
“TO JESUS THROUGH MARY”

Lessons and Messages to the World from Jesus and the Blessed Virgin Mary to Ruth Ann Wade of Bloomington, Indiana

Compiled by Mary's Children, P. O. Box 27, Washington, IN 47501 - March 2026

Message of Nov. 23, 1993, from Our Lord Jesus

Jesus: Child, I know you don't have a lot of time, but I also know you wish to speak to Me.

Ruth Ann: Yes, Lord, this is true. But since I was called away early this morning, I was afraid there would be too many interruptions and therefore, not possible to speak with You.

Jesus: I will make all quiet, child.

Ruth Ann: Thank You, Lord.

Jesus: I wish to share with you just how much God loves you.

Ruth Ann: Lord, I know there is much more than this to share.

Jesus: You are right, little one, there is much to add. God loves you so much, He sent His only Son to live and die for you, so that you could gain the reward of Heaven.

Ruth Ann: This sounds like a review of my catechism, Lord.

Jesus: Yes it does, little one, those were the days when My children had no doubts as to why they were put here on the earth. Those were the days when My children knew exactly what their purpose was in life. Now My children continually question what they are doing. So many are trying to find them-selves. What they are really looking for is God in their lives, and they don't even realize that is the burning desire that is in their heart. They complain about hating their jobs, their life, the people they work with. They complain of dissatisfaction of all kinds. What they need, they are not finding, because they are not looking in the right places.

Dissatisfactions, irritations, boredom, depression, these are not of Me, little one. And the minute one complains of such, you know right away the evil one is working in their life trying to disrupt, cause grief and turmoil, and bring them down on his plane. They must turn to God in prayer in order to find peace and a calmness in their life. This can only come from God. They must learn to use the Sacraments and sacramentals available to them to deal with the darkness that tries to disrupt and cause hate and anger in the lives of many of My children. The prayer, 'I bind and rebuke the evil one in the name of Jesus', must be used at times.

There is much My little ones can do to combat the evil one. The best thing is prayer, the rosary given to My children by My Mother will break the stronghold one day that the evil one seems to have upon the world. The Woman Clothed in the Sun will shine Her light on all of Her children and draw them out of darkness. Goodness and light will triumph over evil. My Mother's Immaculate Heart will see to it. But My children must listen and live the messages being given to them, in order to be able to know what it is they are being called to do. Many continue to ignore this fact, and use the excuse that the messages haven't been approved. My Mother, and anything She would say, would not cause harm to anyone. These are Her children She is calling out to at this time. What Mother would do anything to cause Her children harm, especially One Who is from Heaven? In the meantime, these children who wish to ignore are denying themselves, and their loved ones, many graces that they could otherwise be getting, graces that would combat fear, hate, confusion, and depression. That is as it will be.

During the time of My teaching on the earth, before My death on the cross, many ignored what I had to say. As a result, they were among those who were responsible for My death. It is important for My children to listen and pray for one another so all My children's eyes will have the blinders removed. Love one another as I have loved you. There is no room for hate, anger, or envy in a world that is steeped in My divine love. Peace, children, strive for peace. Peace in your hearts, homes, and the whole world. Much of this can be done through prayer.

Ruth Ann: I continue to pray, Lord. There is so much pain, and suffering, and unrest in the world. Will there ever be peace?

Jesus: Peace will come when the minds and hearts of My children focus on God instead of the world around them.

Ruth Ann: Thank You for the quiet time, Lord. I love You.

Jesus: I love you, little one, go in My peace.

Message of Feb. 20, 1994,
from Our Lady to Prayer Groups

My Dear Children,

How it pleases Me to see you gathered together in such great numbers. As I have said many times before, there is strength in numbers. So, too, is the power of prayer strengthened when so many of My children are gathered together with a common purpose. Each one of your prayers is like a beautiful flower. Together they are a tremendous bouquet being placed before the Throne of God. How can God not be touched by this humble gesture. Dear children, each prayer you say, each sacrifice you make, is being heard and noticed by God. All of these things do make a difference. Be humble, obedient children. Pray from the heart. You seek peace in a troubled world, dear children, and this peace can only come from God. God wishes you to know He loves you. Do not continue to turn your back on this God Who created you in His own image and likeness.

He is displeased with the sin in your country and is sending reminders of this through supernatural disasters. Take heed of these warnings. Turn back to God while there is still time. I am here with you to assist you in any way I can. Good will triumph over evil, little children, but not before there is much suffering. Prepare your hearts. Live each day as if it were to be your last, and you will not be uncertain of your place in God's heart. Pray for all God's children, that they may become aware of the importance of My messages. Pray for their conversions. Know, dear children, God is listening.

During this lenten season, renew your heart, mind, body and soul, through frequent reception of the sacraments. Repent of your sins. Pray, pray, pray! Graces and blessings are being given to you in great abundance in this place of peace and prayer. Thank God for allowing this to be so. Love Me. Love My Son. Go in His peace.

Message of July 13, 1994,
from Our Lady

Ruth Ann: Mother, thank You for the message this morning. It was, and is, beautiful.

Our Lady: It should be more than that. It is words that should be taken to the heart. Some will read the message and say, "That is a powerful message," and that will be the end until the next message. All that I am saying to you, My children, are words that must be taken to your heart and applied to your everyday life. Live the messages. This I have said over and over, and still those who do not take what I am saying seriously, have not learned the importance of what I am saying.

Not only are My messages words that should be taken to heart and lived, but these are urgent times. This is something that must be done now. I say this, and still there will be those who say, "We've heard that before. If it were very urgent, something would be happening to let us know how urgent these messages are." Children, look around you. Look at all the disasters, the cruelty, the hatred, the love of all that is evil, and the lack of God, and the lack of love in your world. The signs are everywhere that now is the time to turn to God. Now is the time to get your spiritual lives in order.

I love you, little children, I am your Mother. Please listen. Please be attentive to the signs. I know not the day or the hour, but God knows. He would not be allowing you such graces and blessings through the Mother of His Son, if He was not concerned for your souls. I am here for you, and will be here as long as I am allowed to do so. I continue to pray with you and for you. I continue to bless you with graces and special miracles, in order to draw you closer and closer to My Son.

I am not here for Me. I am here for you. I am here to help you get on the right path, and keep you there. If you truly listen, and live the messages being given to you, you have a blueprint for eternal salvation put before you. You need only listen, and be obedient to the will of God. This should not be so difficult, but it has become so, because so many of you have become so worldly that you are finding it difficult to pray, make sacrifices, and do penance. You are a land of plenty, and take everything you have for granted. God has blessed you abundantly because you have shared and helped those who have less than you. You have been your brothers keeper, as God would have you do.

You are concerning yourself less and less with the care and love of your neighbor, and you are becoming more and more accepting of the evils that have become a part of the world. You are becoming a nation caught up in the wants and needs of yourself. You no longer truly care about life, love, or the pursuit of true happiness. Peace, children, peace is being lost in your world. Man, through his selfish-ness, has opened doors to the evil one that had been shut off in years past. My heart aches for you, for you know not what you are bringing upon yourselves. Please, dear children, care for one another. Be at peace with one another. Stop the bloodshed, the murdering, the cruelty to one another. I love you, and wish to guide you from the destruction that awaits those who choose to ignore God and His laws. I am your Mother. Please listen to Me.

Ruth Ann: Mother, You seem really upset.

Our Lady: Child, I continue to warn, I continue to ask for prayer. There are signs being given everywhere, and yet My children are not taking heed. Those of you who are listening must pray even harder, and make more sacrifices. There is not much time, and still, there are many in need of conversions. It is being left to those of you who are willing to help Me. Much prayer is needed. I need your help.

Ruth Ann: Yes, Mother. Those who will be reading this will be reminded.

Our Lady: Thank you, child, for listening and being obedient.

Ruth Ann: Thank You, Mother, for speaking with me. I love You.

Message of Feb. 23, 1994,
from Our Lady to Prayer Groups

My Dear Children,

God love you. Do you not realize the importance of these three words? He loves you, little children. Be obedient and do only those things that are pleasing to Him Who created you. There is so much discontent in the world. This is not of God. The evil one continues to show his ugly face in all areas of your life. Do not allow this discontent to become part of you, little children. Place all matters in the hands of God Who is love. Only then can you have peace. The peace you seek can only come from God.

Pray, dear children, that the Holy Spirit will enlighten you as to the importance of My messages. I wish to guide you in all things and bring you closer to My Son Who is peace. Pray from the heart, and ask Him to teach you to be an example of this peace. Then, and only then, can the light, His light touch the lives of others. If you listen and truly hear God's words, no matter what goes on around you, you will not lose sight of that which is most important God's love, which brings you peace. My protective mantle surrounds you. You must pray.

Message of January 26, 1994,
from Our Lady

Ruth Ann: Mother, Your message to the prayer group is very strong this week.

Our Lady: Yes, child, there is a need for prayer, fasting and penance among My children, and they continue on about their life without making the extra sacrifices that are needed to help Me with the Triumph of My Immaculate Heart. A Mother can only do so much, and then it is left up to the child to do the rest on his own. A child must be able to stand alone before he will have the confidence to try to walk. You, My children, must be able to do the same. If you do not pray and listen to what I am saying to you, you will not be able to stand firm in your faith, or walk alone when I am no longer here for you. My messages have become more and more urgent as the world of darkness continues to invade every aspect of your lives: your homes, schools, places of work and government, have been taken over by the prince of darkness. It has been so subtly done that many of you are saying, "Where was I when all of this was going on?"

Children, you were right in the middle of it. Some of you were even instrumental in bringing the moral decay about through your lack of trying to make a difference. "What can one person do?" you have said. One person can make a difference through prayer. Changes can be brought about through prayer. Do not be content to sit back and let others try to make a difference. It is time for all My children to listen and live what is being said to you. You can look around you and see that the evil one is having a great time destroying all the good that was in you world. 'Was', children, there is very little good left.

Those of you who listen and understand the importance of My messages must make extra sacrifices for those of God's children who still hide their heads in the sand. They do not realize, and refuse to recognize the signs. If they were to truly accept, then it would mean they must change their life. For those living in darkness with materialism their god, this is impossible for them to do. In the time of Noah, man continued to ignore the warnings, and he perished. Is this to be the same for My children today?

I continue to call out, "Please, children, come back to My Son, pray from the heart." Are My words falling on deaf ears? You are living in the end times. Pray that the Holy Spirit will enlighten you to this fact. I am your Mother. I am here to help you. Thank God for allowing this to be. He too, wishes to save His children from the eternal abyss. Children, you must pull away from all those things of the world that would keep you from living your life the way God wishes you to live. Consecrate your families, yourselves, and others to Me. I will do all I can to help and I intercede for you before the Throne of God. Repent of your sins, children. God so loves a repentant heart. Dear children, My Immaculate Heart will triumph, but not before there is much trial and suffering for My children here on this earth. Pray and stay focused on My Son. I will do all I can for you, but you must do the rest. Pray, dear children, pray.

Child, do not hesitate to share this message. The disasters that are falling upon your country are for a reason. Hopefully, it will get the attention of those who have ignored My pleas for prayer. This is only the beginning. Man must turn back to God and seek his peace in prayer. There is no peace in this world of darkness. You must seek your peace in the heart of your Jesus. Stay focused children, even though the world continues to fall apart around you.

Ruth Ann: These are very strong words, Mother.

Our Lady: Child, some still will not take them seriously. You are doing your part by sharing. It is up to them to listen and take them to their heart. I bless you, little child, for being obedient.

Ruth Ann: Thank You, Mother, for Your blessing. Be with me this day.

Our Lady: Yes, child, go in My Son's peace.

Message of Sept. 14, 1994
from Our Lady to Prayer Groups

My Dear Children,

Be at peace with all you say and do. In God's plan there is no room for discontent. That is not of God. If you choose to live the messages, God's word, then you can expect life to be difficult. If you are at peace, the crosses you carry can be carried with love and an inner peace. One has gone before you whom God chose as an example. My Son carried His cross with great dignity. Even though the world around Him had turned on Him and caused Him much pain, He chose to do the will of God and accept this out of love for you. You, dear children, could do well to follow His example. Even though life becomes difficult at times, remember My Son, and all He has done for you. Continue on, dear children, knowing God's love is with you. Great rewards await you at the end of your journey. Travel that journey in peace.

Message of Sept. 14, 1994, from Our Lady

Ruth Ann: Mother, would You please share words with Your children concerning this weeks message?

Our Lady: Child, the messages for the most part are no longer listened to. That is why, eventually, they too, will cease. These messages are much like the messages given to you for the world. How many of those who have read them, have taken them to heart? How many of My children have begun saying the rosary daily, as a result? How many have returned to church and the Sacraments? How many receive the Body of My Jesus as frequently as possible? I could go on and on. How many have chosen to fast one day a week? Not many have taken the messages, given to them from Heaven, very seriously.

A blueprint for salvation has been put before each of My children for their salvation, and they choose to ignore. What happens when you, as a parent, reprimand your children for doing wrong, and the child continues to do the same thing over and over?

Ruth Ann: As a parent, I would have to try something different.

Our Lady: This is what God is doing, child. He is going to remove the messages, and try something more drastic, to get the attention of His children. God has a plan. His plan is perfect. There is to be great suffering come to your country as a result of the complacency of God's children to the evil going on around them. The way in which the messages have been ignored, has caused much pain to Me as your Mother. My children need to be awakened from their sleep. To do so will take drastic measures.

Many of you understand the reason for the messages, and the reason for My being among you. Many do not. These messages are a warning of things that are to come, because My children have not taken My words seriously.

Be patient, be at peace, child. You have done everything I have asked of you. You have listened to My Son and to Me. You have done the will of God. Many will come, seeking the peace and graces they have chosen to ignore, on this holy ground. Child, know God has an even greater plan in store for you. You have been faithful in all God has entrusted to you. Now you will do even greater things for Him. Be at peace with all I am saying. I am your Mother.

Ruth Ann: Mother, I am at peace. I just wish You could be more clear in what You are saying.

Our Lady: Child, you will be told all you need to know, when God so chooses. Bless you child, for continuing to be an instrument of love and peace for your God and His children. Continue on in faith and trust. God has His hands upon you. Be at peace.

Message of March 30, 1994, from Our Lady to Prayer Groups

My Dear Children,

My Son wishes Me to convey to you, the importance of caring for His children who have gone astray. It is through your many prayers and sacrifices that their salvation will be brought about. Peace cannot be found in your world, but it can be found in the hearts and minds of those who seek God's peace. Continue to pray for all those in need, dear children, so they, those who are in most need, can find God's peace. During this Holy Week, when My Son has suffered much, follow His example. Pick up your crosses and follow Him on the way to Calvary, then you can die to all those things that hold you to the earth, and experience the resurrection of eternal life. Seek peace, little children, pray.

Message of Feb. 9, 1994, from Our Lady

Ruth Ann: Mother, You seemed frustrated in Your message today to the prayer groups.

Our Lady: Child, I continue to tell My children to pray and make sacrifices, and they continue to turn their backs on God. Many think they do not need to pray, and those who pray do not feel they need to do more. What is wrong with your world? No one seems to take the messages seriously, and those who do spend so much time speculating on when 'the end' is coming that they miss the point of the message. The reason for the messages is one of calling for change of the heart. Pray, dear children, and ask for the peace of God to permeate your hearts. Seek Jesus in your neighbor. He is there. Love one another. Do not fight your neighbor. Love your neighbor. Child, the peace of your world is being destroyed, little by little, and no one seems to really care enough to do anything about it.

Ruth Ann: Mother, many are praying and many prayer groups have sprung up all over the world, many shrines to You and Your Son are being revisited. So why do You say, no one seems to really care?

Our Lady: Child, I am your Mother, sent here to help you prepare for the coming of My Son. My Jesus is hurting, and I am hurting with Him. He looks at those of you who continually ignore all that is being said and shown to you, and again feels the agony He felt in the Garden at Gethsemane. Why do God's children have to be so stubborn and so blind? Why can't you see that you are destroying not only others in your hatred, but yourselves and your world as well?

Peace is needed in your world, and it must begin in your hearts. Seek this peace, this peace is a lasting peace, and no matter what goes on around you, it will continue to remain in your heart. 'Seek ye first the Kingdom of God, and all other things will come unto you'. Put God first in your lives, little children, and He will tend to your other needs. Love God with all your hearts, minds, and souls, and your neighbor as yourself, and you will have the peace you seek. Times are difficult, and this has been brought about through lack of prayer and trust in God.

Man, in turning his back on God and removing Him from every aspect of his life, has brought about darkness. The evil one continues to wreak havoc upon the earth, and God's people have been deceived into believing that God is not needed. Dear children, look around you as God has been removed little by little from your world, more and more hate and destruction comes about. Man is destroying one another. Put God back into your world, children, and you will see a change. Do not allow Satan to continue to have the upper hand. Pray, dear children, and turn toward God in these hours of need. He is listening and waiting to hear from you.

Ruth Ann: Mother, many of us are trying to do better.

Our Lady: I appreciate all each of My children do, but it is not enough. Put God first in your lives, then, and only then, can you know you are doing what is asked of you. Pray, dear children, that you understand the urgency of the messages being sent to you from Heaven. Do not seek signs and wonders. Seek peace. Seek to please God through prayers and sacrifices. Then the graces and blessings will be given to you that God wishes you to have to strengthen your faith and help you keep His peace.

Ruth Ann: You seem so sad, Mother.

Our Lady: Only because My children do not take what I am saying seriously enough. I wish for them to be at peace in their hearts, and peace cannot come unless there is much prayer. The prayer must come from the heart. It cannot just be words said. It must be words said from the heart. Share what

I have said to you.

Ruth Ann: It is done, Mother.

Our Lady: I thank you for your continued effort, child. Go in the peace of Jesus Christ, My Son.

*Message of Nov. 3, 1993,
from Our Lady to Prayer Groups*

My Dear Children,

Do you not know the importance of My messages? God is allowing His Mother to come to you and remind you that time is running out. Many are aware of My appearances all over the world. The gift of My words and other graces and miracles associated with My being here with you, My words spoken to you, and all those who will listen, are of great importance. They are not to be taken for granted as many of you are doing. I am your Mother. I wish to help guide and protect you, but I cannot do so if you do not open your hearts and allow these graces to melt your hearts and change them. God is allowing Me to minister to you, and intercede for you. That in itself is a special gift. Please, dear children, listen to what is being said to you. Live the messages. Pray from the heart. Pray for conversions. Man must be open to the will of God no matter how difficult it may seem. He is your Creator. Only He knows the divine plan. You must listen and be obedient. Pray, dear children, pray!

*Message of Nov. 30, 1994,
from Our Lady*

Ruth Ann: Mother, is there anything You wish to say to me?

Our Lady: Child, the time is nearing when I will no longer be allowed to minister to My children in the way I have been doing. God in His mercy has allowed Me to come to the earth and minister to His children in many ways, through many of those who were receptive to this gift. My heart is saddened for those who have not chosen to listen and take the messages to heart. As your Mother, I am concerned for the welfare of your souls. Many have listened with their ears to what has been said, but have not taken the words to their heart.

Many continue to search for answers that are not there, wanting to know the future. If My children would only listen to what has been said, and take it to their hearts, much pain and suffering could be avoided. But man continues to believe that he is in control of his life and his destiny. He gives God no credit for all that he has, and is. God does not care how much you have, but He does care what you do with what has been given to you. When you stand before the Throne of God on judgment day, He will hold you responsible for, and accountable for, the use of all He has allowed you to have in this world. For those who have been given much, much is expected. My children must come to realize that money and materialism are not to be the focus of their lives. There is only one God. There is only one life that is important, and that is eternal life.

Man frets over his earthly life, wanting to satisfy his earthly pleasures and desires, and he thinks not of his soul. Your life can end in the blink of an eye, little children, and all the material possessions you have gathered together, can be removed just as easily as it was given to you. Imagine yourself with all your material wealth and possessions removed. What do you have left? Is your faith strong enough to accept this kind of hardship? What if your good health was to be removed? Is your faith strong enough to be tested in such a way?

Focus on My Son. Tend to your immortal souls My little ones, and let God tend to all your needs. Arrange your priorities. Put God first. He loves you, and wishes your souls to be saved. My concern for you is great. You must choose to live for God, and not for the world. Your body lasts but an instant. Your soul lasts forever. I wish for your soul to be in Heaven for all eternity. Pray, dear children, and know I am praying with you. Go in My Son's peace.
