“St. Jacinta of Fatima; a Prophetess for our Times”

By: Fr. Jacinto Chapin F.I. June 13th– 15th Friday: 5pm – Sunday 10am

Fr. Jacinto grew up in northern Virginia and while attending Christendom College in Front Royal, discovered the Franciscans of the Immaculate, drawn particularly to the Marian Vow that our community made. He Joined the F.I. in 2001 and has served as delegate, vocation director, guardian, and novice master over the years. He enjoys reading, walking, being outdoors, sports, traveling and meeting people.

During this retreat, one will get to know more intimately the life of this young (non martyr) canonized saint and be inspired by her example of holiness, devotion to Mary’s Immaculate heart and the Rosary. Each retreatant will be introduced to her generosity in prayer, self sacrifice for the conversion of sinners, love for the Roman Pontiff, all in light of the revelations of Our Lady of Fatima’s appearances in Portugal.
