"TO JESUS THROUGH MARY"

Lessons and Messages to the World from Jesus and the Blessed Virgin Mary to Ruth Ann Wade of Bloomington, Indiana

Compiled by Mary's Children, P. O. Box 27, Washington, IN 47501 - November 2026

Message of May 20, 1993, from Our Lord Jesus

Ruth Ann: Jesus, would You please speak with me?

Jesus: I am here, little one, just waiting for you to finally give in and come to Me. Why have you waited so long?

Ruth Ann: I'm angry, Lord. Why do You bother to ask?

Jesus: Little one, little one, and where do you suppose the anger is coming from? You know it is not of Me.

Ruth Ann: Lord, of course I know this, I'm just really frustrated. I'll get over it, I always do. In the meantime, I need Your words of encouragement. I'm scared and insecure, as well as angry. I'm not even sure anger is the right word Lord, but maybe it is. I am at least to the point where I know You are the only One, You or Your Mother, that can bring me out of this feeling. It's not even that I won't do whatever it is that You want me to do Lord, for I know that all of this is needed; and I also know the praying on the third Sundays and now every Saturday that, that is also needed Lord, but I just don't feel right for the job. You know I never wanted to be a speaker, I just wanted to quietly help You and Your Mother in prayer. I'd have been happy going to someone else's farm to pray once a week and on the third Sundays. I'd have been happy to help them in any way possible.

Jesus: Little one, little one, that is not to be, now is it? But that should help you to understand the feelings of My other children, those who wish to come to your farm to pray. Remember you have consecrated your farm to Me and to My Mother. It has been given special blessings and will continue to be the source of many blessings and many miracles to come.

Ruth Ann: Lord, why can't You remove all this fear and doubt, so that I'm not in so much turmoil the week before I'm to give a talk?

Jesus: Why don't you come to Me daily for My words, or as frequently as you need, instead of pulling away?

Ruth Ann: I guess it's part of not wanting to be controlled. I guess I'm continually fighting Your will, Lord. I always feel like, 'why do I have to do this?' Others have gifts and walk away and don't share their experiences. Why should I have to? It's more of the temper tantrum sort. I can't seem to get to the point in my life where I can say 'yes' and be joyful about it. I feel like I am being led to my death each time I do this; give a talk or share my experiences, whatever.

Jesus: Little one, you are being led to your death. You are dying of self. Each time you go before My children to share your experiences of how God has worked in your life, and tell what He is doing and will continue to do, you are baring your soul, and what a beautiful sight it is. You do not realize the impact of your words, voice, and tears, child. You do not realize the impact among those who hear My words through you. Even if some do not believe, they are touched and blessed with special graces while they are in your presence. This makes it possible for them to be converted. To receive a conversion, little one, is the ultimate gift from God. That is what all of this is about. Your Mother is here to bring about conversions for as many as will receive those graces. You have been chosen to help Her accomplish this task. You and many others have a special and immense task before you. You have said 'yes' to Her call, and now you are assisting in this mission that for Her will be coming to a close. You, and others like you, will be left to continue on with testimony and prayer. She, your heavenly Mother and My Mother, has brought you to Me. She will continue to assist you in words and She will always be here for you, but the time of Her apparitions will be coming to an end. You, my child, will continue to hear Her voice. This, She has already told you. Now, aren't you relieved that you do not receive apparitions from Her?

Ruth Ann: Yes Lord, it would have been very difficult for me to have given up. I get attached very easily. I would have felt lost. It will be sad to know She is not appearing anywhere, but I am grateful She will continue to speak with those who receive locutions.

Jesus: Child, there is much for you to be grateful for. "You cannot see the forest for the trees," as some say. You have been chosen to hear the Heavenlies speak to you. You are given special graces because of your faith and trust in Me, your God.

Ruth Ann: My faith and trust do not seem very strong before a talk, Lord.

Jesus: It is because you have much to say to touch the hearts of those who will listen, little one. The evil one comes up against those of you who continue to witness and do My will. Your testimony will bring about the healing of many; that means souls lost to the fires of hell. The evil one is not pleased to have even one snatched away from his grasp. Think how he feels when he knows there are many to be snatched away from his grasp. You must learn, little one, that instead of pulling away and trying to ignore Me before a talk, you must pull closer and closer to Me in prayer. I will help and strengthen you as you approach each talk. Think of the talk as a time of sharing what God has done in your life, not as a talk. You are right, you would never have chosen to be a speaker. God has chosen this special task for you. He too, is responsible for all those wonderful graces and blessings that have been given to you to share. So child, think in terms of sharing and you will not feel overwhelmed. Remember, I am there with you and I will put the words into your mouth I would have you say. Also, My Mother will be there with you. How can you miss touching the hearts with whom you speak, when you have the two most important people in the entire universe with you? That should help you to put everything in proper perspective. Know little one, you are not doing this on your own. You are being asked to do this by God Himself. You are assisting your heavenly Mother in Her task to draw Her children to Her Son. What a very special person you are. Do you not believe that all you do and say will bring with it special blessings from the very Ones who have asked you to do this task? In your act of obedience to the Father, in your saying 'yes', many hard hearts will be broken open. Many healings of body, mind, and soul will take place. Those who hear your talks, those who are in your presence, those who ask for your prayer, and this farm has been touched and blessed in a special way, so it too is a source of grace and healings for those who will come here. Does any of what I am saying help you?

Ruth Ann: You know it does, Lord.

Jesus: Obedience is the key child, you have been chosen. You have listened and now you must be obedient and share all God is doing in your life, and He still is doing, and will continue to do so, until you no longer have need of Him; that means you have His assistance forever. Forever is a mighty long time. You do not comprehend eternity child, but that is what you have to look forward to; God's love and assistance for all eternity, sharing what He has done, is doing, and will do, is a small price to pay for the gift of eternal life. When one thinks in these terms, it may help you with what appears to be a monumental task to you at the present time. I am not only saying this to you, but to all My children who are asked to help My Mother bring God's children under Her protective care and into the light of salvation. Does this help you, little one?

Ruth Ann: You have succeeded in making me feel like a 'twirp' for being such a big baby.

Jesus: That was not My intent, little one, but in telling you of the importance of what you are doing for Me, hopefully it will help you to look forward to sharing, instead of wanting to run away.

Ruth Ann: You have succeeded Lord. I love You so much. Thank You for being patient with me.

Jesus: Do not wait so long to come to Me for help and guidance. I am here for you always. I am only a heartbeat away. I can talk with you all day and all night, if you need Me. I am not only here for you, but I am here for all My children. I want to love and heal all My children of their hurts. Tell them, come to Me, I will always be there to listen. They can share their hopes, dreams, desires, pains, sufferings. I am here for all My children and waiting to hear their needs. All they need do is ask. Graces are available and in abundance for all those who ask. Pray with My children, little one. I wish to give them many miracles. Now go in My peace, know that I am with you and your dear ones. I love you.

Ruth Ann: I love You, Lord. Thank You.

Message of March 28, 1994, from Our Lord Jesus

Jesus: My Mother is calling Her children together to fight against the evil one. The rosary is to be among the greatest of all prayers to pull the evil one down. Remember, My Mother has said, "My Immaculate Heart will triumph." Through those of you who have heard Her words, 'pray, pray, pray', and are taking them seriously, the evil one will be destroyed. The numbers who come to the haven of peace and prayer will continue to grow, little one, because that is the desire of My heart and that of My Mother. She has chosen this special place for Her children of the rosary to gather. She has blessed it, as have I.

Many graces and blessings continue to flow from Her to Her children who come here in faith to pray. Many graces will be given through you as you pray for those who desire prayer. Be not afraid, little one, God knows what He is doing. You need not be concerned. You need only be obedient. Pray with My children. Share My words through the messages and your God will do the hard part. I will do the healings that are needed.

Each of My chosen ones has a special ministry. Each one of you has been called to do something that was asked of you for My children. But each call has been different. Continue to listen and be obedient. As you grow, other things will be expected of you, but not until the time is right. As you are prepared, each task becomes greater. But this is so of all things. As a child begins to walk, he then learns to run and jump and do other things. So too, do My little ones progress in the same way spiritually. I do the molding, but it is all in My time.

Some of My children place their God on a time line. I am God, I can do all things. But those things that I do are in My time and My way. Sometimes I am speaking to My children and guiding them, and they refuse to listen or be guided. In some cases, they wish to do their will and not Mine. In cases such as these, it is their problem. In some cases they must wait and be patient for all things to fall into place before their prayers can be answered. They should be praying, 'Thy will be done', and asking for the wisdom to know My will so they can do it with love and obedience. My children must learn to put all in My hands so I can work in their lives for the greater honor and glory of God.

Patience is something that the children of this world have very little of in this age. Continue to pray for these little children, but do not feel that you have failed them if their prayers are not answered in the way they wish, or in the time span they give for an answer. All My children receive whatever they need. Since I know what is best for My children, they come away healed in the way I have chosen. Each child is different and each need is different. You are only an instrument, child. You are only to be obedient and to offer to pray. You are My hands and feet, little one. Tend to My little ones who are in need of much.

Ruth Ann: I am trying, Lord.

Jesus: Yes, child. This is apparent because the numbers are growing. This is the result of those things done for the greater honor and glory of God. 'You will know them by their fruits'. These are not just words little one, these are truths. Your work will continue to grow and change as you grow in Me.

Ruth Ann: What do You mean by change, Lord?

Jesus: Your cross will become heavier and heavier as time goes on. As you grow in Me, you will be strengthened to carry that cross. You will be given the graces and strength to do all that is ahead, little one. You are not to be concerned about the future. You are in God's hands. He can and will, continue to tend to your needs.

Ruth Ann: I'm not really concerned about that, Lord. I just thought You were going to tell me something more specific, so I wanted to be sure I was listening if You had something You wished to tell me.

Jesus: At the present time, you are being told those things that you need to hear. You are being told only those things that are relevant to what you must do at this time. Be attentive and be obedient. I will tend to the rest.

Now, you have much to do today. It will go smoothly for you have put Me first. I bless you. Go in My peace.

Ruth Ann: Thank You, Lord, for all You do for me and those who come here to pray.

Jesus: My Mother is pouring out graces in abundance in this special place of prayer. My children need only to ask. Make this known.

Ruth Ann: Lord, it is written. It will be shared.

Message of Sept. 28, 1994 from Our Lady to Prayer Groups

My Dear Children,

You must realize that God is watching over you, and He wishes for you to be at peace with on another. There is much unrest in your world. You continue to struggle with all those problems that can only be solved by God. You must stay focused on My Jesus. Let Him carry those burdens which have become too heavy for you to carry. I too, am here to help you in any way I can. I wish to help you gain the light and peace which comes with hope, faith, and trust in God. Follow God's will for you, and all else will fall into place. Dear children, God loves you, and I love you. Thank and praise Him for what He has done, and continues to do for you. Pray, dear children, so that others may gain the peace and hope that is so much needed in your world. I thank you for your continued efforts and support in prayer. Go in My Son's peace.

Message of August 10, 1993, from Our Lord Jesus

Ruth Ann: Lord.

Jesus: Yes, little one.

Ruth Ann: I guess I just need to hear You speak to me. I really don't want to say much.

Jesus: Little one, I am here just for that reason. Thank you for listening.

Ruth Ann: How can I not Lord, You continue to bless me. I am not worthy, Lord.

Jesus: Child, you say these things, but yet you continue to do as you are told. You listen and are obedient to the will of My Father. That is what is needed and expected of God's children.

Ruth Ann: But You know me Lord, it's not always willingly. That's what makes me sad. Why can't I be a joyful servant, Lord?

Jesus: Do you not feel joy in your heart at this time?

Ruth Ann: Yes, Lord.

Jesus: Then do not be concerned. You are a reluctant servant of God, but you are a servant. What you are doing is difficult. You have talked to Me all your life child, and now I am answering you. You feel unworthy. You wish to be perfect, and know that you are not, and feel you never will be. You feel a burden to the Lord God Who made you. Child, this is not so. You do the will of the Father. You are not perfect, and one can never be perfect on this earth. Only God is perfect. Do not be so hard on yourself. All God wants from you at the present time is that you listen and be obedient to His will. He will do the rest.

You have been given time little one, to pray and be with your family. You have had the responsibility of daily work lifted from your shoulders. You have been given a respite, child. Take advantage of this respite that has been made possible because of the love of the One Who made you.

Ruth Ann: Lord, I have mixed emotions about being relieved of this responsibility. I am a teacher, Lord, I feel that was something I was destined to do.

Jesus: It is alright to feel that way, child. I would like to speak to you of your family. Your family has had a difficult time, but they have continued to know Who is the Lord and giver of life. No matter how difficult things got for your parents, they never forgot about Me. They have given their children more than most parents give their children. They have instilled a strong foundation of faith. That is worth more than any material things they could ever have given you. Your family was poor in material things, but rich in faith. The fruits of their hard work and faith are being realized through their children.

Ruth Ann: Thank You for speaking of my parents, Lord. I miss them very much.

Jesus: Yes, little one, I know this, but you must know this. One day you will see your parents, and they will be where you would have them be. They are happy child, they are at peace. Their crosses have been put down and their burdens have been lifted from them. They are experiencing the new life that you are still striving for at this time. Know they are at peace and praying for you and your brothers and sisters and the entire family.

Ruth Ann: Thank You, Lord.

Jesus: There is so much I could say to you child, but so much that you would not understand at this time. God has need of you and your humility, child. There are those who will ridicule you, but there are many more who will take another look at their own lives and be brought to Me through the crosses you bear. Many will look at what you are doing and see the hand of God in all you do, because you could do none of these things without the help of God. The miracles that continue to happen through you and because of you are a testimony that I am with you.

The miracles on your farm too, show that God has blessed this special place set aside for Me and My Mother. Child, if this were not of Me, you could not have the crowds that are coming for prayer.

Remember My Mother has told you, the children who come here are by special invitation. If you have invited someone to come to your home, you are not going to ignore them after they get here, are you? No child, you are going to tend to their needs. You are going to thank them for coming, and be kind and loving to them. That is what My Mother is doing. She is inviting Her children here, and then being the loving Mother that She is, She is showering Her children with graces, blessings and miracles to draw them closer and closer to Her Son. What a blessing child. This could not be if you, your husband and children had not made this place available to Her children. This would not be possible if you had chosen to refuse to listen and be obedient. Child, that is why I tell you, you are special.

Ruth Ann: Please don't say that, Lord. I'm not really, just because I have listened and been obedient really doesn't make me special. Lord, many listen, and many try to do Your will. You are the One responsible for helping me be where I am. You are the One Who has sent the people into our lives. You are the One Who arranges the talks. You are the One Who has placed upon people's hearts to help with the book, the building, the stations, and soon-to-be chapel. Lord, I really could do nothing without You.

Jesus: You are right child, but one must have a willing vessel. You do these things reluctantly child, but you do them. You have heard others say to you, "I would have never gotten involved in this. I could never have given up my life, job, family, home, farm, privacy. I would have turned and walked away." Do you see what I am saying to you, child? You say you are not worthy, but you continue to make many sacrifices for your brothers and sisters. You pray for many and encourage many in your talks. These are great sacrifices, because God realizes just how difficult it is for you. You prefer privacy and no acknowledgment for what you are doing, but you accept your cross and go on. You could have walked away at any time, little one. You have a free will, but you continue to do the will of God at all cost. You continue to make sacrifices. These will not go unnoticed. These will not go unrewarded. The things you are doing for My children here on earth, in prayer and encouragement, will bring many souls to God who would otherwise not have made it to Heaven. Now do you realize the importance of what you are doing?

Ruth Ann: I guess I'd just rather not, Lord. I'd rather just listen and do as I'm told and let You take care of the rest. I don't want to think of the importance of what I am doing, if that is alright with You.

Jesus: Child, you know that is alright with Me. I love you. I do not want to overwhelm you. I am only trying to tell you of the importance of your cross. It is no ordinary cross, this you have been told before. You are beginning to realize that it is no ordinary cross, as those around you too, have begun to realize this. You are seeing the fruits of your efforts. So are those who know you, but where there are fruits, there will be many other problems as well.

The evil one is not pleased, little one. He is angry, and he will continue to strike at you and those around you. Prayer is of the utmost importance.

Consecration to My Sacred Heart and to the Immaculate Heart of My Mother are extremely important, as is the help of the angels and saints in Heaven. Prayer, little one, will see you through.

Ruth Ann: Yes, Lord.

Jesus: Be not afraid, little one. Many have gone before you and have walked the way of My cross. I will not leave you alone. I would not have chosen you, and then left you to do all this on your own. You have special help; your family, your priest, your prayer partners, and all the helping hands that have been sent into your life. These have not been placed there by accident. They all have been hand-picked by God Himself. All have been chosen for a special reason to assist and minister to you. It is a difficult task set before you, but God has done all He can to put the right people into your path at the right time.

As your priest has said, "There is no such thing as luck. It is Divine Providence." This is so, little one. God's plan is perfect. In order for it to unfold, He must make sure that all things fall into place at just the right time. God's plan cannot be hurried, and it cannot be slowed down or stopped. His will, will be done. Know this, little one, you are doing the will of the Father, just as others have done before you. I am with you. Now go in the peace of Jesus Christ, your Lord and Savior, to start another day.

Ruth Ann: Thank You Lord, for Your many blessings.

Message of July 19, 1994, from Our Lord Jesus

Ruth Ann: Lord, what do You wish to say to me today?

Jesus: Little one, you have much on your mind. Are you sure you wish to take the time to listen?

Ruth Ann: You're right, Lord, I keep thinking about all the things I need to do today, and I'm not really in a prayerful state of mind.

Jesus: You will have all day to do those things you need to do, child. Granted, you will be interrupted many times, but you will get everything done you need to do. You must put other things aside for a few moments, and listen to what I have to say to you. If you do not, you will have nothing today to share with My children.

Ruth Ann: You have made Your point, Lord. I am truly sorry. It seems I have been scolded by You and Your Mother in the past few days.

Jesus: These are gentle reminders, child. You do not realize the importance of your mission, and therefore do not feel this need to continually be open to My words. You become concerned with the world around you, and all of your needs. Do not forget the needs of your brothers and sisters. They are many.

(There was an interruption in this particular message, and Ruth Ann had to stop and she picked it back up by saying...)

Ruth Ann: Lord, things are quiet now. I'm ready to listen again.

Jesus: Thank you, child. I realize your days continue to become busier and busier, but it is important to set aside time to record what I am saying. I know there will be days you will be unable to do so, but when you have the time, you must do so. This is not for your sake, but for all those who need to listen to what I am saying.

Ruth Ann: Lord, I do wish to thank You for an extremely prayerful third Sunday. The Holy Spirit was quite strong.

Jesus: You had had a difficult week, had you not?

Ruth Ann: Yes, Lord. You know I had. I was called on to do some very difficult tasks for You, Lord, very difficult and very humbling for me.

Jesus: You also gave a powerful witness for Me on Sunday before the prayer meeting. That praise and witness was instrumental in strengthening the power of the Holy Spirit in your midst. You were rewarded for all you had done for Me, by watching the Holy Spirit at work through you.

Ruth Ann: Whatever caused it, thank You Lord, because many hearts were touched. Also, many came through telling me of physical healings received. Thank You, Lord. I needed to hear that. I'm only human, Lord. I hate to admit it, but I need an occasional 'pick-me-up'. My faith and trust in You should sustain me, I know that, but in my humanness, I need more.

Jesus: Little one, I have promised you little miracles along the way as 'pick-me-ups' for you and rewards for all you do. When you have an occasional dry spell, it doesn't mean that nothing is happening. Each prayer you pray is answered. Just because you are not God and do not know His plan, does not mean that nothing is happening. Some prayers are answered gradually, some right away, but all prayers are answered. You must continue your trust, and have faith, whether those who experience a healing tell you of this blessing from God or not.

Some will never admit they have received any kind of healing, not even to Me. So you are not to feel discouraged if you are not told of healings that are taking place. Continue to be at peace. Do the will of God, and let Him do the difficult part. He will continue to bless and heal all those who come to you in faith, seeking these healings. You are only My instrument, little one. I love you very much for your help and your obedience. I have chosen you for this mission because I know you will continue to go forth, no matter what the task or the cost.

Ruth Ann: Lord, I guess I just want to get on with it. If there is more to come, as you say, then let's get on with it.

Jesus: Patience, little one, in God's time, not yours.

Ruth Ann: Yes, Lord.
