am not feeling very well today, Lord. It has been a really busy week, and the weekend is not any less busy. There is no time to rest, Lord.

Jesus: Child, you must take time to rest. Just as you must eat, sleep, and drink, to live in your physical body, so too, you must have rest. The time is coming soon that you will have time to rest and pray.

Ruth Ann: Lord, our summers are just as busy as our school year any more.

Jesus: It is because you so choose.

Ruth Ann: That is true. It is time spent with the family and doing things that involve the church. I do have more time to pray then.

Jesus: Child, there is much ahead for you. Do not feel the burden is too heavy for you. There will be those sent into your life to lighten the burden. You are feeling so burdened by the pain and suffering of all the world. Child, it is as God wishes, you have taken the pain upon yourself for the sins of others. The suffering of others is so devastating to you. It is to be so, child. Otherwise, you would not be able to do what God is to ask of you. If you felt all was right with God's children, would you feel this urgent need to help?

Ruth Ann: No, Lord. You are right, though. At this point I don't feel like I'm doing enough, and wish I could do more to help.

Jesus: This is God's way of preparing you for what is to come. As you see the need to help God do His work here on earth, it will become easier for you to say 'yes' to whatever He asks you to do. The 'yes' is the easy part though, child. It is the cross that will be very difficult for you. The burden will be great, little one, but as I have said many times before, you will have little miracles along the way daily, to encourage you and brighten each day. Also, there are others being sent into your life to lighten the burden along the way.

Child, your cross is just beginning. You have only seen the tip of the iceberg, so to speak. God has so much for you to do that you cannot begin to realize the magnitude of your mission. The statue is in place, the miracles have begun that have been told to you. Every revelation spoken to you on the hill in Medjugorje will come to pass, even the messages you chose not to write.

Ruth Ann: And that was, Lord?

Jesus: The message My Mother gave to you in answer to a question you asked.

Ruth Ann: And that question was?

Jesus: You asked if you were going to be completely healed.

Ruth Ann: You are right, Lord.

Jesus: Do you remember her answer?

Ruth Ann: Yes I do, Lord. She said, "Child, you will be completely healed, and then you will be asked to carry a cross." I didn't understand it at the time and I didn't feel it was important. Now I'm beginning to realize it probably was the most important part of the message.

Jesus: Child, it has never left your mind. You have known it in your spirit, that something was coming for you that was not the usual crosses and problems to deal with, as others. You are child-like in your faith, but you are very perceptive in all that is going on around you.

Remember in Medjugorje, when all were speaking of peace, and you were seeing Satan everywhere you turned and feeling his presence very overpowering? It was so overpowering, you asked your husband to please get you away from there. You needed to go home so you could pray.

Ruth Ann: Yes Lord, I remember. I also remember seeing all the demons of hell all over my room, intertwined among and around each other. On the wall, ceilings, like worms used for fish bait. I was truly frightened and used holy water and prayed. My husband held me, I was so scared. At the time I didn't realize why I was being shown this, but now I do. It was a premonition of what was about to happen, was it Lord?

Jesus: Child, it was to help you realize the need for much prayer. Satan had already 'inched' his way into a place that was made special by the appearance of the purest of the pure, My Mother. He, through others, was already infiltrating the very depths of the purpose of the pilgrims, to find God's peace in a world that has so little peace.

Your sensitive spirit, heart, and mind, perceived what was all around you. Now, you are feeling this same darkness in your own country. Your little farm, this Haven of Peace and Prayer, is going to be a refuge for many who cannot find peace in their own world.

Be not afraid concerning the mechanics of this. It is all being taken care of. You have said 'yes', and God must put into play all that is necessary for your 'yes' to be fruitful upon the earth.

Now child, I know you are tired and have much to do. Go in My peace.

Ruth Ann: Lord, thank You for this peace. I love You.

Jesus: Child, I know this to be true. Remember, I can see your very soul. I know your heart. Your love for Me can never outdo My love for you. Know this, little child of God. Convey this to all My children. No matter how much they love Me, their Creator, it is nothing in comparison to My love for My children.

Ruth Ann: Most already know this, Lord. But it will be in the messages for them to read, and I will tell them in my talks.

Jesus: Do this child, it is very important. They must know these words and feel them in their heart. No matter how sinful man has been, or is, God loves you. These are the most important words of all My messages. It is the very focus of why My Mother is here.

Ruth Ann: I will remember, Lord.

Jesus: I love you, little child of God, and I bless your day.

*Message of April 8, 1994,
from Our Lord Jesus*

Ruth Ann: Thank You, Lord, You tend to my every need, no matter how small.

Jesus: Little one, it is because of your complete turning of your life and will over to Me. You will continue to see Me work in your life in all ways. When My children trust and have such faith in Me, how can I not produce? I am continually reminding My children of this, and they must learn that this is something I mean. Trust, have faith, and I will see that your faith is rewarded. Not only in little things, but in big things as well.

My children have lost this faith that was so much a part of their life as a child. Society has a way of destroying this childlike faith. Man, in following the ways of the evil one, destroys and tarnishes everything that he touches. God wishes only good things for His children; and His children, because of greed and hunger for power and all that is not holy, continue to ruin his life and the lives of those around him. If only My children would learn to give their lives over to Me and do the will of the Father by not following the ways of the evil one, life could be peaceful. But no, man cannot be satisfied with what he has. He continually wants more and more, no matter what the cost, no matter who is hurt in the process. Man always wants what he cannot have, or what he should not have.

You notice every little thing I do for you, little one. That is because you have given everything to Me, even your sorrow and pain. If all My children were such as you, I could continue to work miracles in their lives just as well, but some are so blinded by their own selfishness and greed, they would not even notice.

Ruth Ann: Lord, there have been times I did not notice. It's just that my life has changed so drastically that I can't help but notice all You do for me. You and Your Mother are continually blessing me.

Jesus: Your faith and trust in Me will be rewarded, little one. Know I am with you.

Ruth Ann: Thank You, Lord.

Message of October 16, 1994, from Our Lady to Prayer Groups

My Dear Children,

I thank you for gathering together to pray. Know I am here praying with you, and wish for all those things you hold dear to your heart to be realized. I ask that you pray, too, for My intentions. Satan continues to wreak havoc upon the earth, and wishes to destroy all those things of which I am working so hard. Much prayer and sacrifices are needed, little children.

I love you, and God loves you, but you must realize that with love comes responsibility. That responsibility, little children, is what I am feeling for you and your soul. I have come to show you the way to save your soul, and yet many of you insist on following your will, and not the will of God. You cannot have two gods and save your soul. Be at peace with one another, and hear the words I am saying to you. Your souls are My greatest concern. Listen, and live the words being spoken to you. They are words that have been spoken by My Son when He was here on the earth, and now they are being repeated by Me, your Mother.

My Mother's mantle surrounds you. You must pray and be attentive to all that is being made known to you. I am here for you to assist you in your prayers, and your journey back to My Son. I cannot stress enough the seriousness of what I am saying to all of you. The time is now that you should choose God and His mercy, and turn away from all those things that hold you back from doing His will.

Message of Nov. 20, 1994, from Our Lady to Prayer Groups

My Dear Children,

I wish to thank you for gathering together in prayer. 'Be it done to Me according to Thy word'. These words were spoken by Me to God the Father many years ago. Now it is time for these words to be repeated. God has allowed Me to come to the earth to minister to His children to draw them away from the world and back to His Son. He has allowed Me to speak to, and through, many of His chosen ones. Soon the messages you have been receiving here will cease. I must decrease and My Son must increase.

I have come to point the way to My Son. Those of you who have listened and taken to heart the words being spoken to you, have been of great help to Me with your prayers. These prayers must continue. Many of My children are still in need of conversion. Many of My children feel that because they attend the church of their choice weekly, they are not in need of conversion. There is more to conversion than going to church. A true conversion comes when you have decided to follow Jesus, no matter what the price.

You were created by God for a reason. Many of you forget this. You were put on the earth to know, love, and serve God, and to be happy with Him in Heaven for all eternity. Many of you do not know God. Many do not love Him as your Supreme, Divine, Creator of all things. Many of you do not serve Him. How can that be? It is reflected in the way you treat one another. Love God and your neighbor as yourself for the love of God. It is the greatest of all commandments. These are not just words, dear children, these are a blueprint for your salvation.

The words I have spoken to you over and over, are words that have been spoken to you before. I have not been giving you any new revelations. God has been good to you. He loves you and wishes for you to find peace in your heart, lives, and world. Peace will not come to a world filled with hatred for one another. Change your hearts. Find forgiveness in your hearts for all those who do you harm. Love one another. Be at peace with one another. Then, and only then, can a true conversion begin in your heart. I wish this peace for you. God wishes this peace for you. Pray, dear children, for God's mercy to be given out in abundance to all those who choose to ignore Him and blatantly flaunt their sinfulness in His face.

God is a God of mercy, but He is also a God of justice. As any good parent should do, He must discipline those who continue to live their lives doing only those things that are bringing them pleasure, and ignoring the feelings of others. In using your free will, many of you have made choices, not for God, but instead you have chosen to live your lives according to the world. Your world is full of evil. It is full of darkness. You must choose to live your lives following the example of His Son and My Son, Jesus. This is the supreme example put before you for your good. God loves you and I love you. You must pray!

Message of Nov. 20, 1994,

From Our Lady

Ruth Ann: Mother, the message was quite lengthy. You have said the messages are to end. I was expecting a short message to begin preparing us for the removal of the messages.

Our Lady: These things needed to be said, child. Many who will be here today, and those who will read these words later, will realize the seriousness which I intend to convey in this message, and the messages that are forthcoming. The time will come when My children will no longer have these words put before them. They will be at a loss, for many have lived for the messages, and not lived the messages. It is time for them to begin living the words that have been spoken to them from Heaven. If My children would only take to heart the words being spoken, they would not be in torment. They would be at peace with their lives, and at peace with one another.

Man chose to ignore the words of My Son two thousand years ago, and man still continues to ignore these same words today. Man has chosen through his free will, the wrong choice. He chooses the way of the world, and finds himself farther and farther away from God. In choosing to follow the wrong path, he finds himself bogged down in the muck and mire of sin. Choose for God, little children. He can draw you out of this muck, mire, and darkness, and into the light. Then you will have peace in your hearts. With peace in your hearts, there can be peace in your world. This peace can only come from God, little children. Choose to do the will of the One Who created you. He wants only good things for you. Be at peace with what I am saying to you. Be at peace with one another.

Ruth Ann: Thank You, Mother, for these words.

Message of Dec. 7, 1994,
from Our Lady

Ruth Ann: Mother, when You said the words, "God, through your Mother, is holding out this special gift of Salvation to you," I was given a beautiful image of You holding out the Baby Jesus in both hands, with arms extended in front of You, as though You were giving Him to someone.

Our Lady: Child, that is what I have been doing, over and over, since His first appearance on the earth. I have continually offered Him to My children, over and over again, and will continue to do so until I will no longer be allowed. I wish for all souls to be saved. I want all souls to know the beauty of God's love. The gift of His Son as a human sacrifice, for the forgiveness of their sins, was the ultimate Sacrifice from your loving Father. This supreme Sacrifice has brought you the light and hope needed in a world of darkness. My Son suffered and died for you, My little children, and I too, suffered His Passion and Death. As each one of you accepts this cross you must bear, know that at the end of carrying this cross, is the hope of life eternal.

Yes, I have held out the gift of My tiny Son to you, but wrapped in the beautiful gift of a tiny Babe, is hope for mankind. Hold onto this hope. Take My Son, and hold Him to your heart. This special gift of love awaits you. You need only reach out your hand, and let Me place Him there for you to hold. Accept Him, and find the peace, love, and hope He brings to a troubled world.

Fr. Elias Mary, a Nebraska native, began his discernment to the priesthood and religious life before his graduation from Kearney State College where he majored in Mathematics and minored in Computer Science. There he spent two years in formation as a Carmelite, being professed in 1986. As a volunteer with the Conventual Franciscans at Marytown, he learned about St. Maximilian Kolbe and Total Consecration to the Immaculata. He entered into his seminary formation at Holy Apostles Seminary in Cromwell, CT. During this time, he was introduced to the Franciscans of the Immaculate, who had just arrived at Holy Apostles. Fr. Elias would join the F.I. in 1993 and make his Final Profession in September, 1999. In December, 1999 he was ordained a Deacon in Castelpetroso, Italy. During the Jubilee Year of 2000, Fr. Elias, as a deacon, served in the sacristy of Santa Maria Maggiore in Rome. Later that year, on May 27, Fr. Elias was ordained a priest by Bishop Fabian Bruskewitz in Lincoln, Nebraska. In his extensive travels as a missionary priest, Fr. Elias served the Friars' mission in Western Australia for three years, as well as the F.I. Friary in Griswold, CT, and then traveled back to Castelpetroso, Italy. He was then assigned serving nine years as Father Guardian and Retreat Program Director at the Mother of the Redeemer Retreat Center in Bloomington, Indiana. In December 2016 - August 2021, Fr. Elias served at the Shrine of Our Lady of Guadalupe in La Crosse, Wisconsin as Rector of the Shrine Church. Fr. Elias' passion and love for Our Lady is undaunted, as can be seen and heard in his many retreat talks and homilies.

Activities at the Retreat Center in September:

The month of September began with our usual First Saturday Devotions: Confessions, a Rosary Procession, Holy Mass, and a Meditation given by Fr. Matthias, FI, on “Praying the Holy Rosary Daily.” The following weekend, September 8th-10th, we welcomed a men’s group from Our Lady of Lourdes Parish in Indianapolis for a weekend retreat led by Fr. Jim Ferrell. Then on September 15th-17th, Fr. Simon Felix, one of the Dominican Friars stationed at the Newman Center here in Bloomington, came to lead a weekend retreat titled “Joyful Living: The Nine Rules for Joy in Your Life.” And then the following weekend, September 22nd-24th, the MIM (Mission of the Immaculate Mediatrix; the lay branch of the Franciscans of the Immaculate) chapter here in Bloomington held their annual retreat, with Fr. Jacinto, FI as the Retreat Master.

Finally, as normal, we also had many individuals come for a private retreat. This month we saw a particularly large number of people who had never been to the retreat center before come and stay with us, including two priests, both of them originally from Nigeria but currently studying in the U.S., who came for a week-long retreat together, one coming all the way from Alaska, and the other from Florida.
