
“TO JESUS THROUGH MARY”

Lessons and Messages to the World from Jesus and the Blessed Virgin Mary to Ruth Ann Wade of Bloomington, Indiana

Compiled by Mary's Children, P. O. Box 27, Washington, IN 47501 - October 2025

Message of Feb. 28, 1994, from Our Lord, Jesus

Ruth Ann: Jesus, is there anything in particular You would like to speak with me about today?

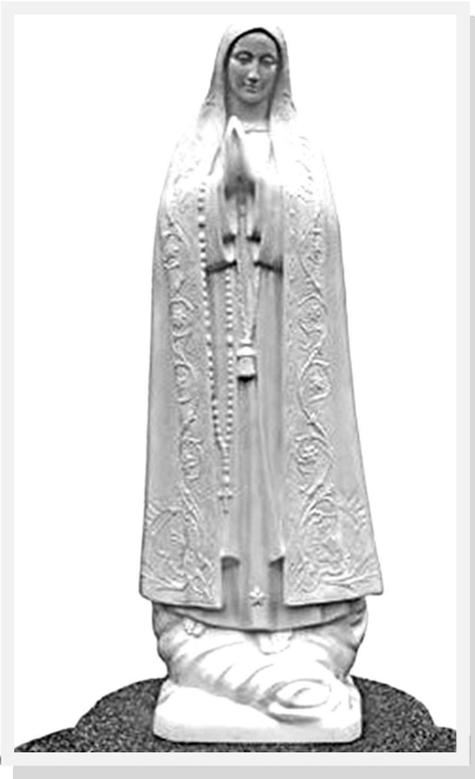

Jesus: Little one, I would like to speak about the importance of the Eucharist.

Ruth Ann: Lord, I think most people realize the importance of the Sacred Body and Blood of Our Lord and Savior, and how important it really is.

Jesus: Some do not. It is for them that I speak.

Ruth Ann: Then, Lord, I am listening.

Jesus: Many still do not believe that I am there, in the Tabernacle of their churches, and a certain amount of respect and quiet should be shown to Me. Many walk by Me and totally ignore Me. Some turn their backs on Me, and speak with friends, and do not even notice I am there. I wish to thank those who do acknowledge Me and show Me respect by quiet prayer or a quick visit to just say, "Hello, Jesus, I love you." I especially am pleased at those of My children who come to spend time with Me, whether it be to just quietly be with me, or tell Me about their difficult day. I need to be acknowledged by My children. Many things have changed in My churches, but I want My children to know, I am still there for them. I am still there for them in the reception of Holy Communion at daily Mass. Nothing has changed in that respect. It is My people who have changed. The importance of the reception of the Sacraments and the sacramentals, all of these are still a part of your faith as Catholic Christians. These things that are a part of your faith are a part of Me, and a part of

Mother of the Redeemer Farm

you. Do not lose them.

My Mother asked for the rosary to become a part of your daily lives. That, too, was taken away for a time. Now, through My most Holy Mother, it is returning. Through this prayer, and people like you who are listening and sharing these words, Satan will be defeated. Many do not realize the importance of My Mother in the fight and the renewal of My people. She has been allowed by God to come and minister to His children and give out blessings and graces in abundance. She is calling Her children back to God. Many continue to turn a deaf ear to Her and all She is saying, but She will continue to do all She can to bring back the lost sheep, until God says, 'that is enough'.

That is why it is so important for those of you who are listening, to listen carefully, and share what is being said to you. Spreading the word of God is of the utmost importance. All other things will fall into place, once the lives and hearts have been touched by God.

You, little one, have been told many times about the importance of receiving Me in the Eucharist as often as possible. There is a strengthening in the spiritual life of those who make a practice of attending daily Mass. There is a strengthening of those who make a practice of confessing their sins on a regular basis. I do not get the respect I deserve, in many cases. Many receive Me in the Eucharist with grave sins on their souls. The importance of confessing of sins has been downplayed. That is part of the tearing down of My Church. Those who make a practice of receiving the Sacraments of the Eucharist and Confession, try harder to be the person they should be. My people must return to the Sacraments, and their lives will change. That is a promise I am making, and have made down through the ages. Receive My Body, receive My Blood. Confess your sins. Obey My commandments. Listen to My words, and the words of My Mother, in the messages being given to Her children. She is a good Mother. She wants only what is best for you. She calls to you with this purpose in mind, "Come back to My Son." What better way to do so than through the reception of the Sacraments? What better way to be closer to Me, than to have Me be a part of you, in the Eucharist?

I am with you always, but what better way to be strengthened than to receive My Flesh and Blood, and be a part of the greatest miracle ever performed on the face of the earth, the miracle of the changing of the bread and wine into My Body and Blood, at the Sacrifice of the Holy Mass? My children should be in awe of this great miracle, and wish to be present for this great miracle as often as possible. But many are distracted to the point of ignoring what is going on at the Mass. Some come just long enough to receive Me and leave irritated if My servant, the priest, takes too long to speak of My great love and mercy.

It is sad, little one, that My children have strayed so far, but with help from those who really care and love Me with all of their hearts, I will find a way back into some of My children's hearts. As I have said before, My Mother, through Her unceasing effort, continues to draw My children back through these places of peace and prayer being set up all over the world, where Her children can gather for prayer. It matters not, your faith. You are one body, gathering in faith to pray. Remember, that faith begets miracles, and there is strength in numbers who come together in prayer to share My word, and let My children know the importance of gathering for prayer. Most of all the reception of the Sacraments by My children is most important. The faith you had as a child will be your salvation. Return to this faith, little one.

Ruth Ann: I love You, Lord, and I will share this message.

Jesus: I love you, little one. I know this will be done. I bless you for this.

Ruth Ann: Thank You, Lord.

Jesus: Now, go about your day in peace.

Message of July 12, 1993, from Our Lord Jesus

Ruth Ann: Jesus.

Jesus: Yes, little one.

Ruth Ann: Will You please speak to me?

Jesus: Of course, little one. Is there anything you wish to discuss with Me, or would you like to just have Me do the talking?

Ruth Ann: Whatever You wish, Lord.

Jesus: Then I will speak to you about the need to be holy.

Ruth Ann: Yes, Lord.

Jesus: My children continue to search and search for happiness through material things, and the more they try to be happy, the more complicated their lives become. What they are searching for is truth. Their spirits are crying out for light and truth, which is Me, and they have no clue that that is why they are so unhappy. This generation in particular has grown up being satisfied and rewarded with material things. Mothers and fathers are so busy trying to purchase a big house, cars, and all of the things that society considers success that they have forgotten the real purpose for being created. Man has forgotten he was brought on this earth to know, love, and serve God, and then be happy with Him in Heaven for all eternity. No amount of money, homes, cars, and expensive wardrobes will bring man any closer to the supreme goal that his soul cries out for. When someone says they are miserable, and have all the money they need, then they should know something is missing in their lives. They feel it and know it, but do they turn to the One Who waits patiently for them to come? No, they try to buy something else in hopes that that will make them happy.

Ruth Ann: That reminds me of the story of 'The Giving Tree' that I read to my class each year.

Jesus: I am happy to give to My children, especially to those Who love Me and wish to please Me. I continually give to those who do not thank Me, in hopes that someday they will. I want My children to be happy, but material things will not bring happiness. Becoming holy will bring happiness. Many say, "This is an impossible task," but it is something all of My children are called to do. No matter what your walk in life is, you are called to holiness. Each one's path may be different, but you must all stay on the path directed toward God and Heaven. An impossible task? No. That is to be your main goal in life. Holiness can be brought about in whatever career you have chosen. The secret is, put God first and foremost in your life. Love God more than you love yourself, then all the things that must happen to bring you even closer to Him will occur.

The Commandments will be lived by you in a new way. The Mass will become a daily part of your life, as will receiving the Eucharist, as will prayer, and reading God's word in the Bible. Even the way you treat your neighbor will be different. You all will become kinder to one another. Goodness and kindness begets love and holiness. Confession is a big part of this holiness I speak of. My Mother has spoken many times of Confession. This is very important, child. All of My children must return to Confession regularly. This in itself is a grace that leads you to holiness. Confessing and trying to overcome any weak-nesses in your life is difficult. It requires special graces from God. Pray to make a good and holy confession. Cleanse your-selves and receive the grace necessary to go out and face the world full of darkness and temptations.

Life is very difficult during these times when Satan is at his strongest, but My children have My Mother, Her messages, and My word in Holy Scripture to guide them along the way. Many miracles continue to happen, to fortify the faith of My little ones. Prayer groups are being blessed by those who are seeing and hearing from Me and My Mother. The gift of God's Holy Spirit promised in the last days has been poured out upon the earth. Prayer in itself is a gift. Those who are participating in prayer groups are helping others be brought closer and closer to Me. That is what holiness is about little one, helping those who do not know Me as well as you, to know Me better. That is why these talks you give are so important to Me. Your sharing what God has done and continues to do in your life lets My other children know that they too, can receive these miracles. They too, can expect great things in their life and the lives of their families. Prayer, patience, and obedience, My children must know to ask for the grace to be holy. It is not something that is easy and can be done all in one day. It is a continuous struggle, day in and day out. That is why graces are needed and should be prayed for, for all those who truly want to be holy. To be holy, you must be willing to give up your will and do the will of the Father in Heaven. This is no easy task, but then, life in itself is not easy. Better that you work at being holy and reach the peace of God, than live with this world of darkness, striving always to buy bigger and more. Bigger and more do not bring happiness. Working at being holy does eventually bring happiness and peace. Better to work at something you know eventually brings happiness, than to work and work for something that has no lasting value. Graces can lead you to holiness and Heaven.

Material things and other idols that replace God can only bring one reward. Material things in them-selves are not bad. God wishes His children to have good things, but He wishes for them not to be the reason for existing, for material things will rot, crumble, and be destroyed. Graces built up over time cannot be taken away. These go with you into Heaven. Not only do the special graces help you here on the earth, but they earn for you even greater happiness in Heaven.

So My children must strive for holiness. It is not something that can be done overnight, but each day is an opportunity to become closer to God. Listen to the words of My Mother. Listen to the words of the Holy Father, the Pope in Rome. Read My words and hear what We are saying. Do not only listen, but live My word, which is light, and truth, and peace.

Now, I know you have much to do today. Go in My peace, continue on the road to holiness.

Ruth Ann: Thank You Lord, for all You shared with me today.

*Message of October 6, 1993,
from Our Lady*

Ruth Ann: Mother Mary.

Our Lady: Yes child, I am here to speak with you.

Ruth Ann: I am sorry I took so long, but I've had so many phone calls. I wanted to speak with You before things got so busy.

Our Lady: Child, we will have time to talk without interruption.

Ruth Ann: Thank You, Mother.

Our Lady: You were pleased to attend the Marian Conference.

Ruth Ann: Yes Mother, I was. It was something that I certainly needed for my spirit, and apparently my body, too. I'm feeling much better, after having been sick and cranky for a couple of weeks.

Our Lady: I am pleased you enjoyed your weekend. You had a concern about the conference.

Ruth Ann: Yes Mother, I did, the lack of confessors. There were thousands of people there for the conference, and only two priests hearing confession. You keep telling us in Your messages, and so does Your Son, how important it is to confess our sins; and yet, confession is not being made available as it should be, or at least this is how I feel.

Our Lady: Yes child, this saddens My heart. It is through the desire and prayers of My children that these things will be corrected. My children must let their priests know how important confession is to the peace of mind. There must be time set aside monthly for My children. I would prefer it more frequently. One must have the Sacrament of Reconciliation so they can receive My Son in Holy Communion free from sin.

My children have gotten so far away from the faith they had as children; this very special time when you knew Jesus was in the Eucharist, you knew the priest took the place of Jesus in the confessional, you knew that the consecration of the Eucharist was the re-enactment of the death of My Son, Jesus. What has happened to all of My children? Where is their faith?

Much prayer is needed, children. Pray for My priests to help them realize that they have one of the greatest gifts that God can bestow on a human being, the gift of the priesthood. They continue to wish to be worldly, and that is not what God wishes for them to be. God wishes for them to minister to His people, just as My Son has asked you to do.

Ruth Ann: Our Lady, if I had had the gift of absolving sins, I would have given up the conference to hear confessions. So many people were being touched by the messages, and then there was no place to go to receive forgiveness.

Our Lady: Child, I know your concern. I too, have the same concern. Why do you think I continually call on all of My children for prayer? There are special graces to be had in both the Sacrament of the Eucharist and the Sacrament of Reconciliation. Both are necessary, the two go together. There are many graces needed during these times when the evil one is so strong. These graces are available through the Sacraments. My children should attend Mass and Communion as often as possible, and the Sacrament of Reconciliation too, must be received on a regular basis. If they are not available to you, you must ask for them.

Ruth Ann: Yes, Mother Mary.

Our Lady: Child, there are many things that you are discovering about the condition of the world. Much more will be revealed to you as time goes on. It will help you to realize the importance of what you are doing. It will help you to be aware of how important it is, having a special place to gather, blessed by Me and My Son, a place where all can pray for the needs of the world corrupted by sin. A place of peace and prayer to receive the graces and blessings of miracles that God has to offer in abundance is greatly needed at this time.

Thank you for having responded to My call to house the Medjugorje Prayer

Group on your farm. Had you not accepted My call, it, this place of peace and prayer, would not be available for My children. There would be no refuge for My children to come to, to remove themselves from the world and place themselves in the presence of Me and My Son. Here they can find peace and love they could not find in other places. Here they can find a little piece of Heaven. We are grateful you have listened, little child.

Ruth Ann: There is much work to be done here, Our Lady.

Our Lady: But much has been done already. It will all be done, child. All will fall into place. You have listened and shared My messages with those who can do the things that need to be done.

Ruth Ann: We have a weekend of prayer coming up, the third weekend of this month. Please be here, Mother, to pray with us.

Our Lady: Child, it is a weekend given in My honor. How can I not be here? I will be here, as will be many of the angels and saints in Heaven as well. Feel blessed child, because this will be a very special weekend. Those who come will feel My presence. Many will come. Child, I am your Mother, but I am also the Mother of all the children on the earth. I wish to draw all My children to My Son. If it takes miracles to do this, then the miracles shall be done.

Ruth Ann: I thank You, Mother, for the miracles, because I know how much they are needed, and how much each miracle strengthens and renews my faith and trust in God. I must go now.

Our Lady: Go in the peace of Jesus Christ, child. Know that My love is with you at all times. My mantle surrounds you, as do many angels.

Message of August 17, 1994, from Our Lady

Ruth Ann: Mother, do You wish to add anything to what has been said in the weekly message?

Our Lady: Child, there is always room for improvement in the lives of My children. Striving for holiness is an ongoing process, and continues in our life from birth until death. That is why prayer is so important. Man cannot hope to be all that God would have him be, without God's help. There are so many temptations and distractions in your world. You must seek quiet time to talk with My Son. Let Him know you love Him. Let Him know you appreciate all He has done and continues to do for you. I am here to bring you closer to Him. That is why I continue to speak to many, and through many, of His love. I wish to draw you away from the distractions, even if it is only for a little while.

Be not afraid of tomorrow. Focus on My Son, and live each day with love and peace in your heart. Forgive one another the hurts that come from lack of love and understanding of one another. Do not hold grudges. Forgive. Do not seek revenge. 'Revenge is Mine, saith the Lord'. Tend to the needs of your hearts and souls, and God will tend to the rest. You, My children, must seek peace. Without it there is no hope for this world. I am counting on you, those who are listening, to pray and help others obtain this peace so important in this troubled world. Know that I continue to pray with you for all that God wishes to see achieved in the greatness of His divine plan. Much prayer is needed in order to achieve all He has in store.

My Immaculate Heart will triumph. This prophecy was made many years ago. It was true then, and it is true now. It is through your prayers and faithfulness to the God Who has created you, that you will help Me bring about this magnificent day. Again, do not be afraid. God has much in store before all things can come to fruition. Stay focused on the greatness of His love and mercy. Know I am with you, and pray constantly for the conversion of all of God's children.

Go in My Son's peace. Pray, pray, pray!

Message of Dec. 16, 1993, from Our Lord Jesus

Jesus: When My Mother came to you with the daily messages for the world, she began by saying, "Return to the faith you had as a small child when you trusted in My Son and I completely." There was much meaning in those words hidden from those who did not understand. Those simple words spoken to you by My Mother have a much deeper meaning than just what they say. Those who are learned in the ways of God, and the teachings of the Church, will understand what My Mother is trying to say over and over through your lack of theology. My priests who have read, and will read, your books and messages have understood the true meaning of what My Mother is saying through you, and those such as you.

Continue to be an instrument through which We may speak to those who are listening. Many will return to their beloved Church and to Me. My Mother will begin to receive the love that was denied Her by those who minimize Her position in the plan of Redemption. You have spoken of your love for Me and My Mother and the gift of the Sacraments. Others, through you, will realize that they, too, will find peace through the confessing of their sins. The cleansing of the souls of My children are in great need.

Many are ignoring Confession, and still receiving My Body and Blood with grievous sins on their souls. They do not understand that in doing so, they are even further being disrespectful to Me. Many do not understand or believe that I am truly present in the Blessed Sacrament of the Eucharist. They don't realize they must prepare for My coming to them in Holy Communion, just as they would prepare for a special guest coming into their home. They would clean and tidy up their houses to receive their special guest. So, too, My children should tidy up their souls to receive Me, the most special of guests.

I am not just a casual acquaintance that can be treated in 'any old way'. I am the One Who has given you the gift of eternal life. My children have wandered far from the values put before them in the years past. But through those who are listening and being obedient to the Pope, they will be reminded. Many will realize that man, in wanting changes, has gone too far. Many will begin to realize much that was discarded as 'not important' needs to be returned. Those not listening will continue down the wrong path to destruction.

Ruth Ann: Lord, I know. I continue to have these things placed upon my heart, the importance of the Eucharist and of Confession.

Jesus: These are extremely important for the graces needed during these times. Man is about to experience even more upheaval, and he must be prepared for what is to come. These two Sacraments are needed desperately by My children, but they must be treated with the respect they deserve. All that you were taught as a young child is true, child. These teachings have not and cannot ever be changed.

Many wanted change, and wanted a church to keep up with the times. 'The times' have nothing to do with the teachings of God and the Church. The truths are just as relevant today as they were hundreds of years ago. The truth, God's word, never changes. Man has changed, and therefore wants a license to sin. This cannot be. Pray for the lost sheep, and those that will be led astray by those unwilling to stand firm in their faith.

Ruth Ann: Lord, this is a very strong message.

Jesus: Yes little one, it is, but so are you and those who will receive this message and take it to heart. I have said that much more is to come, little one, and this is true. Listen and receive what I am saying to you.

Ruth Ann: Yes Lord, I love You, and thank You again for the gift of Holy Communion and Confession. They are of great comfort to me, as is my rosary.

Jesus: All are a source of many graces for you and My children, little one.

Share what I have spoken to you as well as My love and concern for all of My children.

Ruth Ann: Yes, Lord.

*Message of August 31, 1994,
from Our Lord Jesus*

Ruth Ann: Lord, the words told to me by Your Mother after the weekly message were quite strong.

Jesus: She realizes too few are listening to what is being said. She also realizes that God is not pleased with all those who continue to ignore all She is doing in the world to draw them away from darkness and into the light. As a good Mother wishes to protect her children and keep them safe, She too, is trying to do all in Her power to love and protect you. She continues to work tirelessly to draw all of Her children under Her protective mantle, and many continue to fight against this protection. They will have to experience many hardships before they realize She is trying to be of help to them with the salvation of their souls.

Man continues to be so stubborn, child. He thinks he is in control, and that he has all the time in the world to prepare to meet his Creator. She, My Mother, is here now for a reason. She has warned Her children of the coming of God's wrath if they did not repent of their sins, and return to the ways of God, in messages prior to these.

Man wishes to think he has lots of time to get his act together. This is not so. She would not be appearing to so many, and speaking to so many, if this were so. She is calling Her children to the safety of Her Immaculate Heart. She is asking for true conversions of Her children. She wishes every soul to be saved. Even the hardest of hearts She wishes to see broken open, and the love and mercy of Christ poured into them. She is pouring forth graces at special places of prayer all over the world. Those who are listening are benefiting from these graces, which will sustain them through the difficult times that are ahead.

Those who seek to hide their heads in the sand and ignore all the warnings, bring more and more hardships upon the land. God must get the attention of His children if they are to be saved. Apparitions and messages do not seem to be enough. So greater measures must be taken in order to get the attention of those who have chosen to ignore the signs.

Ruth Ann: Lord, those of us, who are aware, are trying to do all Your Mother is calling us to do.

Jesus: Your God is aware of this. Your prayers and efforts do not go unnoticed, little one, neither do all the efforts, put forth by those who wish to have the messages given to the world by My Mother, gone unnoticed. But much prayer is needed for a world totally taken over by the evil one. My Heart is saddened, as is the Heart of My Mother. So many of My children continue to be lost, stumbling along in darkness, when they could choose to be in the light, and at peace.

Man has chosen to be on the wrong path. He has chosen to follow the ways of the world and turn his back on God. Truth and love have been replaced by lies and hatred. Peace is not to be found anywhere in your world, so you must seek peace in your hearts, Gods peace, in order to survive in a world of disorder and corruption. Know that this peace that you have found through the love of God, must be sustained through prayer and reception of the Sacraments. Strive for holiness, little ones, and know I am with you. Listen to the words of My Mother. These words are from Heaven, and are being sent to you by a God Who loves you. Be obedient, and follow the laws set down for you by Moses in the Ten Commandments. Love God and your neighbor. All else will follow.

Share what I am saying to you, little one. Share your gifts with all who will listen.

Ruth Ann: Yes Lord, it is done.

Jesus: Go in My peace, and know I am with you throughout this day, and the days ahead.

Ruth Ann: Thank You, Lord.
