
“TO JESUS THROUGH MARY”

Lessons and Messages to the World from Jesus and the Blessed Virgin Mary to Ruth Ann Wade of Bloomington, Indiana

Compiled by Mary's Children, P. O. Box 27, Washington, IN 47501 - September 2025

Message of March 11, 1994,
from Our Lord Jesus
(Morning after arrival in Israel)

Ruth Ann: Lord, do You wish to speak with me?

Jesus: I am here, little one.

Ruth Ann: I am really tired, Lord, that was a very long flight, and it was difficult for me to get any rest.

Jesus: You are pleased to be in My land, are you not?

Ruth Ann: Yes, Lord, I am. As You have said before, it is a gift to me from You. I believe it.

Jesus: Enjoy your stay here, little one, and do not feel pressured to listen to Me or record what I have to say. This is your time to relax and enjoy My land. The land of My birth.

Ruth Ann: I certainly will take it all in, Lord. It is special to me. Thank You. Is there anything You would like to have me write down before I get on with this day?

Jesus: Child, be at peace with what is to come. Live one day at a time. Sufficient graces await you each day just for the asking. Don't hesitate to call on Me for anything and everything. You have much to do for Me in the days ahead. So child, know I am with you, and do not become overwhelmed. God does not ask of His children anything that is beyond their endurance. Be not afraid. These things that have been told to you in previous messages will be fulfilled, little one. God has

Mother of the Redeemer Farm

His hands upon you. You will begin to realize the magnitude of your mission very soon. But until then, be content to do all that is asked of you. Continue to be obedient and share all that is being told to you. Pray with those who seek your prayers. I am with you and will give healings and blessings to all My children through you.

As I have said to you before, the healings will be of My choosing, just as are the graces and blessings that are to be given to My children through you. There is much work to be done. The laborers are few. Many of My children still choose to deny the importance of the times. Many refuse to realize the signs being given are warnings to prepare them to open their hearts and receive the true gift of My Spirit. My Mother prays without ceasing. She works tirelessly, calling Her children to repentance. Pray for all the souls who will be lost if they do not come to the foot of My cross and ask for forgiveness of their sins.

You, child, have much to do, and you are being prepared for this difficult journey you must take in order to help Me save souls. You have done much, and yet it is only a tiny bit of what is to be asked of you in the very near future. Pray and prepare, little one. Your Jesus is coming, and when I do, your whole life will change. You will receive a complete healing, physically. But child, your cross will become heavier than it has ever been before. I am not telling this to you to alarm you.

Ruth Ann: I am not alarmed, Lord, or frightened. It's just that I am not worthy of such a gift.

Jesus: Little one, it is a special gift, and it is not without grave consequences. It will be a blessing, but a mixed blessing, because it will cause your work to become more and more intense. You say you are not worthy. Many of My chosen ones have felt this, but remember, this gift is not of your choosing. It is of God's choosing. So be vigilant and prepare, little one. Prepare to do the will of My Father as I have done before you.

Now go in My peace, little one. Know that I am God.

Ruth Ann: I love You, Lord.

Jesus: I love you, little one.

Message of April 20, 1994,
from Our Lady

Ruth Ann: Mother, will You speak with me?

Our Lady: Child, I am here for you.

Ruth Ann: My peace was truly disturbed yesterday, and the more I tried to stay calm, the more I was attacked and disturbed.

Our Lady: Child, do not hesitate to ask for prayer when it becomes too difficult for you to pray.

Ruth Ann: I don't want to burden others, Mother.

Our Lady: It is good to humble yourself before those who have had the desire to pray for you placed upon their hearts.

Ruth Ann: Yes, Mother, I will try to remember that. At the time my peace is being destroyed, asking for prayer is the farthest thing from my mind.

Mother, You do know there are those who are saying unkind things to those who come here to pray. There are things being yelled out by those who have no clue as to what's going on here?

Our Lady: Child, that is where you are wrong. It is because they do know what is going on that they say hateful things to My little ones. The evil one is angry, and he uses those who allow him to control their feelings of irritation, disgust, and even hatred. This is directed toward those who take time to worship God, or gather in great numbers to give honor to the Mother of Jesus.

Child, the letters you receive filled with anger and hatred, the words that will be thrown at you, are all part of the persecution. It will continue. As your ministry grows, you will be attacked. As time goes on, you will realize that those things are unimportant, and are only distractions to draw you away from the focus of your ministry. God has said, "Minister to My people." He did not add that it would be an easy task. It will not, and can never be easy. You have been chosen to tend to the needs of God's little ones who are searching for their way back to the light, love, and peace in a world filled with darkness, hatred, and turmoil. Anger and envy are commonplace in your world today. It is seldom one can find peace anywhere.

In this special place, there is peace. I am here, My Son is here. God has left His mark upon you and this land. Know that where there is good, there will also be those who wish to destroy this good. The evil one uses those around him willing to be maneuvered and manipulated to do his bidding. Be not afraid. Know, My little child, where there is persecution, that good things are happening. 'You will know them by their fruits'. Remember those words. You are producing good fruits through doing the will of God. This is not, and will never be, an easy task. When you take up the cross and follow My Son, you must expect the pain and suffering that goes with it.

Ruth Ann: I'm concerned for my family, and especially my little grandchildren.

Our Lady: All do and will understand the importance of your mission. They know that someone must take a stand for the values that were once the central focus for all in this country. God will supply them with graces necessary to be sustained. Stay focused, little child. Continue to listen and be obedient to the word of God. You have just finished a weekend of prayer and witnessing. The attacks are very strong because the evil one is angry. Many souls have been touched, child. Of that you can be sure. Otherwise, you would be left alone. There would be no attacks. The devil does not bother with those he already has. He attacks those who go against all that he stands for. He continually lashes out in anger at those who try to do the will of God.

He has a great disgust and hatred for you, child, but do not focus on this. Focus on the love of My Son. Focus on the goodness of God and all that He is allowing to happen through you and the sacrifices of your family. God loves you. I love you. We are pleased with all that you are doing. Do not be disturbed by the negative things around you that happen to disturb your peace. Concentrate on the good things that are happening to those who come here to pray. Concentrate on the graces, blessings, and miracles being poured out upon those God allows you to touch, not just in a physical way, but spiritually, through the messages and your giving of self to His children.

Now, child, go in the peace of My Son, Jesus. I have placed My protective mantle around you and those you love. I thank you for having said 'yes'.

Ruth Ann: Thank You for Your encouraging words, Mother.

Our Lady: Child, others too, will find peace in these words.

Message of May 2, 1994,
from Our Lady

Ruth Ann: Mother, I need Your help. This is a difficult week for me, and next week won't be much better. I have three talks in two weeks. You know my weaknesses. Take them to Your Son. I offer up all this pain, insecurity, and unworthiness for the poor souls in purgatory. Please accept this gift from a very sad heart.

Our Lady: Child, I am your Mother. Your gift is accepted in the light that it was given. This offering has come straight from your heart. May the knowledge that it is bestowing graces upon those who are in need, give you the peace which you seek. You are right. God does not ask us to do those things that are easy. My Son and I were perfect examples of that. He has called you to make a sacrifice and do penance to bring souls back to Him. This is part of your cross, child. All of these things you have been called to do have been difficult for you. Had you not done these things, think of all the lives that still would be waiting to receive that gift of faith and love of God that is so dominant in your life.

God is your focus. Heaven is your desire. You have not chosen God, but He has chosen you. Not just for Himself, but to draw others to Him through you. Remember how important it is to be a good influence in the lives of those around you. Through your example and your sharing of all God has done in your life, others too, have the faith to speak out and share what God has done in their life. Sharing this farm so others who love Me and My Son have a place to gather, share, and pray, is a special blessing to those who come; not only because those who come have a common bond, but because graces and blessings are poured out in great abundance to all those who come to this special place of peace and prayer.

You do not understand the full impact you have, and will have, in the molding and shaping of the lives of others, and their faith. But as time goes on, it will become more and more apparent to those around you.

Ruth Ann: Mother, Our Lord gave me a special anointing when I was in Jerusalem, at the Chapel of the Resurrection. He said it was to give me a resolve to go forth and witness on His behalf, no matter what was to come. I felt the anointing and felt strengthened. I really thought it meant that what I would be doing would become easier.

Our Lady: Child, everyone wants an easy way out. He did not mean it would become easier. He only meant that no matter how difficult it becomes for you, you will have the strength needed to go forth and be His witness. You did receive a special anointing, and it is doing exactly what the Lord intended it to do. You are going forth with a new resolve to do His will, and the strength will be there for you. No matter how difficult it seems to you, this will be so.

Word is spreading, child, that you have the courage to stand up and speak out concerning your faith. In a world that has learned to be uncomfortable in sharing their faith experiences, this is a bright light. Your courage to share your self, faith, and farm with others gives strength to those around you. It gives them a place to gather and give honor to Me, the Mother of God. This pleases God in great measure.

The angels gather on your farm, as do many of the saints, to assist you in your prayers. As you have already been told, We are here with you and those who gather here to pray. Many are allowed to see these graces and miracles. Those who do not are still given special graces through the peace found here on this farm.

I have told you that as your ministry grows, that your peace would be difficult to keep. You are experiencing this. It becomes more and more difficult to retain your peace. The evil one continues to attack you from all sides. Do not hesitate to ask others to pray with and for you. Yours is a great battle, and it has only begun.

Ruth Ann: Mother, I don't need to hear that, I need to hear positive things.

Our Lady: These are positive things you are hearing, little one of God. You suffer much for those around you, and still you ask for nothing for yourself. It is always for those around you that you are continually seeking favors.

Ruth Ann: You and Your Son have said, "You would tend to my needs," so I don't feel a need to ask for anything. All I really need is for You to see that those who are to hear my talks, come with an open heart, so You can give them the graces they need and the Holy Spirit can pour out whatever is needed for each person there. I always give my talks over to God so He can do whatever is needed. All I ask is that I share those words that need to be shared, and those that don't, block them from my heart and lips.

Our Lady: Child, that is doing the will of the Father. You have learned much more than you realize. Your peace has returned.

Ruth Ann: Thank You, Mother. Please be with me all day, and every day, to help me get through these times of sharing. I love You and need You so much. You're the only Mother I have now.

Our Lady: Be not afraid, My little child. I am here with you, and for you. I love you, little one of God.

Ruth Ann: I need a hug, Mother.

Our Lady: It is done.

Message of March 29, 1994,
from Our Lord Jesus

Ruth Ann: Lord, please send me your peace.

Jesus: Be not afraid little one, My peace I give to you. You have been upset by something that was given to you by someone.

Ruth Ann: Yes, Lord.

Jesus: Remember, child, that man sometimes means well, and yet can interfere in that which he should not.

Ruth Ann: Yes, Lord.

Jesus: Put all in proper prospective, child. Did you not get good news yesterday concerning someone you had prayed for who was very ill?

Ruth Ann: Yes, Lord, I did.

Jesus: Then would it not follow that you would be attacked in a mighty way as a result? The evil one is angry, little one. You continue to do My will and draw others closer and closer to Me and My Mother. You are continually witnessing to those around you by standing up and speaking out for Me and My Mother. You have stepped out in faith, little one. You will continue to be attacked. The more you do for Me, the more difficult the cross, the heavier it will be to bear. You are sensitive and have your feelings hurt easily. This is understandable. This too, can be offered up for others as a great sacrifice for their souls. Any pain, any persecution suffered for My sake reaps tremendous rewards, child, so carry your burdens and be brave. Trust in Me. Your burdens will never be too heavy, for I will always be with you as you follow My road to Calvary.

Not many understand the cross you must bear. If they did, they would do more. More to help and less to upset or hinder the process that has been set in motion. As time goes on much will be revealed to you that will help you understand better your part in God's great plan for the salvation of many souls. I have spoken of this to you before, little one. More is to come. You know this in your heart but do not wish to admit to this. This is fine. One day at a time is how I would have you live your life. Do not look back and do not look ahead. Know God is in control even though you are told much more is to come in doing the will of God, you must be patient and wait for God's plan to unfold.

You are not to know the future. That is not part of your gift. You are not to receive messages of doom and gloom for this is not your gift. You cannot change the plans that God has set in motion. You can lessen the pain and suffering through prayer, but you cannot change the future. That is where your gift comes in, little one, in stepping out in faith and sharing all God has done in your life, you are drawing others back to their faith. You are pulling many from the clutches of the evil one. You are a ray of light in a world full of darkness. You are light, love, and peace in a world that knows very little of these things. You are a reflection of Me, little one. This is what I expect of all My children.

When I have said you must look for Jesus in all My children, I mean you must look for the good in that person. I am in each one of My children. In some it is easier to see than in others. But I exist in all of My children in some degree. The evil one wishes to take away all of the good and leave the world in darkness. He continues to wreak havoc in a world that prefers evil over good. You, child, continue to stand firm and do all that is asked of you, even though at times, all seems so futile. Do not let the evil one discourage or bring you down, little one. The miracles will continue, and they will continue to grow. Your faith is deserving of such miracles.

As an apostle of Mine, you are expected to go forth and perform many miracles. Those of the body, mind, and soul. Draw My children back to Me. Those that would otherwise be lost to darkness forever, bring them to Me. Do whatever is asked of you, little one, and I will tend to the doubters and those who would do you harm. Come to Me all you who are heavy laden and I will give you rest.

Ruth Ann: Lord, I feel the need for rest from everything right now, even prayer, Lord.

Jesus: I understand your feelings, child, but you are in need of Me. Your daily prayers sometimes need to be put aside, and you need only quiet time to rest in Me. Read My word in the New Testament. Take a walk with Me in the quiet of the day. Remove the pressure of your routine and rest in Me today.

Ruth Ann: Thank You, Lord. I needed to hear that. I get so caught up in all I need to do, or feel I need to do.

Jesus: There are all kinds of prayer, little one. Enjoy a quiet walk and all the things that God has put here for man's pleasure can also be prayer. Now go in My peace. It has been restored, has it not?

Ruth Ann: Yes Lord. Thank You for Your divine patience and comfort.

Message of April 27, 1994,
from Our Lady

Ruth Ann: Mother, will You speak with me?

Our Lady: Child, I am your Mother. I am here.

Ruth Ann: I just need to hear Your quiet, calm voice.

Our Lady: Keep your peace. That is most important. Do not let the evil one cause you to lose this peace. When My Son was preaching God's word, He would have times when He would need to come to Me, because of the lack of acceptance and uncharitable remarks made to Him. The apostles sought the help of the Mother of Jesus many times when they would lose their peace. Child, I am here. God has granted Me this grace. He has allowed Me to walk among you and minister to His children. Come to Me. Ask Me to assist you in regaining and retaining the peace of My Son, Jesus.

You have an important job to do, child. It requires much strength, energy, and trust in your God. He would not expect so much of you if He did not think it possible for you to do these things. Do not let those around you distract you through their lack of peace. Listen when it is necessary, but give it all to God. You are not to be concerned about the mechanics of this ministry, child. You are to listen, be obedient, and share the word being told to you.

When someone comes to you seeking prayer, pray with them. You are not to be distracted by those who come to detain you with their concerns or the sins of others. They are not to detain you or keep you from ministering to others. If there are problems or concerns they wish to bring to your attention, they are to approach your husband. He will discern their needs. You have a specific mission at this time. It has been told to you over and over. Listen, be obedient and share. Pray for those requesting prayer. God will tend to the rest, as long as you do His will.

Ruth Ann: Thank You, Mother. You already make me feel better.

Our Lady: Child, tell those who come to you, you have nothing to do with the mechanics, and they have to take it up with your husband. He can put them in touch with someone that may be able to help them. You are not a counselor, so it is not even necessary for you to listen to the special problems of those for whom you pray. They, those who come for prayer, need only petition God from their hearts. They need not have their petitions said nor written to receive the graces, blessings, and healings they come seeking. They need only hold their needs and desires in their hearts. God knows each child's needs and will tend to it in His way and in His time. You need only touch each person as God has asked you to do. This is an act of obedience on your part. In your doing so, you act as a conduit from God to each of His children. You are an instrument being used to tend to the needs of His children. It is their faith and trust in Him that allows Him to work great blessings and wonders in their lives.

You are at peace, child. Keep this peace throughout the day. I give you My Motherly blessing and ask that you continue to minister to God's people as the need arises. Thank you for responding to this call from Heaven.

Ruth Ann: Thank You, Mother, for restoring my peace and explaining away some concerns.

Our Lady: It has been My pleasure to help you.

Message of May 4, 1994, from Our Lord Jesus

Ruth Ann: Lord, You and Your Mother have seen me through another talk. Continue to be with me. I have another talk coming up this weekend. Again, on the following weekend there will be another talk. Please give me the graces to sustain me in these hours of need.

Jesus: The graces are there for you, little one. The task that has been put before you is great, but the rewards are even greater. God has great plans for you, and He will not see those plans abandoned. The evil one will attempt all measures of torture and torment in order to discourage you, but you continue on, no matter what. Your 'yes' has meant 'yes', child, no matter how difficult the task that you must undertake. Just know, little one, that hearts are being touched and conversions are taking place. Otherwise the evil one would not try so hard to discourage you.

Ruth Ann: I know that, Lord, but at the time, it is difficult to put all in perspective and keep my calm and God's peace. Even with so many praying for me, the ordeal becomes overwhelming. I will continue to be obedient to Your will. Please continue to be patient with me, Lord.

Jesus: Little one, that is an easy request. You do not ask to be relieved of these trials and sufferings.

Ruth Ann: Lord, I figure if You want me to be relieved, You will do so. In the meantime, I offer all the mental anguish for those most in need of Your mercy, and the poor souls in purgatory who have no one to pray for them. How else can I make sacrifices? I've given You almost everything else.

Jesus: Little one, the great love you have for My children and for Me touches My heart deeply. Your life will not become easier, but you continue to carve out time for Me and time for prayer, for those who need prayer. You are carrying a heavy cross, little one, and it will become even heavier, and still you are not deterred from the will of God. If only all of My children had this faith and trust that you continue to exemplify.

Ruth Ann: Lord, please, I'm not perfect. I struggle, and am continually asking others to pray for me, just as You have told me to do. Otherwise I can't imagine how I would survive sometimes. If I struggle with lots of prayer, how in the world would I make it without others praying for me? That's a scary thought.

Jesus: You will always have those who are willing to support you in prayer. Just as I have sent others to support your farm in monetary ways so it can grow and flourish, so too, will I continue to see that there are those who will support you in prayer.

Ruth Ann: Help us get through the third weekend, Lord.

Jesus: My love and support are with all those who will be helping with this special weekend dedicated to the Mother of God. She, too, will see that all goes well.

Ruth Ann: Thank You, Lord.

Message of May 20, 1994, from Our Lord Jesus

Ruth Ann: Lord, I'm extremely tired. This has been a busy couple of weeks. It's been full of prayer and personal obligations. Please help me to get the rest I need, so I can do all I need to do.

Jesus: Little one, soon you will be given a respite. It will be brief, but you will have time to rest and pray.

Ruth Ann: Thank You, Lord, I will look forward to that. Is there anything You wish to say to me?

Jesus: Little one, you are in need of encouragement and I am here for you. You must realize that many hearts continue to be touched by your love and obedience. I thank you for your willingness to be an instrument through which I can work.

Ruth Ann: Lord, You are God. You don't need anyone or anything. You can do all things. You don't really need me.

Jesus: It is My choice, little one. I have chosen to work through the lowly and downtrodden since the beginning of time. It is through those willing to follow the demands placed upon them by My Father, that have been instrumental in bringing about change. Little one, you will have to admit, change is needed in your world today, much change is needed. It is through My chosen ones that this change will come about. Minds and hearts must be touched. Man must come out of the darkness, into the light. The evil one continues to wreak havoc, but My Mother continues to speak to many, and is bringing about a change in the minds and hearts of those who listen.

She is calling many to prayer. She has said over and over, Her Immaculate Heart will triumph. This will be done through the mighty army of those devoted and committed to see this come about. The Rosary is a powerful weapon, little one. It will one day strangle and destroy the evil one. Many are looking forward to that day. Do not become weary or discouraged. There is much in your world to cause you to become overwhelmed. Stay focused on your Jesus, and know that good will triumph over evil. In the meantime, much prayer is needed. There is power in prayer, and even greater power when the members who gather together are sincere in helping this change come about.

Now I know your day ahead is another busy one, and you have a powerful evening of prayer ahead of you. Go in My peace. Prepare for the Holy Spirit to work in a mighty way through you and those you will be praying with, and for. Go in My peace, and know that I am God

Ruth Ann: Thank You, Lord.

Memorial Thoughts for Jerry Walker

I never thought I'd be writing a farewell so soon after Jim's death on March 9, 2024, but time "marches on" no matter our wants or desires. I remember meeting Jerry Walker, the President of Mary's Children, who passed away July 16, 2025 (The Feast of Our Lady of Mount Carmel ... a feast Jerry had a special devotion to). The meeting was at one of my witnesses in my hometown of Washington, Indiana in the grade school cafeteria. (The same room Jim and I attend prom and were in Prom Court in 1958.) Jerry said he had only come to protect his P.A. System that someone had borrowed because of my talk.

When I was introduced to him everything seemed quite normal, but Jerry informed me much later to the contrary. He said he knew I was unaware, but the minute we were introduced and shook hands it felt like a bolt of lightning had gone through his body and he felt nailed to the floor. Our Lady and Our Lord have unique ways of getting the attention of those they are calling to a special task. Later, when Jerry and Laurinda, his wife, came for a visit to "the farm" and for prayer, I was told by Our Lady "These are your true friends!". From that moment on it has proven to be truly accurate. They have put their whole heart and soul into listening to what Our Lady wanted and needed and have not hesitated to be true friends but chief benefactors throughout these many years. Now Jerry and Jim no longer need to call each other daily concerning the Farm and Farm needs; they need only call to each other.

God bless you both Jerry and Jim for your love for and dedication to this place so important to Our Lady. Blessed Mother, take care of them and please allow them both to continue to watch over this place so very special to you and those here who still need your special graces.
