Message of Nov. 12, 1993, from Our Lady

Ruth Ann: Mother.

Our Lady: Yes, child.

Ruth Ann: It seems I have been so busy, again I haven't taken time to speak with You for awhile.

Our Lady: You have spoken with My Son. That is much more important. You have also been praying the rosary and attending Mass and receiving the Body and Blood of My Son, Jesus. These things are of great importance.

Ruth Ann: Yes, I have been doing those things, but I get to feeling bad when I haven't written down our conversations.

Our Lady: You speak to Me throughout the day, and you have been told you do not have to record all that I am saying to you. Personal conversations are for you, child.

Ruth Ann: Thank You Mother, it's just that sometimes I get to feeling like I am not writing enough.

Our Lady: It is those times, then, that you should speak to Me and write what I say, then you will not have those feelings.

Ruth Ann: I understand.

Our Lady: Many of My children speak to Me and ask for certain favors, and I continue to intercede for them to My Son. Sometimes He does not answer their prayers in the way they would have them answered, but He is listening, and He is answering all prayers. Their prayers are being answered and they give Him very little credit, if any. They are very quick to criticize My Son when they think their prayers are not being answered, or if they have not had their prayers answered quickly enough, or in the way they want. Only God knows the big plan, so only He knows how and when a prayer is to be answered. God's time is not your time, child. This is something all of God's children have difficulty with. This is the way of the world. Each one wants instant answers, instant healings, a 'quick fix' to all their hurts, worries, and concerns.

Again, I am telling you, My Son suffered and died for man. He has done much in order to guarantee eternal salvation for all of God's children. Man then, cannot expect everything handed to him without some sacrifice on his own. You have the right to eternal salvation, but it is not being handed to you, it must be earned. It is through prayer and sacrifice that this great reward will be given to you.

When Jesus said, "You must pick up your cross and follow Me," that is exactly what He meant. Sometimes some crosses are heavier than others, and this too, has a purpose, but all men have a cross to bear. You can ask for help, and it will be given to you. You will not have to carry your cross alone or without help, but you are expected to carry it. Patience, love, prayer, and a willingness to do the will of God is needed as you journey through life. It is true that times are more difficult, and the crosses become more difficult to bear, but keep your eyes focused on My Son. He is the way, the light, and the truth.

The world has become a place of darkness, fear, and confusion. It is run by the one who loves for man to experience anxiety and to lose hope. Then, you look around you and hear all the evils of the world. It is difficult to bear. Do not lose hope, My children. Continue to pray for light and peace. Continue to pray for those in high places who continue to make wrong decisions that are not for the good of this nation, or other nations. Darkness covers the world. Your country is beginning to suffer the pains that have been experienced by other countries, and this will continue. It is because My children have turned their back on God. He has had enough. Now, He is letting them know Who is truly in charge.

It is too bad that My warnings have been in vain in many cases. I will continue to warn My children, and draw as many to Me and My Son as I can possibly do. It is up to My children to listen, and follow what I am saying. I am only repeating to My children what God would have Me say. I am only giving graces for those whom He would have Me give graces to at this time. It is up to My children to listen and be willing to accept the crosses and blessings that God sees fit to deliver through Me. I am here to help God's children. This I am willing to do, and have been allowed to do down through the ages.

The time is coming, though, when this will not be the case. I am telling My children, now is the time for conversions and sacrifices. Now is the time to live the messages, pray from the heart, and know that your prayers are being answered in God's way and in God's time. Share what I have said with My children, child. Remind them of the importance of My messages.

Ruth Ann: It is written, so it will be shared.

Our Lady: Tell them, too, that it is important that they thank God when a prayer has been answered. They must not ignore His generosity and kindness. They must not take His love for granted.

Ruth Ann: Yes, Mother.

Our Lady: I love all My children so much. If only they would listen to what I am saying, and be obedient children. Many choose to ignore what is being said by those who are given gifts such as you have. It is easier to say, "That person isn't really receiving messages from Heaven," and in that way, man can ignore and walk away. It is as Pilate has done to My Son, Jesus. Pilate washed his hands to free himself from guilt, but it was only an action. Pilate still had to answer to God for what he had done. So too, will My children have to do, who have heard the word of God, and ignored what He is saying, and has said. They have been told. It is up to those who have been told, to receive the words and take them to heart, or ignore and walk away. The responsibility of one's actions rests on each individual, and each individual will be judged accordingly.

Thank you for listening and sharing, child. You are doing your part. It is up to those who hear to do their part.

Ruth Ann: Thank You for Your love and concern, Mother.

*Message of May 12, 1993,
from Our Lady to Prayer Group*

My Dear Children,

I am again coming to you to encourage you to pray. Look to My Son for answers He is the way, the truth and the light. All things come from Him who waits to be asked. Children, ask and you shall receive, know this in your hearts. Many of you are growing impatient with God because He is not answering your prayers in the way you wish, or He is not giving you the answers quick enough that you so desire. Know dear children, every prayer is heard and answered in God's time and in His way. Do not be discouraged, your prayers and all those of others are being heard. I bless you and all your dear ones. Go in God's peace.

Message of June 21, 1994, from Our Lord Jesus

Ruth Ann: Lord, I need encouraging words. I always feel so foolish and humiliated after giving a talk or praying with lots of people. You know I really don't like having to do this. Since I feel this way about this, is this really something You want me to do?

Jesus: Little one, why do you suppose you feel this way? Even if I hadn't asked you to do these things, can you find it said anywhere that it is wrong to witness of God's good works to those around you? So, is it wrong to pray with those in need of prayer? You know both things are good, both are of Me, so if you are feeling to the contrary, you must realize that the evil one is trying to make you feel foolish and humiliated, because what you are doing is of Me. He would have you feel this way in hopes it will discourage you from continuing what I want you to do. Realize, little one, that it will get more and more difficult as your ministry grows, because Satan and all his cohorts wishes to stop you.

It is difficult for My children to stand steadfast and witness. It is difficult to pray with others when you feel you are so unworthy to be standing in for Me. Know, child, this is what I am calling you to do. Be at peace with this, little one. You are only an instrument. You need not be concerned about the 'why' or 'how'. Only be concerned about being obedient. You want so much for each person that you touch, that you forget it is My will, not your will that this be done. You have no control over what I choose for each person who walks in faith to receive the prayer and touch that comes from Me through you. You need only be obedient and do what I ask of you, little one.

My children need those of you who will listen and witness to the goodness and greatness of God's love and mercy, to be available to do His will. Please, little one, do so with love and faith. Trust in Me, little one. I would not have you do such as this, if there was not such a need in this day and age of darkness. The faith and trust of My children is waning, little one. So many wish to be in control, that they have forgotten God is the giver of all gifts, including their lives, that they waste so foolishly on frivolity.

Little one, I know you have these feelings of unworthiness, and wish that someone else would do this, but child, it is you whom I have chosen for this task. Your cross is feeling very heavy for you today. I see and feel it in your heart. Therefore I'm telling you, give it to Me, and I will carry this burden for you until you have the strength to again pick it up and follow in My footsteps.

Ruth Ann: Lord, You have enough to carry. I am so sorry I am putting this burden before You today, but I really don't know what else to do.

Jesus: Little one, have I not said this to all My children, "When life gets too burdensome, come to the foot of the cross and place these burdens there. Come to Me, and I will give you rest." I do not wish for My children to carry more than they are able, so therefore, until you feel stronger and more at peace with what I am calling you to do, let Me help you with this burden.

Ruth Ann: You know this is making me feel guilty, Lord. You do so much for me, why is it so difficult for me to do these things for You?

Jesus: There are many reasons, little one. This is not commonplace in your world today. Witnessing and laying on of the hands is something done in the times of My coming and ministering to God's people. Now it is being revived in preparation for My Second Coming. God is ministering to His people through those whom He has chosen. Those who are listening and being obedient are being used to pour forth His Holy Spirit. Be grateful you are being called to be of help to those who are in need of God's peace. Be pleased that lives are being touched because you have been given this grace. Do not allow the evil one to degrade and bring you down.

Be at peace, little one. Know that because you have said 'yes', and continue to say 'yes', others are having burdens lifted from their hearts, minds, and souls. Their burdens become lighter as yours becomes heavier. You do not understand the importance of all you are doing. You do not choose to, and you do not wish to. This is to your credit.

Ruth Ann: Lord, no, it is because I do not wish to deal with it. I do these things because this is what You ask of me. I wish to be obedient. I wish no credit. If I could, I would run away, just as the apostles did at the time of Your passion and death on the cross. It's that I feel I have no choice, I would feel so guilty if I walked away. On the other hand, I feel so stupid and unworthy because I don't walk away. I feel like I'm caught between a rock and a hard place, as the saying goes.

Jesus: Little one, you have a free will. Many choose to walk away. Many are called, and few are chosen. You have been tested through time. God knows your heart. Need I say more?

Ruth Ann: No, Lord, I do feel better. Thank You for helping me with this cross, and thank You for sending so many people into our lives to help us with all that needs to be done here on the farm.

Jesus: God has chosen you and your family to help with the needs of His children through prayer, the farm, and your witnessing. He will not leave you to tend to the mechanics of all that is needed to be done in order to accomplish His good works through you. Be at peace, little one. God loves you. He will tend to all of your needs. You need only be obedient and share all these gifts He has given you with others.

Ruth Ann: Yes, Lord, I hear You. Please help me to be strong, help me to do Your will and not let my humanness get in the way of Your desire for me and Your people.

Jesus: Continue to listen and be obedient. I will tend to all of the rest.

Message of January 12, 1994,
from Our Lady to Prayer Groups

My Dear Children,

Seek and you shall find, knock and the door shall be opened unto you, ask and you shall receive. How many times have you heard these words. God wants to answer your prayers, dear children. He gives you every opportunity to come to Him for all your needs. He is available to you twenty-four hours a day. It is you who must make time for Him. It is you who must come to Him who loves you, and ask for all He has in abundance to give you. I am here to help you in any way I can, but I am only an instrument of God sent here to draw you back to the light which is My Son. I am here to intercede for you. I am here to dispense graces and blessings during these times of darkness. My messages are the same messages of old. Prepare the way of the Lord. It is time for His Second Coming. Dear children, we know not the day or the hour. Will you be ready? Pray, pray and prepare for the coming of My Son. My mantle continues to surround you and your dear ones. Love He who is My Son and your Redeemer. Go in His peace.

Message of January 24, 1994, from Our Lord Jesus

Ruth Ann: Lord, I thank You again for seeing me through another talk. You are truly amazing. You did it all. Thank You, thank You, thank You!

Jesus: You had been told it would go well and the graces and blessings would be poured out in abundance.

Ruth Ann: Lord, I could feel the power surge through me over and over, and out into the people receiving prayer. You were magnificent!

Jesus: Little one, each person who came to you in faith for prayer, can expect a miracle. I gave many healings and blessings last night to My people, and I thank you, little one, for ministering to them. I thank you for being a willing vessel and allowing yourself to be used in such a way.

Ruth Ann: Lord, even with this peace and joy, there is sadness in my heart.

Jesus: Yes little one, and I understand. You do not understand why there is such a need for those such as you to minister to My people.

Ruth Ann: No, I truly don't, Lord. Can things really be so bad on the earth that You need such as me to boost the faith of others?

Jesus: Yes little one, things are bad. Many are leaving their churches. Satan has 'done a number' on your world, little one, right under your nose. The removal of many things that were extremely important as faith builders in your day has caused some to pull away. Others have been drawn away by laziness and lack of love for their God. Subtle things have been done on the earth, causing people to lose faith, faith in their God. Little children such as you are needed to remind your world just how far man has moved away from Me. Many eyes are being opened as to the causes, but it is too late for man to correct his horrendous errors. It is going to take the power of God to bring about a miraculous change in your world.

Pray, little child, that man will begin to awaken from this sleep of darkness that has covered your land, family, and even penetrated the holy places of worship. Pray for conversions. Be attentive to the signs, My children. Listen to what My Mother is telling you. Be obedient children and follow the rules set down for you by God in the Ten Commandments. Attend Mass and receive Communion as frequently as possible. Confess your sins. Fast and do penance. All of these are necessary to prepare you for what is to come. Times are not going to get easier. Much prayer is needed. Be attentive to God's words, little one. Continue to minister to My people. There is a great need and hunger for the words you are sharing. Your mission will only grow, child, because of your obedience to listen and share.

I bless you little one. Continue to do the will of God just as many others have done so before you. Go in My peace to love and serve God.

Message of August 25, 1993, from Our Lady to Prayer Group

My Dear Children,

God in His infinite wisdom and mercy is watching over you. He knows all your wants, needs, and desires. Do not become dis-couraged if your prayers are not answered immediately. God hears each and every prayer, and each one is answered. It will be done so in His time. It is important that you know this and hold it in your heart. God's plan is perfect. He answers all prayers in His way, and in His time. You cannot comprehend the goodness of God because you think in human terms. You want your prayers answered now and in your way. Know that God has the best interests of His children at heart. He will tend to your every need. Pray, dear children, pray. God will do the rest. Go in the peace of My Son, Jesus. My blessing I give to you and your dear ones

Message of March 5, 1994, from Our Lord Jesus

Ruth Ann: Lord, would You speak with me?

Jesus: I am here, little one. You are concerned about one of the messages which you have received.

Ruth Ann: Yes, Lord. These things I have been told have not upset my spirit, but how can they be real?

Jesus: Little one, I have told you that I would ask you to carry My cross. Many times before, I have told you this. You have had confirmations that you have asked for, and still you doubt.

Ruth Ann: I do not consider myself worthy, Lord.

Jesus: It is not for you to decide who is and who is not worthy of these things planned by God. Only He has that right. Much of what has happened in your life, you do not understand. It is not for man to understand. God is a God of mystery. If you knew and under-stood all that God knows, then you would have no need for Him. Man is totally dependent on God and His love and mercy. Whenever man truly realizes that, then He can experience true conversion. In the meantime, be content that God loves you, and is patiently waiting for all His children to turn their lives over to Him so He can do many wonderful things for them.

You are not to understand all that is going on, child. You are to listen, share, and be obedient to all that God is asking of you. Live each day to the fullest, and enjoy this time with your family. Know there is much more to come, and this time given to you at the present time, has been your respite. It is soon to come to an end, little one, then you will be much busier than you have ever been before. I am not saying this to frighten you. I am telling you these things to prepare you for what is to come.

Ruth Ann: Lord, I am not frightened. Sometimes I get a little frustrated, and wonder how in the world I ever got into all of this. Whatever did I do to deserve this? Why can't I be like other people, and go about my days being good, saying my prayers, receiving the Sacraments, being a good wife, mother, grandmother, and teacher? Why did my life have to become so complicated? I'm a simple person, Lord. I really don't, and didn't, want much out of life, except to be a good person and eventually join You in Heaven.

Jesus: For some this is adequate, child, but for those who have said 'yes' to the will of God, He has other plans. You are one of these.

Ruth Ann: Then I should have been a man, so I would have been a priest, Lord. The people who come to me are hurting. I don't mean just physically, I mean spiritually. They need counseling and absolution.

Jesus: Little one, have I not told you that as you touch these children of Mine, I have My hand upon you? You are My hands blessing those who come to you for prayer. You are My instrument, child. You cannot do the work of a priest, that is true, and that will never be, but you can give My children peace and healings of all kinds. This will cause them to seek out their priests. This will, in some cases, bring My little ones back to the Sacraments. The Lord works in mysterious ways, His wonders to perform. I have told you to minister to My children. I will tend to their needs. You be obedient. I will do the rest.

Little one, God can do all things. You are not to limit Him or judge what He is doing by your standards. He is the One with the divine plan. It is important that His children know this and give their lives over to Him, so He can work in their lives. 'Thy will be done'. These words said by My Mother many years ago, brought about a change in the world beyond belief. That simple gift of faith and trust in God changed the history of mankind. It brought Me into the world to live and die for the sins of man, so man could merit the rewards of Heaven. Those down through the years who have said 'yes' to the will of God, have brought about a change in the lives and hearts of others. You have been chosen to be one of those, child, by your simple 'yes' to God's will for you.

Now, you must be patient. Know that I am God and can do all things. I, too, have done the will of My Father. Though the road was difficult, I would not change anything that I did. Because it is through My suffering and death on the cross that I have given God's children the gift of eternal life, if they so choose. Your 'yes' to the will of God will bring many to the foot of the cross. Many who would otherwise be lost, will find their way back to Me. My Mother has brought you to Me, and now you too, will share in what She was sent here to do, care for God's children. Let them know how much God loves them. Share the many blessings and miracles He has done, and will continue to do, in your life. Minister to My people, child. I will tend to the rest.

Go in My peace, little one. Know I am with you in all you say and do.

Ruth Ann: I love You, Lord.

Jesus: I love you, little one.

A Surprising Story of How One Couple Found God's Presence and Healing Power Through the Farm Water

By John Shaughnessy. Reprinted with permission of the Criterion Newspaper.

Eric Johnson's atheist co-worker insisted that what happened to Johnson was simply a case of mind over matter.

Johnson insists that what happened to him is a definite sign of God's presence and healing power.

"I had a neuromuscular disease for 7 ½ years," begins Johnson, a member of Our Lady of Perpetual Help Parish in New Albany. "I was told that it was a permanent disability. 'As the symptoms developed, I started losing physical abilities. I had pain and twitching in my legs and feet 24 hours a day. I also would lose control of my hips, knees and ankles. I would go down the steps in my house once in the morning and walk or crawl up the steps once in the evening. Some days, I crawled up the stairs on my hands and knees, using my arms to pull me up each step.'"

The symptoms progressed to the point that he used an electric scooter when he was in a store, and he reluctantly relied on an elevator and a cane to get around the factory where he worked. "After falling down steps and stumbling down the hallways at work, I decided to start using a cane."

Then came the moment during a spring break vacation in 2017—on March 25—that started to change everything for him. As Johnson arrived at Hilton Head, S.C., with his wife Darbi, their two sons and their sons' two friends, he was greeted by a couple as he prepared to enter the condo they had rented. Noticing that his sons were both wearing Purdue University shirts, the woman asked Johnson if his family was from Indiana. When he said yes, she said the same was true about her and her husband. She also told him that since they had been there for six months and were leaving soon, he should stop by their condo later because they had a lot of food that Johnson's family could have because it would go to waste otherwise. Once inside their condo, Johnson told his wife that the couple was nice, but he wasn't going to take their food.

"We changed into swimsuits and went to the beach," recalls Johnson, a 1984 graduate of Father Thomas Scecina Memorial High School in Indianapolis. "I had my son carry my beach chair. As we got to the sand, Darbi had to help hold me up because even with my cane I was having trouble stabilizing my legs on the sand."

"After several hours, we returned to our condo and noticed a note on the door with a list of food. I told Darbi, 'Now we have to go meet this couple.' Ronnie and Joe Jachim loaded two boxes with food, and my kids and their friends took the boxes back to our condo."

That's when Ronnie asked Johnson an unusual question. A surprising question "Do you believe in miracles?" Ronnie asked. "I said yes," Johnson recalls. "She told me that she wanted to share with me some water that has been associated with miracles. At that moment, I felt a strong presence of God." Ronnie asked if I took medicine daily. I said yes. She said, 'Drink this water with your medicine each day, but before you drink it ask Mary, the mother of Jesus, to pray for you and ask God for healing.' "That night, I asked Mary to pray for me and asked God for healing. The next morning, Darbi and I went to 8 o'clock Mass at Holy Family Church. After Mass, I saw a shrine to Mary across the parking lot and asked Darbi to go over there and pray with me. I do not recall how long we prayed, maybe 15 to 30 minutes."

Soon, the beach called to the couple, and this time Johnson noticed a difference in himself as he approached the sand. "I told Darbi that she did not need to help me walk in the sand because I could feel that my legs were getting stronger," he says, recalling that moment when he still relied on his cane. "My wife was reading Harry Potter books, and I continued praying all day as I sat in a chair near the shoreline and watched and listened to the waves crash on the beach."

That evening when they went to dinner, Johnson walked from the parking lot to the restaurant, forgetting that he had left his cane in its usual place in the front seat. "Monday morning, I said, 'I no longer need this cane,' " Johnson recalls. "I grabbed my own beach chair and walked on the sand without a cane. Each day, I sat and enjoyed the waves as I prayed all day. I prayed for healing at first, but as I gained strength in my legs and the pain and twitching subsided, I began thanking God for healing me and thanking Mary for praying for me." "I told him there is a God who loves him" Each day of that week, Johnson says, he grew stronger. "Darbi and I started taking longer and longer walks on the beach. On Thursday, we went to Savannah [Georgia]. I was walking faster than Darbi and faster than my sons, Nathan and Noah. I thanked God all day. I walked 6.6 miles that day with no twitching, no pain, no loss of joint control, no paralysis. I felt so good. "On Friday, Darbi and I rode bikes down the beach. We rode inland and saw alligators and birds. We rode to Holy Family Church, where we stopped at the shrine to Mary and prayed. We rode bikes five miles that day. I had not been on a bike for 7 ½ years because I did not have strength in my legs to pedal a bike."

The physical transformation continued the following Monday when he returned to work. "I was walking fast up and down the hallway," he says. "I was stopped by co-workers. They asked me if I had surgery or if I was taking a new medicine. I have told at least 50 co-workers about my miracle, three of whom are atheists. One atheist interrupted me repeatedly while I described the events of my miracle and said it was mind over matter, that there is no God. "I told him there is a God that loves him." On April 8, 2017, the Johnsons visited the Indiana place where Ronnie Jachim had got the water that she gave to him—Mother of the Redeemer Retreat Center in Bloomington. The couple walked the path of the Stations of the Cross and attended Mass, where Johnson thanked God again for his healing.

Activities at the Retreat Center in January:

On January 6th the month began with our normal First Saturday devotions, including a talk given by Fr. John Lawrence, FI, on the Feast of Our Lady of the Pillar, which is a document Miracle that took place in Spain in the year 1640. Then, over the weekend of January 19th-21st, Fr. Elias Mary, FI came to give retreat on the Litany of Loreto. The retreat was very well attended, despite the snowy weekend!

As usual, we also welcomed many individuals who came throughout the month and stayed in the Guesthouse for private retreats. We were blessed to welcome a Franciscan Brother from Oldenburg, IN, who came for a week-long retreat, a Priest from the Diocese of Columbus who made a two-week retreat here, and also a return visitor who came all the way from Australia and spent 2 weeks with us while making a private retreat, and also doing much volunteer work around the Retreat Center.
